Dr. R. C. Armstrong led in an earnest prayer. Dr. Paul B. Kern being introduced by Bishop Moore read for his Scripture lesson Luke 24:5; Acts 1:11 and Matt. 28:20, a very able address followed with such great statements as follows: "It is the hunger of the human heart to find Jesus. If we can bring God out of the speculative realm of thinking into the real of life we have experimental religion. Where shall we find Jesus? He is not found by looking into the past, even though the past be so valuable. Mature lives must have a mature God, a childish idea of God is not sufficient for adults and old age. We cannot find Christ by looking into the future although the future holds rich and indescribable glories for He is not an absentee God, but a very present help at all times. He is to be found in the present, the now. There are moral forces enough in the world to save the world, if Jesus is put into these forces. Jesus is here now, He is a present and an available Saviour sufficiently able to forgive sin, to strengthen for the tasks of life, to impart comfort and inspire hope."

We, your Hospital Board report as follows:

The record of our hospital is inspiring. It has been long from 1919 to 1928 and the hospital not yet opened. And yet it required three years of work of preparation before we could ask for a dollar and not until 1922 was the first dollar paid. We have received in cash the sum of $539,885.07. There has been collected this year $61,613.52.

The General Board reports that we now have eleven Hospitals worth over $8,000,000.00, which minister every year to more than twenty-five thousand people.

The building at Fort Worth which is the greatest Hospital building in the South, is now finished to six floors, and if the money was available for furnishings could be opened at once.

The Board of Trustees have determined upon another campaign in the city of Fort Worth to raise $125,000.00 new money for the purpose of equipping the building and for an effort to collect the balance due on the pledges made by the citizens of that city.

This enterprise has been a cooperative one between the citizens of Fort Worth and our Annual Conference. It is necessary that new money be secured from the Conference to keep the pledge with Fort Worth and that we may conserve the large investment already made.

We therefore quote the following resolution:

"The Board of Trustees of the Hospital and the Conference Board, with the Presiding Elders, in joint session recommend:

"That the Annual Conference raise, as an emergency fund, Twenty Thousand Dollars new money per year for four years, to match Fort Worth in raising a like sum that the Hospital may be opened at once.

"We recommend that this sum be apportioned to the Districts on the basis of percentages by which the Conference collections are apportioned and that this cause be presented to the congregation on the first and second Sundays of December of this year."

We call attention of all Pastors to the necessity of enrollment in the Golden Cross, and urge that Easter be made a great day for Hospital Education and for completing the enrollment.

And we further recommend the plan to ask Individuals, Churches, Sunday Schools, Sunday School Classes and Epworth Leagues to furnish rooms in the Hospital and to do this at once. $250.00 will furnish a room which will always be memorial to whosoever shall give this sum.

We recommend the assessment of $10,000.00 for the payment of the expenses of the Commissioner and Trustees.

We nominate for members of the Board of Trustees the following persons: T. B. Yarbrough, W. E. Austin, P. E. Riley, J. H. Stewart, H. N. Peters, F. P. Culver and P. L. Downs.

The books of the Hospital office have been audited by certified accountants who find the same correct.

At your last session you appointed a committee to take up with the Northwest Texas Conference the question of cooperating with this Conference in its Hospital enterprise. The Presiding Elders of the Northwest Texas Conference have visited the Hospital building, expressing much satisfaction therewith and indicating that they believed that their Conference could be interested. The Northwest Texas Conference has not yet met and we recommend the continuance of this committee.

We request the Bishop to reappoint Rev. C. Q. Smith as Hospital Commissioner.

Respectfully submitted,
T. WESLEY HOOK, Secretary.

he wants a clear mind and an experience that was worth while, in these things taught our Lord was trying to create a Christian community properly related to Him and to the world; to make valid His life and teaching; He sought to grow a great brotherhood. Christian Literature—The report of the Board of Christian Literature was read by J. M. Wynne. Under consideration of the report Dr. E. V. Cole, editor of the Texas Christian Advocate, addressed the Conference.

The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Dear Brethren: The report of Lamar and Whitmore, of our Publishing House, contains some interesting things. The total sales for the year ending February 29, 1928, amount to $1,908,588.36, showing a net profit of $130,586.45, an increase of $12,194.75 in profits, over the preceding year. Our own house at Dallas sold $498,835.87. We note that $75,000.00 have been set aside for the Conference Claimants. Your Publishing House was never in better financial condition. They report that the Christian Advocate and the Methodist Quarterly Review have about the same circulation as last year.

We desire to call attention to the Department of Tracts at the Publishing House, Nashville, where free tracts on the doctrine, history, and policy of our Church may be had. Also tracts on evangelism and Christian stewardship, may be obtained free. These tracts are well written and of such brevity that the average person will read them, who will not read voluminous books. They may not add greatly to the knowledge of preachers, but they will save to Methodism many who will otherwise drift from us. How can our people "both know and love the doctrines of our Church" when our preachers so rarely teach them from the pulpits or furnish them with the literature prepared to meet this demand? Is it a wonder that our people are blown about by "every wind of doctrine?"

Sunday School Literature

We have had no communication from the General Sunday School Board, however, the literature speaks for itself. There is no more marked progress in any activity of the Church than is found in the whole scope of our Sunday School policies—the literature for the Sunday School and that for Leadership Training.

The Texas Christian Advocate

The Editor of the Advocate, Dr. Cole, reports the best year, financially, in many years for the Advocate. There has been no material increase in its circulation, but there has been a much needed cleaning up of the subscription list. We regret that after the urgent calls of last year that there has been no great increase in subscriptions. It is little less than suicidal, denominationally, for our people to fail to include our religious press in their reading. Methodists have always been a reading people from John Wesley down, and we can ill afford to leave off this important matter in this day of frothy, poisonous literature.

The Diamond Jubilee

This next conference year is the seventy fifth birthday of the Advocate, and it is very fitting that we should celebrate this event by putting it in the homes of as many people as possible. The failure to materially increase its circulation has been attributed to lack of preparation before taking subscriptions. The claims of this periodical should be brought before our congregations at several services preceding the day set for the special effort to secure subscriptions. Our laymen who take and prize the Advocate can greatly help us by commending it to the people in short talks at these services.

To give definiteness to this work, we recommend that the first Sunday in January shall be the beginning of "The Diamond Jubilee Week", during which time we shall give this matter special attention. It is well for our preachers to remember that our success in this campaign will greatly enhance our work in carrying out the great programs of our Church. Our people must be cultivated before we have a right to expect a great harvest in the Master's cause.

We desire to commend most heartily those in charge of the editorial departments of our Church Press for their bold-out-spoken, courageous policies during the recent campaign in which the moral and spiritual ideals for which we have fought so long were challenged by the most brazen, cunning advocates that the liquor interests ever had the effrontery to bring before the American public. We rejoice that the foundations have stood and that our press was not swayed by political history or questions of expediency.

E. HIGHTOWER, Chairman.

J. M. WYNNE, Secretary.

Committee on Memoirs—Dr. Bishop nominated S. A. Ashburn as a Member of the Committee of Memoirs in place of E. F. Boone, deceased, and he was elected.

Southwestern University—Rev. King Vivion, president of Southwestern University, addressed the Conference on the work of this great historic institution.

Leave of Absence—A. C. Haynes was granted a leave of absence due to a death in his charge.

Board of Lay Activities—J. R. Edwards read the report of the Board of Lay Activities and it was adopted:

LAY ACTIVITIES

Dear Brethren:

We are gratified at the progress in lay activities throughout the Church the past year, as indicated especially in an increased payment of $400,000 on the Benevolences, an enlarging interest in Christian Stewardship, and a growing spirit of brotherhood among the men of the Church. Inspired by this progress, we feel that our own Conference should enter the new year with the determination to go forward.

The Benevolences

We recognize the primary and fundamental importance of our base line work represented in the benevolences, and recommend that as soon as possible an educational campaign on these sacred claims be conducted in every local Church to be followed by an every member canvass to secure a contribution from every person that our churches make remittances to the Conference Treasurer monthly or at least quarterly; and that we set as our goal the payment of one-half our assessments by the District Conference and the remainder in full by the Annual Conference.

Christian Stewardship

We desire to call attention to the fact that 1929 is to be a year of special emphasis upon Christian Stewardship, and that the College of Bishops and every general agency in our Church are heartily backing the plan for such emphasis. We recommend that a Stewardship Institute be held in each District and an intensive cultivation program be put on in each local Church in accordance with the Church-wide plans, especially that a strong Stewardship committee be organized and worked throughout the year in each church, and that it be backed by some good strong messages by the Pastor.

Laymen's Conference

We concur in the recommendation of the General Board that a Layman's Conference be held at Mt. Sequoyah, Fayetteville, Ark., August 10-14, 1929, and we accept our quota of 100 delegates.

The Brotherhood

Opportunity for fellowship, personal evangelism and various types of Christian activity for men is afforded in the Wesley Brotherhood. This is the one disciplinary organization of our Church for the promotion of men's work for men. We wish to call your attention to the fact that there are many Brotherhoods organized but not affiliated, and request that each Pastor use his influence to have his brotherhood secure a charter. The cost is nominal.

The Methodist Layman

The Methodist Layman, the official organ of the Boards of Lay Activities, deals with the practical issues and problems that confront our local Churches and relate to the every day lives of our people. It is also the Stewardship and Brotherhood Magazine of our Church. The price of this monthly periodical is one dollar per year, or seventy-five cents for clubs of five or more. We recommend that the Lay Leader of each Church or an agent appointed by him make an earnest effort to circulate the Methodist Layman in his Church.

Laymen's Day

We concur in the recommendation of the General Board that the third Sunday in May be designated as "Laymen's Day" and that on this day a suitable program be carried out as far as possible in every church to acquaint our people with the purpose and work of lay activities, and we respectfully request the cooperation of our Presiding Elders and Pastors to this end.

We nominate for Conference Lay Leader Mr. W. J. Baker.

Question 43 was ask and answered by W. J. Baker.

Commission on Benevolence—E. P. Williams read the report of the Commission on Benevolences. F. P. Culver spoke to the report and it was adopted as follows:

BENEVOLENCES

We your Commission on Benevolences report as follows:

During the past Conference year more than 100,000 pieces of literature on Missions and Stewardship have been distributed. The cost of this literature was met by appropriations made by the various Conference Boards. It is planned to continue this distribution of literature, such as shall be suitable for the Stewardship Campaign. If our people perish for lack of knowledge it will be their own fault. The fullest cooperation of all Pastors and charge lay leaders is desired that this literature shall be put into every Methodist home.

The following recommendations are made by your Commission:

1. That special emphasis be given to the benevolences at the first District Meeting in each Presiding Elder's District, and to this end that the Presiding Elder appoint a Pastor in advance to open the discussion.

2. That we strongly urge and strive to obtain the payment of one-half the assessments for the benevolences by the District Conference.

3. That we commend the movement inaugurated by the General Advisory Council on Benevolences to re-study the method of distributing the assessments with a view to securing the most equitable plan possible, and that we request the bishop to appoint a commission of three to make such study for the Central Texas Conference.

4. That we heartily endorse the observance of 1929 as Stewardship Year and cooperate to the fullest extent of our ability to make the Stewardship cultivation program effective in our Districts, charges, and Churches.

F. P. CULVER, Chairman.

E. P. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Sunday School—The Sunday school board read the report by its secretary, D. A. Chisholm and T. E. Bowman spoke to the report which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Déar Brethren:

We submit the following report of our year's work:

Because of the team work of our workers in the field and the cooperation of our Presiding Elders, Pastors, District officers and laymen, this year has been one of progress.

Our Financial Condition

The Board borrowed $1,500.00. Because many of our Churches failed to remit a Sunday School Day offering, we have been handicapped. Without a larger appropriation than we have been getting, we can not do some important work the Board is now ready to do.

The Conference Program

A most excellent program of Religious Education has been carried forward in our Conference this year. The Board desires to continue this program through the coming year.

Evangelism

With a strong conviction that those who are brought to, and trained for Christ, in our Sunday Schools, become the best workers in the Kingdom of Christ, and remembering that more than 72 per cent of all who come to Christ come through our Sunday Schools, we insist that, as Pastors and Sunday School workers, we should emphasize evangelism in our Sunday Schools even more than we have ever emphasized it in our summer revival. The program of our General Sunday School Board on Evangelism is worthy of close study.

Elementary Work

We report progress in this work during the year, which was due to the work of our Elementary Superintendent, Mrs. C. W. Kent. More teachers have taken credit in Elementary development has been done.

We urge the study of our lesson materials; greater cooperation between parents and teachers; that every Elementary teacher take one of the new Materials and Methods courses; that the Closely Graded Literature be used where practicable and that the Uniform Group Lessons be used in smaller schools and that the Sunday Schools supply their Elementary workers with the Elementary Teacher.

Adolescent Work

We now have 235 Wesley Classes in our Adolescent group which signifies the efficient work of our Adolescent Superintendent, Mrs. A. W. Hall.

Adult Department

Fifty-four new Adult Wesley Bible Classes have been organized. Progress has been made in this department but the time is now here when greater emphasis should be placed upon the Adult work. We urge all our workers to keep in mind that the program of Evangelism in our Sunday Schools is not only for the children, but also for the Adults.

Home and Parent-Teacher Work

The good coming from this work justifies the belief that there are possibilities for much good in this department, hence, we urge our Pastors and other workers to give careful consideration to it.

Programs of Work

Much good has come from placing Programs of Work in each Sunday School. These give Sunday Schools the goals to attain. Every Sunday School that has accepted a Program of Work and has had it scored, has made progress. Hence, we urge all Pastors and Sunday School workers to get these Programs of Work.

Literature

We have had as one of our goals during the past year "Our Own Literature Used in Every Sunday School." We learn that our Conference is practically 100 per cent on the use of our own literature. The new Closely Graded Church School Courses are now introduced, resulting in favorable comments.

Special Days

1. A large number of our Sunday Schools remitted the first fifth Sunday offering for District work.
2. The importance of Decision Day was emphasized and the day was largely observed. The special evangelistic campaign as outlined by the General Board was followed by a number of schools.
3. Sunday Schol Day was observed by 267 schools. The report of our treasurer shows that $1,586.21 was remitted.
4. About 60 per cent of our Sunday Schols are observing Missionary Day.
5. Promotion Day was observed by a large number of schools.
6. A number of schools observed Rally Day.
7. Many of our schools observed Training Day.

Some Results of the Year's Labors

We can not express all the results of the year's labors in figures, but we mention these following results:

There have been 37 standard schools, 102 junior schools and training classes, 5,903 credits issued, 16 Cokesbury schools, 25 one-teacher Cokesbury schools and local classes, 373 Cokesbury credits, one Cokesbury diploma, 280 incomplete diplomas, 91 blue seals, 41 gold seals, 2 Bible diplomas. The total number of training credits for the year is 6,273. Our fourth Sunday offerings are taking care of our Dual Extension work.

Recommendations

We wish to make the following recommendations.

I. Organization.

1. That the Conference staff be composed of the following officers: (a) Conference Superintendent, (b) Extension Secretary, (c) Elementary Superintendent and (d) Adolescent Superintendent.
2. That there be held a Conference Sunday School Council Meeting, soon after the meeting of the General Sunday School Council, for laying definite plans for the year, and that, in connection with the Conference Council, meetings of the District Superintendents and District Secretaries be held for planning a uniform program.

3. That each District have the following organization: (a) District Superintendent, (b) Extension Secretary, (c) Leadership Training Superintendent, (d) Elementary Superintendent, (e) Adolescent Superintendent and (f) Adult Superintendent. These officers to be selected by the Conference staff and the Presiding Elder.

II. Wesley Bible Classes

1. That we set a goal of 200 new Wesley Bible Classes.
2. That our Pastors, superintendents and teachers organize these classes.
3. That an effort be made to get all Wesley Classes to make annual report to the Department at Nashville.

III. Special Days

1. That National Prohibition Day be observed on the second Sunday in January.
2. That the first fifth Sunday offering in the year be sent to the District Superintendent. If preferred, a District may adopt some other plan of financing its work.
3. That Decision Day be observed in our Sunday Schools on Palm Sunday, or at any appropriate time.
4. (a) That Sunday School Day be observed on the third Sunday in April, or as near thereto as practicable. (b) That the total amount of the offering equal at least ten cents per member. (c) That the Conference Sunday School Board furnish free of charge suitable Sunday School Day programs.
5. That Promotion Day be observed on the last Sunday in September and that the week following be observed as Childhood and Youth Week, culminating in Rally Day the first Sunday in October.
6. That our Pastors be urged to observe Training Day, as contemplated by the Program of Work.
7. That Missionary Day be observed on the fourth Sunday.

IV. Membership Campaign

1. That a membership campaign be conducted in every school.
2. That we adopt as a goal a 10 per cent increase in the membership.

The Board requests Bishop Moore to appoint Rev. G. A. Schlueter as Conference Superintendent of Sunday School Work and Rev. J. B. Curry as Dual Extension Secretary of Sunday School Work and Superintendent of Missionary Education.

The Board elected Mrs. R. O. Sory, Conference Elementary Superintendent, and Mrs. A. W. Hall, Conference Adolescent Superintendent.

We express to the members of the Conference our appreciation of their interest in the Sunday School program, and we ask for continued cooperation in our work for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

T. E. BOWMAN, Chairman.

D. A. CHISHOLM, Secretary.

Benevolent Assessments—Bishop Moore appointed as the Committee on Benevolent Assessment to study the distribution of assessments, E. P. Williams, W. W. Ward, M. M. Chunn.

Epworth League—S. L. Culwell read the report of the Epworth League Board which was adopted as follows:

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

Dear Brethren:

We your Epworth League Board submit the following report:

The year just closing has been a most successful one in League work. We are glad to report at this time 220 Senior Epworth Leagues, 78 Epworth Hi Leagues and 116 Epworth Junior Societies or a total of 414 chapters within the bounds of the Central Texas Conference.

During the year 15 Standard Epworth League Institutes have been held. A total of more than 1200 credits have been awarded including those received at Mt. Sequoyah Assembly. The Central Texas Conference leads the entire Church in the number having completed the training work of the Epworth League and received the entire 26 credits.

Summer Assembly

We wish to speak especially of the Summer Assembly held at T. W. C. in July. This Assembly has become a vital and necessary part of the League program of this Conference. From every standpoint it is one of the greatest League Assemblies in the South. At this Assembly alone 617 credits were awarded this year.

Financial Report

The financial report of the League shows some improvement over preceding years. The Conference Epworth League adopted the united budget program and raised during their League year from July, 1927, to July, 1928, for Missions, $3,067, Conference work $1,800, the Assembly receipts were $2,957, Mt. Sequoyah Epworth League building $494.00, for Anniversary Day $503. A total of $11,505.00 was raised by the League for all purposes. The most disappointing part of this financial report is that of the Anniversary Day offering. We regret to report that only 98 of the Pastors of this Conference complied with the requirement of the Discipline and observed League Anniversary Day with an offering.

Executive Secretary

We again call attention to the very fine work being done in this Conference by the Rev. J. D. F. Williams, our Executive Secretary. We are proud of the fact that the efficiency of our Field Secretary is such that he is in demand throughout the Church for Assemblies and Institutes as an Epworth League Expert. We ask that the Bishop re-appoint him as assistant to the General Secretary of the Epworth League Board.

League Calendar

We wish to call special attention to the following calendar or program for the coming year. This year the emphasis in the devotional meetings is to be placed upon social service. A most inspiring and comprehensive series of devotional topics have been worked out with Luke 4th Chapter, 16 to 22 verses, as the scriptural basis. Other items of special interest to be observed by all Leagues in co-operation with the Pastors are:

The Corporate Communion service observed by all League chapters, north and south on December 2nd.

The young peoples revival held in October and corresponding with the "win-my-church-week" of the Methodist Episcopal League.

Participation in the special period of missionary cultivation in January and February.

The observance of the Harry Hughes memorial service on Sunday preceding the summer Assembly.

And finally we most earnestly urge all pastors and workers who are interested in the training and development of the young life of the Church join with us in an effort to bring about a better observance of Epworth League Anniversary Day as required by the discipline and which is so vital to the very life of our organized League work in this Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

T. EDGAR NEAL, President.

S. L. CULWELL, Secretary.

Temperance and Social Service—P. L. Shuler read the report of Temperance and Social Service which was adopted viz:

REPORT OF BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

To the Bishop and members of the Central Texas Conference in session at Ranger, November 17, 1928.

Dear Brethren: We your board of Temperance and Social Service beg leave to submit the following report:

We have received a gratifying report from the C. C. Young Memorial Home for old ladies. The home at present is caring for twenty inmates, its capacity due to a special arrangement with our hospital, by which, the land on which the home is located will be paid for.

With ample facilities for caring for sixty inmates, soon available, we are looking to a decided increase in the service rendered by this institution of our church.

The cost of maintaining the home during the past year was $6,659.00, an average of 79 cents per day per person. Of this sum our Conference paid $357.00. Although five of the inmates of the home came from our own Conference, only twenty-five charges in the Conference contributed to the support of the home last year. We urge that some suitable day in the month of June be observed as memorial to this home, and that a free will offering be taken for its support; and further urge that our pastors and people give their support to this cause.

We are glad to report that the San Antonio Mission Home and Training School is now contemplating an enlarged program to the end, that even greater service may be rendered in the future than is found in its past record. We recommend the appropriation of $2,500.00 for the coming year for this institution.

3.

The Board reaffirms its conviction that in a Christian community, the relation between the white and colored races should be characterized by justice and good will. We wish to approve any movement favorable to the betterment of the colored race.

4.

We recognize the benefits of the moving picture when properly handled. We also commend every effort on the part of the moving picture industry towards proper reforms.

However, in the hands of an unscrupulous combination of capital, the moving picture is a menace to the morals of our youth. Much of our crime wave is traceable to this source. What enters the mind through the eye or ear, makes the same impression on the moral nature.

Youths have seen on the canvass immoral and criminal acts committed, until they have concluded they can do the same things. We urge our people to guard against the promiscuous and constant patronage of the movies by children and young people.

We wish to voice our disapproval of those amusements that are unedifying. We believe that the church owes a duty to our day, not simply in condemning the worldly in its pleasures and social life, but in substitution for the objectionable pleasures and social activities that are wholesome.

6.

The friends of the outlawed liquor traffic have been calling for a referendum on our prohibition laws. In the recent National election they had this referendum. We urge both pastors and lay members to see that this mandate from the electorate is put squarely up to the officers, and a demand be made that they honestly and vigorously enforce these laws.

Prohibition is the child of the church. The politician may regard it as a political question. The social worker may regard it a social question. The Economist may regard it an economic question, but to the church it is a moral question.

We desire to most heartily commend the ministry and membership not only of our own church, but of all the Protestant Evangelical Denominations of our State and Nation, and all others, who rallied to the call of principle in the recent conflict. To them is due the victory, in them rests the security of the 18th Amendment to our constitution.

In this connection we desire to voice a vigorous protest at the unfair treatment of the moral forces of this State and Nation by a large part of our daily press, in the recent moral battle. The result of that conflict proves conclusively that the moral forces are in the ascendancy in this State and Nation, and therefore, are entitled to proper recognition.

In the campaign just concluded the Anti-Saloon League and the Women's Christian Temperance Union rendered signal service.

We recommend to the Bishop and Cabinet the appointment of Rev. Atticus Webb as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Texas.

We believe now that our best contribution to the absolute overthrow of the liquor traffic in America, is to be found in the preaching and teaching of temperance.

Respectfully submitted,

M. A. TURNER, President.

P. L. SHULER, Secretary.

San Antonio Rescue Home—M. A. Turner presented the request of the West Texas Conference to make sale and re-locate certain property of the San Antonio Rescue Home which was granted.

Presence Noted—Judge E. R. Bryan from the Weatherford District was noted as present.

Conference Treasurer—The Conference Treasurer's report was filed for record as follows:

"Your Treasurer reports amount collected for General Work, $66,230.79. For Conference Work, $496,623.33. Total $162,854.12. Which is 82.33% of the total assessments against 80.2... collected last year."

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. E. JESTER, Conf. Treas.

Orphanage—The Orphanage Board report was read by J. Fred Patterson and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF ORPHANAGE BOARD

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We submit the following report:

We have had before us the Auditor's Annual report recently submitted to the General Board of Managers, which report shows that the management maintains its usual high standard of efficiency and of commendable economy. But it also discloses the fact that the receipts for the year have been less than those of last year by nearly $6,000.00. From the $108,689.91 received this year substantial payments have been made on the debt that was incurred more than two years ago in building and repairing, and the balance has been used for current expenses.

There are now about 375 children in the Home, about the same as at this time last year, and as many as there is room for. Many are being turned away for the lack of room. One hundred and twenty were turned away in fifteen days in the month of August of this year.

The health of the children has been fine, only one death occurring during the year, which is the sixteenth during the entire history of the Orphanage.

The children are all in school, ranging from the kindergarten to the city high school, from which fifteen graduated this year. More than half of the graduates of this year are now in higher institutions of learning, some of whom are taking business courses. With but few exceptions the children from the Home make good when they go out to take their places in the different vocations of life. Not one of them, so far as is known to the management, has ever become a criminal, or in any way reflected discredit upon the Home.

The General Board of Managers, after careful consideration of the needs of the institution, request that the churches give $150,000 for their Christmas offering this year, being the same as requested last year. We recommend that this amount be set as the minimum goal of the five patronising conferences, and we pledge our best efforts to raise our part of the same.

We recommend that the third and fourth Sundays in December be observed as Orphanage Sundays and that on one or both of these Sundays in all the stations, and the two following Sundays also on circuits if needed, be used for the purpose of raising our Orphanage collections, and that all our members and the friends of our church be given an opportunity of making an offering to this worthy cause.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. W. T. Gray as field secretary of the Orphanage.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. COWAN, Chairman.

J. FRED PATTERSON, Secretary.

District Conference Records—The report on District Conference records was read by A. C. Carraway as follows and was adopted:

COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We, your committee, submit the following report:

Nine of the districts submitted their record books for examination. The Brownwood District's records were not submitted. The records examined by the committee were all typewritten, well kept, and in good condition. We wish to call attention to the fact that several of the districts have secured new District Conference Record Books during the past year, these being of the loose leaf type. The Corsicana District deserves special mention both for the type of record book secured and the manner of recording.

O. H. DONAHUE, Chairman.
A. C. CARRAWAY, Secretary.

Sabbath Observance—W. J. Hearon read the report on Sabbath Observance which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Dear Brethren:

Your committee submits the following report:

One of the most alarming situations of this confused and restless age is the growing disregard for the Sabbath with its attendant evils, and in this, there is peril to all our sacred institutions of church, home and country.

To be sure, some of this disregard has grown out of the changing economic conditions and the social and economic demands of our day, and therefore, we must approach some questions that arise sanely and justly. Always, we must approach the subject from the standpoint that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath.

Therefore, we have the Sabbath because it meets the physical, mental, social and spiritual needs of humanity. Sabbath observance is vitally related to church attendance, is vitally related to religion and worship in the home. Vitally related to the physical and religious life of the individual, affording opportunity for rest, meditation and worship.

While it is difficult to secure enactment of altogether suitable laws, also true it is difficult to get our inadequate laws enforced, because officers excuse themselves on the ground that public opinion will not endorse strict enforcement of Sabbath laws. But surely there is no debate among us, as to our duty to secure adequate law for the preservation of our American Sabbath and our duty to secure the enforcement of all laws.

May we be reminded that the mere reading and adopting a report on Sabbath Observance is futile and useless unless there is conviction on the part of the ministry and membership that there is real peril in the loose observance of the Sabbath that seems to prevail everywhere, a menace to the higher needs of humanity.

And may we ask our Presiding Elders in planning their district programs to give the question of Sabbath Observance prominent place. Also that our League and Sunday School Conferences and institutes give due emphasis to Sabbath Observance.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. HEARON, Secretary.

Conference Auditor—F. L. Turner read his report on Conference Auditing which was received and filed as follows:

REPORT OF CONFERENCE AUDITOR

Dear Brethren:

I submit the report of your Conference Auditor.

The accounts of the Central Texas Conference have been submitted to me by its treasurer, Mr. Geo. E. Jester, for auditing. I have checked same carefully, and have found them to be correct, accurate and properly balanced.

I have also checked the accounts of Judge W. A. Tarver, Treasurer, Central Texas Conference Entertainment Fund; Mr. J. C. Kuhlmann, Treasurer, Central Texas Conference Epworth League Board; and Mr. John C. Taylor, Treasurer, Mission Fund, Conference Sunday School Board, and have found them to have been faithfully and accurately kept.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. TURNER,
Auditor, Central Texas Conference.

Mount Sequoyah—The Advisory Committee's report on Mt. Sequoyah was read by E. W. Bridges, Some discussion made and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE MT. SEQUOYAH ADVISORY COMMITTEE

This committee is composed of representatives of our Conference Boards: F. E. Singleton, of the Board of Missions; E. W. Bridges, of the Sunday School Board; W. H. Cole, of the Board of Education; J. A. Siceloff, of the Epworth League Board; Geo. W. Barcus, of the Layman's Board; Atticus Webb, of the Temperance Board.

The committee met and organized by electing F. E. Singleton, Chairman and E. W. Bridges, Secretary.

After hearing the report of the Board of Trustees of Mt. Sequoyah, we found that the past season was the best in the history of the Assembly. Our Assembly has grown to such proportions that it is touching the entire Methodism of five of our great States west of the Mississippi River: Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri, and has grown from a beginning of nothing up to an institution with an estimated value of $200,000.00. Hundreds of our leaders attend the assembly each year for training and return to our church better prepared to render a larger service. Thus far, our Conference has never been called upon to render an assessment, nor has it been called upon to give any financial help. We now feel it the duty of our Conference to lend a helping hand to this, our worthy institution. We, therefore, recommend that the second Sunday in January be designated as Mt. Sequoyah Day and that at the morning service each pastor present the opportunities and needs of this assembly to his people and ask that they make a free will offering, this amount to be sent to S. M. Yancy, superintendent of Mt. Sequoyah, Fayetteville, Ark.

We also request that the following be reelected as trustees of our Western Methodist Assembly for the coming year: R. G. Boger, W. W. Ward, W. H. Coleman.

We request that the Mt. Sequoyah Advisory Committee be made a permanent committee to look after the interest of this Conference regarding our Western Methodist Assembly.

FRANK E. SINGLETON, Chairman.
E. W. BRIDGES, Secretary.

Board of Education—J. S. Cook read the Board of Education report and E. B. Hawk and O. F. Sensabaugh spoke to the report and it was adopted:

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dear Brethren:

Your Board of Education desires to submit a report as follows: Representatives of our Educational Institutions and Commissions have appeared before us, and made their reports and requests. The reports have been listened to with interest, and we find many reasons for rejoicing.

Educational Institutions

The Southern Methodist University, Texas Woman's College, Weatherford Junior College, and the Wesley Bible Chair, each furnished us with a written report, which gave us a full and clear account of their activities, their present outlook, and their plans for the future. Southern Methodist University, Southwestern University and Weatherford Junior College each furnished an audit, prepared by a certified public accountant. The great problem of your Board is to furnish these institutions with adequate funds. In this connection, we beg to state that we regret that no definite steps were taken at this session to place before the Conference the needs of these various institutions. We reaffirm the statement made last year that we believe an hour during the session should be devoted to the cause of education.

"We recommend that the Board of Missions be assessed $102.00, Board of Church Extension $52.00, Board of Education $93.00 and the Sunday School Board $48.00 for the preservation of the archives of the Conference as ordered by the Conference, conforming to the proposition submitted by the secretary."

J. W. W. SHULER, Chairman,
C. N. MORTON, Secretary.

Church Extension—J. J. Creed read the report of Church Extension and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Dear Brethren:

We are happy to say to you that the reports show a healthy interest in the improvement of church property. Not so many new buildings are being enterprised as formerly perhaps but quite a great deal is being done in the matter of debt paying. This is well and it might not be amiss to sound a note of warning against imperiling our property with embarrassing debts.

Our Loan Fund is now $23,736.03 of which amount, $17,027.34 is outstanding. In almost every instance, the interest on these loans is paid up to date due to the efficient and persistent methods of the General Board. The Loan Fund is not being increased appreciably because the brethren ask for donations rather than loans. We recommend that wherever it will at all suffice the requests be for loans.

Much greater care should be exercised in the preparation of the application blanks. In many instances it is impossible to arrive at the intelligent idea of the merits of the case because the facts asked for are not written into the application. We are persuaded that this results from carelessness more than anything else but it is fatal to the successful service of your board.

After studying your askings carefully for three days, we have made the following grants:

Donations to Churches		Loans to Parsonages
Boulevard	$ 500.00	Coolidge Circuit	350.00
Clay Avenue	500.00	Total Loans.....	$ 350.00

American Bible Society—J. D. Smoot read the report of the American Bible Society which was adopted:

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Dear Fathers and Fellow Workers:

We report for the American Bible Society another year of substantial progress in the three-fold service of the translation, publication and distribution of the Scriptures without note or comment and without profit.

Officials of the Bible Society are jubilant over the fact that in 1927 the number of volumes distributed was 10,034,797 for the world, 5,755,251 of that number was distributed in the United States. Since the organization of the Society, 112 years ago 194,063,757 volumes have been distributed. When it is remembered that this vast showing of the Word of God, is done in co-operation with the Home and Foreign Mission Boards of the Protestant Churches of America, the worth of the American Bible Society in the evangelization of the world seems immeasurable.

In Latin America, in the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands, in the Far East, as well as in the Near East, doors are more and more opening to the entrance of God's Word. Some have feared that the New China now emerging from civil strife would revolt against the Christian religion, but not so. China is calling for our Bibles faster than we can make them.

The most striking event of the year in the home land has been the supply of Mississippi flood sufferers with Scriptures. A major portion of this noteworthy service fell to the lot of the Southwestern Agency, of which your conference is a part. In the flood area of Arkansas and Louisiana we distributed to flood sufferers 2,500 Bibles, 7,141 Testaments, and 28,026 gospels. These books were outright donations, for they went to people who had not only lost their Bibles, but nearly everything they possessed. This work was highly appreciated by state and county officials, as well as by the pastors and members of the churches involved. A significant fact in connection with this event is that numerous Roman Catholics who had never before read the Bible gladly received and appreciated the Book.

We beg that pastors preach a sermon each year upon the Bible, calling attention to the work of the American Bible Society. There is a general feeling throughout the church that there is need for a genuine revival of religion. It will come through a prayerful searching of the Holy Scriptures.

Fraternally yours,

W. N. BYRD, President.

J. D. SMOOT, Secretary.

Trustees of Superannuate Homes—G. W. Shearer submitted the report of the trustees of Superannuate Homes which was adopted and reads:

The Board of Trustees of Superannuate Homes met in regular session November 15. Rev. W. B. Andrews, Superintendent of the Homes, submitted a good report. Through the untiring efforts of our very efficient agent $3,155.70 has been collected from various sources during the year. Two thousand dollars of this money was placed to the credit of the agent for salary and expenses, and the balance used in the upkeep of the homes. There is a small balance of $181.04 in the treasury.

The Home in Hico has been sold during the year and the proceeds are being used to repair the buildings held by your Board for the use of the worn-out preachers and their dependents.

We recommend that Dr. W. B. Andrews be appointed to serve in the capacity of agent for another year.

Respectfully submitted,

L. A. WEBB, President.

GEO. W. SHEARER, Secretary.

Spiritual State of th Church—Mrs. W. L. Tibbs read the report of the Spiritual State of the Church as follows:

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

Dear Brethren:

We submit the following report:

The state of the church cannot be accurately described under one characterization. Nor does the description of one class apply to all the membership of the church. There are many things which are grounds for thanksgiving. Buildings and material equipment surpass all other years.

Progress in Sunday School Training is gratifying. The Epworth League has made progress. The Woman's Missionary Society has had a great Jubilee year. Financial support of the church and its work has been encouraging. The increase in membership is a cause for great thanksgiving.

On the other hand there are things which should give the church deep concern. Many love worldly pleasures more than they love the church. They seek pleasure until they have little devotion for the church. The percentage of church attendance is far too small. While many study God's Word earnestly, there seems too many more read the Bible very little. We believe the study of God's Word ought to be on the increase; through the Bible Study Classes of the Woman's Missionary Society, Epworth Leagues, Sunday School Training Classes and the Ministry of the Pulpit. Many of our people make little effort to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

These things and others are symptoms of a condition. The basic wrong is the failure to put God first in the heart and life. Much of the ineffectiveness of preaching is due to the fact: we underestimate the power of sin, we underestimate the power of the Cross.

This Thanksgiving season should be a call to Thanksgiving and Prayer and a return to a ministry of unending and unceasing passion for souls. We call upon all the agencies of the church to aim toward the consummation of their programs in the light of the possibility of a glorious era of Spiritual Prosperity.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. S. COOK, Chairman.

MRS. W. L. TIBBS, Secretary.

Board of Missions—R. A. Langston read report No. 2 of the Board of Missions which was adopted as follows:

BOARD OF MISSIONS REPORT NO. 2

We, your Board of Missions, submit this as our Report No. 2: Your Board comes to this Conference with a mingled sense of gratitude and disappointments. Of gratitude for the fine co-operation that has been shown by the Presiding Elders, Pastors and laymen in the work done.

Your Board had the pleasure of having before it Dr. J. W. Perry of the General Board, who brings us a word concerning the general missionary situation of the Church. Dr. Perry informs us that while the General Board is hopeful and it is believed that the continuation of our constructive program of Missionary Education is to bear untold offerings to the Church, the Missionary Special will perhaps fall $100,000.00 short of last year.

In our own Conference the year started off with a tide of missionary enthusiasm. The District Missionary Institutes, which marked the opening of the January-February cultivation period, were well attended. Orders for books and literature to be used in the campaign far exceeded that of last year. We have no way of knowing how faithfully this literature was used. Neither do we know how faithfully the Churches put on the every-member canvass, but this we do know, that the results financially from our Conference are disappointing to us and fall some $6,777.00 below the figures of last year. Fifty-eight charges out of two hundred and twenty-eight in the Conference reported nothing. Most charges reported less than a year ago. Only a comparative few reported more.

May we remind our brethren that the Missionary Cultural Campaign for January-February is not the action of your Conference Board of Missions, but is the legislation of General Conference of our Church. It is the law of the church and we should give it the utmost of our prayer and attention, equally with any other great interest that the General Conference imposes upon us. Your Board asks for nothing more than every man track the program laid down and leave the responsibility finally to rest upon the hearts of our people. Your Church asks for nothing less.

The treasurer of your Board, Judge Erskine Williams, reports a total of $16,791.99 to the Mission Special. The offering from the Districts is as follows:

Brownwood District	$ 964.80
Cisco District	828.35
Cleburne District	975.12
Corsicana District	1,555.70
Fort Worth District.....	6,529.97
Gatesville District	693.78
Georgetown District	1,659.78
Waxahachie District	960.82
Weatherford District	1,188.50
Waco District	1,628.30

The success of the Missionary Special is fundamentally necessary to our missionary projects, both at home and abroad. It urges upon our Presiding Elders, Pastors and laymen two things:

1. Vigorous attention to the District Missionary Institutes.
2. That the Cultural Campaign be faithfully put on and the every-member canvass faithfully made in every Charge and Church.

Women's Work

We note with gratitude the continual expansion of the work of our Godly women. Their report shows:

- 229 Adult organizations with a membership of 6,210.
- 24 Young peoples' organizations with a membership of 848.
- 75 Epworth Junior organizations with a membership of 2,037.
- 26 Baby divisions with a membership of 328.

Financially, they report $33,796.76 remitted to the Conference Treasurer.

Miss Georgia McElreath has been sent out this year as a missionary nurse to China. Miss Attie Jowell went from this Conference as a contract worker in Mexico. Misses Frances Gabv and Elizabeth Forest are student Missionaries in training at Scarritt College. Miss Grace Swinburne, a student missionary in training in the Women's Medical College at Philadelphia. This touches only in high places the great work that our good women are doing.

Evangelists

Believing that evangelism has a vital place in the Church of Christ, and that certain men are definitely called and spirit-anointed for this special soul-saving work, we recommend the following brethren, whose gifts and graces commend them to us as being qualified for this high calling:

- General Evangelists: Alonzo Monk, Jr., and John M. Neal.
- Conference Evangelists: F. A. Ray, A. C. Bell and J. T. Sanders.
- District Evangelist: W. J. Cloud, Brownwood District.
- Local Preacher Evangelist: J. W. Taylor of Fort Worth.

District Missionary Institutes.

After Conference with the Presiding Elders, your Board would suggest the following schedule of dates for the District Missionary Institutes:

Brownwood District	January 14
Cisco District	January 16
Cleburne District	January 17
Corsicana District	January 9
Fort Worth District	January 7
Gatesville District	January 18
Georgetown District	January 11
Waco District	January 10
Waxahachie District	January 8
Weatherford District	January 15

Conference Missionary Secretary

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. Roy A. Langston as Conference Missionary Secretary.

Full Collections Urged

Not for many years has your Board asked or received one additional dollar on the Missionary assessment of our Conference. This is not because it has not sadly needed additional funds with which to come to the rescue of our hard-pressed brethren, but because it refused to add one straw's weight to the burden under which our Conference was already groaning.

Yet it is apparent that we cannot appropriate money that we do not have. And that its revenue is dependent entirely upon what the 228 churches in our Conference do on the Conference collection, and on the Missionary Special. We believe that you are entitled to know that we have $1,500.00 less money in our hands to apportion this year than we had last. There are many men who need help whom we cannot help and others whom we cannot give what they really need.

There is only one solution, only one thing that we recommend, namely, that every Church in this Conference, led by a wide-awake Pastor, bestir itself to raise the Conference collections in full and a liberal offering to the Missionary Special. By so doing we help ourselves and our needy brethren. By so doing we shall put a few extra thousand dollars at the disposal of the Board to more adequately care for needy Missionary territory in our midst. May we remember as we go away from this great Conference that what your Board gives out is fixed and determined by what it gets in. May we remember that the Kingdom of God waits upon money as well as upon men. That dollars help to tell the story of Christ's love in the homeland and in the nations. At the feet of Him who gave us the world as our great task may we find strength and courage for the larger things that we hope to do in the new Conference year.

Supplement Report

In addition to the report already made we desire to recommend Rev. W. B. Morton for Conference Evangelist.

Commission on Budget—W. W. Ward read the report of the Commission on Budget as follows:

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

To the Bishop and Members of the Central Texas Conference in Session at Ranger, November 17, 1928:

Dear Brethren:

The following assessments have been approved by the Budget Commission for the ensuing year:

		Scale.
Church Extension	$ 5,000	.0418945
Education	36,100	.3024727
Entertainment—Conference	2,500	.0209477
Epworth League	3,250	.0272318
Finance, Conference Board.....	32,000	.2681199
Hospital Board	10,000	.0837881
Lay Activities	750	.0062840
Missions—Conference	22,000	.1843338
San Antonio M. & T. School.....	2,250	.0188447
Sunday School Board.....	4,000	.0335148
Superannuate Conference Homes.....	1,500	.0125680
	$119,350	1.0000000

The assessments for the ensuing year have been increased $2,000. This increase is caused by the askings of the Conference Board of Finance, $1,800 of which is to be used to place a man in the field next year to give his entire time to the Superannuate Endowment Fund.

A new item of $1,500 is added to care for insurance and upkeep of Superannuate Homes of our Conference, making unnecessary the need of a special agent for this year. To provide for this fund without an increase in assessments for its provision the Commission has taken $500 from the Board of Education, $250 from Lay Activities and $750 from the San Antonio M. & T. School. It is understood that the above arrangements involving the changes and the increase is for one year only.

W. B. Andrews resigned from the Commission on Budget and Gid J. Bryan was chosen chairman.

The Commission makes this request, that hereafter all representatives of Conference Boards come before the Commission with their askings on Thursday nights immediately after the evening service. This will enable the Commission to make its report without scales to the Conference on Friday mornings, thereby aiding the Secretary in scaling assessments.

FIFTH DAY—SUNDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

The memorial session of the Central Texas Conference met promptly at 2:30 o'clock with Dr. Horace Bishop in the chair. The hymn "The Rock That Is Higher Than I," was sung and Dr. A. D. Porter read the lesson from I Thes. 4.

Dr. Bishop read the report of the Committee on Memoirs and referred it to the secretary for publication.

Dear Brethren:

Your Committee on Memoirs have met under the strain of unusual losses, and some of them under peculiarly trying conditions. We call especial attention to the departure of the one man who for a long time has been Chairman of this Committee, and who has carefully kept account of all those whom death has divided from us, and has seen fit to it that suitable memoirs were prepared and that no courtesy or appropriate record be neglected. We always found him well informed concerning the lives and labors of the faithful men and women who had passed away during the Conference year. Therefore, we mentioned him first among those who have died in The Faith since our last Conference, Rev. F. F. Boone.

During the session of 1927, W. K. Simpson passed away, too late for a memoir to be prepared. Early in the Conference year, the wires sent out the cold hard telegram that our Princely man and useful Preacher T. S. Armstrong had met a tragic death, its cause a mystery unto this day. A little later Sam C. Vaughan, long a member of our Conference, and still a member of our Conference Brotherhood, met a tragic death. In quick succession came the tidings that our Superannuates J. B. Berry and S. J. Vaughan had followed Boone and Simpson into their Heavenly Home. Then came a shock when we learned that our great leader John M. Barcus had been called home and that another strong personality J. Hall Bowman was no more among us. Not the least deserving among them was B. F. Alsup whose zeal and faithfulness were known to us all.

In view of these losses, and also of the passing of several faithful wives of preachers, we respectfully ask that Sunday, November 18th, at 3 o'clock p. m., be designated as the hour for a special session of the Conference for a Memorial Service in honor of our departed Heroes.

Respectfully submitted,

HORACE BISHOP, Chairman.

Dr. Bishop resigned the chair to Rev. M. K. Little who called for the reading of the memoirs which was done in the following order: W. K. Simpson by R. B. Young, T. S. Armstrong by Dr. A. D. Porter, J. B. Berry by Gid J. Bryan, Dr. Jno. M. Barcus, by Edmund Heinsohn, E. F. Boone, by Dr. E. B. Hawk, B. F. Alsup by M. K. Little, oral, S. J. Vaughn by P. T. Stanford, J. Hall Bowman by M. K. Little, Mrs. W. L. Nelms by Dr. H. Bishop, Mrs. J. J. Creed by D. A. McGuire, Mrs. C. S. Wright by Dr. C. R. Wright, Mrs. C. S. Fields by Dr. H. Bishop, Mrs. W. A. Neill by R. A. Langston, Mrs. W. C. Hilburn by Dr. O. F. Sensabaugh, Mrs. J. M. McCarter by S. A. Ashburn, Mrs. C. W. Macune by E. P. Williams.

Mrs. Daniel Morgan's memoir was assured preparation and to be submitted to the Journal.

Motion was made and the report was adopted and the benediction was pronounced by S. A. Ashburn.

FIFTH DAY— FINAL SESSION

The Conference came to its final session on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock with appropriate devotional services conducted with a sermon by Dr. T. D. Ellis of the Board of Church Extension.

Ordination—Bishop Moore took the chair and called Dr. P. E. Riley and Dr. W. H. Coleman to assist in the reading of the Scriptures for the ordination of elders and Dr. H. Bishop and Dr. R. C. Armstrong to assist in the laying on of hands. The secretary presented the following: Melvin A. Walker, Homer R. Rall, Andrew K. Marney, Adrian C. Jones, Robert H. Davenport, Wallace N. Dunson, Joseph I. Patterson, Jackson C. Oglesby, Roy L. Crawford, Cleo A. Norcross and for recognition by assuming the obligations without the imposition of hands, Chester E. Wilkerson and A. T. Plunkett. After the Disciplinary questions were propounded and satisfactory answers given they were ordained elders.

Resolution—A resolution of thanks from the superannuates to Ranger was read By. Dr. H. Bishop:

Dear Brethren:

We, the Superannuate Preachers of this Conference desire to express our appreciation of the kind treatment of the Committee on Entertainment, who have provided for us such comfortable homes, and that within a radius of two blocks of the Church where we have secured breakfast and rooms free of all expense to us.

We also wish to express our grateful appreciation of the conduct of "The faithful women, not a few," from the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Disciples of Christ Churches who have served us free of all cost two meals a day during the time of our stay in Ranger.

We will carry with us when we leave affectionate remembrances of these kindly courtesies and assure the Pastors, the Committee on Entertainment and the women from the four Churches mentioned, of gratitude and prayers for their prosperity, individually, and as representatives of the several churches.

Location—C. O. Shugart moved the location of C. H. Puckett at his own request which was done.

Superannuation—Dr. P. E. Riley moved the name of Ben S. Crow to the Committee on Conference Relation for superannuation. C. O. Shugart moved the name of W. W. Noble to the proper committee for superannuation.

Recognition—Rev. J. N. Rentfro moved that the name of Rev. Ora Minor, instructor in S. M. U. be enrolled in our Conference membership at the request of Dr. Minor, who was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the motion prevailed.

Committee on Conference Relation—A meeting was called by the Committee on Conference Relations.

Address—Bishop Moore addressed the Conference.

Shearer, his splendid people, the reporters and their respective newspapers, the citizenship of Ranger as a whole, and of all who have in any way contributed to our comfort and pleasure and to the successful conduct of the sessions of the Conference.

J. W. BERGIN
E. P. WILLIAMS
T. EDGAR NEAL

Memoirs

REV. THOMAS S. ARMSTRONG

Shocking and terrible was the news borne over the telephone and telegraph wires and carried by daily papers, of the sudden and untimely death of Rev. T. S. Armstrong. The awful message came to some of us at midnight's holy hour, smiting us to the heart and causing us to stagger backward into the darkness to spend the remainder of that dreadful night on tear-wet pillows and in anguish of soul.

Rev. Thomas S. Armstrong was born at Woods, just eight miles from Carthage, the county seat of Panola County, Texas, on October 27, 1861. His boyhood days were spent in a good, old-fashioned, thoroughgoing home where there were comforts, but no foolish extravagances, a home wherein all the children were taught to work and were allowed to play. It was thus his privilege to grow up with brothers and sisters that loved one another and enjoyed a fine and unpretentious happiness. His father, Mr. J. B. Armstrong, was a hightoned Christian citizen, of the sort that is properly called "the salt of the earth." His mother now one hundred and two years of age, still survives, truly "a mother in Israel."

He received his education in the common schools and in the Alexander Institute at Killgore, Texas. Dr. Isaac Alexander, the founder and president, said of him that he was one of the most original thinkers that ever went through that historic institution of learning. The friendship which sprang up between this young man and that noted educator ripened with the years. They often visited in each other's home, enjoying a warm, close and very rare fellowship until the day President Alexander went home to his eternal reward. Brother Armstrong never ceased to be a student, profiting by the Theological Institutes and Pastors' Schools and by the reading of valuable books.

Nature did a great deal for him. He was truly a handsome man. Being above medium height, with an elastic step, possessing a massive head that was well poised on broad shoulders, a high forehead, and his face was one of unusual frankness and strength. He was of striking appearance, that type that would cause one on seeing him for the first time to impulsively inquire "Who is that gentleman?"

In the year 1892 he was happily married to Miss Sudie Armstrong, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the Rev. E. L. Armstrong of sacred memory, who in his day was one of the outstanding preachers on Texas Methodism. The bride and groom were of the same name but no blood relationship.

She was ever ambitious for him and was always devoted to his best interests and to the lofty calling of her gifted husband. For thirty-five years "Tom and Sudie" walked side by side, hand clasped in hand and life wrapped in life. No man ever was blessed with a more devoted wife and no wife ever honored by a more courtly lover. Lovers once and lovers always.

To this happy couple were born two lovely children, Wynifred (now Mrs. Gilpin McCullough of Dallas, Texas) and James, now also married and living in Dallas.

These four, the father, mother, daughter and son, composed a blessed family, a home of unselfish love and abiding devotion. It imparted an inspiration and a thrill of joy to behold the affection of that home. It was a place where kindness and hospitality awaited the com- in gfriends.

He was in that home just what a husband and father should be, kind, gentle, gracious, knightly and unselfish. He lived for his family, and was richly rewarded by the reciprocal love and confidence his dear ones bestowed upon him. No children ever had a more worthy father, no wife a more noble companion.

Brother Armstrong used to say that he could not remember when he first began to love God, that he must have been born with the love of Jesus Christ in his heart. But at the age of twelve years he entered into a definite and decisive Christian experience which never faded or grew dim.

He became an exhorter on March 28th, 1881, and after a clear and unmistakable call, on October 29th of the same year he was granted license to preach, at the age of nineteen years. He joined the old East Texas Conference in the fall of 1881, at Marshall, Texas, and received a nominal appointment that he might attend school. On December 13th, 1885, at Beaumont, Texas, he was ordained deacon by Bishop H. N. McTyeire, and on December 2nd, 1888, he was ordained elder by Bishop W. W. Duncan at Crockett, Texas. Some time between 1881 and 1885 he was stricken with a severe attack of typhoid fever which kept him in bed for many weeks, until the charge to which he had been assigned had to be supplied by another, so when he was physically able he taught school the rest of the year. He served the San Augustine station and Nacogdoches station. In the year 1889 he was transferred to the West Texas Conference and stationed at Yoakum. That year he led in the building of two Church houses, one at Yoakum and one at Hallettsville. In November of 1890 Bishop Key transferred him to the old Northwest Texas Conference, and when the division took place in 1910 he remained with the Central Texas Conference.

In 1890 he was stationed at Alvarado, in 1891 at Oak Cliff, the Conference line then reaching to the Trinity River; in 1892 he was appointed to Albany, in 1893 Mulky Memorial, Fort Worth, in 1894 at Arlington, in 1895-96 at Ennis, from 1897 to 1899 at Italy, in 1900 Itasca, 1901 at Colorado City, 1902-03 at Mexia, 1904 to 1906 Morrow Street, Waco; 1907 Weatherford First Church. In 1908 he was appointed by Bishop Key to the Presiding Eldership of the Waxahachie District, where he served the quadrennium. In 1912 he was sent to the Georgetown District for four years of service. In 1916-18 again at Ennis. In 1919 at Mart, in 1920-23 he spent four delightful years at Coleman, First Church. In 1924 he was appointed to Groesbeck, and was reappointed each year until he was returned for the fourth time in 1927. He and his wife were highly appreciated and greatly loved by the people of this, his last pastoral charge.

Brother Armstrong possessed truly great attributes as a preacher of the Gospel. His princely bearing, his deep, rich mellow voice, his clear thinking, his grace and dignity, his unquestioned sincerity, his strong and unpretentious faith, these and other characteristics gave him a great influence with his hearers. At times he was fearful in his denunciation of sin, but at the same time he was able to impress the sinners that he loved them and desired their salvation.

As a pastor he was tenderhearted and faithful. He was never "unemployed, never triflingly employed." When his people were in sorrow or suffering his genial presence gave encouragement, his faith stimulated hope and his devotion imparted cheer. Children would run to be gathered into his strong and tender arms; young people loved him, men trusted him as a man among men; he respected womanhood, just as true, Southern, Christian gentlemen should; he adored childhood, he revered old age, he worshipped Almighty God.

He kept his hand on every department of Church activity and guided the affairs of his pastorate wisely and well. He was considered a good Sunday School Pastor, Epworth League Pastor, and Pastor of the Woman's Missionary Society. He had a vital interest in the ongoing of the Kingdom as represented by the great denomination to which he adhered.

He served as a Presiding Elder for eight consecutive years. And in this high office he was ever desirous to do the very best for the Churches and the Pastors. He went to bed with a heavy heart if either people or preacher should be disappointed. As a Presiding Elder he was not a "driver" but a "leader." It was his desire and effort to carry out the program of his Church, not to "mend the rules but to keep them."

Religion was to him not a mere theory, but a life to be lived. Not only did he enjoy his religion but he employed it. He delighted to tell it to others because he attempted to live it in his heart. His preaching was instructive, edifying and conquering. Many times his delivery was truly eloquent as his gifted tongue gave expression to the lofty thoughts of his fertile brain and the emotions of his triumphant soul.

As a human being he loved to live. There was a fine vein of humor running through his nature. He would laugh like a happy school boy. How he did enjoy a good joke. But it must be a clean one, no other kind ever passed his wholesome lips. He possessed a rich fund of choice stories, and could easily become the center of a group when it came to entertaining. He loved his friends and delighted in their company and was dearly loved and appreciated by them in return.

He was for a number of years the First Vice-President of the Texas State Epworth League, and had much to do with the success of the institution known as "Epworth-By-The-Sea." He was sympathetic with the young people and was enthusiastic in their behalf, being to them a wise councilor and an ever faithful friend.

In 1914 he was a delegate from the Central Texas Conference to the General Conference which met in Oklahoma City.

He served on the Joint Board of Publication for several years, always having the best interests of the Texas Christian Advocate at heart.

He was a ready writer. There was in his nature the stirring of the poet whenever he cared to employ such a gift.

He was chosen about two years ago by a group of business men of Groesbeck to attend a great gathering in one of the large Northern cities where he delivered an address on Church Advertising which attracted wide attention and was printed in some of the great dailies and was also printed in pamphlet form, and was spoken of in very high terms.

His light was unexpectedly snuffed out on the night of December 4th, 1927. On Tuesday, December 6th, brief services were held in Groesbeck, after which he was taken to Corsicana where his funeral was conducted in the First Methodist Church, in the presence of a great congregation of sorrowing friends, a score of preachers were present. Rev. A. W. Hall, the Presiding Elder, had charge; Dr. F. P. Culver read the Scripture; Dr. John M. Barcus led in prayer and the principal address was delivered by the writer of this Memoir. His mortality was laid to rest in Corsicana's beautiful "God's Acre."

His last day on earth was Sunday, and it was indeed a day of triumph. He preached to a large and appreciative audience and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, following the sermon. Again in the evening he stood in his pulpit to the delight and edifying of his people.

But in less than two hours after his evening ministrations his vigorous body ceased to live and his noble soul sent home to heaven and to God.

His death came with almost an unbearable suddenness to his devoted wife and dutiful children and was a fearful shock to his host of friends.

Never against his honored name was there ever the faintest semblance of stain. For forty-seven years he was a Methodist preacher, proclaiming the unsearchable riches of the Kingdom of life and light, a herald of the Everlasting Gospel of God's dear Son. He was mighty in prayer. And what would we not give to hear him again leading the congregation in devotion!

But now his golden voice is hushed and his manly heart has ceased to beat. It will be all his wife can do to live without him, and his children and dear little grand children will ever call his name blessed, his brother Emmett and sister Carrie will remember him every day, and his mother, his aged mother—well, she will see him soon. And we his brethren in the ministry, shall miss his genial face and shall long in vain for his loved fellowship. Our Annual Conference will never be the same again now that brother Armstrong is gone.

Dear Friend, Hail! and Good-bye! Time passes swiftly on. We confidently expect to meet you again o'er in the land where the Spirits of men are made perfect. Beloved Friend, Hail! And Farewell!

A. D. PORTER.

REV. W. K. SIMPSON

Rev. W. K. Simpson was born in Middleton, Tennessee, August 8, 1857, and passed into the great beyond November 18, 1927, at Carrizo Springs, Texas, where he had gone with his wife, for the purpose of recuperating his health. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in his early life. We have no record of his license to preach, or of his coming to Texas. He was admitted into the old Northwest Texas Conference November 24, 1886, and for eighteen years he served with acceptability, various charges in the Conference, DeLeon being his first and Robert Lee his last charge. At the end of his pastorate at Robert Lee, he took the Supernumerary relation, and made his home in that town. After a number of years he was placed on the "honor roll," which relation he sustained until his death.

Brother Simpson was a good preacher, and loved to preach the evangelical doctrine of Methodism. As a result of his ministry many sons and daughters were born into the Kingdom of God, and many saints rejoiced and shouted victory over the crumbling walls of sin and idolatry. As a Pastor he was jealous of the purity of the Church, and sought by persuasion and discipline, to get his people to observe the ordinances and rules of the Church. He sympathized with the weak and unfortunate of his flock, giving comfort to hundreds of troubled souls, enabling them again to rejoice in the glorious light of the Son of God.

As a Superannuate, he was held in the highest esteem by the people of Robert Lee, among whom he spent his life after his active ministry ceased. He married the young people, and gave them advice and encouragement, which probably prevented many a wreck on the high sea of matrimonial life. He buried the dead, and his good prayers and words of comfort brought solace to many a bereaved and broken heart. His devotion to the Church was strong, which made him a great factor in the growth and maintenance of the Church. His relation to the Pastor was loyal and brotherly. His wise counsel concerning the intricate problems of the Pastor prevented many a failure on the part of the preacher. He believed in the program of the Church, and rejoiced in all her successes and sorrowed over her failures.

Brother Simpson was a sick man all of his retired life, yet in spite of this handicap his ability to make money was only a little less than marvelous. He was a man of fine business acumen, which was demonstrated by the fact that he began business in Robert Lee with a small capital and increased his business year by year until he was counted among the leading mercantile men of the West. Besides his mercantile establishment, he had acquired several sections of Coke County lands, upon which are grazing herds of white faced cattle. In his business dealings he was kind and courteous, and during those strenuous years of drouth which were so common in the west, he showed his magnanimous spirit by carrying over many a man who could not meet his obligations on account of crop failures.

Brother Simpson was twice married, and to the first union there were born three children, two boys and one girl. After the death of his first wife he was married to Miss Cora Ballinger, at Millsap, Texas. To this union there were born three children, one boy and two girls. All these children are honored citizens of the community in which they live; and they, with his companion, remain to mourn their great loss. Brother Simpson's love for his family was beautiful. There was no sacrifice he would not make for their comfort and happiness. It was delightful to note his devotion to his wife and children in the privacy of the home as well as in public.

After the pure spirit of our friend and loved one had winged its flight into realms of glory, we laid his tired body to rest in the Robert Lee Cemetery, November 22, 1927, to await the resurrection morning. May the loved ones "Weep not as those who have no hope." The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. D. Porter, Presiding Elder of the Brownwood District, assisted by R. B. Young of Coleman and J. A. Corder, Pastor of the Baptist Church at Robert Lee, Texas. Though he is gone from us, yet he lives on, here, to bless the lives which he touched.

R. B. YOUNG.

REV. J. B. BERRY

J. B. Berry, son of Alec and Nancy Berry, was born on a farm near Dawson, Texas, December 30, 1867. His mother died when he was ten days old and his grandmother had the responsibility of his early training. This she did in a splendid way. She brought him up in the fear and in the love of the Lord. He spoke often of the family altar in her home and of the devotion of his grandmother and his indebtedness to her.

Under such careful training and with the inspiration of her Godly life, he was brought early in life to accept Christ as his Saviour and to join the M. E. Church, South. He was reared on the farm, and attended the public school, graduating from the Dawson High School. Choosing for himself a business career, he attended a business college in Nashville, Tenn. This business education was very valuable to him throughout his life.

J. B. Berry was happily married to Miss Alice Wilkes in Dawson, on October 5, 1893. To this union were born three sons and two daughters, all of these with Sister Berry still survive him. Charles, Joe Lera, Edna (now Mrs. W. O. Jones), and Sister Berry all live in Fort Worth. The other son, Leslie, resides at Bryan, Texas. Brother Berry early in life entered the railroad service and continued in it for some years, serving at one time as station agent at Athens, Texas. He quit this service to enter the mercantile business at Hubbard, he heard the call to preach. Though financial success in the business world was very bright, he was not disobedient to the heavenly call, but gave himself to the work of a minister of Jesus Christ. He was licensed to preach in 1898.

Feeling the need of additional education, he entered Southwestern University and graduated with honors from that institution in 1901. His business education and experience, together with his college training, gave him splendid preparation for the itinerant ministry. He joined the old Northwest Texas Conference in 1901. When the Conference divided in 1910, he became a member of the new Central Texas Conference. Brother Berry was at once recognized as a well equipped preacher and his first appointment was Eleventh Avenue, Corsicana, where he served for three years. In 1918, Bishop Ainsworth appointed Brother Berry Presiding Elder of the Gatesville District. He rendered fine service on the district for four years. His health failed while on this district and he was compelled to retire for rest and the restoration of his health. At the next session of the Conference he reported that he was ready for work. He was appointed to the important and difficult task of Commissioner of Education. He rendered the Church invaluable service in this appointment for three years. Working beyond his strength, his health failed again and he was compelled to retire at the session of the Conference. He made a hard, persistent fight for the recovery of his health, but in spite of the best medical skill and his indomitable will, he fought a losing battle. In January, 1928, his heart began to fail, and on April 3, 1928, surrounded by his devoted wife and children, he went from his home in Fort Worth to his heavenly home.

Funeral services were conducted on April 5 in the Central Methodist Church, Fort Worth, by Dr. C. H. Booth, and Dr. W. H. Matthews, assisted by Rev. Caspar S. Wright, Rev. E. P. Williams. His body was laid to rest in the Dawson Cemetery, in the community where he was born and reared, where he was married, and where rest also his loved ones who have gone before. The funeral and burial services were attended by those who had known him and loved him since his childhood days. The pastor at Dawson, Rev. T. G. Story, conducted the funeral services at Dawson. Jesus teaches us that we can judge men only as we judge a tree, by the fruit they bear, the work they do, the lives they live. Judged by these standards, Brother Berry ranks high as a good and useful man. He was a good preacher, he knew Christ and His power to save, and loved to tell others about Him. He was a student of God's Word, he studied his congregation also and carefully prepared his sermons to meet their needs. He delivered his messages with earnestness and power. He was a thoughtful and painstaking pastor; he was interested in all the people that were committed to his care.

His ministry and work were constructive. He built a Church at Corsicana, paid a church debt at Granger, paid a parsonage debt at Moody, built the splendid church at Bartlett, also built the present parsonage at Arlington, and made good, full reports at Conference.

Brother Berry was a man of large vision. He could see and appreciate the whole program of the Church, and no man among us was more diligent in carrying out the entire program than was he. He was a good executive, as shown by his splendid work as Pastor, Presiding Elder and Commissioner of Education. Appointed Educational Commissioner at a critical period in the educational movement, he proved himself a good campaigner, an efficient collector, and as everywhere a hard worker and a good business man.

Knowing Brother Berry as I did, I am sure that the Master welcomed him to his eternal home with: "Well done, good and faithful servant." How wonderfully appropriate is the inscription on the memorial erected by his devoted wife and loving children, at his grave in Dawson:

"His toils are past,
His work is done,
He fought the fight,
The victory won."

REV. B. F. ALSUP

Rev. Benjamin Franklin Alsup was born in Polk County, Missouri, July 3, 1861, and died on July 6, 1928, at his home in Fort Worth, Texas. He was twice married and was the father of five children, all of whom survive him. He was converted at the age of eleven and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was licensed to preach in 1889 when he was twenty-eight years of age, and joined the Southeast Missouri Conference in 1892. He was ordained deacon in 1895 and ordained elder by Bishop Fitzgerald in 1897. Removing from Missouri to Texas, he was located for a few years, but was re-admitted into the traveling connection in 1906, joining the old Northwest Texas Conference. At the time of the conference division, he remained in the Central Texas. Beginning with his re-admission he served the following charges: Millsap, two years; Weatherford circuit, two years; Venus, one year; Comanche, two years; Kennedale, four years; Valera, two years; Thornton, two years; Couts Memorial (Weatherford), two years; Valley Mills, one year; Glen Rose, two years, and Maypearl, one-half year. At the last named place he broke down and it was known that his work was practically over. He removed with his wife to one of the superannuate homes in Fort Worth, where he dwelt until he was called to his Heavenly home.

Sister Alsup was Miss Virginia Bond, daughter of a Methodist preacher of Missouri, their children are: Mrs. W. B. Hines of Springfield, Mo., Miss Alice Alsup, who is a missionary in Soochow, China; Mrs. D. C. Stark, Mrs. L. M. Hall and John F. Alsup, all of Fort Worth, Texas.

Brother Alsup suffered long and patiently, never complaining. He placed himself in the hands of God to await His will and pleasure. He was a preacher of the old type, some of his favorite themes were repentance, faith, justification, regeneration and the witness of the Spirit. He believed that the gospel of Jesus Christ was the power of God unto Salvation to every one that believed. He was a man of pronounced opinions and had the courage of his convictions. He knew what he believed and was ready to defend these principles at any time or place.

Brother Alsup was a great pastor. He interpreted strictly and literally his ordination vows to "Visit from house to house." No man was ever more diligent in his effort to reach the people, to assure them of his interest and sympathy and to impress them with his readiness to serve them at all times and under all conditions, at times supplying their needs out of his own resources. He was cautious, discreet, careful and very reserved in his remarks about brethren of the ministry and the people whom he served.

It was the privilege of this writer to be his presiding elder for four years and in his home frequently. His home life with his family was ideal. Every appointment was accepted as under God and every parish the best, big or little, easy or hard all service ranked the same with him and every charge loomed large, with responsibility he trembled to bear. A rare man measured by every dimension; stalwart of frame, muscles of iron and nerves of steel, eye like an eagle, a lofty dome with kingly poise, adamant of will, courageous of soul and unafraid, yet beneath that stern exterior dwelt a knightly soul and beat a heart as tender as a woman's. Honesty, sincerity and integrity blazed their white light through every atom of his being. He was powerful in prayer, and knew how to talk to God in public and in private.

He was my friend, I loved him. I shall miss him. We walked and talked and preached together. I shall see him again. He has left a legacy to his family more precious than rubies and more enduring than gold.

Peace be to his sleeping dust.

REV. JNO. M. BARCUS, D. D.

Dr. Jno. M. Barcus who departed this life in a Fort Worth hospital at 7:50 a. m. on Tuesday, June 12, at the age of 67, was an outstanding figure in Texas Methodism. He came of a great Methodist stock. Perhaps no one family has made so great a contribution to Texas Methodism as that which issued from the union of Edward Rosemond and Mary Francis Barcus. From this splendid family has gone forth a great company of distinguished ministers and foreign missionaries and college presidents and a host of loyal, capable leaders among the laity. Dr. Jno. Barcus gave nearly a half century to the work of the ministry. As an eighteen year old boy in the year 1880 he was licensed to preach at the old Bruceville Camp Meeting in McLennan County. The Presiding Elder was Rev. Thos. Stanford, whose family has also contributed largely to Methodism in Texas. The Stanford and Barcus families have always been closely interlinked both by ties of friendship and by marriage. Brother Barcus preached his first sermon at the afternoon service on the same day that he was licensed.

He joined the Northwest Texas Conference at Cleburne in 1882. By a strange coincidence he ended his ministry there while serving the second year of his second pastorate at Main Street Church.

His appointments were as follows: 1882-3 Junior Preacher Mt. Calm Ct.; 1883-5 Temple and Taylor (Half Station); 1885-7 Graham; 1887-9 Alvarado; 1889-91 Mulkey Memorial (He was the first Pastor); 1891-4 Vernon Station; 1894-5 Vernon District; 1895-9 First Church, Temple; 1899-02 Main Street, Cleburne; 1902-6 Corsicana District; 1906-10 Georgetown Station; 1910-11 First Church, Weatherford (4 months); 1911 Jacksonville Station (8 months); 1911-12 President of Alexander oClegiate Institute, now Lon Morris College; 1912-14 Waxahachie; 1914-18 Hillsboro District; 1918-20 Central Church, Fort Worth; 1920-21 Secretary of the Christian Education movement in the Central Texas Conference; 1921-4 Georgetown District; 1924-6 Corsicana District; 1926-28 Main Street, Cleburne.

During his ministry Dr. Barcus built the first Methodist Churches built at Temple and Taylor, remodeled a Church at Vernon and built the present Churches at Mulkey Memorial and Main St., Cleburne. For many years he has been one of the most influential and trusted leaders in his Conference. Twenty-one times he was elected secretary of the Conference, serving from 1890 through 1910. For many years he has represented his Conference on the Joint Board of Publication of the Texas Christian Advocate. At the time of his death he was secretary of the Conference Brotherhood. He represented his Conference in six general Conferences, serving first in 1898. He was a member of the General Epworth League Board 1898-1910. He was a member of the Committee on Appeals 1910-1922.

Dr. Barcus was, in the full meaning of the phrase, "a good minister of Jesus Christ." He was a faithful Pastor, a wise administrator and a strong preacher. He was a good man. He believed and lived the Gospel that he preached. No matter how his brethren might differ with him in matters of policy no man ever questioned the sincerity and integrity of Jno. M. Barcus. For fifty years as a good soldier of Christ he bore an untarnished shield. There has never been a blot on his escutcheon. When we think of Jno. Barcus he reminds us of the sturdy oak. He calls to mind Tennyson's tribute to the Duke of Wellington.

"O iron nerve to true occasion true,
O fallen at length, that tower of strength,
That stood four square to every wind that blew."

And yet those who knew him best knew also the gentleness and tenderness intermingled with his sturdy strength and that he was a modest man almost to the point of timidity.

Dr. Barcus was true and great in all the holier, closer relations of life, as a son, as a brother, as a husband and as a father. His home life was beautiful and one of his finest contributions to the world is the splendid family he leaves to carry on his work. He was married in 1885 at Belton to Miss Mary McCrary. Seven splendid children survive.

him, three sons, Shelton, James and John, and four adughters, Allie, Margaret, Frances and Helen. One daughter, Louise, died in infancy.

We can never think of the life of Dr. Barcus without thinking of his relation to Southwestern University. He was one of the Southwestern's greatest sons. The old school never had a more loyal supporter nor a more doughty champion than he has been through all the years. He was the first M. A. graduate of Southwestern, receiving this degree in 1882. In 1905 the University conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Every one of his seven children have been educated at Southwestern. For 32 years he has been a trustee of this institution and in all that time he never missed a meeting of the Board save the one held during his last illness. At the time of his death he was Dean of the Pastors' School of Southwestern.

Dr. Barcus was a great singer of Christian hymns. His brethren will always think of him as "the sweet singer" of the Central Texas Conference. We shall always remember him as he used to sing in our memorial services.

"Weep not for a brother deceased,
Our loss is his infinite gain."

Can we ever forget the shining radiance of his face as he used to lead the Conference in singing the great old hymns our Methodist fathers used to sing.

Just a few Sundays before his death, on last Mother's Day, he held a very unique service in his church at Cleburne. In place of a sermon he had arranged a number of talks and he himself was to make the closing talk. When his time came he said "I am not going to talk. I am going to give you my message in a song." And then he sang as only Jno. Barcus could sing it.

"I saw a way worn traveler,
In tattered garments clad,
And struggling up the mountain
It seemed that he was sad;
His back was laden heavy,
His strength was almost gone,
Yet he shouted as he journeyed,
Deliverance will come."
"Then palms of victory, crowns of glory,
Palms of victory I shall wear."

We can never think of our dear brother as a wayworn traveler clad in the tattered garments of an enfeebled old age. He was taken away in the midst of an effective ministry and in the fullness of his great powers. "His eye was not dim, neither was his natural strength abated."

He was buried from the First Methodist Church of Fort Worth. The service was conducted by the Pastor, Dr. E. B. Hawk, assisted by the following ministers: J. W. Fort, C. S. Wright, E. P. Williams, Horace Bishop and the writer. Bishop Jno. M. Moore was present and, as a chief Pastor of the Church, expressed his high esteem of Dr. Barcus as a man and a minister. The great auditorium was filled. Multitudes of former parishioners were present and a great company of ministers, not only from his own Conference but from all parts of Texas. His stewards bore his body tenderly and lovingly to its resting place in Greenwood Cemetery. Some day very soon we shall see him again. And when we see him he will not be a weary, wayworn traveler but he will be bearing palms of victory and wearing an imperishable crown of glory.

CULLOM H. BOOTH.

ELIJAH FLOYD BOONE

Elijah Floyd Boone, the subject of this sketch, was born in Bedford County, Tennessee, September 5, 1845. He was the third member in the order of birth of a household of eleven children born to Howard and Elizabeth Floyd Boone. His parents moved to Arkansas in 1850. Here the boyhood years were spent in the wholesome atmosphere of the farm home. When a youth of barely sixteen years of age he responded to the call of his country by enlisting in the army of the Confederacy where for four years he shared the hardships and the experiences incident to the struggle between the states. It was while he was wearing the uniform of a soldier that he entered into an experience of grace which went far toward determining the course of his after years. To use his own language, he was "powerfully converted" August 8, 1864. This event was as significant and definite with him as was the Damascus awakening to Saul of Tarsus. It was never to him the fullness of the divine revelation, but a most gracious and assuring beginning of it, and to it he often referred with godly pride and becoming humility.

After receiving his discharge from the army in Marshall, Texas, Cherokee County. He spent a short time in teaching school. On March 26, 1865, he united with the Methodist Church at Lowe's Chapel on May 15, 1866, he took as the companion of his life Miss Mattie Jane Wherry who for forty-two years was a constant inspiration to him, sharing as she did in a most sympathetic and understanding way the work of the ministry. To them were born four sons and six daughters, all of whom survive.

Brother Boone was licensed to preach at Alto, Texas, in 1867, and was admitted the following year into the East Texas Conference under Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Marvin, November 6, 1870, and elder two years later by Bishop Keener. In 1887 he was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference where he was one of the effective ministers until the division of the conference in 1909 when he automatically came into the Central Texas.

The list of appointments which he always graciously received from the church were as follows: Rusk Circuit 1 year; Larissa Circuit 1 year; Athens Circuit 3 years; Larissa 1 year; Palistine station 4 years; Marshall station 2 years; Rusk circuit 4 years; Jacksonville circuit 3 years; Hillsboro station 1 year; Bruceville circuit 3 years; Weatherford station 1 year; Gatesville district 4 years; Missouri Avenue station; Fort Worth, 1 year; Ennis station 1 year; Dublin station 4 years; Weatherford district 4 years; Bartlett station 3 years; Whitney 1 year; Mount Calm 1 year. At the session of the conference held at Polytechnic in 1911 he asked for the superannuate relation and no man of our Methodism ever graced this rank of worthy heroes of the cross with a better spirit than Rev. E. F. Boone.

It is easy to chronicle the events of a human life, but it is exceedingly difficult to worthily evaluate the work and ministry of a true man of God. Especially is it true in the itinerant system of Methodism that one gives larger opportunity for evidencing the spirit of consecration and sows and another reaps. But perhaps there is no church whose policy gives more abandon to the work of the kingdom than does ours. To Brother Boone, Methodism was an agent of the Lord in directing his work. He loved her doctrine, he gloried in her history and traditions, he magnified in his personal living her lofty standards of practical holiness, he was the heart of loyalty to her methods of procedure and rejoiced in her as the highest and best expression of Apostolic Christianity.

He was a man of the Word. He knew the great fundamental teachings of the Bible and made them the themes for his pulpit ministrations. Prayer was more than petition with him; it was communion, fellowship, and often the exultant realization of the divine presence. Few men of the church have committed to memory more of the great hymns or delighted in singing them more than did Brother Boone. He discovered in Christ the secret of triumphant living which he most wonderfully exemplified both in the days of his strength, and in the hours of suffering. He never lost the radiance of life. He could have penned it with all sincerity, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go unto the house of the Lord," for his absence from even a mid-week service of First Church, Fort Worth, was ever the occasion of an inquiry. He was an unusual inspiration to every Pastor who served him in the days of his superannuation, not only by his appreciative presence in the pew, but by his alertness of mind and his confidence in the transcendent worth and ultimate victory of the things of the Kingdom.

He loved and was loved. The ministry of his children in the linger weeks of his life was surpassingly beautiful. His sick room was a flower garden through the expressions of those to whom he had ministered many, many years before, as well as of those who had known him in his declining days. But few saints of the Lord are privileged to die so well. Heaven was no great surprise to him for his conversation had long since been there.

In his going, July 16, 1928, he left a rich ministry to the world and the Church in deeds, in word and in life, and

As Parsifal of old a knight became,
And gave his powers to a holy quest —
All baser part consumed as by a flame —
So he was fain, at Love's divine behest,
To yield both heart and spirit to the claim
By life made visible and manifest.

EUGENE B. HAWK.

REV. S. J. VAUGHAN

Rev. S. J. Vaughan was born in Pickens County, Alabama, July 25, 1859, and "fell on sleep" at Cisco, Texas, July 31, 1928. His father, "Uncle" Billy Vaughn, was an itinerant Methodist preacher for fifty years and was one of the pioneers of Texas, and thus S. J. had upon his young life the beneficent influences of the Church. It is not surprising that he was converted at the tender age of 9. His own father received him into the Church. At the age of 18 he matriculated as a student at Granbury College, intending at the completion of his college course, to study medicine. But the Lord had other work for him to do. That first year in college, while conducting a prayer meeting for young men, the Lord wonderfully blessed him and that little company of college boys. Following this came immediately a renewal of his call to preach. He tells it in his diary: "The impression to preach grew on me, but I warded it off, saying nothing to anyone about it. Finally I decided to settle the matter, and so, fasted all day and spent the time in a grove at prayer. It was there I decided to give my life to the ministry, and shortly afterward confided the matter to my Presiding Elder, Rev. J. P. Mussett." In 1879 he was licensed to preach and his license was signed by J. P. Mussett, Presiding Elder. In 1880 he was admitted on trial into the old Northwest Texas Conference. He superannuated in 1920. These dates indicate that he was an active itinerant 40 years. However, he stated to the writer last fall that there was an intermission of about three years during which he was in the local ranks. Shortly after his superannuation there was built for him and his wife a superannuate home at Cisco, and in this they lived until God called him to his heavenly home.

On December 22, 1880, Brother Vaughan was married to Miss Laura Alice Spruill. This was the happy consummation of a mutual love dating back to their college days. So splendidly did she direct the affairs of their parsonage home that she greatly enhanced the life and labors of her itinerant husband. Ten children came to bless their home, and nine of these, with the wife, mourn his going.

He served the following charges as Pastor or Presiding Elder: Granbury, Whitt, Jacksboro, Breckenridge, Moody, Granbury, Hutto and Round Rock, Cisco, Colcrado, Mineral Wells, Merkel, Gatesville District, Dublin District and Cisco District. The last year of his active work he was special representative for Southwestern University. At the close of this year he asked for the superannuate relation and it was granted to him. He had been a superannuate almost eight years.

S. J. Vaughan was a good man. Love for God and loyalty to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ characterized his life. He was willing to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, and did, throughout his entire ministry. Brother Vaughan knew and loved the doctrines of the Methodist Church. It gave him great pleasure to preach the distinctive doctrines of Methodism, and yet, so brotherly was he, that those who did not accept those doctrines, were not offended. His greatest joy was in calling sinners to repentance. He believed in the power of the Holy Ghost and depended upon that power to convict and convert the sinner. The result was that he held some great revivals and thousands were converted through his ministry. Many in that day will rejoice because he lived and wrought in the Kingdom of Christ.

For some months previous to his death he was secretary of the public schools of Cisco, and was daily at his desk in his office, doing most efficiently the work committed to his hands. On July 27th he had worked at his desk as usual, and in the evening returned to his little home and was sitting reading when he was taken violently ill. A physician was summoned, and other physicians came into consultation. But his work was done. He lingered till the following Tuesday, in full possession of his mental faculties, then, suddenly, he went to be forever with the Lord.

W. B. ANDREWS,

REV. J. HALL BOWMAN

J. Hall Bowman, beloved as a Pastor, and faithful as a member of the Central Texas Conference, following a short illness, laid down his armor, and entered into rest, from his parsonage home in Rising Star, Texas, in the early morning of August 4, 1928.

If one's usefulness in life is given bent and direction by one's ancestry, then the subject of this sketch was in a noble succession. Of his great-grandfather, the Rev. Matthew Bowman, it is said: "He was a very pious, active, and useful preacher"; and of his grandfather, the Rev. James Bowman, for whom a memorial window was placed in the Washington City Church, the record is that "he preached acceptably and usefully for many years." Each of these men, in his own time and way, helped to lay the foundations of Methodism in Mississippi, Tennessee, and Louisiana. Thornton Hardy Bowman, his father, was no less useful as a layman than were his father and grandfather, in the ranks of the local ministry. During T. H. Bowman's long and active career he was an official in the Church, serving as Steward, Sunday School Superintendent, and in other capacities. His mother, Mary Hall Bowman, was a woman of grace and culture, receiving her education in the State Female College, at Greenwood, a few miles out of Memphis, Tennessee.

J. Hall Bowman was born to Thornton Hardy and Mary Hall Bowman, in Ouchita Parish, Louisiana, August 19, 1871. The following year the Bowmans came to Texas, and made their home in Belton. Two years later they removed to Austin, where for the next eighteen years T. H. Bowman was in public office, serving as Pro-Rate Secretary and as Secretary of State. He was prominent in Church and State circles, and was much sought after on public occasions, because of his marked ability as a speaker.

Hall Bowman was converted in childhood, and at the age of nine he united with our First Church in Austin. He was educated in private schools in that city, and at Southwestern University. Following his college course he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1895, at Big Spring, Texas, by Judge Wm. Kennedy, of the Third Judicial District. For the next ten years Hall Bowman practiced his profession in Belton, Temple, and Mineral Wells, Texas, and during that period he served as City Attorney of Belton, and for four years was a member of the State Executive Committee.

On July 7, 1899, at Lorena, Texas, he was happily united in marriage to Miss Lily Hodges, the daughter of a brilliant Presbyterian minister. To this union was born one daughter, Miss Rosemary, who with her mother, survives him, and with her mourns the loss of a devoted father and husband. Brother Bowman had a deep and an abiding love for his family that was exhibited in many tokens of tender and solicitous regard. His own staid mother left the deep impress of her love upon him; and he held ever as a precious memory the recollection of his step-mother who came into his life when he was but eight years of age.

Notwithstanding the bright prospects which were before him in the legal profession, the call of God to special service did not go unheeded. In the spring of 1906 he was licensed to preach by the Weatherford District Conference, and that fall he was admitted on trial in the old Northwest Texas Conference in its session at Brownwood. By nature and by grace Brother Bowman was well fitted for pastoral work, and in this loved task he was successful to a marked degree. He served the following appointments: Farmer's Circuit, two years; Breckenridge, two years; Olney, one year; Graham, four years; Moody, one year; Hamilton, two years; Meridian, two years, one as Pastor, and the second year as Pastor and College President. The first year he was in Meridian he taught Bible in the College, and was appointed Y. M. C. A. Secretary by the Government. In June of 1919 he was elected President of Meridian College, and he continued in this important position until November, 1923, when, at his own request, he was given a pastoral charge. He served Santa Anna three years; Herring Avenue, Waco, one year; and he was in the first year of a very successful pastorate at Rising Star when his release came.

Hall Bowman was a good preacher. Preaching in the final analysis must be judged by the results produced. Under his ministry people were converted, the Church edified, and the Kingdom advanced. He loved his task with a passion that grew with the years. To his more intimate friends he bared the secret longings of his soul that his might be a more efficient and fruitful ministry. This lofty desire, however, was known to all by reason of his faithful and loyal life. The song that he loved most of all, best of all expressed his ruling passion.

"I love to tell the story, Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory, Of Jesus and His love.
I love to tell the story, Because I know 'tis true;
It satisfies my longings, As nothing else can do."

He was a faithful Pastor. He loved the membership of his Churches, and was loved by them in return. He made strong and lasting friendships; he was himself a true and loyal friend. There was nothing showy or uncertain about his methods of work, and nothing transient in his plans. He moved quietly along the avenues of life, but his influence abides on earth, and his record is secure on high. Modesty became him like a beautiful garment. He was retiring, unselfish, and without ambition, save as this might more easily enable him to serve his Lord.

With robust health and more vigorous strength—one may not say that he would have done a better work—but it is altogether likely that he would have been called to a more extensive service and to heavier tasks.

It is difficult to estimate the most important phase of a man's life and ministry. Perhaps it is fair to say that the most outstanding and far reaching service that Hall Bowman rendered was in the field of Christian Education. In the class room, and in the office of President of the Meridian College, he found opportunity to come in contact with youth in a helpful way. In the years to come, in the lives of his students and co-laborers, it will be found true that "being dead, he yet speaketh."

The tall, spare form of J. Hall Bowman will be missed on our Annual Conference floors and in our various meetings and assemblies. He never shirked a duty or avoided a task, and did well whatever he was appointed to do. Others came to depend on him, and his judgment was sound on matters pertaining to the interests of the Church. This quiet, modest, unassuming, Southern gentleman, who for more than a score of years has gone in and out amongst us, will be more sadly missed the more that his associates and co-laborers realize that he is now no longer with us as in the days of yore.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lily Bowman, and his daughter, Miss Rosemary Bowman, who reside at Rising Star, and by his sisters, Mrs. Joe Borden, of Desdemona; Mrs. Tom Harper, of Austin, and Mrs. Wm. R. Davis, of Florence; and by his brothers, T. H. and J. T. Bowman, of Austin.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at Rising Star, August 5, by his former Presiding Elder, Rev. P. E. Riley, assisted by Mr. H. B. Furr, of Breckenridge. Following the service at the Church, his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Rising Star.

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past;

The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."

P. E. RILEY.

MRS. W. L. NELMS

Among the prominent preachers and leaders of the Northwest Texas Conference from 1867 to 1890 was W. R. D. Stockton. He filled successfully Circuits, Stations and Districts of great importance. His faithful wife was with him and constantly made the Preachers Home a delightful place.

They had two charming daughters, Lena and Mamie. Mamie married Rev. H. B. Henry. She has long since been with the Angels. Lena married one of our conspicuous leaders, Rev. W. L. Nelms, now a Superannuate.

They were married December 17th, 1879, in Cleburne, Texas, where he was stationed at that time. He was a promising, popular and eminently successful Preacher and Pastor. She entered the Parsonage Home as one to the manner born, and with grace and dignity assumed the responsibility of home-maker and Parsonage manager. She became the mother of children whom she raised and trained to become honorable citizens as well as useful members of the Church. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen S. McKinney. Her whole life was spent in a Parsonage.

She was a model minister's wife, devoted, intelligent, and efficient mother. Not given to any form of extravagance, her word was taken as literal and exact truth and her sincerity thorough. Her home was an open house, whether in a District or Station Parsonage to her friends and to the representatives of the Church. She knew how to welcome her guests and put them at ease. She was a devout Christian. Her children had the training that succeeds in making them useful citizens and respected members of her Church.

Her husband could trust her safely and to the utmost limit. She loved the hymns of the Church. She appreciated the poetry of "Lead Kindly Light" and "Crossing the Bar," but she worshipped best when singing "How firm a foundation" and "Jesus Lover of my soul". Neither critics nor scientists ever modified her faith or diminished her appreciation of the old family Bible that lay on the stand, an ornament to the Pastor's home of her childhood. She continued to adorn the Gospel in such Parsonages as they occupied.

Loved by the women of the Church and highly esteemed by others who had no such affiliation, trusted to the last limit by her husband and revered by her large family, a model woman who after long and painful illness she has joined with her Father and Mother and Sister Mamie among the Immortals.

Her long afflicted husband, seeking health in vain, appeals to our sympathies and calls for our prayers.

MRS. NOLA ANN CREED

Mrs. Nola Ann Creed, wife of Rev. J. J. Creed, Pastor of Sylvania Methodist Church of Fort Worth fell on sleep at the All Saints Hospital at Fort Worth at 5:30 a. m. July 14, 1928, to awake in that city that hath foundations whose builder and maker is God. Mrs. Creed was born in Montague, Texas, on July 1, 1876. She was left without a mother when she was only twelve years of age, but under the guiding hand of a devoted father and step-mother together with brothers and sisters her early training was ideal for the development of that beautiful Christian character that she manifested in all of her contacts with her friends.

Mrs. Creed was educated in the public schools of Montague and Polytechnic College. It was in Polytechnic where I first met this fine Christian young woman. We knew her there as Miss Nola. I had the honor of introducing her to the young preacher, Rev. J. J. Creed, whom she later married. She took an active part in all of the college activities, and was a leader in all religious work, both in the college and local Church. The entire student body had the profoundest respect for her and the influence of this dear woman still abides with those who knew her in her college days.

She and the Rev. J. J. Creed, at that time a popular young Pastor of the Boulevard Methodist Church of Fort Worth, were married in Duncan, Oklahoma, on July 10, 1901. No nobler hearts and lives were ever united in the holy bonds of matrimony than John Creed and Nola Ann Brown. Their wedded life was one long day of happiness and mutual love and trust. To this union eight children were born: Mrs. R. C. Knight (Mary), Ruth, John, James, Steven, David and Helen Grave Creed. They all are living. A finer family of boys and girls you seldom find. She is survived by her husband and the eight children, also two brothers, Dr. B. S. Brown of George West, Texas, Professor Buford Brown of Stanford University, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Jackson of Duncan, Oklahoma, and Mrs. H. F. Grimes of Columbia, Missouri.

Mrs. Creed was converted when a mere child and joined the Methodist Church where she lived and labored until her untimely death. God was real to her. He was her divine Father. To Him she gave her love and service. Her life was given to her friends, children, husband and Church and as a reward for her sacrificial service she has entered in the Father's House to await the coming of her friends and loved ones. My own life has been enriched by having known this dear Christian woman. May our Good Father keep those that are left behind.

MRS. CASPAR S. WRIGHT

Those of us who had long known Mrs. Caspar S. Wright share deeply in the sorrow which came to her husband and other loved ones when she died in the early morning of July 28, 1928.

She was the kind of woman who answers perfectly to a description in the younger Lord Tennyson's Life of his father: "A good woman is a wondrous creature, cleaving to the right and to the good under all change; lovely in youthful comeliness, lovely in all her life lovely in comeliness of heart." And there are literally thousands in the various congregations which she with her husband had served who felt that there had passed away a gentle, well-poised, gracious influence from their lives when she went from earth to heaven.

She was born and reared in Spalding County, Georgia, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Scott; named Alice Elizabeth. She was married to Caspar S. Wright on November 9, 1892; and, one may say, they entered the ministry together when only about two weeks later, on November 27, he joined the North Georgia Conference—he that of the authorized service of the Church, she the ministry of encouragement and inspiration to him and of friendly helpfulness to all those over whom he had pastoral care. So, these two shared from the beginning all the experiences of the Methodist itinerancy.

For eleven years they remained in Georgia; and then for twenty-five they served in the Western cities of Fort Smith, Ark., St. Louis, Mo., and El Paso, Galveston, Houston, Austin, San Antonio and Fort Worth, Texas. In all these places Mrs. Wright was an important factor in the congregational life of the charges of which her husband was either Pastor or Presiding Elder. She had a lively interest in people. She knew them as individuals, and had a canny way of keeping informed about them personally. A leading member of his official board in Austin said to Dr. Wright, "When I want to know about any of our church members I just call up Sister Wright." It was the sort of friendly concern—not gossipy or curious—which somebody ought to have in everybody in a Christian congregation. Of course she was loved in every one of their Churches. It was a striking testimonial of affectionate honor of her that, after her death, a young Matrons Missionary Society was organized in Central Church, and named the Alice E. Wright Missionary Society.

Mrs. Wright had been a sufferer for years, during which her physical endurance was tried to the utmost. The final two weeks were terribly severe, and it was impossible for her to rally. When the end came there was relief even to the breaking hearts of her dear ones. They could sing in the midst of their sorrow:

Lo, the prisoner is released, Lightened of her earthly load;
Where the weary are at rest, She is gathered into God.

Notwithstanding her illness the last year of her life was probably in some respects the happiest. Her son, Walker—her only child—always the idol of her heart, had completed his medical course and a year's internship in an Atlanta hospital, and had come with his young bride—who ideally fulfilled Mrs. Wright's longing for a daughter—to Fort Worth to begin the practice of his profession. The two young people added their own joy to the parsonage home, and took under their youthful protection the sweet mother in her failing health. So there was at eventide a soft shining of the light auspicious of the light of love in heaven. And now the memory of her in the hearts of husband and children invites them with new solicitation to the home above.

The funeral of Sister Wright was held from Central Church, Fort Worth, of which her husband is Pastor. Dr. C. H. Booth, Presiding Elder, was in charge of the services, and Dr. James Kilgore, of Southern Methodist University, preached the sermon—selecting very aptly for his text, certain passages from the 31st chapter of Proverbs, descriptive of the ideal woman.

The members of the congregation of Central Church were deeply moved by their pastor's bereavement, as well as by their own sense of loss. They were affectionately attentive to him and his family during the time of Mrs. Wright's sickness and after her death.

We, his brethren in the ministry, enter lovingly with all these bereaved ones into the sorrow which their loss has brought, and into the joy of the hope of eternal life which is kindled anew in the heart of our dear brother since God has called his dear life's partner to the other side.

MRS. CHARLES STANTON FIELD

Josephine Grace (Goode) Field was born in Alabama May 17, 1860. When she was a little child her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Goode, moved to Texas and settled in Bell County. She was one of a family of five daughters and two sons. They were members of the Baptist Communion.

In 1873 they were living on a farm on Hackberry Creek and near a Methodist Church, which they attended regularly.

On October 28, 1885, she was married to Rev. C. S. Field, an intelligent and promising young preacher on the Belton Circuit. She soon became a useful, happy and energetic help-mate to her husband in his work. For twenty-five years her home was in parsonages on circuits and stations.

After that Brother Field was appointed Sunday School Secretary and she was placed in charge of Elementary and Junior Sunday School work for the Northwest Texas Conference. She went with her husband to many cities and towns in Texas and made friends wherever she went.

In all her work she was an evangelist of love to God and man.

But her health began to fail and three years ago she had to rest. She was never able again to serve. Her mission was to endure. A little more than a year ago she was paralyzed and became practically helpless. Her husband took her to Atlanta, where she had a daughter and where she could be in Emory Hospital. She discovered that her case was hopeless and insisted on returning to her home in Dallas, where her older daughter lived. On the way home she died near Birmingham, Ala. They turned and came home by way of Memphis, Tenn., and thence to Highland Park, Dallas. She was buried from the home there.

During her last illness she talked of nothing but love, God's love, Christian love, family love, until at last at 3:20 o'clock October 2, 1928, she passed into the Home where all is love.

On a bright Sunday morning in an old Southern city of Atlanta, Ga., Sister Field was passing. Alone with her Brother Field knelt by her bedside and holding her hand read to her the Twenty-third Psalm. When he came to the verse "Yea, tho I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil," too faint to speak she pressed his hand, opened her eyes and with a radiant smile gave her emphatic assent. Death had no fears nor terrors for her and she said during her last illness, "I know I shall pass to a better life and join that happy, blessed and immortal company, and have fellowship with loved ones gone before and you who will soon follow me."

She leaves a husband and two devoted children, Clara Sharp, who lives in Highland Park, Dallas, and Josie Sanders, who lives in Atlanta. One of her sisters has preceeded her, the other three and her two brothers and sisters rally to his needs and hover about him, while sympathizing friends are breathing prayers that he may meet her again.

MRS. W. C. HILBURN

Martha Francis Overall was born in Dyer, Gibson County, Tennessee, May 8, 1886. Her parents, Edmond and Martha Overall, were devout Christians and loyal Methodists, as were her grandparents. All through her life she recalled with pleasure the visits of Methodist preachers to her home. Their consecrated lives and holy conversation made a profound and lasting impression on her receptive mind. It is therefore not surprising that in early life she gave her heart to God and joined the Church of her parents. No doubt that these early impressions laid the foundation for her willingness to accept so cheerfully the toil and sacrifice incident to a Methodist parsonage of those early days. When only two years old her mother died, leaving her in the home of her grandparents. A few years later she went to live with an aunt with whom she remained until on November 8, 1888, she was united in marriage with Rev. W. C. Hilburn. One week after this union they moved to Texas. During the first year of their residence in Texas her husband taught school and farmed. In the fall of 1889 Brother Hilburn was received into the traveling connection by the Northwest Texas Conference and for thirty-seven years these choice lives were given without stinting Kingdom service. Together they moved forward in the work assigned them with great faith and an assured confidence because they believed wherever sent it was of the Lord.

Their parsonage homes were blessed of God by giving to them eight children, Clara, Herbut Spencer, Anna Lillian, Marvin Benson, Ruth Francis, Thelma Lina, Mildred Tye and Charles Wesley. All the children are alive and in their own lives bear testimony to noble characters and Christian culture given them by their parents.

Truly this good woman filled the Scriptural ideal of a true wife and mother. Her price was above rubies and the heart of her husband safely trusted in her. She did him good and not evil all the days of her life. Strength and honor were her clothing and through the lives of her children and the devoted love of friends she still lives and rejoices. Her tongue was the law of kindness and she looked well to her household so that her children rise up and call her blessed.

It was the privilege of the writer to be entertained in this consecrated home quite often during the years of 1896-7-8-9 and 1900 and occasionally during later years. The door was always wide open to friends and visitors. The old-fashioned Methodist hospitality overflowed to every one who came that way. Jesus was not a silent guest in that home. Through the lives of these noble and true "friends" of His, Christ was ever speaking, hence the beauty and joy of the home fellowship.

Several times the appointments given these worthy itinerants were hard to be understood. Salary small so that the most rigid economy was necessary to make ends meet, but in all this "they sinned not" by word or act of complaint. With an unfaltering confidence in the Divine leadings they pressed forward toward the mark of their high calling, fidelity and loyalty to the great cause they had espoused. The pastor is in "the eye of the people" and they speak words of encouragement and the warm grip of the hand speeds him on his way. Not always the case with the precious woman of the parsonage home. Oftentimes the worries and burdens of the home require more wisdom and patience endurance than duties of the pulpit and pew. Oftentimes the wife and mother toils and weeps alone with only the eye of the All-Father to see and understand.

The noble true wife and mother is content that the "children have food" and that "her husband is known in the gates when he sitteth among the elders of the land." I have sometimes thought as much or more credit for the success of our great church is due to the "home immortals" than to any one else. Sister Hilburn was a tower of strength to her great husband. She was profoundly interested in every detail of his work. It was an abiding subject of her prayer and its success was the "daily bread of her joy." She was a kind and helpful neighbor. No distress or sickness of the community failed to touch her sympathetic heart and call forth a helping hand.

After a brief illness on February 8 an angel drew aside the curtain and she quietly passed to join her husband in the palace of the King.

In the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends the funeral services were held in the Polytechnic Methodist Church by her pastor, Rev. J. W. Fort, assisted by the writer.

She is not dead, for there is no death. What seems so is but the portal to fields of glory.

O. F. SENSABAUGH.

MRS. DORA McCARTER

On the evening of March 28, 1928, there passed from this earth one who was exceedingly dear to us.

From her home in the city of Waco, Texas, Mrs. Dora McCarter passed to her reward. She was buried beside her dear little son John Galloway, at Bosqueville, near Waco. Two light strokes of paralysis about two years ago rendered her almost helpless and a great sufferer until her going away. It is difficult to write dispassionately of one to whom we owe so much; and yet, perhaps, we are better prepared than any one else to say a few things that ought to be said.

Her maiden name was Dora Cain. She was born in Louisiana on March 3, 1869, of devout parents on her mother's side; her father was not religious until late in life. Her parents moved to Texas with her when she was a mere child. They settled in Coryell County, where her devoted mother sleeps. She was but 13 years of age when she lost her mother. Thrown at this tender age upon a cold and almost friendless world, she had a hard battle; but with that superb courage and indomitable will which always characterized her, she threw herself into her duties and made good. Best of all, she was powerfully converted in her early days and was a devoted Christian ever after. Her bright and kind disposition made her a favorite and a leader in all circles where she went, always active in Christian duties even up to being steward for Rev. R. S. Heizer on Beehouse Circuit and she was the best one he had. All her young life was spent in Coryell County and largely in Gatesville, where she still has many friends. She was always a friend to the aged, the poor, the sick and needy. Her life was one of service. Perhaps her greatest mistake was in marrying the sad and lonely one who today sits in the shadows and who, for the past thirty years, has called her his wife. On the 2nd of December, 1898, we were happily joined together by that prince in Israel, Dr. John Adams. No one ever had a better helper in the work of the ministry than she: Cheerfully going to the hardest fields and working with all her might for the cause so dear to both of us. She was in her special element in revival meetings in which she was the most successful personal worker we have ever known. Converted herself in a great and real revival, she had no patience with the namby-pamby sort. A meeting in which people did not get up and work she had little confidence in. She never had to be invited. It made little difference with her whether others worked or not; whether the sermon struck fire or struck ice. She would be up and at them. Her sermon was always ready. She oftentimes turned seeming defeat into glorious victory. She literally led her hundreds to the altar and to God. Her fine personality, strong faith, ready wit, strong common sense, high courage, with love for the work, all combined to make her the marvelous soul-winner that she was. Those who will rise up 'in that day' to call her blessed are a great host.

Four children were born to us. Our dear Lord took our bright little boys when they were small. James Marvin died at Quitman, 11 months old. John Galloway was accidentally killed at Bosqueville when he was 9 years old. Mother has gone to them. Ione is married to Mr. J. W. Denney, and lives near Waco. Edna Rhea lives in Rebeccah Sparks Home and is in school. To the grief-stricken daughters we would only say let us live close to the Lord whom she loved and served so faithfully. Our separation will not be long. May it be an unbroken family in "that land where sad partings never come."

J. M. McCARTER.

MRS. SARAH M. S. MACUNE

Mrs. Macune was born November 1, 1851, in Wayne County, Kentucky, and died February 23, 1928, at Fort Worth, Texas, being at the time of her death 76 years, 3 months and 23 days old.

Her parents, John W. and Mary Vickery, moved to Guadalupe County, Texas, in 1853, and moved to Salado in Bell County just before the war broke out in 1860. She attended school at Salado College and graduated in 1871 in its days of great prosperity.

She was married to Charles W. Macune at Burnet, Texas, September 1, 1875. Six children were born to this union. The oldest daughter and the oldest son, Charles, are deceased, but her husband and four children survive to mourn her loss. The oldest is Mrs. J. S. Johnson of Sabine, Texas, who has six living children and four grandchildren; the next is Dr. J. W. Macune of Ballinger, Texas, who has two children; the next is Rev. Dennis Macune of Smithville, who has four children, and next Miss Catherine Macune, who remains at home with her father.

Mrs. Macune, with her husband and all the family connection, celebrated her golden wedding anniversary September 1, 1925, two and a half years before her death. She suffered a stroke of paralysis January 9, 1927, and never entirely recovered from it.

She had from childhood always been a devoted Christian. She knew for some time before her death that the end was approaching, and told her daughter that she was ready and willing to go. She suffered much, but without complaint, and the end came peacefully and quietly in the presence of her family and pastor.

When her husband entered the ministry in 1901 she willingly applied herself to all the duties and hardships of a circuit rider's wife, living happily and contentedly on a meager salary. Her influence and prayers were a great help to him, and she was always loved by the people they were serving.

Mrs. Macune was a member of the Boulevard Methodist Church and took great interest in the work of the Church. She was held in high esteem by all those who knew her.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. P. Williams, assisted by Revs. W. B. Andrews, R. C. Armstrong and J. J. Creed.

Mrs. Macune was a noble woman. She was faithful to her husband, devoted to her children and loyal to God. She has entered into her reward. May the blessings of the Great Heavenly Father constantly attend the bereaved husband and children.

E. P. WILLIAMS.

MRS. LOULA ADA BELLE MORGAN

On the 30th of Oct., 1928, in the city of Temple, Texas, there occurred an event which brought sadness to a very large circle of friends in Georgetown and almost overwhelming grief to the children and other relatives of one of the most highly respected and deeply loved members of the Methodist Church in this city and, indeed, in this section of the state. A woman of sterling Christian character, of strong Christian faith, of striking unselfishness, of tender sympathies, of unflinching persistence in well-doing, of fine good sense, full of faith, hope, and love, the great enduring qualities of human character, is it any wonder that she commanded the confidence and admiration and love of those who knew her, that in a remarkable degree she won for herself gratitude and tender affection, and that now she has gone from our midst there are many who sorely miss her in our church and community life and yet can not think of her except as having enduring life and as carrying on in a better state of existence the same kind of worthy and beautiful life that she so well learned to live here before our eyes? Surely it is impossible that death should hold her and bring to an end such Christ-like energies of life. She found the great divine values of human existence and chose that good part and it shall not be taken away from her. As God liveth, it is given to those like her to become partakers of the divine life. She made it easier for us to believe in the wisdom and goodness and redeeming power of God; she gave us more confidence in the human nature that we all share! she made it more difficult to question the genuineness and supreme value of religious experience; she was one of the unanswerable arguments for the Christian faith and life, a truly good woman, whose life was an open book easily read and understood even by those who did not share her experience. In some ways we are poorer because of her going and there seems to be a great gap in the ranks of those who in our midst fight for the highest of life, but she left a good heritage behind her and her work abides.

Mrs. Ada Belle Morgan, daughter of Norman Marmaduke Weatherby, a Methodist minister, and of Isabella Catherine Weatherby, was born in Durant, Miss., June 18, 1867. At the age of two years she was brought to Calvert, Texas. Here the family lived until she was eleven years old, after which they moved to Mills County and the Old Williams Ranch. Here at the age of seventeen years she was married to Rev. Daniel Morgan, a young minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. To this union were born eleven children, nine of whom are now living.

In 1907, Mrs. Morgan and her husband moved from the home in Lometa, Texas, to Georgetown, where the children were put in Southwestern University. In 1908, the father and husband was called from his work to his heavenly reward and Mrs. Morgan was left with a family of nine children, for whom she gave her whole life and efforts, putting them all through Southwestern.

Mrs. Morgan was a consistent church worker in Georgetown Methodist Church for twenty-one years and for the preceding years in the other places in which she lived. She was an officer in the Missionary Society of her church, a member of the Georgetown Eastern Star Chapter, charter member of the D. A. R. in Georgetown, a member of the U. D. C. Georgetown Chapter, member of the Woman's Club and of the W. C. T. U. and a teacher in the Methodist Sunday School. She was ever an active worker in all worthy activities of women, a loyal wife and mother always putting her children first in everything. For the last two years of her life she was mother to the young men in Mood Hall, loved by students and parents throughout the state because of her wise and tender ministrations, especially to the sick among her boys.

On Sept. 10th, she was rushed to Temple for an emergency operation and lived six weeks before she passed on. Hers may be well described as a happy death. After singing one line of "Amazing Grace," she said that the vision she had hoped for was before her, beautiful visions, as she looked toward heaven. Then she closed her eyes and died in peace and happiness. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

During her sickness she never complained, never objected to anything, but ever complimented the nurses and doctors.

Nine children are left: Miss Clyde Mills, Sanderson, Texas; Miss Lucy Belle Morgan, Martha Washington Callege, Abingdon, Va.; Mrs. Ruth Ferguson, Georgetown, Texas; Mrs. G. L. Kelly, Plainview, Texas; Mrs. Eugene Dolan Cherokee, Texas; Mrs. Hix Lawler, Jacksonville, Texas; Mrs. J. W. Ingram, Bay City, Texas; Mrs. Charles Pierce, Bay City, Texas; and Paul Morgan, Commerce, Texas. There are thirteen grandchildren. There are also two brothers and three sisters surviving her: Mrs. John Skinner, Medford, Oregon; Mrs. J. S. York, Snyder, Texas; Mrs. Sue Prestidge, Fort Worth, Texas; Mr. R. A. Weatherby, Sweetwater, Texas; and Mr. B. N. Weatherby, Big Lake, Texas.

The interment was made in Georgetown Thursday, November 1st. The services being conducted by Rev. H. L. Gray, a friend of eighteen years standing, assisted by Rev. Edmund Heinsohn, the pastor of the Methodist Church in Georgetown.

Think of

"Stepping on shore and finding it—Heaven;
Of taking hold of a hand, and finding it—God's hand;
Of breathing a new air and finding it—Celestial air;
Of feeling invigorated and finding it—Immortality;
Of passing from storm and tempest to an unknown calm;
Of waking up and finding it—Home."

H. L. GRAY,

Georgetown, Texas.

MRS. W. A. NEILL

Mrs. Eula Price (Mitchell) Neill was born in Ellis County, Texas, June 7, 1884. She fell asleep in Christ September, 1928. Sister Neill came of sturdy religious parentage, her father and mother being life-long members of the Methodist Church. Her early educational advantages were meager, yet the powers of her native ability were marked. The talent she had was faithfully used to the glory of God. She was converted in childhood, but at the age of twenty-one she rededicated herself to Christ, and from that day until the time of her decease her devotion to God and the Church was of a highly sustained and beautiful order.

She was married on September 10, 1905 to W. A. Neill, who later became a preacher and member of this conference. Their married life was one of real happiness and companionship. Five children were born to them—three boys and two girls, and to them Sister Neill was a true Christian mother. She also became the mother to two other daughters of Bro. Neill from a former marriage. And her devotion to those two motherless girls was not exceeded even by her beautiful devotion to her very own. And they in turn loved her with a tenderness that is only given to a real mother.

Her Christian life was one of rare beauty, and her influence more than any other one thing caused her dear husband to yield to a call to preach that he had been fighting for ten years. Sister Neill chose for herself and her husband a rugged path of self-sacrifice and toil, but a path that was made glorious in service. Her's was to be the wife of an humble Circuit preacher, going through poverty and hardships in order to sow the Word of life among the sinning and the dying, choosing to suffer affliction with the people of God, rather than to enjoy the life of ease and worldly pleasure, esteeming the reproach of Christ greater treasure than the wealth of this world, for she looked for a city that hath foundation whose Builder and Maker is God. The kindness and love of this good woman won the people of the congregations where they were sent. Her gentleness and womanly wisdom helped to smooth out many a difficulty in the lives of the members, and helped to guide the Church into calm seas of love and fellowship. She was especially active in the Woman's Missionary Society where her face and voice will be missed at the District and Conference meetings.

After eighteen years of untiring service and usefulness, they moved to Dallas where her health steadily declined, but her interest in the Kingdom never abated. Her last days were full of bodily pain, but the repose of her sweet spirit was beautiful. The light affliction which she suffered for the moment, worked for her a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while she looked not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are unseen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

On these eve of Sept. 16th, she called her children and her husband to the bedside, kissed them a fond goodbye, told her pastor, Dr. S. M. Black, that she was ready to go, and in a little while her beautiful spirit winged its way to the regions celestial, there to join her own precious baby that had gone on before. In that other land where sickness does not come, and where sorrow never enters, she stands among the blood-washed throng, who day and night cry: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing . . . for thou hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people and nation . . . and hast made us unto our God kings and priests."

To our comrade in the ministry, dear Bro. Neill, we commend the good grace of a loving Heavenly Father, and offer the sympathy of all his brother ministers.

ROY A. LANGSTON.
