The Bishop also spoke to the report, laying emphasis on personal evangelism. The report was adopted, as follows:

GENERAL REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

1. Christian Stewardship

We have said repeatedly in our annual reports that the promotion of Christian Stewardship constitutes one of the major tasks of this board. The genuine Christian Stewards in the church constitute the real backbone of the whole spiritual program of the church. Believing this to be true we want to urge a more diligent study and a greater activity in the promotion and cultivation of Stewardship Study Classes throughout the Conference.

2. Men's Work

We suggest that we continue the organization of Men's Clubs and fellowship organizations. Such groups make a very definite contribution to the local churches in providing fellowship, practical and instructive monthly programs for the men of the church. In some churches Service Clubs for men have been organized for the one definite purpose of personal evangelistic effort.

3. Church Finance

We want to again stress the need for setting up in every church a sound financial program. It means a great deal more to develop "a sound financial system in the local church" than to raise money or participate in any campaign. We believe this can be done only through the development of a trained Board of Stewards. To that end we recommend the continued use of Dr. J. E. Crawford's great study "Financial Recovery for the Local Church".

4. Adequate Support of the Ministry

We should do every thing in our power to create a sentiment in our churches which will be satisfied with nothing less than an adequate support of the ministry. Our thinking in this field should rise above the idea of the bare necessities of life for the minister and his family to the plane of efficiency. We urge our boards of stewards everywhere as far as is possible to provide for the needs of our preachers on the basis of a monthly payment of their salaries.

5. Full Payment of Benevolences

We recommend:

1. That the Presiding Elders and the District Lay Leaders arrange district mass meeting of stewards, to be held as soon after the Annual Conference as possible, for the purpose of developing inspiration for and loyalty to the great program of our church as it is related to the full payment of our benevolences.

2. We urge the payment of one half of all the benevolences by the session of the District Conference, and urge the placing of proper emphasis on such payments in all our church meetings and pledge ourselves to the task of bringing to the local congregations a fuller measure of the responsibility which is theirs in making full payments of the benevolences.

6. Personal Evangelism

Whatsoever has been the results of other types of evangelism in the past or may be the results in the future, it remains true that personal evangelism has been effective from the beginning. We urge the use of this method of evangelism as the means of starting a great forward, aggressive movement which will reach those in our country today who are out of the church and out of Christ.

7. Lay Speaking

We want again to urge that every Board of Stewards have a Committee on Lay Speaking, and that this committee in connection with the pastor, formulate and carry on a systematic program of lay speaking on the various activities of the church. One of our Bishops has said: "We must develop a lay ministry to supplement the efforts of the ordained ministry, or our church will not be able to meet its responsibility for the advancement of the Kingdom." We urge the general observance of Laymen's Day in all our congregations and again designate the second Sunday in June as Layman's Day. For 1936 we recommend the theme: "Spiritualizing Church Finance" as most fitting the needs of our churches at this time.

Missionary Council—O. F. Sensabaugh announced that the Missionary Council is to be held in Washington, D. C., January 7-9, 1936, and urge a good attendance.

F. P. Culver explained the value of the certificates of membership.

Board of Lay Activities—B. E. McGlamery read reports No. 2 and No. 3, of the Board of Lay Activities, and they were adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 2 BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We make the following recommendations concerning the San Antonio Mission Home and Training School:

1. That this Conference continue its asking of $1,333.00 for the maintenance fund of the home. This asking cannot be decreased without seriously crippling the work of the home.

2. That this Conference approve the plan endorsed by the West Texas Conference authorizing the Board of Managers of the Home to proceed with the building of a new Home on their beautiful five acre plot in the suburb of San Antonio, now owned by the Home and entirely paid for, with the understanding and agreement that the immediate investment is not to exceed $20,000.00 and that no contract is to be let until $10,000 of that amount has been raised in cash and materials, with the further proviso that the old Home be sold as soon as possible and the money thus secured be applied on the $10,000 loan which may be necessary to complete a $20,000 contract mentioned above. It is understood that the old Home may possibly be sold for that much or more.

3. That this Conference join with the West Texas Conference in taking a special offering for the building fund of this home on Mother's Day or the Sunday nearest thereto if found more convenient.

4. That Rev. George W. Shearer be appointed as Associate Commissioner of the Home for the Central Texas Conference to assist Rev. E. A. Hunter, of the West Texas Conference, Commissioner of the Home, in this enterprise.

REPORT NO. 3 JOINT MEETING, BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES AND PRESIDING ELDERS

Dr. P. E. Riley, P.E. of the Fort Worth District was elected chairman, the following business was had:

A call for the purpose of the meeting having been made by the chairman it was made known that a Conference Lay Leader for the coming year was to be nominated. Ballots were spread and the secretaries announced that J. R. Edwards of Fort Worth was nominated.

We therefore present the name of J. R. Edwards of Fort Worth, Texas, to the Conference for election as Conference Lay Leader for the ensuing year.

Board of Missions—W. Erskine Williams read Report No. 1 of the Board of Missions bearing on hospitals.

H. N. Peters and C. R. Wright spoke to the report. Bishop exhorted in favor of supporting Fort Worth Methodist Hospital. The report was adopted as follows:

REPORT NO. 1 BOARD OF MISSIONS, ON HOSPITALS

The last General Conference gave the General Board of Missions supervision of all hospital work of the church. Under the direction of the General Board, the Annual Conference Board has supervision in the Conference. In pursuance of that authority and under that obligation your Board of Missions makes this, its first report as to our hospital work.

The Central Texas Conference is peculiarly fortunate in that it owns the most complete and best equipped hospital in the church. The interest manifested, is shown by the fact that this Conference has more money invested in the hospital than in any other single enterprise within the bounds of the Conference. A million dollars in cash has been paid in on this investment.

The last report made to the Conference showed $69,500 due on local indebtedness to sundry persons. You gave authority to the Commissioner under direction of the Board of Trustees to make settlement on the best terms possible of this outstanding local indebtedness. We are glad to state that his report shows that a large number of these open accounts have been paid on terms satisfactory to the creditors. You also gave authority to the Commissioner to make settlement with all persons whose pledges to the hospital had not been paid. About $1,000 has been collected during the year on old pledges.

The report of the Hospital Commissioner, Dr. C. R. Wright, has been presented and shows a careful handling of all funds that have come into his hands. He has collected on the Golden Cross Enrollment $1,140, which is quite an increase over last year. His report shows that eight patients have received the benefit of the Golden Cross funds and $649.50 has been used for that purpose. Dr. Terrell has given dollar for dollar for all money used by the Board of hospitalization. Many other persons have applied for hospitalization on the Golden Cross basis but could not be accommodated because of the lack of funds.

The report made by Dr. T. C. Terrell, Hospital Director, discloses that 2,703 patients have been admitted since the last report, making 11,525 people that have been patients in the hospital since it opened on March 3, 1930. During the year 542 babies have been born in the hospital, making a total of 2,102. During the year there have been 1,217 surgical cases, making a total of 5,625. Eight nurses have graduated during the year, making a total of thirty-seven nurses who have graduated from the Training School, and ten student nurses will graduate next spring. The hospital staff is composed of 200 physicians and surgeons, and is fully approved by the American College of Surgeons and the American Medical Society.

At your last session you directed the Board of Trustees at the earliest practical time to refinance the bonded indebtedness. Some progress has been made toward this end. Bishop H. A. Boaz, in connection with the Trustees, and other friends of the hospital, has had a number of conferences with representatives of a committee that controls a large number of the bonds. He expresses great interest in the hospital enterprise and is willing to give of his time if the Conference will support him. From all the information that has come to us, we believe that with his assistance, the bonded indebtedness can be paid off. We also believe that if the Conference, through its Budget Committee, will appropriate as much as $5,000 for the hospital, all the balance of the local indebtedness can be paid with that amount.

We make the following recommendations:

First, that no further active effort be made for the collection of the old pledges to the hospital; that they be filed with the records of the hospital for future reference.

Board of Education—The report of the Board of Education, which had been held in abeyance, was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The following representatives presented reports to our board regarding the work of our schools and colleges: Dr. E. B. Hawk of Southern Methodist University, Dr. John W. Bergin of Southwestern University, Pres. R. G. Boger of Weatherford College, Dr. T. W. Brabham of Texas Wesleyan College, Dr. C. W. Hall of the Wesley Bible Chair at Austin, and Dr. Glen Flinn for the Wesley Foundation.

Dr. Bergin, the new President of Southwestern, requested special aid for meeting pressing financial needs, which request was granted as shown in our appropriations.

The Board approves the plan projected by the directors of the Wesley Foundation to liquidate the $25,000 debt on the Bible Chair at Austin and we suggest the week January 5-12, 1936 as a time for a Conference-wide campaign toward this end, the amount asked for our Conference to raise being $4,500.

We commend the project in which S. M. U. School of Theology is co-operating with the General Board of Christian Education and our Conference executive-extension secretary for Bible Conferences in this area, releasing members of the faculty for specific service as instructors in these conferences. These are to be three-day institutes with no expense except entertainment and are on a non-credit basis.

We also commend the "Ministers Week" at S. M. U. January 28 at which time such distinguished speakers as Dr. Chas. R. Brown of Yale, Dr. Edwin Lewis of Drew, and Dr. Yong-Ching Yang of Soochow University will be heard. Certain radical religious groups have proclaimed themselves the only rightful interpreters of the Word of God and the time has come when Methodism should place a new emphasis on the study of the Bible.

The observance of college appreciation week this past year convinces us of the value of such observance and we endorse the plans that are going forward for a similar week this year. We nominate Rev. E. R. Stanford as a member of the inter-Conference Committee for building the program.

A report from the Joint Commission on Education Work in Texas indicates progress toward perfecting a Constitution and By-Laws for a Southwestern System of Schools and Colleges. It also calls attention to the fact that McMurry College has paid its entire indebtedness and that marked progress has been made by certain other institutions toward adjusting their financial obligations. The report further calls attention to the fact that there has been an increase of from 12% to 70% in enrollment in these colleges over last year. We rejoice in what has been accomplished and instruct our representatives to continue to work with the educational commission.

Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise

The board is again recommending that we adopt the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise as our church school special. This mission special is far-reaching in the work that it makes possible at home and abroad. It is highly important that each church school in the Conference participate by observing the fourth Sunday of each month as Missionary Sunday with a suitable program and an offering. This offering is to be sent to Rev. J. A. Siceloff, Polytechnic Station, Fort Worth.

We call attention to the Church-Wide Conference for young people to be held in Memphis, December 27-31, and we urge that every effort be made to send our full quota of delegates from this Conference, 141.

We are requesting that the second Sunday in February (instead of the third Sunday in April) be set as Church School Day, the money derived therefrom to be used in promoting the work of Christian Education in the districts.

We also propose a Conference-wide gathering of local church workers to be held in Waco, March 3 and 4 for inspiration and information, with the ablest speakers available on the program.

We are informed that the establishment of an R. O. T. C. unit is contemplated at State University. We are opposed to such a move as subversive to the interests of world brotherhood and peace. We recommend that the Conference Secretary be instructed to send a message of protest to president H. Y. Benedict at Austin.

It is imperative that the church deal wisely with the liquor problem. We are convinced that the educational approach to this matter is fundamental to its solution. Training courses dealing with the church's responsibility here are soon to be available in training schools. Courses are to be given also in the Adult and Young People's lesson materials. Helpful suggestions for public school courses on the effects of alcohol on the human body are available from the General Board at Nashville. We urge each church to enter earnestly into the task of educating our people on the liquor problem.

RESOLUTION ON APPRECIATION BISHOP BOAZ

WHEREAS by the law of the church, Bishop H. A. Boaz will retire at the next General Conference from active Episcopal service,

AND WHEREAS he has always been greatly interested in every phase of the program of our church and has given himself without stint of his time, zeal and energy to the promotion of every cause,

AND WHEREAS under his administration every interest of the church has prospered and has had substantial growth,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Central Texas Annual Conference in conformity with like proceedings in other Conferences of his Episcopal area we set as our goal for the remaining years of this quadrennium:

FIRST: We sound the evangelistic note in all our pulpits with renewed faith and purpose looking to a very substantial increase in additions on profession of faith and the enrichment of the spiritual life of our people.

SECOND: Furthermore we resolve that we will set as our goal that all benevolent claims in every Charge in every District shall be paid 100%.

Nomination—On nomination of G. W. Shearer, Floyd W. Thrash replaced J. W. W. Shuler on the Board of Finance.

Communication—The Secretary read a telegram of response from Dr. J. B. Tidwell, President of the Baptist General Convention.

Centennial Commission—Dr. A. J. Weeks asked for the reading of a communication from the Texas Methodist Centennial Commission as follows:

REPORT OF TEXAS METHODIST CENTENNIAL COMMISSION

The Joint Commission appointed at the 1934 sessions of the Conferences in Texas to suggest plans for a Statewide meeting of Texas Methodists in 1936 in connection with the Texas Centennial Celebration, has held three meetings. In the resolutions adopted by the Conferences the purpose of such a Statewide meeting was stated in the following language: "In order to perpetuate and conserve this spirit of unity, we recommend that in 1936 . . . our Conference sponsor another Statewide meeting of Methodists, either one of similar nature to this meeting (The Centennial Celebration held in San Antonio in September, 1934) or a combined meeting of the several Annual Conferences."

After careful study of the situation including all the difficulties and advantages, and after full discussion participated in by the Bishops in charge of the Conferences in Texas, we recommend that the five Conferences in Texas hold their 1936 sessions at the same time and in the same city.

We further recommend that the selection of the place of meeting be left to this Commission in which each of the Conferences has equal representation. If this is done we pledge our best efforts to have provided for the members of all these Conferences the best facilities for their own comfort, for the proper transaction of business, and such a program for joint inspirational and mass meetings as will make this the greatest meeting of Methodists ever held in Texas if not in the world. We believe such a Statewide meeting of Methodists will be of great benefit to our church and people.

Praying the blessings of God upon your deliberations and upon our beloved Methodism, we respectfully submit this report and these recommendations.

Dr. Weeks then addressed the Conference.

Dr. E. B. Hawk read a resolution along the same line, which was spoken to by C. O. Shugart and H. C. Smith.

Bishop Boaz explained the mechanism proposed in the joint Conference session.

W. Erskine Williams spoke in favor of the resolution. It was adopted as follows:

After a brief discussion, the resolution was adopted as follows:

RESOLUTION ON COMMITTEE FOR MINISTERIAL SUPPORT

Resolved:

That it is the judgment of this body that The Fellowship Fund movement in this Conference has proved itself inadequate to meet the needs for which it was begun; and that we face still the serious problem of underpaid ministers;

That in view of this fact, our Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee on Ministerial Support which shall be composed of three preachers and two laymen, which Committee shall continue to study the means and methods for improving the standards of pastoral support within the bounds of this Conference;

Auditor's Report—J. R. Banes, the auditor, read his report, which was filed as follows:

CONFERENCE AUDITORS REPORT

The accounts of the Conference Treasurer of Central Texas Conference, Treasurers on entertainment, Board of Missions, Board of Finance and Superannuate Homes have been submitted to me for audit. In verifying these several accounts I have found them to be in proper balance and well kept.

Board of Christian Literature—Paul W. Evans read the report of the Board of Christian Literature, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Dr. C. A. Bowen, of the General Board of Christian Education, appeared before the Board, representing the Publishing House, and emphasized the superiority of all of our own literature, especially for Methodist Churches and Church Schools. He calls attention to the excellence of the Christian Advocate, our general church organ, and urged a better general support of it, in view of its extremely limited circulation, only about 11,000 subscribers in the whole connection.

The annual statement of the Publishing House is indeed gratifying as it reveals the strong, sound financial condition of the House; its increase in profits over the previous year, with corresponding increase of the appropriation for the superannuates. The part of said appropriation sent to the superannuates of this Conference is $3,187.60. We endorse and commend the management and policies of our publishing agents.

Reports from the editor and Joint Board of Publication of the Southwestern Advocate show its subscription list for this year to have reached approximately 20,000, about 1,000 more subscribers than for any preceding year. The quota of this Conference was 4,679, of which 3,908 subscriptions were obtained, while of the 223 pastoral charges in the Conference, 107 obtained their quotas. The Board of Publication agrees to continue the subscription rate at $1.00 per year and asks that we adopt the quotas prevailing the past several years, one subscriber to every 20 church members.

We recommend:

(1) That this Conference accept the board's proposition and adopt the requested quota, viz; One subscriber to the Southwestern Advocate to every twenty members of the church.

(2) That a complete "every family" canvass be made in each charge in an effort to place the Southwestern Advocate, as well as other of our church literature, in every Methodist home.

(3) That the Bishop appoint a commissioner for the Southwestern Advocate in each district of the Conference.

Orphanage—J. Fred Patterson read the report of the Orphanage Board, which was adopted as follows:

ORPHANAGE REPORT

We, your Orphanage Board, beg permission to submit the following report:

Under the leadership of Brother Hubert Johnson the Home has had another good year, as is evidenced by the splendid religious atmosphere prevailing on the campus, the excellent morale among the children and the very commendable status of the financial affairs of the Home.

We recommend that the Central Texas Conference accept its proportional part of the $100,000 budget recommended by the General Board and that we give our confidence and co-operation to Mr. Johnson and this great institution.

We recommend that the month of December be designated in our Conference as Orphanage Month and that no other cause be allowed to conflict with the Christmas offering during this month. We further recommend that each pastor make a diligent effort to distribute pertinent facts about the Home among the memberships in preparation for taking the free-will offering for the boys and girls of the Home.

We further recommend that after the offering has been taken that it be sent immediately to the Home.

Hawk Resolution—E. B. Hawk read a resolution that Bishop Boaz preside over the session of the Central Texas Conference in 1936, if the joint sessions are held. It was adopted.

WHEREAS the three Texas Annual Conferences over which Bishop H. A. Boaz presides are to meet simultaneously in the fall of 1936 in some chosen city of Texas

WHEREAS Bishop H. A. Boaz was born and licensed to preach, held pastorates, was President of Polytechnic College, all of which is located in the Central Texas Conference,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Central Texas Conference assembled in Brownwood, November 9, 1935, cordially and earnestly request Bishop H. A. Boaz to preside over its session in the fall of 1936 should the five Annual Conferences of Texas meet jointly.

Sabbath Observance—D. E. McVey made the report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance, and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Recognizing the fact, that the Sabbath day is one of the great foundation stones of Christianity, and that to destroy the Sabbath with its privileges of spiritual blessings, means the ultimate destruction of Christianity.

We therefore, admonish our ministers, officers and leaders in our churches to refrain from those forms of amusement and recreation that may be questionable. We note with regret many of our people who fail to recognize the sanctity of the Sabbath, habitually remaining away from the public worship, thus interfering with, and hindering the progress of the Kingdom of God.

We call attention to the report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance of our 1934 General Conference, also found in the 1934-35 General Minutes and Year Book, page 329.

We have observed, that some of the churches, who no longer conduct the Sunday evening worship, may lose their young people to the church. This we believe is not conducive to the greatest progress of the church. Therefore we urge that every means of grace be utilized in reaching our young people as well as bringing back many of the older ones to a stricter observance of the Christian sacred day, that their Christian lives may be enriched and their service to humanity may be a happy one.

We also recommend that our ministers preach at least one sermon a year on Sabbath desecration, offsetting the evils of the same by showing the spiritual heights to which the soul may obtain through its observance remembering that we are taught through loving obedience to "Remember the Sabbath Day and keep it Holy."

Question 22 was called, and the names of the preachers in the Brownwood, the Cisco, the Corsicana and the Cleburne Districts that had not previously been called, were called, and their characters were passed.

Dr. J. E. Crawford—M. K. Little read a resolution concerning Dr. J. E. Crawford, deceased, which was adopted as follows:

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING THE DEATH OF REV. J. EARL CRAWFORD

For nearly a dozen years past at every session of our Conference Bro. Crawford graciously provided a special dinner for the superannuates which afforded them an opportunity for joyful fellowship which was most delightful to those who participated.

In connection with the banquet he also generously donated to each member of the group a gold coin as long as gold was available, and after that a new, clean bill in currency.

We who participated in these happy occasions cherish with hearts of gratitude the gracious consideration which was in this way most courteously given and we beg to offer the following resolution for adoption by the Conference:

Resolved: First, That in the death of Rev. J. E. Crawford, D. D., Assistant Secretary of Lay Activities of our church, the Conference has lost a useful, honored and beloved member, a special and generous friend of the "old preachers," and a widely known and energetic connectional officer of the church.

Second. That we pray the blessings of God to be upon the bereaved wife and children of our deceased brother, whose name we, as well as they, will cherish through all the succeeding years.

Ordained—The following were ordained traveling elders: Bernard Loss McCord, V. Cyrus Barcus and Harley R. McDaniel.

Ministerial Supply and Support—The Bishop announced the Committee on Ministerial Support and Fellowship Fund as follows: M. M. Chunn, J. A. Siceloff, T. Edgar Neal, Leake Ayres, Boyce Martin.

Question 22 was resumed and the name of the preachers in the Cleburne, Fort Worth, Gatesville, Georgetown and Waco Districts that has not been previously called, were called, their characters passed.

This completed the call of Question 22, "Are all the preachers blamless in their life and official administration," and in every instance the answer was: "Nothing against him."

Statistics—The statistical questions were called and answered. (See condensed minutes.)

Adjournment—After singing the Doxology, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Boaz.

Lay Activities—B. E. McGlammer read the report No. 4 of the Board of Lay Activities, and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

It is a matter of record that the last General Conference placed upon our Board additional responsibilities by discontinuing the Board of Temperance and Social Service.

Realizing the immensity of the task confronting us, we believe that only by a concerted effort on the part of all agencies of our church will we be able to overcome a well organized and financially strong enemy. The Methodist Church has from its very inception to the present hour taken a definite stand against the evils of the day. We call upon the people of the church to fight with the constantly rising tide of public opinion against these evils. We should, for the general welfare, attempt to eliminate:

- (1) All forms of lottery and wagering, whether legalized or not.
- (2) The manufacture and distribution of alcoholic beverages.
- (3) Indecent and suggestive picture shows and stage performances and indecent literature from the news stands and mails.

We need not fight this battle alone, for every law enforcement agency together with all civic organizations are joining hands to combat the ever-increasing number of traffic accidents caused in a large measure by the use of alcohol.

All lines of business and professions are joining us in the fight upon gambling.

The League of Decency is joining us in the fight upon the indecent picture shows.

The Christian church must again become militant in the opposition of these curses of the human race. Education which must extend to every level of the public must be pushed to the limit. We must exert more care in the selection of public officials who have a regard for character, integrity and true statesmanship.

Above all, we must have courage and wisdom and remember that Christ and all the embattled hosts of God fight on our side.

Spiritual State of the Church—H. H. Nance read the report of the Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church. It was spoken to by Roy A. Langston and J. W. W. Shuler. It was adopted as follows:

THE SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

We your Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church, wish to make the following report:

1. We deplore the fact that so many of our people are absenting themselves from the public worship.
2. That we call our people back to the fundamental and cardinal doctrines of our Christian religion as taught by our fathers and our Holy Book the Bible.
3. We urge our pastors to stress more forcefully the doctrines of true repentance, regeneration, Faith in God and Christ as our Redeemer.
4. We wish to sound a ringing call to our people to rally again to public worship in our preaching services, attendances upon the Sacred ordinances of the church.
5. We wish to urge our pastors to preach the fundamentals of Christianity as we believe them and the doctrines of our church.
6. We also want to urge our pastors back to real pastoral visitation and prayer in the homes of our people and others.

Conference Relations—The report of the Committee on Conference Relations was read by W. J. Hearon, and it was adopted. (See list in the condensed minutes.)

Memoirs—The name of R. L. Reese was referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

District Conference Records—A. G. Stanlee read the report of the Committee on District Conference Records, and it was filed for record, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We, your committee, beg to make the following report: We have carefully examined each of the ten record books and we find them to be in good condition, neatly kept and posted up to date.

Lay Activities Program—The Conference stood and sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

The double quartette from the Central Methodist Church of Brownwood sang two numbers, which were greatly appreciated.

Hal H. Cherry introduced J. R. Edwards, the re-elected Conference Lay Leader, who in turn introduced Prof. George L. Morelock, the General Secretary of the Board of Lay Activities, who made a great address to the Conference.

The congregation stood while they sang "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

Postmaster—On suggestion of the Secretary, a collection was taken for the postmaster, amounting to $20.00, which was turned over to Ben S. Crow.

Board of Finance—Paxton Smith read the report of the Board of Finance, which was spoken to by G. W. Shearer, E. R. Patterson and J. W. W. Shuler. It was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF FINANCE

Brownwood, Texas, Nov. 9, 1935.

Your Conference Board of Finance submits its annual report as follows:

Five superannuated preachers have died during this Conference year: W. H. Harris, A. P. Lipscomb, R. L. Reese, H. P. Shrader, V. J. Millis. Mrs. J. M. Bond, Sr., another claimant on this board, and Mrs. W. N. Curry, wife of Rev. W. N. Curry, one of the Board's claimants also died.

Twelve have been added to the list of claimants this year.

For the third consecutive year we are glad to report an increase in the amount of money appropriated. This year the increase represents $1.50 per year of service for each claimant. This is due to increased amount derived from Conference collections, and the larger check received from the publishing house.

Total amount received from all sources:

General Board of Finance	$ 1,877.70
Publishing House	3,187.00
Conference Treasurer	13,177.00
Trapp property	135.00
Total	$18,376.70

Appropriated to dependent orphaned children of deceased preachers, $275. Total amount appropriated to preachers and widows, $15,411. Expense of Treasurer's bond and statistical materials, $75 (estimated); expense of board, $250; amount of reserve in emergency fund, $2,200; disbursed past Conference year from emergency fund and mortuary fees, $1,392.00.

The Board wishes individual pastors, Sunday School classes and Missionary Societies would act as local committee to look after the individual needs of claimants in local communities and congregations.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. B. Andrews as Conference director of superannuate endowment.

The Executive Committee is composed of George W. Shearer, chairman; C. M. Crow, vice-chairman, and Paxton Smith, secretary-treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. SHEARER, Chairman,
PAXTON SMITH, Secretary.

Board of Missions—The report of the Board of Missions was read by T. E. Bowman, and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS

The work of your Board of Missions has gone forward this year according to the possible achievement in the midst of limited funds and handicaps, however, the spirit of onwardness is still the aim of every action.

We have sustained a very heavy loss this year in the deaths of Rev. Frank E. Singleton and Dr. J. E. Crawford.

Brother Singleton whose evangelistic fervor and princely life aided greatly in our work was our president and his going has been felt deeply.

Dr. Crawford, who was one among our great minds of Methodism, was ever diligent and giving to us his wide experience of missionary knowledge and Christian stewardship and his death places this Board under deeper obligations to further the kingdom's work so ably led under his visionary undertakings.

Dr. E. H. Rawlings added much to our meetings and brings good tidings from the far-flung fields of service.

The work of Rev. S. A. Ashburn has been well in hand and we greatly appreciate his faithful services of the past years.

We recommend the following evangelists:

Rev. John M. Neal, General Evangelist; J. D. Smoot, Conference Evangelist; Z. R. Fee, Conference Evangelist.

The schedule of our Missionary Institutes follow:

January 27—Waxahachie at Waxahachie.

January 28—Corsicana at Corsicana.

January 29—Waco at Austin Avenue.

January 30—Georgetown at Temple.

January 31—Gatesville at Gatesville.

February 3—Fort Worth at First Church.

February 4—Cleburne at Main Street.

February 5—Weatherford at Mineral Wells.

February 6—Cisco at Eastland.

February 7—Brownwood at Central.

All these Institutes to begin at 9:30 a.m.

Reserved for expenses of the Board, our committee and mid-year meeting, expenses of the president of the Board and the Missionary Secretary to Missionary Council, and honorarium and traveling expenses of the Missionary Secretary, the sum of $600.00.

Rural Life

We recommend that in each presiding elder's district there be conducted during the year under his leadership, with the assistance of the Rural Life Committee of this Board and the extension work of the Board of Education, one meeting or a part of a district meeting built around the rural life work.

Evangelism

Methodism was born in a revival, and your Board believes that a genuine spiritual awakening is the best solution of many of our problems. We cannot in these brief words sufficiently emphasize the deep conviction we feel of the importance of this thing to our needy and broken down world. We urge every preacher and congregation to pay the price for a genuine revival of religion.

Your Board furthermore pledges itself to work with the presiding elders and other boards in seeing that special revival services are held this year in every neglected area in our Conference. Plans to this end are being worked out.

Recommendations

We recommend the appointment of Dr. O. F. Sensabaugh as Conference Missionary Secretary.

We also recommend the election of Rev. S. A. Ashburn to membership on the Board of Missions.

T. E. Bowman then read the list of apportionments, which was filed for record as follows:

Letter to Texas University—The secretary asked to be allowed to incorporate in the minutes the letter written to Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the Texas State University, which was authorized by vote of the Conference.

Dr. H. Y. Benedict,
President, Texas University,
Austin, Texas,
Dear Dr. Benedict:

The information has reached us that the University of Texas is contemplating the establishment of an R. O. T. C. unit on its campus.

The Methodist Church, being devoted to the principles and ideals of world friendship and peace, is convinced that this would be a move contrary to the best interest of world friendship and international peace.

Therefore, we earnestly request that this unit not be placed in the curriculum of our State University.

Trusting that you will grant us the most careful consideration in this matter,

Sincerely yours,
CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE,
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH,
A. D. PORTER, Secretary.

Vote of Thanks—A vote of thanks to the presiding elder of the Brownwood District, to the pastors of the Brownwood churches, to the Methodists and to all the citizens of Brownwood, to the Chamber of Commerce, to the newspapers, and to all who had a part in the hospitable entertainment of the Conference.

The motion was adopted by a rising vote.

Adjournment—The minutes were read and approved, and the Conference stood adjourned.

SUNDAY MORNING—MEMORIAL SESSION

7. The Conference Commission on Budget shall not be authorized to offer to the Annual Conference any new or special apportionments to be levied upon the churches, unless such new or special apportionments shall comply with the following requirements: First, it must be for an object or enterprise either owned by the M. E. Church, South, or one over which this Conference has full and sole control. Second, it must provide for the perfect execution of the funds so intrusted to the Conference and for a report at the next Annual Conference showing in detail that the trust had been executed and how.

8. The Conference Commission on Budget in its report shall give the contrasts between the several apportionments for the present year and the proposed apportionments for the ensuing year so that the Conference can act on the report with clear knowledge. It shall be the duty of the Commission to furnish the "Table of Apportionments" for the ensuing year arriving at the scale for the districts by finding what per cent the total church membership in the individual district is of the grand total church membership in the Conference, and by finding what per cent the total salaries in the district are of the grand total of salaries paid in the Conference, and then dividing the sum of these two decimals by 2.

9. All papers, resolutions, obituaries and reports, except the statistical reports, coming before the Conference, must be typewritten in triplicate before reaching the Secretary's desk, the original copy to be retained by the Secretary in the archives, one duplicate to be furnished the editor of the Texas Christian Advocate, and one duplicate to be furnished the editor of the Central Texas Conference Journal.

10. Each preacher in charge shall, on the first morning of the Conference session, hand his complete statistical report to one of the Assistant Statistical Secretaries for the district in which his charge is situated.

11. All requests by boards, commissions, or individuals for dates for special campaigns to secure money shall be submitted to the Commission on Budget, whose duty it shall be to work out a schedule for said campaigns so that as far as possible, overlapping may be prevented. The Commission shall submit its report to the Conference for approval.

12. It shall be the duty of the Conference Treasurer to set aside out of the funds collected for Conference Work an amount sufficient to meet the expense of printing the Minutes and also provide for the Treasurer's Bond. These estimates are to be furnished by the Editor of the Journal, through the Commission on Budget.

13. Any member of a Quadrennial Board absent without excuse from two successive conference roll calls shall thereby forfeit membership on said board. The vacancy may be filled by nomination of the board and election by the Conference.

MEMOIRS

REV. H. P. SHRADER

Rev. H. P. Shrader, for twenty-nine years a traveling preacher in Texas Methodism, died at his home in Corsicana, May 18, 1935. He was born in Coffey County, Tennessee, March 24, 1855. He was converted and united with the church during a revival meeting held by the Rev. George S. Gatewood in 1873. In personal notes left by the deceased we find this statement, "I cannot remember when the story of the cross did not touch my sympathies, and I frequently felt like I ought to be religious, but would let my convictions pass away. When I reached the age of eighteen my soul's salvation became my consuming thought and consideration".

Brother Shrader was licensed to preach at the quarterly conference of Bethel Circuit, Dallas District, May 25, 1878. He was admitted to the North Texas Conference at Greenville, in November, 1881. He was ordained deacon, November 18, 1882, by Bishop Parker, at Gainesville; received elder's orders at Paris, November, 1885, under Bishop Hargrove. He served in his place in the travelling connection until 1910 when failing health forced him to request the superannuate relation. But in 1912 he served as supply on the Electra Circuit, which covered a part of his first circuit in the ministry. In 1913 he moved into the superannuate home at Corsicana, where he lived until his death.

The last two years and nine months of his life were spent on his bed where kind hands ministered to him in his paralytic affliction. He was a patient sufferer, a radiant Christian; and those who found their way into his room felt the atmosphere surcharged with a heavenly quality.

He is survived by his brave and cultured wife, Sister Emma Shrader, whose loving devotion to her sick preacher-husband was like the care of a mother for her baby; four daughters, Mrs. Guy P. Webster, San Antonio; Miss Halcyon Shrader, Dallas; Miss Allie Shrader, Houston; Mrs. M. W. Hammett, Houston; one son, John H. Shrader, Scranton, and a number of other relatives.

Brother Shrader was known as a loyal and humble Methodist preacher. Being a circuit rider all his life, counting no place in God's Kingdom too small for his greatest love offerings and his best efforts, he endeared himself to thousands, and led many into a saving knowledge of his Lord and Master. In his diary we find, repeatedly, this notation, "Good revivals; church built up." Then will follow the record of his next appointment—and "Good revivals; the church strengthened." This seemed to be the passion of his ministry. Twice in the record we find this notation, "Revivals this year not successful." But in each instance there follows this record, "Second year; great revivals; church prospering."

He was loved by all who knew him because he was lovely in his life and ministry. He had the gentleness that marks the great, and the greatness that belongs to the saintly. The hard task was his challenge and humanity's need stirred his blood. So, he went as a pioneer preacher blazing trails and smoothing paths for those of us who follow him. Eternity, alone, can tell the rewards of such a life as that of H. P. Shrader.

T. EDGAR NEAL.

FRANK EDIS SINGLETON

Frank Edis Singleton was born in Enterprise Mississippi, August 29, 1877. When a child about four years of age, he heard the call of the Master, and responded by laying a complete life on the altar of service.

About 1898, at Helena, Arkansas, under the ministry of his illustrious father who was pastor in that city at the time, he heard the voice of God in the deep of his soul saying: "Whom shall I send, and who shall go for us". His answer was, "Here am I, send me".

He chose Centenary College, Shreveport, La., as his place of preparation, and here received his B.A. degree. He then went to Vanderbilt University, where he received the B.D. degree.

For a time he served as Assistant Pastor in Shreveport, La., under his brother, Rev. H. R. Singleton, and it was here that he felt a call to be a missionary. A telegram to Bishop E. E. Hoss, who had charge of the Indian Mission Conference, brought him an appointment to Perry, Oklahoma, where he served for two years. He was then sent to Alamogorda, New Mexico, serving one year.

In 1905, he transferred to the old Northwest Texas Conference, and was stationed at Grandview. The next year, he was ordained an Elder by Bishop E. E. Hoss, at Brownwood.

In 1907, he was married to Miss Ola Smith, daughter of the now sainted E. A. Smith, for many years one of the most beloved preachers of this Conference. To this union was born five sons; Frank Edis, Jr., Hampden Leon, Herman Dalton, Scott Reeves, and Albion, who died in infancy, on June 11, 1911.

In addition to the above, Bro. Singleton has served most acceptably the following charges; Glenweed, 2 years; Graham, 3 years; Dublin, 2 years; Missouri Avenue, 1 year; Mexia, 3 years. During the World War, he transferred to the Arkansas Conference, serving Helena 2 years, and Paragould 1 year. Transferring back to the Central Texas Conference, he served Brownwood, 2 years; Polytechnic, 3 years; Eastland, 3 years; Cisco, 2 years; Taylor, 2 years, and Weatherford, 2 years and 9 months. At the time of his death, Bro. Singleton was also President of the Conference Board of Missions. To this he had given an unusually large amount of time and service.

On Sunday morning, August 4, Bro. Singleton filled his pulpit as usual preaching a most beautiful and helpful sermon on Friendship. On Monday morning he went to the hospital for what was considered a minor operation. In spite of all that could be done, he grew rapidly worse, and on Sunday morning, August 11, about 2:30 a. m., his spirit took its flight to a new world, guided by the all knowing hand.

In addition to his wife and children above mentioned, he is survived by three brothers and a sister: Dr. F. R. Singleton, Slidell, La.; E. D. Singleton, Gulfport, Miss.; Chas. G. Singleton, Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. Litell S. Blumer, Moss Point, Miss. These, together with a host of friends too great to number, will ever treasure his memory and hold him in highest love and esteem.

DR. JULIUS EARL CRAWFORD

Julius Earl Crawford was born in Waxahachie, Texas, January 6, 1885. He died in Salisbury, North Carolina, while in attendance on the Western North Carolina Conference. At the Friday morning session of the Conference he had delivered one of his typically stirring addresses, his subject being "The Pillars of Stephen". Just when he became ill is not known, but at three-thirty Saturday morning, physicians who were called to attend him found that he had a fully developed case of pneumonia. From the first there was slight hope of his recovery, and his condition gradually grew worse until the end came at eight-fifty Monday morning, October 28, 1935.

Earl Crawford began his career as an untiring student in the public schools of Waxahachie. It was there that he completed his high school course. At the age of fifteen, being of a devoutly religious nature from childhood, he was licensed to exhort. Two years later he was granted license to preach. In preparation for his life's work he entered Southwestern University and continued there until his graduation in 1905, at the head of his class. That fall he was admitted on trial in the old Northwest Texas Conference, and was appointed to a small charge near Waxahachie. In November, 1906, he was ordained deacon at the session of the Conference held in Brownwood, and was appointed a student in the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University. In 1907-8 he was appointed to Bardwell, and it was while on this charge, January 8, 1908, that he was united in marriage with Miss Dora Benz, of Nashville, Tennessee. To this union two children were born, Dorothy, now Mrs. C. O. Ball, of Allen, Oklahoma, and Mary Helm who died in infancy. Mrs. Crawford died December 15, 1913. Brother Crawford was pastor at Italy, 1908-1910; 1910-1913, McKinley Avenue, now Trinity, Fort Worth; 1913-15, Cisco. In March of 1915 he was happily united in marriage to Miss Catherine Daniels, of Cisco, who with his daughter and three grand children survive him. Beside his immediate family he is also survived by four brothers and two sisters.

In the fall of 1915 Brother Crawford entered upon the first phase of the work that was to eventuate in a service that became Church-wide, and in some particulars nation-wide. From 1915-1921 he was Missionary Secretary and Centenary Secretary. He then returned to the pastorate and served Ennis for the year 1921-1922. In the fall of 1922 he again took up the work of the Centenary in the Central and Northwest Texas Conferences. He served in this capacity until 1925. As Missionary Secretary and Centenary Secretary for the Conference Brother Crawford rendered a service that attracted attention over the whole church.

Brother Crawford early in his ministry became especially interested in the work of Lay Activities and in church finance. He served on the Committee on Lay Activities at the session of the General Conference held at Hot Springs in 1922, and he has the distinction of having organized the first Church Board of Lay Activities under the new law. This was during his pastorate at Ennis and in appreciation of his labors his church complimented him with a visit to the organization session of the General Board of Lay Activities held at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, in August, 1922.

In 1925 when the General Board of Lay Activities set up the Department of Stewardship, Dr. Crawford was nominated for this position and unanimously elected. This period of his life, 1925-1935, while Associate Secretary of the General Board of Lay Activities, marks the period of his largest and richest contribution to the church. In this connection Dr. Morelock says: "He brought to his task a profound conviction on the subject, the mind of a student, and a great determination to make a real contribution to the life of the church. He succeeded beyond my fondest expectation. His book, 'The Call to Christian Stewardship' was soon succeeded by 'The Stewardship Life' and a number of valuable leaflets and pamphlets. The results of his labors were not confined to our own church. He became a member, and later, the President of the United Stewardship Council of America, representing some twenty-two denominations in this country and Canada."

Brother Crawford was a master in the field of Stewardship and "his leadership at this point was notably helped to remold the thinking of the church on this great Christian principle and the influence of his life in this direction will continue to be felt. His own life was an exemplification of the principles he taught". His understanding of church finance was such that he was an outstanding authority in this field. He made an exhaustive study of the question, and his last book, "Financial Recovery for the Local Church" is considered the best treatise extant on this subject. It has been favorably received not only in our own circles but also in many other churches. It will be no small factor in the future for the development of a sound financial system in local churches.

The limits of this paper will not allow the saying of all that might be said and properly should be said concerning this great and good man. He was an untiring worker. He went from his post of duty to meet his Lord. He wasted no time; he spared no his strength; he invested every talent, and he came down to the end of the journey with a life rich in achievement; with a contribution to the church that few men render with even more years of service to their credit, and with the highest esteem of all who knew him. He had a genius for friendship, and his friends respected, admired, trusted and loved him. His going, to them is a personal loss, and his memory will be cherished through the years.

The funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, Cisco, Thursday afternoon, October 31, in charge of his life long friend, P. E. Riley. Others who assisted were Rev. J. B. Curry, Rev. A. W. Hall, Dr. F. P. Culver and Mr. G. L. Morelock, Secretary of the General Board of Lay Activities. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Cisco.

REV. ALBIN PROVINE LIPSCOMB

Rev. Albin Provine Lipscomb was born in Lebenon, Tenn., November 28, 1865. He was left an orphan at eleven years of age. He was converted at seventeen and licensed to preach when he was twenty-one years old. After serving as a local preacher for four years, he was admitted into the Tennessee Conference in the year 1860, after two years of service there he was transferred to the old Northwest Texas Conference (1892). In the year 1910 when the Conference was divided he remained with the Central Texas Conference. His appointments were as follows: Finnis, 1892; Graham Station, 1893; Mineral Wells Mission, 1894; Eldorado, 1895; Altus Mission, 1896-97; Seymour Station, 1898; Kirkland, 1899; Strawn and Thurber, 1900-1901; Coryell City, 1902; Copperas Cove, 1903; Turnersville, 1904-1905; Whitt and Besthesda, 1907-08. He took the supernumerary relation in 1909 which he sustained until 1922, when he was granted the superannuate relation, and he held that honored place until the time of his transfer to the Church Triumphant.

In his own home in Bryson, Texas, he fell peacefully to sleep to awake in his heavenly home, on January 5, 1935.

He was devotedly married to Miss Minnie McCloud of Bryson, Texas, October 5, 1893. They lived happily together these forty-one years and three months. She lives to mourn his absence, and to carry on his work and influence in her home community.

Brother Lipscomb was a godly man. He lived according to the Gospel he preached. He was a noble and faithful servant of his Lord and Master. He loved the church and never did or said one single thing that ever cast a faint shadow upon its cause. He was a good preacher, spiritual and devout. His sermons were thought out and were delivered in the power of the spirit. The influence of this godly man shall abide long after we cease to call his name at our Conference sessions. His brethren in the ministry will always speak of him in the highest terms of love and honor.

A. D. PORTER.

JOHN TUCKER FERGUSON

John Tucker Ferguson was born at Three Forks, Bell County, Texas, October 9, 1882. His death at Fort Worth, Texas, August 11, 1935, came as the result of injuries he received when his car was hit by a truck. This tragic accident occurred on the Mansfield Highway, a short distance from Brother Ferguson's home at Forest Hill. He was returning from Smithfield where he was engaged in a revival, and as he drove up on the highway to go across the presumption is that he was blinded by the lights and did not see the approaching truck. Immediately after the accident he was carried to the Harris Hospital, Fort Worth. Every possible care and attention was given him, but his injuries were so serious that recovery was impossible.

On April 3, 1901, John T. Ferguson and Miss Bessie L. Perry, of Belton, Texas, were happily married. The young couple made their home in Belton until they entered the ranks of the itinerant ministry. To them were born twelve children. His widow and the following children survive to mourn his loss and cherish his memory: Mrs. Christine Pope; Mrs. Lucile Hamill; Robert Lee Ferguson; John T. Ferguson, Jr.; Bessie Louise Ferguson and Sam Hay Ferguson.

Bro. Ferguson was admitted on trial in 1917 at the session of the Central Texas Conference held at Georgetown. He was Ordained Deacon in 1919, and Elder in 1921. As a member of the Conference he was assigned to the following charges: Oenaville; Salado; Troy and Pendleton; Irene and Mertens; Palmer; Maypearl; Glen Rose; Meridian; Brazos Avenue, Cleburne; Desdemona; Troy and Pendleton; Godley, and Forest Hill. It was while he was in the midst of a most successful pastorate at this latter charge that the end came.

Brother Ferguson was preeminently an evangelist. He held successful meetings in his own charge, and many meetings for others. These meetings resulted in the conversion of hundreds of people, and in the membership of the churches in our Conference today there are great numbers who date their spiritual awakening to the ministry of this good man.

God had endowed him with a great physique. Tall, well proportioned; active and untiring he went about his task and did not become wearied in well doing. He had a good mind; a retentive memory; more than ordinary gifts as a preacher; and an approach to men and an understanding of them that few men ever excel. In the field of his labors he was at once effective and an efficient man.

The funeral services were held in First Church, Fort Worth, Texas, the afternoon of August 12th, conducted by his Presiding Elder, Rev. P. E. Riley, and the following: Rev. T. Edgar Neal, Rev. S. A. Baker, Rev. L. L. Felder, Dr. J. N. R. Score and Rev. J. A. Walkup. His body was laid to rest in the family lot in the cemetery at Maypearl. He died in the prime of life; his earthly ministry was brief as year are counted; his record is written on high.

P. E. RILEY.

RUFUS L. REESE

Rufus L., son of Sebern D. and Celia Jane Reese, was born in Grant County, Arkansas; May 10, 1869, and died August 30, 1935 in Abilene, Texas, being 66 years of age at his death. His moral and religious heritage was second to none. Licensed to preach in 1900 he entered the itinerant ministry of the M. E. Church, South, in which service he continued faithfully until ill health forced his superannuation in the fall of 1919. In the Little Rock Conference he served seven years, being pastor at Rowell, Bingen, Chidester, Blevins, and Pike City in that time. Transferring to the West Oklahoma Conference in the fall of 1907 he was stationed successively at Vinson, Looney, Blair, and Granite, giving three years service to that Conference. Transferring to Florida he was pastor in 1911 in Jacksonville. Coming to the Central Texas Conference he served eight years, being appointed successively to Horn Hill, Malone, Aquilla, Cress Cut, and Proctor, which was his last post.

Brother Reese was married to Miss Ada Moore in 1894. Surviving him are his wife; two sons, H. W. Reese of Abilene and R. P. Reese of Ballinger; three daughters, Mrs. I. M. Wortham of Denver, Colo., Miss Lois Reese of Abilene and Mrs. S. N. Johnson of Abilene, and a sister, Mrs. Dolly Rutherford of Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Mrs. Reese was ever a loyal and faithful companion to her pastor husband; she came of an excellent family; one of her sisters is the popular helper of an itinerant husband, Mrs. F. F. Harrell of the Little Rock Conference.

The writer of this sketch has never known a braver, more sincere soul than Rufus L. Reese. He feared nothing but the ravages of sin. To that foe of humanity he gave no quarter and expected no quarter from it. Brother Reese was a rare and unfailing friend of young people anxious to make good in life. To any such youth he would render any assistance within his ability. This pastor found in him a true shepherd in the decisive years of his conversion, call to preach, and entrance upon ministerial training. R. L. Reese was a preacher of more than ordinary gifts, unction, and effectiveness; he put his best into all of his preaching. And his preaching bore fruit in the edification of believers and the conversion of sinners. He was natural, jovial, hearty in all of his associations and friendships. Like many other unpromising disciples of the Master he was often the victim of unfortunate circumstances; moreover, ill health put limits on his pastoral ministry and brought it to an untimely close. The last ten years of his superannuate life he lived in Abilene, Texas, where in the First Methodist Church a funeral service in his honor was led by Rev. W. C. Childress on September 1, 1935. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Abilene. In the Promised Land he carries on; we shall find him there.

His son in the Gospel,

R. P. JAMES.
