not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight

FELLOWSHIP OF LOCAL PASTOR SESSION

This session was held in the Loft of Mansfield FUMC under the leadership of Mike Kerzee.

THIRD SESSION MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 2014 CALL TO ORDER

Annual Conference was called to order by Bishop Mike Lowry. He commended the service and sessions thus far and asked us to turn our attention to Rev. Mark Winter.

JOINT CLERGY/LAY MEMORIAL WORSHIP SERVICE

The joint Clergy/Lay Memorial Worship Service was opened by Rev. Mark Winter who read from Psalms 23. Mark then spoke about the valley of death and how going through it can be different for each of us, and that St. Paul calls out for every follower of Jesus to mourn with those who mourn, and carry their hurts. St. Frances said that we can all make a difference in the world if we just sit and share in their pain, their sorrow, and their hurt. Remembering that we don't have to use words at all.

Bishop Leeland led us in prayer. Then Dr. Virginia Bassford read from Romans 5:1. Bishop Leeland preached using Romans 5:1 Rev. Carol Woods asked everyone to stand during the Naming of the Saints. Mrs. Kim Simpson asked everyone to stand during the Central Texas Conference Memorial, each district was called, names read and the congregation responded with "Thank you Lord for these your servants." Those lay persons, in each district, and those clergy and surviving spouses of our conference, who had passed away during the year were listed in the Worship Guide and remembered in a special liturgy. Bishops Lowry and Leeland prepared communion and it was served to conference attendees.

Bishop Lowry then called the Annual Conference back to order.

WELCOME TO EAST DISTRICT

Rev. Bob Holloway, Host District Superintendent, welcomed the Central Texas Annual Conference to Mansfield.

WELCOME TO MANSFIELD UMC

Rev. Mike Ramsdell, Host Pastor, welcomed the Central Texas Annual Conference to Mansfield FUMC, Mansfield.

ORGANIZATION OF THE CONFERENCE RANDY WILD

Dr. Randy Wild outlined the various items needed for the smooth operation of our time together. Alternate Representatives need to see their District Administrator in the event of a change of member. Dr. Wild gave some instructions with regards for living together.

First, Dr. Wild moved for the adoption of the agenda with necessary changes as needed. (Approved) Second, Dr. Wild moved to approve the tellers and secretaries as printed on page 6 of the preliminary report. (Approved) Finally, Dr. Wild moved that the bar of the conference would include all sections of the sanctuary with the exception of the back three rows and chairs along the right side of the sanctuary. (Approved) Bishop Lowry clarified that church law calls for everyone eligible to be voted on have a designated three-digit number; he then asked for any additional nominations to be added. Darcy Dupree, FUMC Ft. Worth nominated Carolyn Stephens, who was then added to the list.

CFA INTRODUCTION OF 2014 BUDGET JOHN MCKELLAR

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS BISHOP MIKE LOWRY

Bishop Lowry opened his address with prayer. His message was taken from Philippians 4:4-8. We need to be a people of good news of the Gospel. God is doing a great and wonderful thing among us focusing on the cardinal mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Conference Center has one goal – which is to energize local churches for mission. During the past two years we have improved as a conference, not just metrics, but narratives. In addition, we have been participating with 11 other conferences (Vital Congregations) tracking 5 different things. By themselves, vital signs never tell the whole story, they must be linked to the whole story – the narrative.

Bishop Lowry lifted up the ministry of Dr. Tom Beaty and then one small congregation at Rockbridge Church. Bishop lifted up the five star congregations that are making disciples through the faithful and hardworking congregations around the conference. There is the reality of deep cultural change sweeping over us. We need to live with perseverance and hope. Bishop Lowry lead us in song and closed in prayer.

Bishop Lowry and Dr. Randy Wild then consecrated a deaconess, Megan Elizabeth Hale. The office of Deaconess was created in 1888. Megan was consecrated at the UMW General Assembly in April of this year.

CENTER FOR EVANGELISM & CHURCH GROWTH GARY LINDLEY

Gary Lindley said that the full report could be found on page 39 of the preliminary report. The Healthy Church Initiative is a process designed to transform churches. Our focus is on providing resources and strategies to laity, pastors church pastors, staff, laity, and congregations so that they in turn will be able to reach new people for Christ and become the church God wants them to be in their community.

Gary stated that in 2013 CFE&CG partnered with First UMC, Fort Worth and Keller UMC to start two satellite congregations. Working with their coach, Phil Maynard, First

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

7th and Keller West have begun preview services and are preparing for their official launch.

Thompson Chapel has served the North Fort Worth community for more than a 100 years. Working with their coach and consultant, Jerry Roberson, the Thompson Chapel congregation voted to become a legacy church and to be part of starting a new multi-ethnic congregation. Pastor Carr and Jerry Roberson is working with their launch team to find the right location to launch this new ministry. The goal is to see the new church starting this fall.

This year we partnered with Path 1, the General Church Agency responsible to work with Annual Conferences to start new churches and faith communities, in the Large Impact Residency Program. The purpose of the program is to place a high potential new church start pastor on the staff of a large vital congregations to experience a large church and to be coached and trained by the pastors and staff. White's Chapel UMC is our first Residency Congregation and Shea Reyenga our first intern. Shea will be starting a new faith community in July with the support of White's Chapel.

HARRY DENMAN AWARD FOR EVANGELISM GARY LINDLEY

We would like to recognize two distinguished people who have that outstanding evangelistic spirit. The first is a lay person and the award goes to Jimmy Adams of Arlington FUMC. The clergy award goes to pastor Elizabeth "Betsy" Godbold of White's Chapel UMC.

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION TOM LOCKE

The Bishop recognized Tom Locke as the President of the Texas Methodist Foundation Once again, the Texas Methodist Foundation ended 2013, our 75th year of existence, as a stronger organization than we began the year. This trajectory has repeated itself annually for many years and is a pattern we intend to continue. The gains of 2013 are based, in part, due to our undesignated endowment which grew during the year by approximately $3 million dollars, which does not include a dedicated endowment to our Leadership Ministry. Our staffing expanded greatly during the year due to the depth and breadth of leadership and staff effectiveness. During 2013, our staff and board grants committee underwent an intentional process of reviewing and revising our grants program to reflect the new direction which is consistent with our strategic direction.

Tom also explained that in addition to continuing to refine and implement our strategic direction, we have begun analyzing our brand in the marketplace, developed a new tagline, and formalized an initiative for envisioning and accomplishing our goals for the next five years. The significance of these highlights and our growth, both in financial gains and in growth in human and intellectual capital, however, lies, ultimately, in the lives changed in local congregations across the state where our services helped enable ministry. The measure of success for our services – investments, loans, stewardship ministry, leadership ministry, and charitable services, including gift planning, church endowments, and grants – is in how effective they are at helping individuals and congregations fulfill God’s purposes, as together we work to make Christ’s love visible in the world.

UNITED COMMUNITY CENTERS CELIA ESPARZA

Celia Esparza presented a report from United Community Centers (UCC) which was begun as a UMW project. UCC has had more volunteers this year than ever before. UCC was founded in 1909 by two UMW women from Hurst, guided by Christian principles of “We serve and empower those in need”. In the past year, we have served 290 children, 71,055 meals. We are licensed for afterschool care pre-k through 8th grade, in addition to a youth program 9th grade through 12th grades. Our mobile pantry serves over 20,000 of food in less than an hour once a month. For more information you can go to www.unitedcommunitycenters.org. Finally, we need more volunteers, we are hosting a 10-week summer program providing a fun, safe, and educational setting for children in June; July; and August.

Several weeks later a tornado touched down in the Granbury area. Another part of the ministry of the CFMS is the relationship with the Eastern Mexico Annual Conference. Bishop Lowry visited with the EMAC to establish this partnership and this year we welcome the Rev. Samuel Matthias to be the pastor of La Trinidad UMC. Phillip then recognized Rev. Dawne Philips to recognize the 5-star mission congregations. Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES UPDATE B.J. RICHMOND/STEVE MCIVER

Bishop Lowry introduced B.J. Richmond, who presented the Trustee report, the full report can be found in the preliminary report page 190. He introduced Steve McIver, Chairperson of the Building Committee. Steve showed floor plans on the screen while he explained that two years ago, the body approved the original lease for 10-years and said that TWU offered us an additional two (2) years at $100,000 per year, which is half the price of the current price per square foot in the area. Steve went on to say that we have several people interested in the service center and that the highest bid so far is 1.5 million which is about half million more than expected. B.J. then made a motion on behalf of the Board of Trustees, the Core team and CF&A to extend the lease on the new property for an additional two (2) years at an additional cost of $200,000 with all other parts to remain in force as is. Randy Wild, explained that this motion does not need a second, he went on to say that construction should begin soon and may be ready this time next year. He went on to say that the new building is part of the Rosedale Street Project. Motion passed. B.J. then presented the second item a proposal to replace our current Safe Sanctuaries sexual abuse prevention policy with Ministry Safe plan, the reason is for concern for emotional and financial strain of local churches. Reed Justus of Clifton UMC asks how this will affect his church's preschool center. Randy Wild confirmed that the background checks will continue to be duplicated at conference level. Rachel Heyduck of Euless asked if background checks will continue to be duplicated at the conference level, Randy said that efforts will be made to prevent double-work. Matthew Bonam asked if each church will have the ability to tailor policies to their individual needs, Randy said that any local church can go above this plan, but that the plan will be the baseline; tailoring will definitely be possible. You can see the full report on page 192 of the preliminary report.

Bishop Lowry holds the vote; it carries. Bishop then thanked the Board of Trustees for their work and introduced Rev. Travis Franklin to give the report for Glen Lake Camp.

GLEN LAKE CAMP & STILL WATER RETREAT CENTERS TRAVIS FRANKLIN

Travis Franklin thanked the conference for their support over the past 75 years and cites Margaret Barber, "We look backwards in order to help us move forward." Travis asked if you have had their lives impacted by camping or retreat ministry to stand. Many stand in response. Travis read the new camp mission statement. He went on to say that the camp registrations are up for the first time in eight (8) years and retreat numbers have also increased. We hope to serve between 14,000 and 15,000 people. New ministries are being developed for children in difficult situations, we are partnering with Camp Agape to help children who have lost a parent to cancer as well as, Texas Health Resources to bring pre-diabetic children to the camp. Travis explained that we are in need of new and more volunteers, in addition, we have reorganized the staff and they are incredible. A couple other things that have or will be happening are, In March at spring break, kids were invited to a fishing camp; Joseph Nadar started an alumni council; a partnership with Kleidoscope, Inc.; a new service element, senior high students will be packing 28,000 meals for other kids; and the Laura Edwards Christian Early Childhood center in Waco closed and the board donated their remaining funds to Glen Lake Camp to be used for underprivileged kids. Travis said that the main goal of the camp is to strengthen the connection with the local church – to serve the local church.

Bishop Lowry praised the ministries mentioned. Bishop then changed the schedule to now include the break that was missed earlier and asked Jim Sanders, upon our return, to open the meeting with prayer.

Rev. Jim Sanders, opened the meeting with, "In my language, dear friends, we've been on a cattle drive.", then opened in prayer. Bishop Lowry introduced Barkley Berdan of Texas Health Resources.

TEXAS HEALTH RESOURCES BARCLAY BERDAN

Mr. Berdan explained that at the end of the year, the C.E.O. is retiring and a plan is in place for his replacement. Barclay said that THR is the largest health system in North Texas and is committed to improving the health of people in communities where they serve. He went on to explain that they are working with Glen Lake at Camp Champs to bring pre-diabetic children to help those living with diabetes to learn skills and nutrition at a two-day camp in September, they will learn about proper nutrition and exercise along with spiritual support and encouragement. Beyond the $25.00 cost per child, all other costs will be paid by THR.

Barclay then presented a video that explains how THR attend to the bodily and spiritual needs of patients. He then recognized those on the Board of Directors and the THR chaplains.

Bishop Lowry thanked Barclay and asks him to take our gratitude back to THR. Bishop then asked Randy Wild to present the resolutions.

RESOLUTIONS

Randy Wild explained that there was one (1) resolution that has been laying on the table for 24-hours. Randy introduces the resolution to hold a holy conversation. Reed Justus of Clifton FUMC moved that the resolution be tabled indefinitely, and Bruce Carpenter seconded the motion. Reed Justus then expanded upon his concern. Katherine Hicks, retired elder at Genesis UMC, refers to General Conference and asks if I say yes to this proposal how does that affect delegates going forward? Randy stated that no resolution passed by an annual conference is binding on the delegates. This is only informational. Chris Hayes, Keller UMC speaks against the motion to table, he feels that part of the reason for the decline is opposition to holy conversation and that we are called as Wesleyans and Christians to have conversation. Bishop Lowry asked that applause be held in order to respect the differences of opinion. Mary Spradlin, Arlington Heights UMC speaks against tabling, she is against the body tabling a conversation intended to promote understanding. Bishop requests a speech for tabling; there is none; he then announces that he will give Reed Justus a final word before the vote. Steve Langford, FUMC Georgetown, speaks against tabling, if indeed we are to change, it requires some things to be done differently, we've never talked about differences on key issues and I am against avoiding key issues any longer.

Bishop Lowry calls Reed Justus for the final word, Reed acknowledges that holy conferencing is important, but that this conversation would focus on one issue that may splinter the church, and that he feels we should do holy conferencing on why the decline of our denomination first, then other issues. Bishop asks if the body is ready to vote; there is assent. Bishop then repeats that the motion is to table the matter indefinitely; voting for is a vote to table; voting against is to vote on the resolution. Bishop asked the body to stand if in favor of tabling; Bishop then asked the body to stand if against tabling; he then announced that the motion to table failed.

D Bishop Lowry calls attention back to the motion itself, he calls for the vote; the motion passes. Bishop then clarifies that the motion will be forwarded to the Center for Mission Support to work out the details. Bishop then introduces Carl Stenger to present a resolution.

Carl Stenger, explains that the resolution “Real & Personal Properties”, will restore rules about how to handle conference properties, specifically to restore the conference policy standing rules for handling abandoned church properties. Carl then gives the history of property rules of UMC, which are that it has been the policy of the church to use proceeds from the sale of properties for new evangelical pursuits, therefore the Director of Center for Evangelism & Church Growth be named property manager. Carl moves for adoption. Jeannie Trevino-Teddle asks if the accuracy is impacted by capitalization errors in the resolution, Carl agrees to the change for accuracy and proposes adding “Methodist Protestant Church” to the resolution for accuracy. Jeannie and Carl’s amendments accepted. Tim Boeglin notes that the resolution calls for the use of proceeds to be used for evangelical efforts and asks for a more specific designation. Bishop Lowry notes that a more specific designation exists-proceeds used for new church development. Gary Lindley then explained that the language needs to change to reflect the actual conference action. Bishop then notes that the language will be changed from “evangelical” to “new church ventures”. Bishop then calls for a vote; it passes.

UNITED METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE ERIC MCKINNEY

Eric greeted the assembly and expressed gratitude for support of and suggestions for the ministry of the Publishing House. Eric explained the four basic ways to gather information from Cokesbury, they are; the Cokesbury call center has been expanded and upgraded; Cokesbury.com has special offers and live chat features; Cokesbury displays at events, meetings and at annual conferences; and Cokesbury has Community Resource Consultants that have knowledge of product lines and can assist in finding resources. Three vital resources are Covenant Bible Study; Disciple Bible study; Common English Bible; and Ministry matters.com. Eric again thanked the assembly for their support and use of Cokesbury as many other publishing houses cannot sustain themselves. Bishop Lowry thanked Eric for his report and said that we would take an 11-minute break then would hear the CF&A report.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Frank Briggs, chairman of the Board of Pension. Frank Briggs presented the Board of Pension report. He explained that most has been passed on the consent agenda. We will be voting on the Past Service Rate (PSR) and one other item. First there is a video that discusses the shared responsibility of providing for retirement of clergy. The report can be found on page 172 of the preliminary report which establishes the PSR for those serving prior to 1982. Recommendation is made of a little over 1% increase which will keep our retirees well ahead of the Cost of Living curve. This honors our retirees and keeps our plan sustainable. Next, on page 178 of the preliminary report, Line 1, Health Insurance has been kept the same with no increase. Last year the rate dropped. Changes increase in deductible from 500 to 1,000 and the premiums increased 9.9% and includes a dental plan for 2015. We worked very hard to find solutions for everyone in our coverage. Changes happen quickly and the ACA is changing and affecting us daily. We will continue to monitor ACA and find good benefits that are affordable and sustainable. Frank moved for the adoption of the report.

Bishop Lowry acknowledges that there is no need for a second, he then clarifies that there are two things to be voted on, but suggests that we vote on both at once. Bishop asks if there are any question, being none, Bishop asks for a vote on the whole report, including both items, it passes. Frank announces that it is very important for those clergy under 40-years of age to be proactive and invest for retirement.

Frank expresses thanks to our effective benefits administrator, Shawn-Marie Riley and Randy Wild and Mavis Howell. Frank then acknowledges, Paula Whitbeck, who serves as a member of the General Board and he recognizes the members of the Board of Pensions. Bishop Lowry acknowledges the work of the Board of Pensions and asks those gathered to thank them. Bishop then introduces John McKellar.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION JOHN MCKELLAR

John McKellar presented the CF&A report and said that most of the report was approved on the consent calendar with the exception of the following items: Report #1, page 149 of the preliminary report, there was an increase in number of churches that paid their full 100% of their connectional mission giving. This was an increase of 4.87 percent and our highest payout since 1999. John stated that our goal is to be responsive and transparent with financial information and that the conference website contains a wealth of information. He then moves for acceptance of Report #1. John Schullar of Alliance asks for a correction on reported number from Alliance “cross out the 899.” Bishop Lowry asks for a vote; it carries.

John then presented Report #3 on page 152 of the preliminary report, the new lines added to promote transparency are contingency fund balance and permanent reserve operating balance. Bishop noted that this report is mostly informational, and asks if there are any questions, none being asked, Bishop Lowry calls for the vote; it passes.

John then presented information on Report #11 on page 154 of the preliminary report pertains to the Lydia Patterson Institute's request for $300,000, which will be fulfilled by a special offering to be held in September, which will be planned after the vote. Bishop clarifies that the vote is for the report including the financial obligation, not for the plan to provide it in any particular way; CF&A cannot use budget funds to meet the pledge without asking the conference next year, but will use fundraising. Bishop Lowry asked if there are any questions, none being asked, Bishop Lowry calls for the vote; it carries.

John then presents the 2015 Budget, no additions were made by the conference and John moved for the adoption as presented. Bishop Lowry asked if there are any questions, none being asked, Bishop Lowry calls for the vote; it carries. John acknowledges the work of the staff. Bishop Lowry thanked John for his work and authorizes Randy Wild to advise Lydia Patterson our pledge as passed in the previous resolution.

He then thanked the FUMC Mansfield Volunteers; FUMC Mansfield Logistics team; Conference Service Center staff; District Administrators; Worship Leaders; Sing Interpreters; Tellers; Secretaries; Conference Planning Team; Ed Komandosky, Parliamentarian and asked every to express their gratitude for a job well done. Darren Walker of FUMC Belton, called our attention to the pay-day loan businesses who are destroying lives and families. He called for us to pray for those involved in this. Bishop Lowry thanked Darren and has been discussing this with other bishops and legislators.

Bishop Lowry asked Randy Wild to pray for our missionaries, our appointments and our returning to the mission field, especially Jeri and Bill Sevidos, who are experiencing health issues. Randy offered a prayer for the Sevidos and those on our hearts and minds.

17. Are all the clergy members of the conference blameless in their life and official administration (¶¶604.4, 605.6)? Yes, except those being reviewed by the appropriate bodies.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Yes, to the best of our knowledge, with the exception of those who are involved in supervisory correction and/or Judicial or Administrative complaint processes. We, the bishop, conference lay leader, and cabinet members, take very seriously the call to moral excellence in the lives of pastors and conference leaders. We offer our signatures to answer this question, knowing that only by the grace of God can any of us be blameless in our life and official administration.

2014 ANNUAL CONFERENCE CORE TEAM

WHAT DOES THE CONFERENCE CORE TEAM DO?

The core team keeps the Annual Conference mission, vision, values and core strategies constantly in the forefront. It spearheads and coordinates long range planning for CTC based on direction given by the Annual Conference and monitors the progress we are making in living into the expectations of the Exodus Project. The Core Team provides critical review, from a big picture perspective, on the alignment of budget, deployment of resources, major policy issues, and outcomes of the centers. It creates a culture of accountability against those outcomes and direction laid out by the Annual Conference and makes sure we are faithful to the current Book of Discipline. It identifies emerging missional needs and recommends deploying resources to meet the need. It may determine other task groups needed, such as, Annual Conference planning, Personnel oversight, and recommendations of changes to CTC Guiding Principles and Best Practices. It reviews and gives feedback to the Bishop and Executive Directors about any matters they wish to process with the group.

2014 CORE TEAM REPORT

The Conference Core Team has met three times since Annual Conference 2013. We meet to provide critical review, alignment, major policy oversight and deployment of resources. We have reviewed; the 2013 end of year financial reports, the proposed new building plans for the Conference Service Center (to be located at Texas Wesleyan University), and plans for early voting by both clergy and laity; discussed and affirmed the Thematic Goal and Defining Objectives presented by the Cabinet and plans for 2014 through 2016 annual conferences; heard updates on center strategies and goals; and hired a consultant for the Exodus Project Review. Out of our work come the following reports and recommendations:

1. The Core Team has hired Mike Bonem to do an evaluation of the progress in implementing the Exodus Project and make recommendations (adopted in the November 13, 2010 Annual Conference and Annual Conference 2011 Implementation plans) back to the Core Team and 2015 Annual Conference session.
2. The Core Team recommends that the 2015 Annual Conference be held June 7-10, 2015 at White's Chapel UMC in Southlake, Texas.
3. The Core Team recommends that the June 5-8, 2016 Annual Conference be held at the Waco Convention Center in Waco, Texas.
4. The Core Team has reviewed and discussed a proposal from the Lydia Patterson Institute regarding a Capital Campaign, which would include a pledge of $300,000 from the Central Texas Conference. The Core Team found the proposal to be consistent with the conference mission of ministry with the poor and developing the next generation of leaders. The Core Team is in favor of the request which is a CFA and the Annual Conference decision.
5. The Core Team affirms the work of the CTC Cabinet on the Thematic Goal and Defining Objectives which give additional focus to the work of the Exodus Project (see cabinet report).
6. The Core Team recommends to the conference trustees, in an advisory capacity only, to look into a possible two year extension on the Conference lease agreement with Texas Wesleyan University.
7. The Core Team strongly recommends and endorses the training of all conference and district leadership using Bishop Schnase's book, Seven Levers: Missional Strategies for Conferences. This is set for October 4, 2014 to be held at the Waco Convention Center.
8. The Core Team affirms the work of Mission Support in the selection of Ministry Safe, which is a complete safety system designed to reduce the risk of abuse in our conference.
9. The Core Team has reviewed and affirmed the proposed 2015 budget for alignment towards our mission.

UPDATE ON EXODUS PROJECT

A TRANSFORMATIONAL ROADMAP FOR A CHURCH IN TRANSITION

On November 13, 2010 in a called session of annual conference held at First UMC Mansfield, the conference voted to adopt a new way of being. The Exodus Project: A Transformational Roadmap for a Church in Transition was built on the idea that change will happen and we need a process that can respond and adapt to that change quickly.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

The mission field shifts, conditions within the conference change, and people step into and out of positions of leadership. Nothing remains static. So, the issue is not one of method but of mindset. The adoption document stated the Study Group would come to the 2011 Annual Conference with documents detailing implementation. A timeline was part of the plan. Those plans were approved. After 24 months of initial implementation the Central Texas Conference is ready to bring in an outside consultant to evaluate and make recommendations for our continuing way forward. The Conference Core Team has hired Mike Bonem to lead that process and to formally report back to Annual Conference 2015. We have enclosed the following materials to show the scope of his work for us.

PREPARING FOR THE EXODUS PROJECT REVIEW DISCUSSION DOCUMENT FOR THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE

The timeline for the Exodus Project of the Central Texas Conference (CTC) calls for an outside review after the annual conference in June 2014. This review will provide feedback on CTC's implementation of the Exodus Project. The details regarding this review, however, have not been specified. This document is intended to be a starting point for discussion among the conference's leadership to give direction to the review process.

G

It is important to remember that the Exodus Project is a huge transformation initiative. It calls for a culture shift within CTC that trickles down to every local congregation. As such, it would be unreasonable to expect significant changes in the aggregate metrics (e.g., conference-wide average worship attendance) in the first two years. Of course, these need to be considered, but the review needs to be more comprehensive. If these top-level statistical measures were the only thing to consider, the review process would be simple.

In preparing for the review, CTC's leadership needs to distinguish between two independent but related questions: "what?" and "how?" What criteria will be used to evaluate CTC and the Exodus Project? How will this evaluation be done? Careful consideration of these questions needs to be done before the review begins. Thoughtful, advance design is more efficient and will lead to more meaningful results. If done well, the evaluation process can become a template for the future. Subsequent CTC evaluations may not be as extensive as in 2014, but they can be based on the same criteria and concepts. Doing so will create consistency in the measurement process, which will reinforce CTC's priorities and enable the conference to monitor key trends.

WHAT CRITERIA WILL BE USED?

The answer to "what" must begin with CTC's mission, which is "to energize and equip local congregations to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." This positions CTC as a service organization with local congregations as the "client." It defines the ultimate goal as disciple-making and large-scale transformation. Beyond this, the Five Practices, Four Focus Areas, and Core Values further define the criteria that should be considered in the evaluation.

Another way to think about the evaluation criteria is to ask this question: what are the best indicators that we are accomplishing our mission? The following three questions provide a framework for the "what" conversation: (a) Is statistical progress being made? (b) Is the culture beginning to shift? (c) Is CTC is doing what it said it would do? The remainder of this section further explains each of these questions and recommends specific criteria to be used.

IS STATISTICAL PROGRESS BEING MADE?

The first question focuses on quantitative indicators. The vital signs for local congregations (which relate to the Five Practices) are the starting point. The review should begin by looking at the aggregate data for:

- Average worship attendance
- Baptisms and professions and reaffirmations of faith
- Small group attendance
- Involvement in service
- Giving

These statistics should be considered over several years in order to identify important trends. It will also be important to look deeper than the aggregate numbers in this portion of the evaluation. By identifying specific categories of interest and micro-trends, insights may emerge that are not apparent in the aggregate numbers. These are likely to be particularly useful in developing key implications and recommendations. This analysis is discussed further in the “how” section below.

Beyond these standard metrics, a handful of other indicators will offer additional perspective on CTC’s progress. Some of the additional metrics may come from analysis of the above data, while others are completely independent. CTC should include the following in its evaluation:

- New church starts (or new worship communities)
- New clergy under appointment (or new clergy under the age of 40)
- Churches that are growing (or that have reversed a decline)

It is important for CTC to limit the number of metrics that are used and to resist the temptation to include everything that is (or can be) quantified. By creating a limited but meaningful set of metrics, CTC will have a clear picture of the progress of the Exodus Project.

IS THE CULTURE BEGINNING TO SHIFT?

The second question recognizes that aggregate statistics don’t change quickly, so it attempts to look “below the surface.” The word “beginning” is an important part of this question. The culture begins to shift when conference staff, pastors, and lay leaders change the ways that they think about their roles and their congregations. This should cause them to launch mission-driven initiatives. The fruit from these initiatives may not be evident yet, but it should become apparent in the future. The question of culture shift applies at the conference and local church levels. It will be answered primarily through survey(s) and interviews.

At the local church level, another way to frame this portion of the evaluation is: “If a church/pastor is doing _____, then we believe that this will ultimately produce the desired outcomes.” Based on the Exodus Project and CTC’s Core Values and Focus Areas, this blank can be filled with key activities such as:

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- Assessing/understanding the mission field that surrounds the congregation
- Launching a new initiative that is designed to reach that mission field
- Conducting a discernment/planning process
- Making a major change based on the church's vision/plan
- Changing the Sunday school/small group structure or format in order to focus more on spiritual growth and/or to involve more people
- Engaging the congregation in at least one new mission effort
- Teaching on evangelism (whether through a class, sermons, or other means)
- Teaching on Wesleyan tradition (whether through a class, sermons, or other means)
- Creating new worship services/communities to reach new people
- Redefining the pastor's role so that he/she spends more time in the mission field

At the conference level, culture shift should be evident in programming decisions and allocation of time and resources. The early indicators could include new programs that have been launched, old programs that have been modified or cancelled, streamlined decision-making, funding that reflects stated goals, and the ways that conference staff (including district superintendents) spend their time. Some of these relate to the third broad criteria discussed in the next section.

As with statistical indicators, it is important to focus on areas that directly relate to CTC's mission and to limit the number of dimensions being assessed. The design and implementation of the survey(s) and interviews is discussed in the "how" section.

IS CTC DOING WHAT IT SAID?

A central part of the Exodus project is the change in the way that CTC functions. This final question focuses on how these changes are perceived by the "clients" in the mission field. It relates to the mission of energizing and equipping local congregations.

As with the previous question on culture shift, this question will be answered primarily through survey(s) and interviews. Specific topics that will be explored include the perception of:

- Services provided by the conference, including programs, training, and communication.
- Shift in the role of the DS, including the degree of change and the impact (positive or negative) of the shift.
- Structural changes made due to the Exodus Project.
- The degree to which pastors feel equipped and supported in their roles.

Each of these points will be covered by one or more questions on the survey(s) and, when appropriate, in the interviews as well.

HOW WILL THE EVALUATION BE DONE?

The recommended "what's" go far beyond aggregate metrics, which leads to the second question: how should the review be done? Even these complicated and subjective "what" questions can be answered with the right "how." Specifically, the review should be comprised of four activities: (a) Analyze the Data, (b) Survey Constituents, (c) Synthesize Narrative Interviews, and (d) Interview Key Stakeholders.

ANALYZE THE DATA

Of course, the review effort cannot be done without looking at the data as described above. Data collection for this step is not expected to be a major problem since congregations already submit quite a bit of information. As much as possible, this step in the evaluation should be confined to data that CTC already has on hand.

To be most useful, however, the analysis needs to drill down to a deeper level so that additional insights can be gained. This “drill down” includes:

- Looking at sub-categories to identify important trends that may be hidden in the aggregate data. In other words, it is interesting to know the change in worship attendance over the past five years. It is much more helpful, however, to see the common denominators of congregations that are growing or declining. Some of the sub-tenure of the current pastor, past division/conflict, etc.
- Highlighting anomalies (due to inconsistent or inaccurate reporting) that may lead to inaccurate conclusions. For example, if a church's reported participation in small groups is 0 in 2011 and 75 in 2012, it is possible that this is a reporting error. It is impossible to weed out all of these anomalies, but an effort should be made to identify them and clean up the numbers before drawing any conclusions.
- Identifying success stories that should be investigated. Data doesn't paint the whole picture, but it often points to important stories. This deeper analysis can feed into the “synthesize narratives” portion of the evaluation.

SURVEY CONSTITUENTS

A well-designed survey can get behind the numbers. It can give insights into (a) changes at the local level as a result of the Exodus project, (b) the quality and value of what the conference is offering to local congregations, and (c) perceptions about the structural changes that have been made.

The survey should be done online and should include clergy and lay leaders from all local congregations in CTC. It may be appropriate to develop different versions of the survey for these two groups. The majority of the survey should be based on rating or ranking questions, which are easy to tabulate. The survey will seek feedback on the “what” questions described in the previous section, particularly those related to culture shift and the restructuring of the conference. The survey will also include one or more narrative questions that allow respondents to provide other significant information.

It will be important for the survey to include demographic questions that will enable further analysis. Some of the demographic questions are obvious (e.g., age of the respondent, type of community that the congregation is in). Other kinds of “demographic” questions are less obvious but will be very helpful. For example, if a pastor is unhappy with his/her last appointment, the entire survey may have a negative bias. The analysis of the survey should include key findings from the overall results and from this cross-tabulation.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Survey design will be extremely important. There are a number of topics to cover, but the survey needs to not be too lengthy. Questions need to be written as clearly as possible. Participants who may not speak English need to be considered. CTC will enlist a small task force to give input to the design of the survey. In addition, the survey should be field-tested with a limited number of people before it is launched. It will also be important for CTC to actively promote participation in order to get a good response rate.

SYNTHESIZE NARRATIVE INTERVIEWS

We know that the objective information from data analysis and surveys only tells part of the story. That is why it is valuable to listen to and synthesize narratives from interviews as part of the review process. Narratives are especially important in assessing whether the culture is beginning to shift. For example, a church may have recently engaged in “risk-taking mission and service” in some way. The reported statistics may or may not give evidence of this. The number of people involved in missions may have increased. But if the church moved people from an old, ineffective ministry to something that is riskier and more missional, the numbers may not have changed. If they tried something innovative that “failed,” the reported numbers could even decline from one year to the next. This is just one example of the importance of supporting narratives. Synthesis is the process of looking beyond individual stories to identify important trends.

The narrative step of the review should begin with the constituent survey by asking one or more free response questions that will indicate the story behind the numbers. A critical review of all of these responses should then be done to look for broad trends and the degree to which the Exodus Project is impacting local congregations. After this, a small number of congregations should be selected for closer examination. The chosen congregations should be those that appear to represent important trends (positive and negative) based on the review of the data and surveys. For these congregations, a follow-up interview (by phone or in-person) should be conducted to add a deeper level of understanding to the narratives. This process of review and synthesis should reveal bright spots and key lessons as well as pervasive issues that need to be addressed.

INTERVIEW KEY STAKEHOLDERS

The final recommended activity in the review process is to interview key stakeholders. This is different from the interviews described in the “narrative” section above. Stakeholder interviews should be designed to obtain broad perspective on the conference’s effectiveness in implementing the Exodus Project. Ideally, these interviews will be done as the last step in the process, so that the interview questions are informed by the insights and issues that have been surfaced in the other three activities. Stakeholders will presumably include the bishop, center directors, district superintendents, conference lay leader, members of the alignment task force, and others as needed.

CONCLUSIONS, IMPLICATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The Exodus project evaluation, as described in this document, will generate a substantial amount of data. To provide the greatest value to CTC, the evaluation must go beyond raw data— it needs to be summarized into meaningful conclusions and it needs to identify key implications and recommendations.

One way to simplify the communication of results is to summarize the information into a “dashboard.” A dashboard provides a high level, qualitative summary as illustrated below.

Exodus Project “Dashboard”

The dashboard is a visual depiction of the assessment of the Exodus project. Each high-level indicator is based on multiple underlying factors that are quantitative or semi-quantitative.

This “dashboard” is based on the three evaluation criteria that are identified in this document. The ratings represent aggregate results from the underlying data. For example, statistical progress would be based on worship attendance, baptisms and professions of faith, small group attendance, and involvement in service, giving, and any other factors that are deemed to be key statistical metrics. A dashboard user should be able to “drill down” to look at these details. When the evaluation project reaches this stage, CTC’s leadership will need to be involved in “calibrating” the dashboard to decide what constitutes great or poor performance.

The conclusions, as captured in the dashboard and supporting data, will lead to the other important dimension – identification of key implications and recommendations. The final report from the evaluation should give CTC’s leadership insight into questions such as:

- What is working well?
- What is not working well?
- What should we do differently?
- How should our limited resources be directed to get the biggest benefit?

The goal in answering these questions is not to produce a laundry list, but a limited number of high leverage recommendations for CTC. The expectation of well-defined implications and recommendations should be a consideration in the way that survey questions are designed and interviews are conducted.

NEXT STEPS AND SCHEDULE

A number of steps will need to be taken to move from the recommendations presented in this document to the implementation and completion of the Exodus Project evaluation.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Key steps, along with a preliminary estimate of the timeline, are outlined below:

- January 20 – Core leadership team receives “Preparing for the Exodus Project Review” (this document)
- January 26 – Core leadership team meets to give input on the evaluation process
- February 15 – Document modified based on input from core leadership
- February – April 1 – Document sent to other key constituents for feedback
- April – Scope of evaluation project finalized
- May 1 – Information on evaluation project included in annual conference materials
- June – Consultant selected to conduct evaluation
- June – Report presented at annual conference
- September – Begin evaluation project
- April 1, 2015 – Complete evaluation project and submit report

G This document lays the ground work for the Exodus Project evaluation. As the project is formally launched, refinements will inevitably be made. Doing so will lead to greater clarity and a more robust evaluation tool which will benefit CTC in 2014 and for years to come.

Dr. Georgia Adamson
Assistant to the Bishop and Executive Director, Center for Leadership
Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church
Fort Worth, TX 76107

Dear Georgia:

I am pleased to submit this proposal for a consulting project that will evaluate the Central Texas Conference's Exodus Project. This review is a significant milestone for the Exodus Project and will provide important feedback that can shape future plans for the conference. The remainder of this letter outlines the objective, scope and arrangements for the proposed project.

OBJECTIVE, SCOPE AND TIMING

The objective of this consulting project is to conduct an in-depth, independent review of the Exodus Project. The Exodus Project, which was adopted in 2010, set the wheels in motion for a major strategic shift and reorganization of the Central Texas Conference (CTC). One element of the project implementation plan is a review by an outside consultant after the 2014 annual conference

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

My previous report, "Preparing for the Exodus Project Review," provides a detailed description of the criteria that will be used in evaluating the Exodus Project and the approach to be used in this evaluation. This document, which was presented to the Core Leadership Team in January, provides the guidelines for the review project. The review involves four activities: (a) Analyze the Data, (b) Survey Constituents, (c) Synthesize Narrative Interviews, and (d) Interview Key Stakeholders. In addition, the scope includes a project kick-off and a final report, which includes a written report and presentation to the Core Leadership Team.

The project scope is presented in further detail in the attached table. This table shows each of the major activities with descriptive notes. It also explains CTC's responsibilities during the review project. In preparing this proposal and the description in the table, I have endeavored to make reasonable assumptions about the scope of work associated with each activity. It is possible, however, that CTC will request adjustments in this base scope during the course of the project. If this should occur, I will immediately discuss the request and its implications with you.

The review project is scheduled to kick-off after CTC's Annual Conference in June 2014 and to conclude no later than April 1, 2015. The kick-off step includes an in-person meeting where we will work out a number of details, including the timeline for the key project activities and a more detailed request for the specific data and assistance that is needed from CTC. If possible, the "task force" for the online survey should also meet during the kick-off stage.

QUALIFICATIONS

My ministry is to work with congregations, denominational bodies, and other ministries to enable them to turn their visions into results. My personal experience includes over 20 years of consulting with churches and other Christian organizations, authoring or co-authoring three books on ministry leadership, and leading a variety of conferences. My background included an MBA from Harvard Business School, a BS from Rice University, and corporate consulting with McKinney & Company. I also served for more than 10 years as the executive pastor of a church, a role that has sharpened my consulting skills by giving me a better perspective on the challenges of ministry leadership from the "inside." A more complete biographical summary is attached.

Several other qualifications should be of specific interest to the Central Texas Conference:

- I tailor each consulting assignment to the unique needs of the client. There are no "cookie cutter" projects.
- Having served in business and ministry roles, I have a unique ability to bring important perspectives from both arenas to every project.
- Strong critical thinking and analytical skills allow me to develop vital and innovative insights for clients.

COSTS

My consulting fee for this project, based on the project scope described above and in the table, will be $50,000. If you request any additions to the base scope, my standard rate of $2,000 per day ($250 per hour) will be applied. No incremental work will be conducted unless authorized by Central Texas Conference's designated representative in writing or by email. Out-of-pocket expenses (e.g., travel, meals, hotel, etc.) will be documented and invoiced as separate line items in addition to my consulting fees. Invoices will be submitted monthly based on actual work completed and will be payable within 15 days. To fit within CTC's budget, no more than $15,000 will be invoiced in 2014, with the balance to be invoiced in 2015. Central Texas Conference will have the right to cancel this agreement at any time, in which case you will only be obligated to pay for actual services performed up to that point in time.

Thank you again for this opportunity. If you have any questions about this proposal, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone or email. To accept this proposal, you can countersign in the space provided below and return a copy to me. I look forward to talking to you again soon, and to the opportunity to continue working with you and Central Texas Conference.

In His Service,
Mike Bonem

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL TABLE

The creation of the Conference Connectional Table was a key piece of the Exodus Project approved by the special session of the Central Texas Annual Conference in November 2010. The purpose of the Connectional Table is to make sure that all voices are represented around the table and are heard in the conversation about the mission and ministry of the church. The group is inclusive in nature, collaborative in style, and while being efficient in the stewardship of resources it is also transparent, accessible and accountable in all relationships. It is a place for listening, learning, and coordination of Central Texas Conference ministries around the mission of 'making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.' It is organized as a forum for understanding and communication between/among the General Conference representatives, task forces, centers, annual conference, agencies, and other representational ministries.

During 2013 and into 2014 the Connectional Table has met for training, education and information. We continue to collaborate and offer input as to the direction of the Annual Conference along with a continued emphasis on the inclusiveness of the leadership and ministry of our conference. We are heartened by the report at last year's Annual Conference where Pat Loomis outlined several of the great strides we have made in our inclusiveness and diversity while at the same time acknowledging that we still have a long way to go. The changes that we have been making in regards to new ways of monitoring, collaboration and conversation are making a difference. We applaud our entire denomination for seeing this new way of looking at the makeup of our Annual Conferences as evidenced by a letter received from the General Commission on Religion and Race.

In it, Erin Hawkins, General Secretary of the Commission stated,

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

"We are asking you to begin your journey with GCORR now by doing something new. We have found that the historical method of monitoring has not produced the transformation needed for the Church to grow and thrive at all levels in an increasingly diverse world. Focusing on the representational aspects of diversity is insufficient to challenging and supporting the church to implement equitable systems and policies, to value the rich diversity in our communities and to raise up lay and clergy leaders equipped to lead in a multicultural context.

Through our assessments and research, we have found that traditional monitoring—with only forms and reports—do not provide opportunities to engage in new conversations beyond representation. In order to further racial equity and have deeper impact, we are asking you to refrain from monitoring your upcoming annual conference using the monitoring forms traditionally provided by GCORR, which are based on representation rather than equity and impact. Instead, we are asking you to listen for the ways in which your conference is working to more effectively engage in ministry with the diverse and growing demographic groups present in your annual conference area. From there, you can begin healthy and reflective conversations with other conference leaders about initiating, improving and strengthening the conference's ability to reach more people, younger people and more diverse people. This new, expansive way of monitoring provides opportunity for engaging in transformative conversations with your annual conference. Through the process of engaging in these conversations, we hope that you will continue to take note of and offer response to instances of insensitivity, discrimination and blatant racism during annual conference sessions.

Our invitation today asks you to go deeper, to think more globally and systemically and to work intentionally with others to forge innovative strategies for culturally competent ministry that results in churches of all races, ethnicities and languages reaching out to their communities, making disciples and transforming the world. In the near future, you will receive resources to assist you in this effort."

Another piece of our cultural sensitivity and competency for which we are very excited are the plans being made for the 2015 Annual Conference focus. While the theme will always be to energize and equip local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, each year provides a new opportunity to focus on a different aspect of equipping local churches. The 2015 focus is on cultural competency and sensitivity. The fact of the matter is that none of us can truly be culturally competent in our understanding of our own culture much less fully competent and sensitive to those who are different without continued training, awareness and understanding. We look forward to helping each of our churches recognize that there are tremendous numbers of persons within each of our communities that are different than the current make-up of any of our churches.

The Connectional Table is currently made up of: Conference Lay Leader, Associate Conference Lay Leader, Disaster Response Coordinator, Emmaus representative, representative from the Renewal of Eastern Mexico Covenant task force, Health and Welfare team leader, Church and Society team leader, President of Conference UMW, President of Conference UMM, Inclusiveness Team (which includes representatives of Status and Role of Women, Native American Ministries, Disability Concerns, Religion and Race), Conference Council on Youth Ministry Representative Age 12-18, Division of Ministry with Young People Representative Age 18-35, Team Leader of Christian

- B. A focus on the local church; and
- C. Leadership development (raising up the next generation)

This mission leads us to our vision: powerhouse local churches all across the Central Texas Conference. One way in which the Executive Staff and Cabinet remain focused is through the “Thematic Goal and Defining Objectives.” To more effectively accomplish this, the cabinet has brought David Simpson, a consultant with Patrick Lencioni’s Table Group (a management consulting firm specializing in organizational health and executive team development), to challenge and guide the Cabinet and Executive Staff in helping the CTC become a healthier organization. The CTC Executive Staff understand they must constantly challenge themselves as well as others to learn and be open to change. As part of this challenge, the staff is working with Brig. Gen. Charles Bailey, Gil Rendle, and Mike Bonem, in addition to David Simpson.

Every organization, if it wants to create a sense of alignment and focus, must have a single top priority. The primary purpose is not to take us away from ‘energizing and equipping local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Rather it is to provide the leadership team itself with clarity around how we spend our time, energy, and resources. Our thematic goals and defining objectives keep us focused on helping create more vital congregations (see the following diagram).

G On March 1, 2014 the center hired Rev. Joseph Nader, Director of the UTA Wesley Foundation, as a consultant and Coordinator of Campus Ministry. Together we are creating and implementing a strategy for successful and effective campus ministry throughout the Central Texas Conference. Joseph will meet regularly with the campus ministers to mentor, support and equip them for effective ministry. We continue to work with the campus ministry units to support and review the administration of the units. Together we are planning an internship program in each campus ministry unit to encourage, train and equip future lay and clergy leaders. Through networking and intentional recruiting of candidates, we will develop training modules to develop future candidates for campus ministry positions.

The entire conference service center, cabinet, and BOM are working to develop an ecosystem of Clergy Recruitment, Development, and Support. Listed below are a few things we already have in place.

CABINET REPORT

DR. BOB HOLLOWAY, DEAN OF THE CTC CABINET

"Oh God, open our lips and we shall declare your praise." This excerpt from Psalm 51 opens the Morning Prayer Service from the Upper Room Worship book. This service is the first of three times of worship that guide the Cabinet through the day. Each member of the Cabinet takes a turn in leading for the day. Our worship moves us from hymns, songs and scriptures, to prayers of intercession and thanksgiving for pastors, laity, churches, communities and world.

In his book, Making All Things New, Henri Nouwen writes that "the spiritual life is not a life before, after or beyond our everyday existence. No, the spiritual life can only be real when it is lived in the midst of the joys and pains of the here and now. Therefore we need to begin with a careful look at the way we think, speak, feel and act from hour to hour, day to day, week to week, and year to year, in order to become more fully aware of our hunger for the Spirit.”

At every level of congregational or personal life, our spiritual life shapes our response to God’s transforming work through Christ. Whenever local church councils, or administrative and ministry teams meet, they have the desire to be guided by the Spirit into faithfulness and fruitfulness in the making of disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Cabinet feels that same call as we give leadership within the Annual Conference to be faithful to the mission of energizing and equipping local churches.

With Bishop Lowry’s leadership, the cabinet has been studying the book, The Advantage, by Patrick Lencioni, and the accompanying Ministry Workbook. In response to these learning experiences, we have been reminded that our effectiveness grows through worship, through honest and direct communication, embracing accountability, focusing on core values and working together on clear goals.

As a Cabinet, we have been working to pursue the thematic goal of expanding the number of vital congregations. Each member of the cabinet has “Defined Common Goals.” We communicate regularly for sharing and receiving feedback and support on our efforts. We understand this process to be one in which our spiritual life, together and as individuals, shapes the temporal life of the church.

As Bishop Lowry stated in his Lenten address, we have made exciting progress in the number of vital congregations engaged in passionate worship, radical hospitality and evangelism, groups engaged in faith development (especially with youth and children), hands-on ministries and extravagant hospitality. Each is reflected in everything from the increase of professions of faith to narratives of transformed lives and destinies. These are the signs that what Paul said in Corinthians is true, “So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth.”

O God, open our lips and we shall declare your praise.

CONFERENCE NOMINATIONS & LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

DR. GEORGIA ADAMSON, SECRETARY

A system can’t operate more effectively than the people who participate in it. If the nominations process is flawed, then the whole system struggles with consistency, effectiveness, and focus. As Bishop Schnase reminds us in his book, Seven Levers: Missional Strategies for Conferences, the conference nominations process plays a critical role. Bishop Lowry continues to challenge us to develop lay and clergy leadership at all levels of the church. It is through constant identifying of new potential leaders and giving those leaders training opportunities and experience that we grow the pool of leaders and shape the next generation.

The use of task forces and think tanks increases engagement, energy, and expertise. Again, Schnase reminds us though conferences may have half as many people in standing committees, it invites twice as many people into task forces or ministry teams. Ministry motivates people more than meetings.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Our Conference Nominations and Leadership Development Team policy is for persons serving in classes to rotate off after completing a full term and be off the board or committee for at least a year before being eligible to serve another term. When we do not see that as a pattern, the Conference Nominations Committee will likely send the slate/name back and request additional nominees. Many conference positions are quadrennial terms.

The Conference Nominations and Leadership Development Team will be working to provide a brief description of the major committees on our website after annual conference.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

DR. JOHN MCKELLAR, CHAIRPERSON

During 2013-14, Bishop Lowry continued to lead our Annual Conference with vision, passion, and intentionality. He remained steadfastly focused on strengthening and empowering local churches and continually reminded the Conference, by teaching and by example, that we must address the challenges of our day. He is committed to leading the Central Texas Conference into a new post-Christian/post-denominational world; and, with the Bishop's leadership, we celebrate the growth in the number of churches that have been recognized as Vital Congregations.

As Bishop, he keeps before us these important areas:

1. Vision: Keeping focused on the local church
2. Cultural Change & Transformation: Emphasis on core orthodoxy, high Christology, spiritual formation, and passion for evangelism
3. Accountability: Building a culture of accountability with vital congregations

One of Bishop Lowry's great strengths is teaching, and he uses his gift generously to bless our Conference. He is a brilliant scholar, but he teaches in a way that is engaging, approachable, and inspirational. Over the past year, he taught the three-day High Octane preaching class to sharpen the art of preaching, led a Conference-wide Bible study and a West District preaching workshop – these are just a handful of the many times he has modeled, for the clergy and laity of the Conference, the call of the Gospel. In August, Bishop Lowry represented the Church as a participant in the Oxford Institute of Methodist Theological Conference.

In addition, Bishop Lowry hosted Bishop's Week within our Annual Conference last June, leading powerful times of worship and reflection using TED Talk presentations to engage the participants. He also served as the guest preacher for the Iowa and the Upper New York Annual Conferences.

At the General Church level, Bishop Lowry leads the Congregational Vitality Leadership Team and the Path 1 Initiative and continues to be a strong voice in the recruitment and development of young clergy.

With enthusiasm and passion, Bishop Lowry has led us in addressing the ministry challenges that lay before us and in anticipating those that lie ahead in the next decade. The Central Texas Conference is fortunate to have this exemplary leader guiding us with his wisdom, heart, and depth of spirit.

ACADEMY FOR SPIRITUAL FORMATION

ACADEMY TEAM IS BOB HOLLOWAY, JUDY HOLLOWAY, KRISTIN WARTHEN, JASON VALENDY, ESTEE VALENDY, NANCY ALLEN AND LINDA KEEN

Since 1983, the Upper Room, a ministry of the General Board of Discipleship, has sponsored the Academy for Spiritual Formation. The Academy has both a two-year program and a five-day program. The two-year program is generally held in the jurisdiction. Annual conferences sponsor the five-day program.

In the Wesleyan tradition of a faith that forms both the mind and heart, the Academy offers academic learning and the practice of spiritual disciplines. Through worship, silence, prayer and covenant groups, those who seek inner peace and holy living find an oasis where God's presence is celebrated, our walk with Christ renewed, and the power of the Holy Spirit is witnessed.

The Central Texas Conference Center for Leadership and the East District sponsored a five-day Academy in February of 2014 at the Prothro-Retreat Center on Lake Texoma. The center was filled to capacity with eager pilgrims. In addition to participants from our annual conference, we were privileged to welcome five Methodist clergy from Singapore and two from South Korea. The Upper Room Academy co-directors (Im Jung and Johnny Sears) brought these conference leaders in order to prepare them to establish the Academy in their home countries.

Comments from participants are really what tell the story of the Academy, and we want to share a few of them with you:

"The worship which moved us through the day was life giving and energizing. The visuals were amazing, bringing the themes together."

"I did not know if I could handle the silence, but I found God there."

"The faculty was thought and heart provoking and at times convicting. Thank you for a time of real renewal."

"[This] was a time of soul-tending friendship, inspirational worship, and excellent presenters."

Every other year we have a Three Day Spirit Streams Academy. It will be February 12-14, 2015

BISHOP'S PREACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

DR. GEORGIA ADAMSON, ASSISTANT TO THE BISHOP

Established by Bishop Mike Lowry in 2010. John Wesley never forgot what was primary. Proclaiming the Good News revealed in Jesus Christ was the beginning, middle, and end of his entire life's work. He reminded others of this passion repeatedly. You have nothing to do but to save souls. Therefore be spent in this work.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Deeply biblical preaching proclaims a transcendent and divine Word from the Lord. In a secular world that believes it can live without God, preaching brings radical news about a bigger world, a new world, the real world. Christian preaching deals with profound, life-and-death matters that have eternal consequences. It is momentous.

Excellent preaching is biblical, authentic, contextual, and life-changing. By the power of the Holy Spirit, preaching moves from the text through the preacher into a specific situation toward the gospel's goal.

Preaching is always connected with the church but ultimately goes beyond the church itself and proclaims the kingdom rule of God over all things and the mission of God "to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven" (Col. 1:20).

The Central Texas Conference Bishop's – Preaching Excellence Award was established not as an award one could apply to receive. This award is in recognition of those pastors who have a demonstrated pattern of excellence as a communicator of the gospel. Bishop Lowry, after consultation with the cabinet, is the sole determiner of the person named to receive the award. There may be years in which no award is given.

Names of recipients are on a plaque which is displayed in the Central Texas Conference Service Center. The honorees also receive $1,000 to be used as they see fit for further personal ministry development. In years when a recipient is chosen, it is presented at Annual Conference.

In 2010, Dr. Mike McKee, Senior Pastor, First United Methodist Church Hurst, was the first recipient. In 2011, Dr. John McKellar, Senior Pastor, White's Chapel United Methodist Church was our recipient. In 2012, the award went to Rev. Quinton J. Gibson, Sr., Senior Pastor, St. James/Kell's Branch UMC; and in 2013, Rev. David Alexander, Executive Pastor, First UMC Mansfield, was selected.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

DR. JIM CONNER, CHAIRPERSON

The Board of Ordained Ministry of the Central Texas Annual Conference exists to enlist, evaluate, equip and sustain leadership for the current and future ministries of Jesus Christ in the United Methodist Church.

Several members of the board were invited to be part of a two-day seminar at Bishop's Week June 20-21, 2013, entitled "Excellence in Ministry: Developing Fruitful Leaders." Together with the Cabinet, we looked at clergy trends and wrestled with significant issues that dealt with how we develop fruitful leaders through various parts of the system.

In June and July, 30 individuals took part in a restructured Licensing School on the campus of Texas Wesleyan University, as well as at Austin Avenue UMC in Waco.

The first weekend of August 2013 the Board of Ordained Ministry offered its inaugural Orientation to Ministry Summit. The event focused on exploring calls to ministry and offered perspectives on calling from Bishop Lowry, Ordained Deacons, Lay Persons, and Ordained Elders. Close to 60 candidates and pre-candidates attended the event and received a great introduction into the process and a time of collective discernment. The next event is scheduled for August 1-2, 2014.

The new group mentoring process is underway. The group learning environment has allowed candidates to feel connected, provided mutual discernment, and created community among those going through the early stages of the candidacy process.

The residents of the Central Texas Conference participated in the Church Leadership Institute along with the residents in ministry from the North Texas Conference. Our residents also attended a preaching retreat at White's Chapel UMC in October and a continuing education event in February at Still Water Lodge in Glen Rose that focused on evangelism.

The chairs of the orders sponsored Clergy Time Apart in November. Dr. Stephen Seamands, Professor of Christian Doctrine at Asbury, was the keynote speaker of this event which focused on preaching Christ and presenting Christ in various ministry settings. There are plans to hold multiple events each year to allow for clergy members to find quality continuing education opportunities without having to travel far. The next event will be in October and will have an emphasis on worship.

In January, a task force was established to review and discern how we might best utilize the psychological assessment instruments and the information they generate.

Three years ago we committed to the idea of digitizing the records of our candidates for ministry using the file management website www.pathwaystoministry.com. We began with residency files in 2011 and have since added tracks for certification and continuation of candidates and local pastors. This site has allowed for the secure storage of records while allowing convenient access for committee and board members.

We have continued to be blessed by the incredible work ethic, the gifts and graces, and the spirit of Kathy Ezell, Administrative Assistant to the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Board is deeply appreciative of her work.

The Board of Ordained Ministry is comprised of clergy and laity who have responsibilities in their local churches, ministry settings, and other endeavors and callings. The gifts of their time and service during this past year have been exemplary.

CONFERENCE LAY SERVANT MINISTRY

KIM SIMPSON, CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

The Conference Lay Servant Ministry Team has been busy this last year. We have concentrated most of our resources on having excellent Lay Servant Ministry (LSM) classes, updating the website and forms. We've also been updating job descriptions for local church and District Lay Leaders. We now have all LSM classes offered throughout the Conference posted on the Conference website. We are in the process of updating and clarifying the LSM website classifications to be more user friendly. We have established minimum alternate course guidelines, and approved existing alternative courses (those can be found on the website). We are also updating the annual report forms. They will now be called "Annual Applications." This name change was put into effect to emphasize that final approval for local and certified lay servants lies with the District Lay Servant Ministry Director upon class requirement verification. This will, hopefully, eliminate the confusion of last year's forms.

The original intent of the Morris Walker Award has been researched. The award was established in 1973 to honor Morris Walker by acknowledging an outstanding lay leader whose service goes "above and beyond" in the local church, community and Conference. This award was originally intended to be given to a layperson. The endowment was initially housed at Perkins School of Theology, but has since been moved to the Texas Methodist Foundation. The Conference Lay Servant Ministry Team (CLSMT) voted to return to the original intent of extending this award to a layperson, beginning with the 2014 award. The award consists of $500 for continuing education and a plaque.

The election of lay delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences will take place this year. We will elect four lay delegates for each conference (8 total). Laypersons wishing to be considered for election will have an opportunity to fill out an online form. These forms can be accessed through online Annual Conference registration channels.

G

Keeping with the Conference emphasis on leadership, a new concept of a Lay Leadership workshop is being developed. It would encompass developing local church leaders with an emphasis on excellent leadership training. It is hoped that preliminary plans can be shared at Annual Conference.

A Conference-wide data base collection for those certified in LSM is being explored. The feasibility of using "Pathways" (the data collection system used by the Board of Ordained Ministry) is under consideration.

We are constantly assessing how we might improve communication to laity throughout the Conference. Different venues for communicating – website, email, snail mail, Facebook and oral communication – are all being evaluated for effectiveness.

On April 27, 2014 Megan Hale, a lay person from First UMC Arlington, will be consecrated a deaconess. Deaconesses and Home Missioners are laywomen and laymen who are called by God to be in a lifetime relationship in The United Methodist Church for engagement with a full-time vocation in ministries of love, justice, and service. Together we form a covenant community that is rooted in Scripture, informed by history, driven by mission, ecumenical in scope, and global in outreach. The Deaconess and Home Missioner call to ministries of love, justice, and service is defined in Paragraph 1314.1 of the United Methodist Book of Discipline, which states: Deaconesses and home missioners function through diverse forms of service directed toward the world to make Jesus Christ known in the fullness of his ministry and mission, which mandate that his followers:

1. Alleviate suffering
2. Eradicate causes of injustice and all that robs life of dignity and worth;
3. Facilitate the development of full human potential; and
4. Share in building global community through the church universal.

Megan is the first newly consecrated deaconess in many years for Central Texas Conference. We celebrate and acknowledge her service to the church as a lay person.

COMMUNICATIONS & IT REPORT

VANCE MORTON, DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS & IT

How can we better utilize technologies and communications tools to energize and equip the churches of the Central Texas Conference? What can we do to make it easier for our churches to access information, forms and technology? Can we partner more effectively with our conference and district colleagues and leaders? These are questions the Central Texas Conference Communications & IT team members ask each other often. And it is questions like these that have shaped the team's direction, focus and achievements in the past year.

The team continues its emphasis on building and utilizing a digital-, electronic- and social media-based communications platform. As we've worked to help local churches adapt to such innovation, we have begun to offer more training on new technology and to provide more alternatives for those without the infrastructure to support it. Communications and IT meets with District Administrators on a regular basis in an effort to better meet the needs and conquer the challenges faced by churches in their area.

As a result, the team held several district-wide communications and technology training conferences; offered IT support at other district meetings; mentored several churches on website and social media strategy and design; delivered new, improved Charge Conference and End-of-Year Reporting tools; and ensured that videos the team produced for use in worship and small-groups were easy to access and download.

Since Annual Conference 2013, the team has built upon the strong technology and communication foundation laid in the Exodus Project, adopted in June 2011 – a foundation that meets the needs of today, but has flexibility to adapt to the tools and trends of tomorrow. The following are some of the team's major achievements during the past 12 months:

- Assisted conference, district and local church teams with website design, event promotion, graphic design projects and other needs.
- Shared hourly updates and ongoing narratives on our ERT response from West and Granbury following the disasters that hit those two communities; and shared a story on the quick response by FUMC Ennis when motorists were stranded by an ice storm.
- Created quick, easy to understand Web Development and Social Media Strategy Guides for Local Churches.
- Researched copyright issues for music and videos at local churches; posted guidelines on CTC website.
- Set up quarterly technology reviews and visits to all five district offices to ensure their technology is up to date so they can better serve their local churches.
- Edited and posted more than 40 hours of video clips from AC2013 on the conference website for local churches to review and use.
- Offered technology support to host church William C. Martin at two-day Team Vital event for 70 representatives of churches across the nation.
- Employed FormsCentral – the primary technology used for the 2013 Charge Conference and End-of-Year forms – as a resource for the districts and conference for other initiatives.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- Refreshed the Conference Employment Opportunities pages and included openings at the conference and local church levels.
- Provided technology reviews and consultations with several local churches.
- Discussed ways to support churches as they transition off XP systems as support cycle ends.
- Provided time-sensitive, localized coverage of major news stories, such as the death of Nelson Mandela and the impact of the Affordable Care Act.
- Posted, on CTC website, resources for Advent, Lent, Great Day of Service, Special Sunday Offerings; and other events.
- Implemented work order system designed to enhance efficiency and accountability. Since its debut in mid-October, it has helped the team monitor progress and complete more than 300 projects.
- Enhanced graphic design elements and accessibility throughout the conference website, ctcumc.org.
- Installed new firewall at the CTCSC, greatly reducing the risk of cyber-attack, viruses and malware intrusions.
- Completed conference inventory database; updating continues

G

These projects are just a snapshot of all the Communications & IT department accomplished in the past year. Some of our best work went into projects conceived and executed as part of a collaborative effort, with the expertise and talent of colleagues all across the conference and connection. Through the remainder of 2014 and the first half of 2015, we will continue to draw upon your support as we refresh the conference website design and functionality; re-launch social media sites; push toward more mobile platforms; finalize a new and up-to-date conference database; and more.

The Communications & IT team is made up of Vance Morton, director of Communications & IT (vance@ctcumc.org); Julian Hobdy, digital media coordinator (julian@ctcumc.org); and Calvin Scott, IT coordinator (calvin@ctcumc.org). We welcome your suggestions, questions, comments, concerns and (most importantly) prayers.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT BAYLOR UNIVERSITY ANNUAL REPORT

REV. KATIE LONG, D. MIN., DIRECTOR

The Wesley Foundation at Baylor continues forming future clergy and lay leaders for God's Church. We meet for Bible study Monday nights, followed by Recharge Worship, a short service that offers music, scripture, a brief message and communion. Our Fellowship Lunch on Tuesdays has become a time for students from local churches to meet with each other and to connect with clergy and college ministry leaders from their congregations.

One student has been certified for candidacy for ordained ministry in the Southwest Texas District, another is pursuing candidacy in this conference, and a third is considering the possibility of ministry as a deacon. Others identify ways to be of significant service as laity. We recently began a mission initiative to partner with Mt. Zion UMC to do tutoring and to connect children and youth with gardening.

In addition, we offer space for two AA groups and a Bible study for Chinese students.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

We are pleased with several new members of our Board, who should be able to help us broaden our financial base, deepen our connection with local churches and enhance our connections for mission.

We are thankful to be in ministry on a campus where so many students are seeking to find their callings in life.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT TARLETON STATE UNIVERSITY ANNUAL REPORT

REV. DAVID MCMINN, CAMPUS PASTOR & DIRECTOR

Jesus reminds us that when two or three are gathered in His name, Jesus is there. That has been our experience this year at the Tarleton Wesley! Two years ago we rebooted this ministry and we have been focusing on developing an outpost of college students who are devoted to Christ through loving God, serving others and living righteously. In that time we have developed a worship service, Bible studies and monthly opportunities to serve. We are now seeing our students take on responsibility for the ministry and our momentum through the Holy Spirit is incredible!

Within the last semester and a half our attendance has increased to 28 in worship and 20 in small groups. With this huge increase in students we are almost forced to move worship out of our little chapel and into our dining area! These students have been devoting their time to God by serving the community in so many different ways. We spent a Saturday cleaning up the Bosque River and the City Park along with a few other organizations on campus. We have also let Christ lead us out of our comfort zone and went into Ft. Worth to volunteer with Beautiful Feet, an organization that feeds the homeless and provides worship several times a week. Here at the Tarleton Wesley we are meeting our goals of beginning new ministries and developing a community of students full of leadership potential! The leadership skills in these students is evident in our small groups and our leadership team. They have worked hard to make the Wesley a place to come; be a better disciple and a place for community. To bring this group of leaders even closer we will be attending a Team Building event at Glen Lake Camp in the near future. Another exciting element is our University United Methodist Women, supervised by Cynthia Rives. Recently they took students on a mission trip to New Orleans. Their current goal is to be an agent of change in the growing epidemic of rape on college campuses. They are an incredible group of women! I am thrilled to see these students grow even more in their faith and I am looking forward to see how they will surprise me next.

Our core has grown to about 36 students that we reach each week. We are beginning to see a huge connection with local churches as they look to the Wesley for interns. Ten of our students are serving in leadership roles ranging from leading worship to youth ministry to participating in the choir! Hopefully this is just the beginning. The 2013/2014 school year was focused on developing a core of disciples and leaders. This coming year will be focused on developing relationships with the University and the local churches to ensure that we are truly living out our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ and raise up a new generation of leaders for the sake of the church and the world. We thank you, the Central Texas Conference, for your support of our important ministry.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY ANNUAL REPORT

REV. MEGAN DAVIDSON, CAMPUS MINISTER & DIRECTOR

TCU Wesley Foundation is a ministry that seeks to energize and empower young adults for Christian life by nurturing them in faith development, supporting them as they explore their vocations and engaging with them in mission and service opportunities locally and globally. Our vision is to create an entire generation of Christian leaders who are strong in their faith, dedicated to serving the church and the world and passionate about meeting the needs of others.

In 2013 and 2014 we have worked hard to reach the TCU campus with the love and joy of Christ as well as raising up a new generation of leaders for the Church and the world. We had a record number of first-time visitors in the early fall and have continued fostering relationships with many of them as the year has progressed. Our main worship gathering now averages 45 students weekly and we have three active small groups that minister to 25 students weekly. Our student leadership team plans and executes events each weekend to foster deep, authentic relationships within the Wesley, which put a smile on people's face as they come to understand community in a holistic way. These events include fellowship activities, discipleship activities and mission opportunities. Our Spring Break Mission Trip sent a mission team to Slidell, LA to work with the Epworth Project in their ongoing rebuilding efforts in the community.

This year, our students have enjoyed engaging in deeper discipleship as they have studied such books as The Forgotten Ways Handbook, Mere Christianity and the Gospel of Mark. Through each of these books, our students have thought critically and theologically about the Church and the world and their place in both. We have seen fruit come from helping students engage their discipleship with greater intentionality.

We are extremely grateful to the Central Texas Conference for the support that you provide to make our ministry with young adults at TCU possible.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON ANNUAL REPORT

REV. JOSEPH NADER, CAMPUS MINISTER & DIRECTOR

In 2013 and 2014, we have worked very hard to invest in the next generation of leaders for the sake of the Church and the world. In Fall 2013 we held our third Missional Academy, where we partnered with the TCU Wesley to guide 20 students in their understanding of missional living in our world. Our weekly attendance in worship grew to an average of 58 students. We baptized a student in Fall 2013 as we walked with him through understanding and growing in his faith. In May 2013 we took two mission trips, one that helped in rebuilding parts of Slidell, LA and the second traveled to Belize to work on a church and a school. This summer, May 2014, we partnered with the Tarleton Wesley Foundation and took 20 students to East Prairie, MO on a mission trip that served the children in the area through the Susanna Wesley Family Center. We also took 10 students back to Libertad, Belize to continue the work they began last summer.

We have a growing partnership with a number of local churches and missional agencies. Local churches have been generous in their financial support. We continue to reach out to local churches' high school students to tell them about the importance of being plugged into a Wesley Foundation when they are in college. Area local churches have helped provide for an intern for the Wesley, prayed for our students, provided many meals, and worked on a number of projects around our building. We have continued to strengthen and engage in ministry through the Missional Wisdom Foundation and their Arlington new-monastic house, La Casa de La Paloma. Our students have collectively worked about 1,285 hours in missions over the course of the past year.

Our main focus in 2013-2014 has been the deeper discipleship and leadership development of our students. Relationships with students have always been a priority, and these typically lead into connecting the students into areas of ministry where they are gifted. This is beginning to produce fruit, as we have 3 recent graduates who are currently working in full-time ministry. We focus our teaching and growing students into leaders by handing leadership of the ministry over to them. And we have seen an incredible amount of creativity and fruit being born out of their ownership of the ministry. Our weekly reach has extended to 80+ students, and we are grateful to God for trusting us with ministry to these students. We are also grateful to the Central Texas Conference for the support and encouragement that is given to our missional outpost on the campus of the University of Texas at Arlington.

UCF: A WESLEY FOUNDATION AT HILL COLLEGE ANNUAL REPORT

REV. ROBYN YOUNG, CAMPUS MINISTER & DIRECTOR

The UCF: A Wesley Foundation at Hill College is a campus ministry that strives to empower and encourage students for Christian life. This is done by nurturing their faith development, and supporting them in their pursuit of educational and vocational skills. Our vision is to create a generation of leaders who are strong in their faith, mission-minded, and who have a heart for service.

G

Since our report last year, the common thread has been connectionalism. A few weeks after last year's report was submitted, the disaster at West occurred. The town of West is located 10 minutes away from us. Many students and staff members of the college were directly affected. The doors of the UCF were open the following day to accept any and all who were displaced. We could house up to 50 immediately. Hill College joined us in this effort by making banks of showers available. Also, our Disaster Response team requested that we make health kits. Line Street UMC of Hillsboro came to our facility and joined with our students assembling 100 health kits for the West area. We were the hands of Christ that day.

Weekly activities include a free lunch sponsored by area churches of all denominations. This allows the church to reach out and build relationships with the students. A devotional and prayer is included with each meal. The average is 42 for each week. Additional meals have been provided for international students and those staying over Christmas and spring breaks. These include lively discussions concerning different faiths. Weekly Bible studies have been based on movies such as Hunger Games, The Fifth Element, and Despicable Me.

Co-operative efforts are held with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at county level in use of our facility, on campus prayer events, and discussion groups.

The campus minister has taken to heart the words of John Wesley in that "the campus is my parish" and can be seen visiting each of the technologies and buildings on a regular basis throughout the campus. Small study groups are expected to develop from this. As the Monday morning free doughnuts and fruit encourage students to visit and get to know us, the connections are being made across faith walks. Many ask, "Why do you do this?" Our reply is "For the love of God and you," as we strive to connect all with God.

UCF: A WESLEY FOUNDATION AT NAVARRO COLLEGE ANNUAL REPORT

REV. JOY W. DISTER, CAMPUS MINISTER & DIRECTOR

Our primary focus in 2013-2014 has been re-building a sense of Christian community and developing a foundation of discipleship. Weekly lunches on Mondays provided a place for students to gather off campus and feel comfortable in the ministry setting. We have added a devotional and prayer that is offered during the lunch. Not only are we feeding students physically, we are feeding them spiritually. The short devotional is encouraging and offers them Christ in their daily walk. Each week a different local church provides and serves the meal to the students. The interaction between the church members and students provides a mentoring role that sometimes spans several generations. Having the church members invest in the college community creates ownership and encouragement to both the local church and the students. Preaching and teaching in the county has created a sense of awareness of the importance of college ministry. While our partnership has increased with the local United Methodist churches, we are also receiving support from other denominations in Corsicana as well.

The weekly Bible study has had consistent participation. We have spent time reading about and discussing discipleship with the focus being Matthew 28:19, "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit". We have also worked on spiritual disciplines and introduced lectio divina and centering prayer. This has been well received and these practices give students a sense of connection to Christ. Being a two year school, we have a much shorter time to develop relationships with the students. Discussing future educational endeavors and ways to be connected through other Wesley Foundations is an important component of a two-year campus ministry.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

During Spring Break, we partnered with FUMC Corsicana and a Navarro faculty member and I traveled to Southern Belize on a mission trip. We repaired three water wells and spent time in the schools. We fostered relationships in the communities with plans to return next year and continue our partnership.

We have also provided opportunities for the students to partner with the local community and serve through missional outreach. Partnering with local churches as well as with Habitat for Humanity has been well received. It allows the students to connect with the local community and to give back while serving in the name of Christ. Our Christmas worship service provided an opportunity for new students to experience and celebrate the birth of Christ. Participation from students to assist with the planning and execution allowed students the opportunity to share worship with their peers. This summer, five students will be participating in the CTC Young Adult Mission Trip to Memphis, Tennessee.

We are thankful to the Central Texas Conference for the backing and encouragement as we continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ at Navarro College for the transformation of the world.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT WEATHERFORD COLLEGE ANNUAL REPORT

REV. CHRIS ROWE, CAMPUS MINISTRY DIRECTOR

Through the 2013-2014 year, we have seen good growth at the Wesley Foundation at Weatherford College. We have worked hard to raise awareness amongst the students about the Wesley Foundation, and what this ministry has to offer. Considering the state of the ministry as of the summer of 2013, we are very pleased with what we have been seeing, but not satisfied. As students have begun to realize who we are and what we offer, we have seen increase in traffic and participation in the various programs we have implemented. We finished the fall semester of 2013 with an average of 6 students at our weekly Bible study/Worship night, which was at 0 as of the summer of 2013. That average has continued through the spring of 2014, and we added an additional Bible study in the middle of the day on Mondays to reach the students who commute in to Weatherford College, which is the majority of the student population here.

Our main study focus for the 2013 fall semester was the Gospel of John, and now we are focusing on studies to help our students understand how to react in a Godly manner when faced with things such as anger, temptation, patience, and forgiveness. In early March 2014, we started two new programs here for the students. The first is our Revive prayer service, which is just that, a service completely dedicated to meditation, prayer, and quiet time with God through various prayer stations that we set up every week. We have had as many as 8 students attend, with a weekly average around 4.

The second program is our Helping Hands program. This program was implemented with the focus of giving the students an opportunity to be active in their faith through missions and giving back to their community. We believe that college students are at crossroads in life, where their decisions will begin to dictate the path their life will take at this time. We want to make sure that the students grow into their faith, rather than out of it. As of now, two students and I go to Bethesda UMC every Wednesday to work with their children and youth programs. There we help students with their homework, fellowship and play games with the children, attend worship with both programs, and attend their bible study groups afterwards. The two students that attend have said that they love this program and that working with the children has strengthened their faith and changed their lives. Our vision for this program is to continue to grow it and further the outreach to various churches and retirement facilities.

Our partnership with area churches and other ministries has continued to grow. We have begun to mend and strengthen the relationships with our local United Methodist churches by showing them that the Wesley Foundation has come back to life. One way churches are involved in our ministry is providing lunch to the students every Tuesday. Our average lunch attendance has been right under 50 students, and we give a devotional at every lunch to ensure the students are not only physically fed, but spiritually fed as well. The students love the devotions, and say they look forward to them every week. Churches also provide for our various activities that we offer outside of our usual programming. In March 2014, we put on a worship event at the dorms for the students, led by the worship band from Asbury University. Azle UMC provided the food for the event, and Silvercreek UMC cooked the food and served the students. Over fifty people attended, most of which were students. In 2014, we also became involved with the FUSE worship event every month here at Weatherford College. This is a multi-denominational gathering of college ministries in the Weatherford area focused on worship, fellowship, and growth in Christ. We see this relationship as an amazing way to reach new students, and to touch and change their lives, as well as continue to build our ministry. We are now one of the organizers for the event, and we have big plans moving forward. We have also taken advantage of the wonderful programs that the Central Texas Conference has put on for young adults. We took a group of 6 students to the young Adult Drive-In Movie event during Spring break of 2014, and as of now, we will be taking a group of 4 students to Memphis, Tennessee this summer as part of the young adult mission trip. We are also actively recruiting students to go on the young adult mission trip to Kenya in the summer of 2015.

Most of our energy in 2013-2014 has been focused on raising awareness of the Wesley Foundation at Weatherford College, to get our name back out there and make sure the students know what we offer. Through those efforts, we have built relationships with many students and watched our ministry slowly start to grow. Our emphasis on student relationships is a priority, because that is where it all begins. Through the building of relationships we have been able to identify gifts in the students, and offer many ways they can utilize those gifts, not only in their own lives but at the Wesley Foundation as well, for the building of the Kingdom and the transformation of the world. Our goals for moving forward are for meaningful and deeper discipleship, as well as developing the leadership skills of those students involved here. We are appreciative and thankful for all God has blessed us with, including trusting us with the college ministry here at Weatherford College. We are also grateful to all the churches involved in this ministry, and to Central Texas Conference, for encouragement and support that never ceases, as well as the wonderful direction it provides for all in the conference.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

DR. EDGAR BURGER, PRESIDENT

2013 ANNUAL REPORT OF

TEXAS' FIRST INSTITUTION OF HIGHER LEARNING

DR. EDWARD BURGER, PRESIDENT AND PROFESSOR

When I accepted the offer to become president of Southwestern University in February 2013, I knew it was a special place. But what I have found since I began work here last July has far exceeded my expectations.

In our faculty, I have found a creative, forward-thinking group of individuals who have enormous dedication to our students and who are very open to new ideas for teaching and learning.

In our staff, I have found a very talented group of individuals who play a valuable role in providing exceptional student support service and life-changing experiences for our students.

In our students, I have found a diverse group of young people who are engaged in the classroom, on the playing field, in the arts and in the community.

And in our alumni, I have found individuals of all ages who continue to value the education they received at Southwestern as well as the relationships they formed when they were here.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

I also have been overwhelmed by the support the Georgetown community has shown for Southwestern, and I am delighted to be working with a Board of Trustees that is committed to making Southwestern one of the country's premier liberal arts colleges.

The presidential transition was only one of many important events for Southwestern University in 2013. A long-planned trip to Italy over Spring Break 2013 turned into a once-in-a-lifetime experience for members of the SU Chorale as the group arrived in Rome right after the selection of a new pope. The Chorale was the first choir to sing mass in St. Peter's Basilica after the election of Pope Francis I.

Thanks in large part to the work of my predecessor, Jake B. Schrum (who is now president of Emory and Henry College in Virginia), the University concluded its $150 million Thinking Ahead campaign two years ahead of schedule. Funds raised through the campaign have dramatically changed Southwestern – both academically and physically. In June, Southwestern learned that the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) had reaffirmed its accreditation for another ten years, culminating a reaccreditation process that took several years and literally hundreds of pages of documentation.

In August, Southwestern welcomed a record number of students, with overall enrollment hitting 1,536. Much of this was due in part to the addition of football, which attracted nearly 100 new students.

FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

We also welcomed four new tenure-track faculty members for the 2013-14 academic year: Katherine Grooms, assistant professor of economics; Patrick Van Horn, assistant professor of economics; Michael Gesinski; assistant professor of chemistry; and Jessica Hower, assistant professor of history.

Two faculty members were named to endowed chairs in 2013: Dirk Early, professor of economics and associate dean of the Brown College of Arts and Sciences, was named to the Hugh Roy and Lillie Cullen Chair in Economics; and Emily Niemeyer, professor of chemistry, was named to the Herbert and Kate Dishman Chair in Science.

My longtime friend and fellow math professor Suzanne Buchele left Southwestern at the end of 2013 to return to Ghana as a missionary after having previously been there on a Fulbright Award in 2006-2008. Her missionary work will involve teaching one course a semester at Ashesi University and serving as the university's associate provost. Her husband will return to his work with a Methodist church in Ghana and serve the spiritual needs of the Ashesi community.

ACADEMICS

2013 brought the roll out of two exciting new academic programs at Southwestern.

In January 2013, we formally launched our HHMI-Southwestern Inquiry Initiative, which is being funded with a four-year, $1.3 million grant from the Howard Hughes Medical Institute. The purpose of this initiative is to make the University's science and math classes more engaging and enriching for students through a technique known as inquiry-based learning, or student-centered learning. We were honored that one of our faculty members who has been leading this initiative was featured in the Chronicle of Higher Education in September 2013.

HHMI funding also allowed us to expand our summer science research program for students. In the summer of 2013, 31 students or recent graduates conducted research on campus through a new student-faculty collaborative research program called SCOPE.

In August 2013, we began offering classes in our first three "Paideia clusters." Paideia clusters are groups of classes in various disciplines that are connected with a common theme. Beginning in the fall of 2014, all new students at Southwestern will be required to take three courses from a Paideia cluster of their choice to meet some of their general education requirements.

The first three Paideia clusters focus on gender, global public health, and the Mediterranean region. Six additional Paideia clusters are being developed for fall 2014.

In February 2014 we announced that Sherry Adrian, associate professor of education and holder of Dishman Endowed Professorship for Special Education, will serve as director of our Paideia program for the next three years. Professor Adrian has been involved with this program since the beginning.

In 2013, Southwestern announced a new minor in race and ethnicity studies, which incorporates classes from 14 disciplines.

In 2013, Southwestern received a $700,000 grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation that will be used to help its students and faculty members exploit digital technologies and explore new approaches to learning and teaching. In response to student requests, our library is now available to students' 24-hours-a-day when classes are in session.

ACCOLADES

Southwestern received numerous accolades in 2013. Most noteworthy of these was the fact that we were ranked #1 in Texas and #7 in the country for Best Career/Job Placement Services in the 2014 edition of The Best 378 Colleges, which is published by The Princeton Review. Southwestern also was included in Kiplinger's 2014 list of the 100 top values in liberal arts colleges and was included in the 2014 Guide to Military Friendly Schools®.

Southwestern was one of only 113 schools in the country that were named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll with Distinction for 2013. And Washington Monthly, which rates schools based on their contribution to the public good, ranked Southwestern 43rd among liberal arts colleges in 2013. We were also proud that The United Way of Williamson County selected Southwestern as its Volunteer Partner of the Year for 2013.

FACULTY ACHIEVEMENTS

Southwestern University faculty members also earned a variety of honors in 2013. For example:

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

PRESIDENT'S REPORT TO THE CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 2013

R. GERALD TURNER, PRESIDENT

SMU is commemorating a major milestone as the University celebrates the centennial of its founding in 1911 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and its opening in 1915.

- SMU's total fall 2013 enrollment was 10,929, including 6,357 undergraduates and 4,572 graduate students. Enrollment continues to increase in ethnic, socio-economic and geographic diversity. Ethnic minority students made up 25 percent of total enrollment in fall 2013. A record international enrollment of 1,445 students represented 97 foreign countries, with the largest numbers coming from China, India and Saudi Arabia.
- SMU consistently ranks in the top one-fourth of "best national universities" in U.S. News & World Report. In 2014, SMU ranks 60th among 281 national universities.
- The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies SMU as a "high research activity" university. During 2012-13, SMU received $19.9 million in external funding for research and sponsored projects worldwide. Current research subjects include natural hazards, water quality, cyber security and treatments for cancer and diabetes.
- Because of the early success of SMU Unbridled: The Second Century Campaign, the campaign goal was raised from $750 million to $1 billion. To date, SMU has received more than $844 million in gifts and pledges for scholarships, academic programs, endowed faculty positions and campus improvements and facilities.
- Campaign gifts are helping to fund renovations of existing facilities and new construction. Moody Coliseum reopened in December 2013 after extensive renovation and expansion.
- SMU's new Residential Commons complex, to open in fall 2014, consists of five new residence halls and a dining facility. The complex will enable SMU to implement a residency requirement for sophomores along with first-year students. The new halls will include classrooms and accommodations for live-in faculty. Six other SMU residence halls are being modified as Residential Commons.
- The year 2013 was designated the Year of the Library, marking the 100th anniversary of the beginning of SMU's library collections, which recently passed the four-million-volume mark. Major renovations are planned for Fondren Library Center and Bridwell Library of Perkins School of Theology.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- The George W. Bush Presidential Center, consisting of Library, Museum and independent Institute, was dedicated at SMU in April 2013, with all five living U.S. presidents participating. Dr. Eric Bing, a renowned expert on global health issues, is the first to hold concurrent appointments as a new SMU faculty member and senior fellow of the Bush Institute.

SMU treasures its Methodist heritage, and we ask for your continued prayers and support.

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

JAMES H. SALLEY, ASSOCIATE VICE CHANCELLOR FOR INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT

Africa University is grateful to the local congregations of the Central Texas Conference for their contributions to a wonderful investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2013! Overall giving to the AUF reached 91.7% last year, the highest level of any of the general church funds.

The Central Texas Conference invested 100% of its asking to the AUF and was one of 25 annual conferences to do so in 2013. Thank you for continuing to affirm the role and relevance of this ministry in the life of our global church. Africa University owes its impact and vitality to local congregations such as yours.

2013 HIGHLIGHTS

- Enrollment: Sustained by the steadfast investment of Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, Africa University's enrollment grew to 1480 full-time students from 25 African countries in 2013. Female students now account for 53% of that total enrollment.
- Scholarships: Second mile giving by individuals and churches enabled Africa University to distribute more than $1.8 million in scholarships and financial aid to its students. Africa University also launched the Girl Child Scholarship Fund in order to help more African women to gain access to higher education.
- Through new initiatives that include a "$50 million Campaign for Endowment" and outreach to increase financial contributions from its alumni and others in Africa, the institution is working towards greater sustainability.
- Graduates: 450 students were awarded degree certificates in June 2013, growing the number of Africa University graduates currently at work in communities to around 5,000. Every day, these graduates manifest the promise and power of the Gospel to bring light and hope to a troubled world.
- Discipleship: In August, three 2013 graduates were commissioned as young adult missionaries by the General Board of Global Ministries, pushing the total number of Africa University alumni serving internationally as mission interns to seven in just two years.

"The church has a tremendous role to play in the transformation of the world," said Jacques Kazemb, an AU graduate and mission intern who worked in outreach to at-risk children and youth in Brazil. "Through a project like the Shade and Fresh Water in Brazil, the Methodist Church is contributing to a positive change in many children's lives."

Kazemb has returned to his home country, the Democratic Republic of Congo, with a plan to start a similar initiative for marginalized children and youth.

In Mozambique, where recent political violence has destroyed homes, displaced thousands and claimed many lives, two Africa University graduates are in the forefront of caring for the victims and healing the rifts behind the conflict. Rev. Joao Sambo coordinates humanitarian relief in the Mozambique Conference and Rev. Anastacio Chembeze is mediating talks between the parties to the conflict to help them to resolve their differences peacefully.

The Africa University community—students, faculty, staff and trustees, thank you and celebrate your ongoing investment in changing lives for the better. This work of making disciples of Jesus Christ—change agents—for the realization of more hope-filled, just, healthy, and peaceful African nations cannot exist without the generosity and prayers of the members of the Central Texas Conference. We pray that you will:

- Continue to invest in the AUF at 100% of the asking or higher so that the university can meet its day-to-day and operational expenses without uncertainty.
- Encourage your local church to become an annual scholarship donor.
- Consider leading an effort to have your district invest in an endowed scholarship which can support one student a year in perpetuity.
- Take advantage of our new Dream Insurance program, which allows individuals to donate all or a portion of the proceeds of an affordable Term Life Insurance plan to Africa University.
- Remember to include Africa University in your will when you make your estate plans.
- Pray without ceasing for the ongoing success of this important effort to equip disciples to contribute to a rich, impactful and vibrant future for their nations and for our global church.

Thank you and God bless you.

HUSTON-TILLOTSON UNIVERSITY

LARRY L. EARVIN, PH.D., PRESIDENT AND CEO

HUSTON-TILLOTSON UNIVERSITY MISSION

Huston-Tillotson University supports the Central Texas Conference Journal through our mission to provide the University's diverse student body with an exemplary education that is grounded in the liberal arts and sciences, balanced with professional development, and directed to public service and leadership.

The University fosters spiritual and ethical development, preserves and promotes interest in the accomplishments and experiences of the University's historic constituents and evolving populations, creates and sustains supportive relationships that advance the Huston-Tillotson University community, and prepares students with the integrity and civility to thrive in a diverse society. We achieve our mission through the diversity of our student body, opportunities for spiritual growth and civic engagement, and the global perspective of our educational programs.

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

ENROLLMENT

Huston-Tillotson University reached a thirty year enrollment high with 973 students enrolling in the fall of 2013. Segmentation of our student population by gender reveals an important factor regarding male enrollment. Our overall student population consisted of 448 males (46%) and 525 females (54%). Many universities report decreases in male student enrollment; our student population is balanced. The first-year, first-time freshmen population consisted of 109 males (52%) and 101 females (48%).

The racial/ethnic composition of our student population is as follows: Black, non-Hispanic – 73%; Hispanic – 17%; White, non-Hispanic – 5%; Nonresident Alien – 3%; Native American – <1%; Asian/Pacific Islander – <1%; Multiracial – <1%; Other – <1%; Unreported – <1%.

FACULTY

The fall of 2013, the University employed 54 full-time faculty members and 33 part-time faculty members. The race/ethnic composition of the full-time faculty is as follows: Hispanic – 11.1%; White, non-Hispanic – 38.9%; Asian/Pacific Islander – 1.9%; Black, non-Hispanic – 46.3%; Two or more races, non-Hispanic – 1.9%. Thirty-eight members of our full-time faculty (70.4%) have a terminal degree in their teaching field.

PRESIDENTIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT ACTIVITIES

Huston-Tillotson University's success is a result of discoveries, visions, and insights made 137 years ago. Many innovative initiatives such as the Day of Discovery for Central Texas executives and decision makers, and visits to target alumni-Key Cities allow the University to participate in outreach at even higher levels. Huston-Tillotson University hosted the 15th Annual African American Community Heritage Festival (AACHF), on Saturday, February 22, 2014. The festival was highly successful with over 60 vendors, nearly 1,000 in attendance and fundraising efforts that contributed greatly to the Huston-Tillotson University Scholarship Fund.

New undertakings include significant renovations to the Downs-Jones Library to be completed in March 2013. The completed renovation included all new interior with open spaces and study areas. The renovated facility houses HT's RAM café with coffee and snack selections in addition to the books, publications, videos, and artwork.

Huston-Tillotson's reputation as a teaching university, as an institution with a stellar faculty, as a place where students can achieve their goals, is evidenced by faculty who are authors and recognized scholars from prestigious programs such as Fulbright Scholarship Programs, Henry C. McBay Research Fellows Program, Piper Professors, and Sam Taylor Fellowship Program. Faculty spend their summers completing research in their field, studying at the New York University Faculty Institute, attending the UNCF/Mellon Faculty Seminar, engaging in international travel, and other initiatives that further define their specialized areas.

The HT student may be the first in his or her family to attend college, part of a legacy family with more than five generations of graduates, a local Austin resident, or a student who has traveled thousands of miles to reach the campus. That HT student was likely referred by alumni and had a number of college acceptance letters from which to choose. Internships or overseas travel are just two of the opportunities afforded students. Whether attending HT as part of the William Edward Burghardt DuBois Honors Program, the Male Achievement Program (MAP), the Women Advancing in Leadership and Knowledge (WALK), as an athlete in one of the sports programs, or recruited as a musician for the jazz ensemble or vocalist with the concert choir, the HT experience is uniquely highlighted for success. Responsibility, spiritual development, and supportive relationships are the hallmarks of the HT experience.

In addition, the establishment of a Leadership Seminar whereby student learning extends to the workplace environment of elected officials and key corporate executives supports unique and creative ways that faculty are engaging students. These endeavors, along with the continued success of the W.E.B. DuBois Honors Program, place the University in a competitive global position.

Huston-Tillotson University is proud of its United Methodist Church heritage and affiliation and continually strives to provide a wholesome and open learning environment that encourages recognition of individual worth and merit.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

JAN LOVE, DEAN & PROFESSOR OF CHRISTIANITY & WORLD POLITICS

Candler School of Theology prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world. Our commitment to authentic discipleship and relevant ministry enables us to develop uniquely well-rounded leaders who are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus.

As one of the 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. As one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, Candler provides a rich context for learning and formation supported by the extensive resources of a top-tier research university. As a school located in the metropolitan area of Atlanta, Candler offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of our 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

Candler celebrates its Centennial in 2014, marking our 100th anniversary with commemorative events that reflect on our past and a conference on theology and the church that envisions the future. The yearlong celebration begins in August with the opening of the second phase of Candler's new 128,600-square-foot, LEED-certified building, seven years in the making.

Not only is Candler expanding its physical space this year—it is expanding degree offerings as well. In response to the changing needs of the church, Candler is introducing five new degrees to equip Christian leaders: the Doctor of Ministry, the Master of Religious Leadership, the Master of Religion and Public Life, and two dual degrees pairing divinity and social work and divinity and development practice. With these newest additions to our degree programs, Candler graduates truly will be ready to lead wherever God calls.

Candler's student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 441, with 340 seeking the Master of Divinity, 47 the Master of Theological Studies, 21 the Master of Theology, 15 the Doctor of Theology, and 18 enrolled as Non-Degree students. The student population is 32 percent U.S. ethnic minority, 49 percent women, and the median age of the entering class is 27. Students represent 39 denominations, with half identifying as United Methodist.

We continue to emphasize preparing our students for leadership in an increasingly global context, and now offer 14 academic exchanges with theology schools in 12 countries across five continents. In addition, Candler has an ongoing summer internship program with the Methodist Church in the Bahamas, and participates each year in travel seminars to the Middle East and in World Methodist Evangelism Institute evangelism seminars, traveling in 2014 to Nigeria, Costa Rica, and Brazil.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

It includes four intensive seminars on campus in August and January, a series of online courses, and opportunities for students to work closely with faculty as they research their own unique questions and visions.
- Community Center: The School's renovated Community Center has become a favorite gathering space – sustainable, hospitable, and accessible. It is the welcoming home for weekly community lunches, study, conversation, play, seminars, retreats, and parties.
- Religion and Conflict Transformation (RCT) Clinic: The RCT Clinic sponsors projects to address conflict in congregations, interfaith peacebuilding, restorative justice, and mediation.
- Expanded Scholarship Options: The School has expanded its scholarship options to include full tuition scholarships for UMC certified candidates for ordained ministry, African American Thurman scholars, Latino/a Raices scholars, and School of the Prophets scholars.

DEEPENING SPIRITUAL LIFE: The community enhances spiritual growth in many ways.

- Building intentional living communities: The School sponsors and helps support Theology House, Green House, and Beane House of Study, where students live with intentional and communal practices.
- Enhancing spiritual life through weekly worship, reading retreats, winter retreat, daily morning prayer, and small groups.
- Offering spiritual journeys, including the Vocations Vacation to ministry and service sites and the Seminary Singers tour to local churches.

ENGAGING THE WORLD: BU School of Theology students and faculty have traveled and served extensively in the world during the past year:

- Giving hundreds of volunteer hours across the Boston region, U.S. and world in church camps, homeless shelters, peace organizations, global United Methodist programs, and other settings.
- Traveling in study groups to Turkey (Ephesus), Israel & Palestine, Cuba, rural and urban ministry sites, and churches and service organizations across the US
- Sponsoring conferences on global Christianity and the Dictionary of African Christian Biography
- Serving in local churches and community agencies in contextual education placements, courses, and special internships.

PONDERING CRITICAL ISSUES: The School's annual theme was "Free at Last," to honor Martin Luther King, Jr. and his immortal "I Have a Dream" speech. The community engaged in urgent questions regarding race, sexual orientation and gender identity, and poverty, creating open and respectful spaces to discuss themes that are important to, and controversial in, the church and larger society.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

DAN E. SOLOMON, PRESIDENT

The Texas United Methodist College Association embodies Jesus' admonition to "love God with our mind" and Charles Wesley's entreaty "let us unite the pair as oft' disjoined, knowledge and vital piety".

From the founding of Kingswood School by John Wesley, it has been unthinkable for Methodists to fail to be a "college-related church" with multiple "church-related colleges". And, as John Wesley "scholarshipped" the students at Kingswood School, so do we, in the present age, provide scholarships to United Methodist students in the state of Texas to attend one of our United Methodist schools. When we invest in Christian higher education, we provide a "win/win/win" for our students, the church and our universities.

TUMCA ended one of its better fiscal years on January 31, 2014. The contributions of local congregations increased over last year by 5%, which permitted an increased distribution to each of the four TUMCA schools. With respect to all Annual Conferences in Texas, four of the five experienced increases and one remained about the same.

In the fall of 2013 newspaper articles were prepared for each of the Annual Conference newsletters. In addition to publicizing the work of TUMCA, each conference newsletter article contained the names of TUMCA scholarship recipients, the university where they are enrolled, and their local congregation.

Also in the fall of 2013, as is our pattern, letters were sent to every congregation of each TUMCA scholarship recipient informing the congregation that one of their own had received a TUMCA scholarship and asking each pastor to make it possible for their TUMCA scholar to bring a three minute "thank you" witness to the congregation. Students also received similar letters, including talking points. The "thank you" initiative is dependent upon scholarship award names provided to the TUMCA office by each of our four schools.

The pastors of our TUMCA scholars are asked to report to the TUMCA office following a student witness. A typical response is reflected in a letter from a pastor: "the congregation was very happy for Allie and grateful to TUMCA for supporting her. They were glad to know their apportionment funds were helping her. We gave a copy of your newsletter article to everyone in attendance."

The TUMCA office also receives letters and notes from our scholarship recipients. One wrote, "I wanted to let you know how appreciative I am for the TUMCA scholarship. I will be the first in my family to graduate from college." Another student wrote, "The TUMCA scholarship has allowed me to attend this great school where I have grown intellectually and spiritually. I am involved in several campus clubs, chapel, honor society, work at a job and am on track to graduate with highest honors! After graduation I hope to pursue a career in a non-profit to help those who need it most in our world. Again, thank you for this wonderful gift. I will pay it forward."

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Not to be outdone, a parent's letter expressed gratitude, noting that his son has maintained a 4.0 grade point, which the congregation applauded.

The TUMCA office has received letters from our scholarship recipients enrolled in each of our four schools. Their gratitude is overwhelming and many of their stories are quite compelling.

Listed below are the TUMCA scholarship recipients from the Central Texas Conference.

CENTER FOR EVANGELISM & CHURCH GROWTH

REPORT 1 OUR PURPOSE

The Center for Evangelism and Church Growth exists to energize and equip local churches to share the grace of Jesus Christ in their mission field. Some of the ways that we are currently fulfilling this mandate includes:

- Healthy Church Initiative. (Read about HCI in Report 3)
- Partnering with the Center for Mission Support in developing resources for congregations in the areas of Discipleship Pathways and Passionate Worship.
- Readiness 360 that provides congregations an online survey that provides key markers of readiness for ministry and tips for church leaders as they consider changes that can enhance their ministry and multiply their impact in their mission field.
- Starting new churches and faith communities that effectively reach the rapidly de-churched and unchurched populations.
- Working in concert with Path 1, the General Conference Board that provides leadership, training coaching and mentoring to Annual Conferences to start new congregations.
- Partnering with 11 other Annual Conferences to identify ways to assist local congregations to be more vital communities of faith.
- Partnering with local congregations and District Superintendents to provide coaching and consulting. In the past year 12 congregations have benefited from this service.

REPORT 2 STARTING NEW CONGREGATIONS

The Central Texas Conference continues its strong commitment to starting new congregations and faith communities. In 2013 we partnered with First UMC, Fort Worth and Keller UMC to start two satellite congregations. Working with their coach, Phil Maynard, First 7th and Keller West have begun preview services and are preparing for their official launch.

Thompson Chapel has served the North Fort Worth community for more than a 100 years. Working with their coach and consultant, Jerry Roberson, the Thompson Chapel congregation voted to become a legacy church and to be part of starting a new multi-ethnic congregation. Pastor Carr and Jerry Roberson is working with their launch team to find the right location to launch this new ministry. The goal is to see the new church starting this fall.

This year we partnered with Path 1, the General Church Agency responsible to work with Annual Conferences to start new churches and faith communities, in the Large

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Impact Residency Program. The purpose of the program is to place a high potential new church start pastor on the staff of a large vital congregations to experience a large church and to be coached and trained by the pastors and staff. White's Chapel UMC is our first Residency Congregation and Shea Reyenga our first intern. Shea will be starting a new faith community in July with the support of White's Chapel.

As we look to the future, 1 greatest roadblock to starting new congregations is two-fold. The first is the need for Vital Congregations to partner with the Center for Evangelism and Church Growth to start satellite congregations or new churches. The second is to identify and train new start pastors. Our Conference should be starting a minimum of 3 new churches a year. However, we cannot meet that challenge without Vital Congregations stepping up to the challenge and we identify and recruit quality new church start pastors.

REPORT 3 HEALTHY CHURCH INITIATIVE

G

The Healthy Church Initiative is a process designed to transform churches. Our focus is on providing resources and strategies to laity, pastors church pastors, staff, laity, and congregations so that they in turn will be able to reach new people for Christ and become the church God wants them to be in their community.

Three KEY steps towards revitalization:

TRAINING: Leaders are made – not born – therefore the first step in the HCI process revolves around the training of pastors and laity. Through Pastoral Leadership Development (PLD) and Lay Leadership Development (LLD) programs and Small Church Initiative (SCI), HCI trains individuals to become leaders that are truly mission-focused. This is the step that prepares pastors and laity for the consultation process where true change begins to occur. Since the fall of 2012 we have trained the following:

94	pastors in PLD
221	laity in LLD
172	laity in SCI
22	pastors in SCI

CONSULTATION: If a congregation could have implemented change themselves, they would have done it already. HCI coaches and consultants arrive armed with solid data and a wealth of experience to write individualized prescriptions that will revitalize a congregation. When the consultation process is complete, the congregation will decide to accept (or reject) the prescriptions. This decision truly alters the future of the church. The first Church Consultation was Central UMC, Waco on March 8, 2013. Congregation voted to accept their prescriptions on April 7, 2013. Church Coach is Ed George. Since that date we have completed 18 HCI Church Consultations and 7 SCI Church Consultations.

COACHING: Provided the congregation accepts the prescriptions, experienced coaches will be there to help the team implement change and stay on task to fulfill the prescriptions, navigate any potential landmines and celebrate wins.

Reports – CFE&CG

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Currently we have 8 Church Consultants trained. We are identifying other clergy and laity to be trained as church consultants.

CENTER FOR MISSION SUPPORT

OUR FOCUS

This Center has both a technical and adaptive responsibility in carrying out its mission in the annual conference. It is as technical as offering clergy and lay pensions and health insurance and as adaptive as seeing to it that we energize and equip local churches so they can make disciples of Jesus Christ to transform the world to carry forth ministries of mercy, justice and being the church through its mission and ministries.

The Mission Support Leadership Team has been instrumental in helping organize our center and to establish center responsibilities along with pursuing objectives and plans for the Center as a whole and for helping each staff person more fully understand and live-out their relationship to the vision and mission of the Annual Conference and its connection to the larger global church. This has been accomplished around a spirit of collaboration and collegiality that has resulted in a more cohesive approach to ministry.

We have focused our ministry through the areas of:

1. Risk Taking Mission and Service,
2. Intentional Faith Development,
3. Engaging in Ministry with the Poor and
4. Global Health.

The Center for Mission Support serves as a resource to equip people and local congregations to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world to the glory of God.

In 2013-14, the Center staff and leadership team has collaborated to further the work at the district and local church levels. As you will read in the reports that follow, we have worked hard to provide effective training and avenues for reaching out to, and building relationships with, individuals and communities both locally and internationally, in witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ which addresses the whole person in body, mind, and spirit and offers redemption and acceptance into the family of God regardless of a person's status in life or in the community.

This witness has been seen within the development of ministries of justice, including immigration and other social reform, community development, disaster recovery, compassion, advocacy, presence, proclamation, and care for the sick, the prisoner, the hungry and thirsty, the stranger, and those without adequate shelter, clothing, jobs, education, and access to public and social benefits. In this way, the Center seeks to invite, empower, and support the missional life of every pastor, lay person, and congregation as vital to what it means to be a Christian in this world both in our own local communities and around the world, so that all come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and participate in God's abundance for all people and all of creation.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

In 2014-15 we will continue our focus of connecting, resourcing and partnering with agencies, individuals and churches in order to more adequately offer the redemptive love of Jesus Christ.

We invite you to dream with us by answering the following questions.....

- How can we help you meet the ministry needs of your community?
- How can we help you connect with other individuals/churches/agencies to reach out?
- How can we partner with you?

In 2013-14 we continue to see God at work in mighty ways. We are thankful for the ministry that has taken place in and for the groundwork that has been laid for the future. Thank you for your faithfulness in being the church in this time.

Below you will find just a smattering of the reports from various ministries that relate to the Center for Mission Support and how we have attempted, through them, to energize and equip the local church within the bounds of the CTC. One of our main foci in 2014-15 is to work with each of the districts to specifically target 30 churches in developing a strategic plan of mission and ministry to reach the poor and needy of their community.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

LINDA HUTCHINGS, CTC UMW PRESIDENT

The vision of United Methodist Women is turning faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children and youth around the world. Listed below are five (5) ways we live the vision:

1. We provide opportunities and resources to grow spiritually, become more deeply rooted in Christ and put faith into action.
2. We are organized for growth, with flexible structures that lead to effective witness and action.
3. We equip women and girls around the world to be leaders in communities, agencies, workplaces, governments and churches.
4. We work for justice through compassionate service and advocacy to change unfair policies and systems.
5. We provide educational experiences that lead to personal change in order to transform the world.

Living the vision of United Methodist Women is how we fulfill our Purpose to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, to develop a creative supportive fellowship and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

This year is shaping up to be an excited one for United Methodist Women. January 26-28 was the Legislative Event in Austin. Hundreds of women gathered to hear about and act on these five priorities:

1. Water – To approve and expand our state's water infrastructure and prioritize fair water access to all Texans.
2. Education – Restore funding and fund growth. Cut the flow of public money to private schools and replace or limit statewide assessments.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

3. Predatory Lending – Payday and auto-title lending should be regulated to insure transparency, affordability, and to eliminate the cycle of debt by limiting rollovers, regulating fees and allowing partial payments.
4. Medicaid – The Medicaid extension is smart, fair and affordable.
5. Criminal Justice and Mental Health – Humanize the system with effective programs. Increase access to mental health, substance abuse treatment, rehabilitation and re-entry programs for offenders. Eliminate harsh programs, such as long-term solitary confinement.

The Charter for Racial Justice Event – Sing-a-Rainbow was February 22 at Salado UMC. Deaconess Clara Ester shared her life-long experiences growing up and serving in the south. Rev. Lara Whitley Franklin led a Bible study on Isaiah 58. Two women shared their experiences at the Legislative Event. After a delicious “Food for the Road” lunch Ann Ridley shared information on Domestic Abuse in Texas and Billie Ray gave a presentation on the need for additional funding for maternal health worldwide. We closed with the worship service “Listen! Listen! Listen!”

The Central Texas Conference United Methodist Women’s Spiritual Growth Retreat was March 28-29 at Lakeview Camp and Conference Center. The theme was “Making All Things New: An Invitation to the Spiritual Life” with Revs. Judy and Bob Holloway.

The Young Women’s Event was April 5 at First UMC of Joshua. The young attendees worked on UMCOR kits for the Great Day of Service in the morning and after a great lunch were pampered with a spa-type retreat including manis and pedis.

“MAKE IT HAPPEN!” was the theme for the UMW Assembly in Louisville, KY April 25-28. We filled a bus with joyous UMW and had an unbelievable experience there. More than 55 UMW represented Central Texas Conference at Assembly.

May 17 was the workday at United Community Centers. The CTC UMW project for this year has been the gathering of uniforms, baby supplies and other needed items for UCC. We will also host a Christmas party for the ACT III teens of UCC on Dec. 9 at Poly UCC with pizza, games, crafts and an astounding cookie walk to end the evening.

The UMW Luncheon at Annual Conference will be Tuesday, June 10, in the beautiful Aristide Event and Conference Center in Mansfield just one block south of First UMC.

There will be two CTC UMW Mission Trips this year. They are July 15-18 at Cookson Hills, OK and Oct. 12-18 at McCurdy Ministries in Espanola, NM. To register for either one or both go to ctcumw.org or contact Cynthia Rives, coordinator.

Mission U will be held in three locations this year.

- First UMC, Temple - August 4 - 5, evening classes; August 5, 6, weekday classes
- Genesis UMC, Fort Worth – August 5 - 6, evening classes; August 6, 7, weekday classes
- Glen Lake Camp, Glen Rose – August 9, 10. The August 8 evening is optional.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

The studies offered are:

- All Is Well With My Soul – The Spiritual Growth Study
- The Roma of Europe – The Geographic Study
- The Church and People with Disabilities – The Issue Study

UMW Sunday will be celebrated across the conference in many churches on September 28, but it can be held on any other Sunday. Suggestions for this service are on the ctcumw.org website.

The CTC UMW Annual Autumn Gathering is October 4 at Trinity UMC in Arlington. The theme for the day “UMW Walking in God’s Prescriptive Will.”

We hope that you will peruse the ctcumw.org site for information about conference and district UMW events, registration forms, flyers for events and photos. Karla Rodriguez is webmaster and does a great job keeping it up to date. Cross Ties is the CTC UMW publication for the local woman. If you do not receive this, please contact any conference officer or post it on the message board on the website.

I truly appreciate each local, district and conference United Methodist Woman. We are blessed to be in mission together as we strive to put our faith, hope and love into action.

DISASTER RESPONSE

REV. LARAINÉ WAUGHTAL, DISASTER RESPONSE COORDINATOR

The year 2013 brought disasters to three of our communities in the Central Texas Conference. On April 17, 2013 the fertilizer plant in West, TX tragically exploded killing 15 people and injuring so many more. This event affected 667 households and 1,268 people. In truth it affected more than the number of people listed in the report – these were the ones with losses of homes, personal items and family members. In truth this disaster affected the two point charge of West/Gholson, both communities, and people across the state and nation as they heard the news and responded.

Our Disaster Response Coordinator was in contact with the pastor, Jimmie Samson that night and on the ground the next morning. We had a tremendous response from our trained Early Response Teams from the Conference responded as 336 volunteers working 2,296 hours served over the first few months to help families recover their belongings and make their property safer.

Our own conference and the conferences and individuals from across the nation have donated $517,448.64 and UMCOR gave us another $220,000 for West. All of this money is being utilized for the recovery of West. Not only have we responded as a conference in the relief phase of the recovery, but volunteers have begun to help in the rebuilding process. We were also approached in the early phases of the disaster by the community, FEMA and the State of Texas to provide Case Management for the people of West over the long term process. They knew the reputation of UMCOR and wanted us to facilitate and help oversee the needs of the people of West. We contracted with 8 Case Managers and trained 23 volunteers to help with this process. Out of the original 667 cases opened 337 families have had their situation completed and their cases closed.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Less than one month later on May 16, 2013 an F4 tornado tore through the Ranchos Brazos community of Granbury and the city of Cleburne. Again, we were on the ground the next morning preparing to respond as the emergency personnel finished their work. Our disaster response leadership was in place and responded to both communities. With Laraine Waughtal, Disaster Response Coordinator, in Granbury and the Rev. Kim FUMC Cleburne on the ground in each location the process began to respond with our trained Early Response Team members.

Between the two locations we have had 265 volunteers work 9,008 hours representing 32 churches and two businesses in the cleanup of the two communities. The work accomplished includes salvaging metal and cutting trailer bases for home owners, tarping roofs, chainsaw work, demolishing trailers, packing up homes, stabilizing structures, finding belongings, debris removal and skid steer work.

Once again donations came pouring in with $125,653.62 received in our conference and $210,000 from UMCOR. This money has been utilized for new septic systems (the tornado literally churned the ground and destroyed them), and the repairing and rebuilding of homes. The money has also been utilized for receiving seven beautiful modular homes donated from Ft. Hood Army Base. Some remodeling and re-establishing electricity, plumbing and central heat and air on the homes were necessary. Our conference has helped lead the way with providing the Construction Manager for the Long Term Recovery Center.

In both locations our volunteers have responded in a tremendous way. There is not enough room in the journal to recognize and thank everyone. The Granbury recovery should be completed by early summer. West will continue in the rebuild process for a minimum of another year and a half.

Our Disaster Response Task Force has been re-established with two representatives serving from each district in the conference. They have been hard at work going to Jurisdictional Disaster Response training and preparing for the possibility of disasters for this year.

Also, our Conference Disaster Plan is being updated and plans will be written for each district since each district provides unique challenges and needs.

I cannot thank everyone enough for their generous response and work being the hands and feet of Christ and being a tremendous witness in these communities on behalf of the United Methodist Church.

PARTNERSHIPS WITH JUSTICE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

The Central Texas Conference is pleased to have maintained our budgetary support for JFON for 2013 at $36,000 and to be contributing that amount again in 2014. Together, we have maintained our partnership designed to energize and equip local churches to develop innovative ministries in predominantly minority neighborhoods. Through the use of the Peace with Justice offering proceeds, funds were made available to resource seventy-eight partnerships with Justice for our Neighbors including Prayer Vigils, Immigration Primers and educational/justice ministries with immigrant neighbors. In addition, the Central Texas Conference funded the appointment of Rev. Dean Reed as Executive Director of JFON through 2013. A Task Force formed in early 2014 is evaluating the pathway forward for deeper and continued involvement by Central Texas Conference churches in ministry with our immigrant neighbors.

EASTERN MEXICO TASK FORCE

The Eastern Mexico Task Force met in conjunction with partner churches from Eastern Mexico to continue to evaluate the details of living out the Covenant Relationship between the two conferences based on these objectives:

1. Developing mission trip opportunities for members of CTC churches to serve alongside of the churches of Mexico in their communities as well as opportunities for members of the churches of Mexico to serve within the Central Texas Conference.
2. Developing a renewed relationship with the Juan Wesley Seminary with possible opportunities for exchange learning.
3. Central Texas and Eastern Mexico conferences to solidify and grow relationships between pastors and laypersons.
4. Strengthening and enhancing relationships with Willie Berman, GBGM missionary serving in the Eastern Mexico conference.

An exploratory team travelled to Mexico in 2013 to scout mission/work projects for teams from the US to travel to Mexico. The Center for Mission Support is currently recruiting VIM leaders to lead these teams. In addition, an exploratory team from Eastern Mexico visited Central Texas in 2013 and discussed collaborative ministry in the area of Hispanic Worship Leadership for 2014 as well as possible clergy partnerships between conferences and internships through the John Wesley Seminary in Monterrey, Mexico. These initiatives will be further explored in 2014. Through the development of our relationship with the Eastern Mexico Conference, we anticipate receiving Rev. Samuel Macias, Elder in the Eastern Mexico Conference to Pastor of La Trinidad UMC in Fort Worth and CTC Church Growth and Development.

BISHOP'S MISSION TRIP TO KENYA

Bishop Lowry and Rev. Dawne Phillips, CTC Director of Missions, will lead a team of 16 clergy and lay-persons to Maua Methodist Hospital in Meru, Kenya in September, 2014 as a part of the Central Texas Conference's continued emphasis on serving the world and on global health. We look forward to the additional leadership these persons will provide in this area upon their return.

INCLUSIVENESS

The Central Texas Conference continues to monitor Annual Conference for inclusiveness of all persons. As a step beyond the act of monitoring, the Inclusiveness Task Force continues to work toward the goal of energizing and equipping local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world through the full inclusion of all persons. As a follow-up to the 2012 trip of the Inclusiveness Committee to the Multicultural, Multiclass Worship and Ministry Seminar presented by The United Methodist Church for All People in Columbus, OH in October, 2012, there are plans for a focus on cultural competencies in 2015-2016.

The CTC Resource Team on Accessibility continues to be available to energize and equip local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by ensuring their facilities are accessible for ministry with all persons. The resource team is available to assist a local church Accessibility Team conduct an Accessibility Mini-Audit: an aid to assist churches in identifying barriers that can cause persons with disabilities to be excluded from full participation in worship and other congregational ministry. The goal of full accessibility is a continuing process and this audit is a starting point. It is recommended that the local church Accessibility Team includes at least seven persons consisting of the Chair of Trustees, the Pastor, the Lay Leader, persons with disabilities and other persons interested in disability concerns. For information about an Accessibility Audit, contact Rev. Dawne Phillips at dawne@ctcumc.org.

2014 CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE ANNUAL CONFERENCE MONITORING

The Inclusiveness Committee will again be monitoring the 2014 Central Texas Conference Annual Conference for inclusive language and behavior and comparable treatment of all persons. Members of the conference are invited to participate in monitoring by selecting a session and utilizing the form that follows. Completed surveys can be left in the designated box at the Center for Mission Support Table outside the sanctuary.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE MONITORING FORM CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE, JUNE 8-11, 2014

The Central Texas Conference's Guiding Principles state, "We believe that we are called to be faithful to our five core values of Evangelism, The Wesleyan Tradition, Spiritual Growth, Mission, and Inclusiveness." Monitoring of the Annual Conference will demonstrate how well we have lived into inclusiveness. We will celebrate our successes

ENGAGING IN MINISTRY WITH THE POOR

MISSION BACKPACK

Mission Backpack is an initiative designed to energize and equip local churches to be involved in ministry with the poor in their local communities by partnering with their neighborhood schools to provide weekend food for children with food insecurity. Utilizing offerings received through the Thanksgiving Offerings and Center for Mission Support budgeted funds, five new backpack ministries were started in five Central Texas Conference communities, making a total of twelve new starts since Annual Conference 2012. Through the Christ-centered love of these congregations, backpacks of food were delivered to children with food insecurity, relationships were built between local congregations and community schools, and disciples grew in their understanding of transforming the world, one hungry child at a time.

ADVANCE GIVING

We celebrate that Central Texas Conference giving to Advance ministries of The United Methodist Church totaled $248,261.61. This included these top recipients:

$42,154.93 to Philippine Typhoon
$40,653.23 to Imagine No Malaria
$27,261.83 to UMCOR USA
$24,284.32 to Child Rescue Center in Sierra Leone
$16,151 to UMCOR Global
$9,143 to Maua Methodist Hospital
$6,121 to AIDS Orphan Project in Maua Kenya
$5,289 to Hurricane Sandy UMCOR relief

In addition, we contributed $71,467 to Global Missions Missionaries of the United Methodist Church.

“UNDERSTANDING POVERTY” WORKSHOP SERIES

CTC Center for Mission Support has developed a two-day workshop on “Understanding Poverty” led by Rev. Dawne Phillips, CTC Director of Missions. The pilot program was offered at FUMC Ballenger in 2013 and information about how your church can schedule the workshop can be found on the CTC website.

GLOBAL HEALTH

Understanding that food insecurity is one of the contributing causes of global health issues, the 2011 Thanksgiving Offering proceeds ($7,264.80) were used at Annual Conference 2013 to package foods through the Kids Against Hunger initiative. An additional $10,000 for this project came from the CTC’s Center for Mission Support. These food packages were delivered by our GBGM missionary Willie Berman to meet needs in our connectional ministries across the border as a part of our new covenant relationship with the Eastern Mexico Conference.

$40,653.23 was given to the Imagine No Malaria campaign.

The Bishop’s Mission Trip to Kenya in September 2014 will focus on our partnership with the Maua Methodist Hospital in the eradication of killer diseases malaria and HIV AIDS as well as hunger related illness and deaths.

INTENTIONAL FAITH DEVELOPMENT

ELEMENTARY BIBLE CAMP

The Central Texas Conference hosted a Bible Camp for elementary age children at Glen Lake Camp in September 2013. 22 churches participated, bringing 135 children who grew in their faith and understanding of the role of scripture in their discipleship.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS’ FELLOWSHIP PARTNERSHIP

Through our partnership with the Central Texas Conference Chapter of Christian Educators’ Fellowship the CTC sponsored in the Spring, a lunch and learn with Rev. Dr. Leanne Hadley on “Ways to Include Children in Worship.” We continue to seek ways to include more educators in these gatherings.

CHILDREN’S TASK FORCE

The CTC Children’s Task Force continues to work to energize and equip local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by augmenting the ministry to children and their families in place in local congregations. Priorities for 2013 have been evaluating the needs of those working with children and families as well as establishing a vision and long-term plan for ministry with children in our conference; supporting 2013 Elementary Bible Camp and development of the Spring Event for children and families: Equipping Families for Faith, held in Waco. The Task Force has developed a current contact list of persons involved in ministry with children and a Facebook page for dissemination of information. The Task Force is led by Rev. Holly Dittrich.

YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

LEANNE JOHNSTON

After a chaotic, busy, and wonderful summer, our youth workers gathered for two nights of relaxation, worship, support, and fellowship at Still Water Lodge in Glen Rose. Worship was provided by Jarrod Johnston and Colin Campbell. Participants explored Spark House curriculum and were lead in Bible Study by Spark House representatives. Youth workers left the retreat filled with the Holy Spirit and support by other youth ministers. "I had an awesome time, made some new friends, rest and (most importantly) I was able to reconnect with my Savior who loves me so much. Can't wait for next year!" The Youth Worker Sabbath is scheduled for August 14-16, 2014 at Still Water Lodge.

Every month around the conference youth workers gather for lunch, dinner, or coffee to share ideas, support each other, and pray together. In January a new group for youth workers was born – Youth Workers Accountability Group. This group meets for 2 hours each month and is intentional in their approach. Each month two youth workers share an article, book, scripture, devotional, or other source that has enhanced their ministry. Youth ministers have signed a covenant to hold each other accountable and support each other in ministry. We are excited to see how this group continues to shape youth ministry in our conference.

Our Conference Council on Youth Ministry has continued to live out their mission of "being in the business of changing hearts." They have provided valuable leadership and passion to our conference events and shared what they've learned with their local congregations. They understand that the call of Christ on their life is challenging and uncomfortable. God is moving in remarkable ways in their lives and I cannot wait to see what the future holds. We are excited to add new committed adults to the CCYM team this year as we focus on intentionally mentoring students.

We had three very successful Mid-Winter Retreats at again this year – one Central UMC in Waco and two at Glen Lake Camp. About 400 participants attended one of the three retreats in February and represent 37 churches from around the conference. The theme this year was "Called to be the Church" and the entire schedule focused on what the church is, who the church is, why the church exists, and where the church is going. CCYM voted to have Loose Change to Loosen Chains campaign through International Justice Missions be their focus this year. They successfully raised $875.19 to fight slavery!

Central Texas Conference young adults have been very busy this year as well! In July we had our first conference-wide young adult mission experience to Oklahoma City. Participants worked with the Refuge OKC doing construction and community building with the folks in an urban area of Oklahoma City. All young adults are invited on a mission experience to Memphis, Tennessee this year in July! In September, young adults exploring a call to ministry came together for worship and discernment at the Discovery Retreat in Waco. Young people were empowered to follow the call God has placed on their life. They learned more about specific areas of ministry including youth and children's ministry, ordination, and spiritual gifts.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

A monthly roundtable for those who work with young adults began meeting in August. Campus pastors, young adult ministers, and volunteers gather to share struggles, best practices, and plan events. This group planned a drive-in movie event for young adults over spring break. There was live music, delicious food, and great fellowship. Through these gatherings and events, young adults are making valuable connections and continuing to grow in their relationship with Christ.

I continue to be honored to travel the conference meeting youth, youth workers, young adults, and young adult workers. The purpose for ministries with young people is not recreation or programming, but discipleship. I am thrilled to work in a conference that values the discipleship of young people.

TASK FORCE ON MINISTRY WITH OLDER ADULTS

Recognizing that churches are called to make disciples of Jesus Christ of all ages for the transformation of the world, the CTC Task Force on Ministries with Older Adults augments the ministry of local churches in the following ways (1) provide conference-wide ministry opportunities in the areas of Risk Taking Mission and Service specifically designed to engage older adults; and (2) provide learning opportunities for local church staff and volunteers in best practices of engaging older adults in learning communities that address the particular spiritual growth opportunities that come in later years of life. A conference wide workshop on Older Adults in Ministry and a mission trip for older adults to the UMCOR Sager Brown Depot were the fruits of this year's focus. This task force is led by Rev. Gordon Johnson and Rev. Brenda Beaver.

INTENTIONAL DISCIPLESHIP PROJECT – CHARTING THE COURSE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE AND GENERAL BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP MAY TO DECEMBER 2013

In May 2013, the conference identified congregations to test Charting a Course as a process for congregations ready to build an intentional discipleship system. Four congregations participated and recommend the process. Each church indicated that Charting a Course got them started on intentional discipleship, and they recognize the need to pay attention and adapt all the ministry toward discipleship so that they are relevant to people.

The conference wanted to identify a process for congregations in their Healthy Church Initiative process that got a prescription to build a discipleship system. The Charting a Course process enabled each congregation to develop a unique plan for the community and context. In 2014, the congregations will develop strategies to implement their discipleship system. The 4 congregations are diverse in context, staffing and population.

Keller UMC is a large, multi-staff congregation and found this process aligned the staff toward a priority on discipleship. They said, "Charting a Course gave us a process to bring focus to all our diverse ministries."

Hamilton UMC is a county seat church in a stable rural area. The pastor identified facilitators and the team was identified after 3 months of prayer and discernment. They said, "Our whole congregation got involved in describing a disciple." The team will continue the Charting a Course process in 2014.

Central UMC is an established congregation renewing itself. They said, "We claim our identity as Wesleyan Christians. Learning our heritage was powerful." Located just off interstate 35 in Waco, the Charting team is building an intentional system for "Finding the Central Way." They have developed this visual. On-ramps represent the various ways people access growing in faith.

Good News UMC is a new church in a fast growing suburb. They reported "At first we thought this was the latest program and agreed to test it for the conference. We discovered it is not a program. We had to work the process to develop what will work for us."

A conference-wide training event on the Charting the Course resource will be held on Saturday, November 8th. Watch the CTC website for location and registration information. For more information about how your church can engage in this intentional discipleship process, contact: Rev Dawne Phillips, Central Texas Conference dawnephillips@ctcumc.org

CONFIRMATION CELEBRATION EVENT

Confirmation classes from around the conference came together with Bishop Mike Lowry on January 24, 2014 at Glen Lake Camp to celebrate their connection with the larger church. Thank you to small group leaders, sponsors, and Bishop Lowry for leading over 130 adults and children in this connectional experience. 2015's Confirmation Celebration Event is scheduled in early 2015. Watch the CTC website for more information.

PASSIONATE WORSHIP

In partnership with the Center for Evangelism and Church Growth, the Central Texas Conference Worship Task Force was formed to energize and equip local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by providing resources to churches to enhance development and offering of passionate Wesleyan worship experiences. Priorities included providing connections to excellent preaching resources; providing training on developing and utilizing a worship planning team; providing creative and theologically consistent worship resources relevant to church size and demographic; providing training/resources in the development of daily personal worship resources; making available quality liturgical resources in both contemporary and traditional modalities; training in the use of high-quality sacred space visuals; conversation in developing creative worship venues/services outside the traditional worship setting; and training for churches in how to effectively tell the story of ministry in their midst.

The fruit of the initial year of dialogue was the Revive worship event held in March, 2014 at FUMC Mansfield, where approximately 75 worship leaders in the areas of traditional worship, contemporary worship and worship technology met to hear Bishop Lowry's vision of passionate worship, make connections with others involved in worship leadership in our conference, and learn from FUMC Mansfield about their process of developing multiple worship experiences with a variety of technology. A leadership team is in place to determine next steps for networking and resourcing worship leaders.

GLEN LAKE CAMP AND RETREAT CENTER

REV. TRAVIS FRANKLIN, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The story continues.....

In the fall I was in The Container Store making some purchases for the camp. As I was checking out, the young cashier noticed the Glen Lake Camp shirt I was wearing. He asked me if I was connected to Glen Lake. When I responded that I worked there, this 30 year old man began to share with me how he had gone to Glen Lake both as a child and as a teenager. He also shared that both of his parents had gone there as well. He told me that his experience there had shaped and influenced many of the most important decisions he had made during those years of his life. He concluded by witnessing that going to Glen Lake Camp was one of the greatest gifts his parents could have given him.

The story of what God has, is, and continues to do in and through the ministry of Glen Lake Camp is certainly a transformational story worth telling and re-telling. As we celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Camp's life in ministry, those stories are at the heart and soul of what the ministry is and what the ministry has been about for these past many years. On behalf of the Camp, let me express my thanks to the Conference for its faithful and continued support of this ministry. Without you there would be no Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center. I want to invite each of you to join us for the 75th Anniversary Celebration of this great ministry on Friday and Saturday, October 3rd and 4th, at the camp. You will be receiving more detailed information related to that great day of remembering and celebration. I pray you will put those dates on your calendar and join us.

Since last annual conference God has been very busy in and through the ministry of Glen Lake Camp. We served more than 11,000 people in the past year through camps and retreats. Our retreat ministries have been growing for the past three years. Summer camp continues to struggle some, but we are hoping to see those numbers increase this summer. I am grateful to each of you for the ways in which you support us. We are blessed with a dedicated and faithful staff and board who believe in what God is doing among us and where God is leading us next.

One of the most exciting projects we have going on right now is our involvement with Kaleidoscope, Inc. a camping consulting firm. Kaleidoscope is leading us through some strategic planning. At the end of the process we hope to have clarified the vision and mission of this ministry, our identity related to the ministry God is calling us to do, and some sense of where God may be leading us next. Our board and staff are involved in this process and we are being challenged and inspired as we sense what the Holy Spirit is seeking to do in, through, and among us. We would ask the Conference for your ongoing prayers as we move through this exciting adventure together.

This past fall it was my pleasure to drive to Georgetown, Texas to meet with Mr. Allen Rogers. Allen is a member of the First United Methodist Church of Georgetown. At the invitation of his pastor I met Allen in the pastor's office for an interview. You see, Allen is 86 years old and he was a part of the original group of people to purchase Glen Lake Camp some 75 years ago. I have to tell you it was an amazing two-hour conversation. What I remember most about my time with him was his witness that God, through Glen Lake Camp, had helped to lay a strong, faith foundation for his life. He talked about how his experience there had shaped and molded him in his faith. He witnessed about how it had made him a more loving father and husband, a more compassionate neighbor and friend, and a disciplined and dedicated worker. He shared with me that his experience at Glen Lake Camp had been passed down through the generations of his family. His stories of the beginning years at the camp were warm and inspiring. And what I experienced in that interview confirmed once again God is alive and at work in that most sacred and holy place.

As we thank God for these 75 years of God's work among us, my prayer for us all would be that stories like these will continue to be heard as we trust God's movement among us! Seventy-five years is only the beginning!!

Much grace always,

Visit www.glenlake.org to become an essential part of our future ministry in Jesus Christ—at Glen Lake.

BUILDING COMMITTEE

STEVE MCIVER, CHAIRMAN

The Committee met twice after attending the groundbreaking ceremonies at Texas Wesleyan University.

At the October 12, 2013 meeting we viewed the initial floor plan drawings provided by the architects. Discussion was centered on the unique things needed for our purpose as compared to a typical office building. Such things as a prayer room/chapel, large multi-purpose room, the different kinds of and amount of technology equipment, and a patio/outside gathering space were the main topics.

The committee voted to recommend that monies received from the sale of the present building above the amount of the lease payments on the new building be used for technological and office equipment, furnishings and the patio.

The committee voted to authorize Earl Wood and Randy Wild to negotiate the lease agreement for us.

During the March 1, 2014 meeting we looked at carpet, paint and tile samples and so forth. We also saw the second floor plan necessitated because the first one was over budget.

The committee voted to recommend acceptance of the additional two years offered by TWU on the lease agreement at $100,000 a year.

Construction is scheduled to begin in late June and be finished in late April, 2015.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

ED KOMANDOSKY, CHAIRMAN

The Commission on Archives and History has the mission of finding, gathering and preserving items of historical importance of the United Methodist Church within the Central Texas Conference. The commission meets annually in the fall at the library on the Texas Wesleyan University campus. Highlights of our last meeting are as follows:

1. The commission continues to strive to recruit those in the Central Texas Conference who are interested in preserving the history of our churches and church related organizations and we are making appropriate efforts to improve our outreach.
2. The commission hopes to sell the remaining Central Texas Conference history books and use the funds therein generated to preserve cornerstones of closed CTC churches. A cornerstone garden has been built on the TWU campus for those historical markers from closed or abandoned churches.
3. A letter of thanks and appreciation will be appropriately sent to the West Library at TWU once all the archives are transferred to the new conference center currently being built on the university campus. The library has for many years donated space and services to the CTC archives at no cost. Our archivist Calvin Scott was also commended for his work in updating the electronic database and putting old conference journals online.
4. The commission hereby goes on record to urge the continued collection of anecdotes, pictures, articles, plaques, books, records and any other historical items that can be archived and stored to fill in the historical record of the CTC. In this regard each church is urged to have a historian to help the commission in its task of preserving United Methodist history in our conference.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

CALVIN SCOTT, CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE ARCHIVIST

The majority of the progress made in the Central Texas Conference archives this year has been focused mainly on cataloging our records and fulfilling requests for assistance and research that come in to the archives. However, rather than get into the minutia of the day to day work that is involved in maintain and running the archives in this report, I'd like to highlight two specific projects that deserve special mention - organizing our accession room and digitizing our conference journals.

During the summer, I worked 20 hours on organizing our accession storage space. This process included setting up an organizational schema, and working in the new material that is constantly being added to the archives. In the next year, I plan on fine tuning this organizational scheme and employing it to provide an easier time collecting new materials. We have collected more than 60 boxes of new accession materials this year from various districts, churches and agencies associated with The United Methodist Church. This is a vast increase and has mostly come from district offices and closed churches. The issue with the upkeep of these records is unfortunately not as simple as organizing the records by collection. Not all records have archival value; but a few of the records are still within their retention schedule and need to be kept. This makes working on the records problematic until all non-archival records in the collections retention schedule has been fulfilled. This aspect of the project has grown exponentially from what originally seemed to be a simple organizational task.

I have also continued to expand the digitization of our conference journals. This year we digitized 19 years of journals, and now have digital copies from 1980 to 2007. The digitized journals are all searchable and in pdf formats. I will be adding the most recent editions online in the coming months. I hope to have them all added by June of this year. Once completed, you will be able to access them at <http://www.ctcumc.org/archives>. The size of the journals are anywhere from 15 to 45 MB. While quite large in file size, the journals are easy to download for faster use and portability.

In addition to the regular cataloging, collecting, processing requests and working on our electronic database, I plan on setting up a new accession process for churches and other donators in the coming year. I hope to make the process as painless as possible but one that still provides informative data on the collection. I will also work on digitizing more records this year, continue to organize our accession room, and prepare for the eventual move of the archives sometime in 2015.

A RESOLUTION ON HOLY CONFERENCING

The Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church herein assembled adopts the following resolution:

WHEREAS the phrase “agree to disagree” first appeared in print in 1770 when, at the death of George Whitefield, Methodist founder John Wesley wrote a memorial sermon which acknowledged but downplayed, the two men’s doctrinal differences; and

WHEREAS the John Wesley was the first to put the phrase “agree to disagree” in print, he also enclosed it in quotation marks; in a subsequent letter to his brother Charles, John Wesley attributed the phrase to Whitefield; and

WHEREAS the Methodist denomination in centuries past has disagreed on such issues as slavery and the American civil rights movement; and

WHEREAS our denomination now appears to have substantial differences of opinion concerning civil unions, same gender marriage and homosexuality; and

WHEREAS Holy Conferencing and open and frank discussions of differences often lead to common understanding concerning such differences;

THEREFORE be it resolved by this Central Texas Annual Conference:

THAT we commit ourselves to prayer and discussion in Holy Conferencing during the coming conference year; and

THAT we consider our differences with love and respect; and

THAT as clergy and laity together we seek God’s will for our United Methodist Church concerning issues related to homosexuality, civil unions and same gender marriage; and

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

THAT we might prepare for General Conference 2016 with the attitude of John Wesley, who said “though we cannot think alike, may we not love alike? May we not be of one heart, we are not of one opinion? Without all doubt we may.”

DETAILS SUPPORTING THE 2014 BUDGET

1. These are final numbers for General Conference Apportionments approved by Legislation enacted at the 2012 General Conference.
2. These are final numbers for Jurisdictional Conference Apportionments approved by the Jurisdictional Conference meeting in July 2012.
3. Includes salary increases and 9.93% increase in health insurance premiums.
4. Includes increase as we anticipate more new church starts.
5. Path 1 Internship. Path 1 gives a $25,000 grant and we provide $50,000 to place a high potential new start pastor on the staff of a large healthy congregation for training, mentoring and skill development.
6. We have found one of the best ways to partner with a church is through the Healthy Church Initiative (HCI). This includes partnering with both Large and Small Churches and the coaching with clergy to which we can offer HCI.
7. Includes salary increases and 9.93% increase in health insurance premium. In addition, it includes moving of personnel from Evangelism/Church Growth to Mission Support.
8. These Church Growth and Development obligations have ended.
9. Tragically some of the churches in our conference are not adequately protecting their children and youth from abuse, nor themselves from potential lawsuits. MinistrySafe is a system to equip churches to develop a foundational safety system for children and youth. This funds the opportunity to implement on-line training for all persons in leadership who work with children and youth.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Further it will allow for a comprehensive data base of certified trained individuals for use at the local church, District, and Conference levels, including Glen Lake Camp and CTCYM.

10. Includes moving of personnel from Evangelism/Church Growth to Mission Support which results in an increase in staff salary and benefits. Also includes salary increases and 9.93% increase in health insurance premium. It also includes a new part-time position – Coordinator for Disaster Response and Volunteers in Mission ministries.
11. While much of the new service center building expenses have been defined, there are still some expenses up in the air. We were able to put aside $215,965 in 2013 and anticipate a similar amount for 2014. We believe reducing the amount requested for 2015 to $100,000 is adequate.
12. Our commitment to the conference beginning in the 2013 budget was to put $100,000 annually into an equity fund. The intent of the fund is to allow the conference to have a substantial amount of money secured for whatever the needs of the conference in its next phase of growth.
13. By action of the 2007 Annual Conference and in adherence with ¶ 626 of the 2012 Book of Discipline a sustentation fund was established as part of the benefit program through the Annual Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The fund is to provide resources and temporary financial assistance to clergy and to assist local congregations in times of clergy transition. The funds are underwritten with an amount of .25% of the total Annual Conference plan compensation collected from CTC churches through the connectional ministry budget. You may find further information in Report 11 in the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits Report.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION (CFA)

REPORT No. 1

The churches of the Central Texas Conference are to be congratulated on another excellent payout on Connectional Mission Giving (CMG) shares (a.k.a. apportionments)! Even with all the financial challenges we have faced as a nation, in our annual conference and congregations, the churches of the Central Texas Conference had a total 2013 payout of 98.01%, compared to 93.14% for 2012. That is 4.87 percentage points ahead of last year, and significantly higher than our 10 year average payout. In fact, the 2013 payout is the highest level since 1999!! This is a magnificent indication of the faithfulness of Central Texas United Methodists and the strength, vitality and pride of the churches of the Central Texas Conference!

In addition to the above-average CMG, our churches also gave over $149,000 to Special Day offerings, $248,000 to missionaries and advance special projects, and $350,000 to disaster relief/recovery efforts in West, Granbury, and Oklahoma.

The CTC churches contributed a total of $9,577,991 for CMG while 269 churches (a 5% increase in number of churches) paid 100% of their share amounts in full. (For a full listing of each local church and their percentage paid you may log on to the conference web site www.ctcumc.org and highlight finance and click the link to Connectional Mission Giving.

We recognize again the South District for leading the way with 100% payout from their district churches. In addition, this year they were joined in paying 100% by the North and West districts. These pastors, lay leaders and District Superintendents Clifton Howard, Ginger Bassford and Carol Woods are to be commended! They were followed by the Central District – 95.36%, and East District - 94.66%. We are especially aware that several pastors and churches truly went the extra mile to achieve these results and we are deeply grateful to all who made extraordinary efforts.

The CFA continues to expect 100% payout of our connectional obligations and urges every church to take seriously the recommended ten-month payout plan in which 10% of the annual CMG amount is remitted monthly. Without doubt, making monthly payments beginning in January or February is an important step in paying your connectional mission opportunities in full.

¶ 622 of the 2012 Book of Discipline states that the Board of Pension and Health Benefits amounts, the Episcopal Fund, the District Superintendents Fund, and Equitable Compensation are apportioned funds which are to be paid on the same schedule as the pastor's base compensation is paid. The Cabinet joins the Council in reminding each church to adhere to this mandate monthly.

The Council, the Executive Director of Mission Support and the Conference Comptroller/Treasurer are making special efforts to provide the information conference leaders and members expect in a more open and transparent way. The Council takes seriously its fiduciary responsibility and is working with conference leaders to insure the continued faithful and effective stewardship of all conference funds. Log on to the Conference web site www.ctcumc.org and highlight the Finance tab and click on the "Connectional Mission Giving" (CMG) tab for the most current information.

1. Compensation for the District Superintendents and Executive Center Directors is determined by the following:
 - a. Salary – The District Superintendents and Executive Directors salaries will be adjusted annually by the same percentage as is reflected in the Conference Average Compensation (CAC) formula calculated by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB). The 2014 CAC increase is 2.73% which results in a salary for 2015 of $123,166.
 - b. Where there is a Housing Allowance at the District Superintendent and Executive Director level, the formula will be 20% of salary rounded to the nearest thousand. The percentage will be reviewed every four years. The next review will be in 2015. The Housing Allowance for 2015 will be $25,000.
2. There may be amounts set to provide for the District Superintendents' and Executive Directors' expense for conference meetings and additional ministerial expenses in an accountable reimbursement plan, the district superintendent's portion of the conference health benefits plan premium, for an amount requested by each district superintendent or executive director to be excluded from salary and added to the district (or conference) contribution toward housing allowance, and each district superintendent and executive director's salary. The line item amount for each of these is to be determined in consultation with and approved by the Council on Finance and Administration. It is required that the accountable reimbursement plan for the district superintendent and executive director's expense for conference meetings and additional ministerial expenses be established in accordance with Sec. 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Also, any Housing Expense Set-aside, as desired by each district superintendent or executive director shall be established in accordance with Sec. 107 of the IRC in like manner. Further, the cost of the Clergy Retirement Security Program, billed directly to the conference, will be an apportionment to the districts. An additional amount for voucher, reimbursed expenses related to each executive director's office is also a part of the respective council's or commission's budget.

3. The district committees on finance are authorized to prepare budgets for presentation to the district stewards. An amount up to 10% of the support and compensation for the district superintendent may be included in the district budget to defray the utility costs of the district parsonage. In addition, an amount up to 10% of the support and compensation may be included in the district budget for the purpose of voucher reimbursement of travel and business-related expenses. District budgets shall not include a discretionary fund, but may include a District Operations Expense item. The district budget shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration for approval each year. The district stewards are authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund to be used for paying in full at the district level apportioned items, which may fall short within the respective district. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same manner as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future connectional mission giving funds will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the CMG of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other necessary funds will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.
4. We recommend a $100,000 amount for Texas Methodist College Association. The Council also recommends that funding for Campus Ministries will be a set dollar amount rather than based on conference membership.
5. At the end of each fiscal year unexpended unrestricted operation/budget funds, less the amount needed to cover deficits in conference budget accounts, shall be transferred into the operating reserve and an accounting of all operating reserve funds shall be made at each Annual Conference.
6. Each year the use of the unspent Contingency Fund shall be reviewed by the Council on Finance and Administration and the Bishop to decide if any amount should be used for Conference, Jurisdictional and General Church apportionments before going into the Operating Reserve. In 2013 the council voted to use $50,000 undesignated budget funds to pay 100% of the CTC apportioned General Conference ministry budget.

The first Reserve elected to Jurisdictional Conference shall receive a total reimbursement not to exceed 150% of the Jurisdictional Conference per diem plus reasonable transportation expenses.

5. The Executive Director for Mission Support is authorized to:
 - a. Consolidate the various funds of the Annual Conference and of the agencies into one or more bank accounts.

- b. Write all checks for the agencies of the conference upon requisition by authorized officers of the agency and in keeping with approved conference budget. The Treasurer is also authorized to transmit to the authorized treasurers all other funds that are raised by the local churches in response to General, Jurisdictional and Annual Conference askings that have been approved by the appropriate body.
- c. The conference treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions, and other agencies of the conference into the operating reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempted by CFA) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the Executive Director for Mission Support will honor the requisitions for all necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.
- d. Invest the funds of the conference in government securities and federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation and to borrow on and dispose of investments at, or prior to, maturity, and to deposit the proceeds from these investments in accounts of the conference under the guidance of the Council on Finance and Administration.
- e. Deposit funds for specifically designated purposes in federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and/or with the Texas Methodist Foundation under the joint control of the Central Treasury (Conference Council on Finance and Administration) and the agency concerned, with the approval of the Executive Committee of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

REPORT NO. 3 RESERVE FUNDS

In order to establish a better system of accountability, the Council on Finance and Administration, following action of the 1991 Annual Conference, implemented the following management procedures for reserve funds beginning 1/1/92:

- a. The operating reserve is no longer treated as a contingency fund but as a cash flow fund.
- b. A separate contingency fund has been set up to cover unbudgeted expenses with accounting of these expenditures to be made to the Annual Conference.
- c. A contingency fund of $50,000 has been established from the operating reserve.
- d. The contingency fund will be replenished at the beginning of each year by the interest earnings on both the contingency fund and the operating reserve. Any interest earnings over and above that necessary to replenish the contingency fund to a balance of $50,000 will go into the operating reserve.
- e. Contingency Fund Balance 12/31/2013: $52,700.55 (no expenditures in 2013)
- f. The goal is a permanent operating reserve fund of 10% of the current

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- budget to be used strictly for cash flow.
- g. Permanent Reserve Operating Fund Balance 12/31/2013: $441,175.67
 - h. The operating reserve will be replenished by funds unused by the conference at the end of the year.
 - i. The authority for the administration of these funds rests with the Council on Finance and Administration pursuant to the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the Guiding Principles and Best Practices of the Central Texas Conference.

CONTINGENCY FUND POLICY

1. Expenditures will be made from the Contingency Fund under one of two circumstances:
 - a. Unforeseen circumstances, unpredicted, unplanned for, emergency situations that could not have been foreseen by reasonable people and reasonable committees.
 - b. Failure of expected income to support a budgeted expenditure.
2. The conference treasurer may authorize up to $250; the CFA executive committee may authorize up to $5,000 either in meeting or by phone; those over $5,000 must be authorized by the full board either in meeting or by phone.
3. No disbursement will be made without the authorization signature of either the conference treasurer or the chair of CFA.

REPORT NO. 4 MILEAGE REIMBURSEMENT

The accountable mileage reimbursement for conference staff shall be the IRS rate. All others shall be reimbursed at 25 cents per mile for one to six persons in a car, and 35 cents per mile when seven or more members ride in the same car for necessary travel on conference business. Due to the fluctuation of gasoline prices, the CFA is authorized to change the mileage rate between sessions of the Annual Conference if deemed necessary. This reimbursement rate will be effective at the close of this Annual Conference.

REPORT NO. 5 ACCOUNTABILITY

The Council on Finance and Administration, through the Executive Director of Mission Support, shall monitor monies received through the apportioned funds and keep those Boards and Agencies receiving funds from the conference advised of possible shortfalls to enable them to adjust their expenses where at all possible in order for expenditures not to exceed actual income for the year. CFA will seek to work with Boards and Agencies to allow the maximum funding of ministries and programs without creating a deficit situation in the Conference Budget.

G

REPORT NO. 6 NEXT YEAR BUDGET

At Annual Conference, CFA will present a budget which is comprised of the major ministry components of the Conference. When the Conference approves the budget, it will be voting on the figures of those components and the composite total. If occasion arises to meet unforeseen and unusual expenses, or to provide for emerging ministries that could not be known at the time of budget preparation, a request may be made to CFA for approval to shift monies from one major ministry component to another major ministry component of the budget. In faithfulness to the Financial Best Practices this procedure will not be used simply because a ministry area anticipates some funds will not be spent.

REPORT NO. 7 CHURCH INCORPORATION RECOMMENDED

In these days when churches are more vulnerable to being sued than they were in the past, and for a far wider list of causes, it is imperative that each local church be incorporated. Failing to be incorporated puts each of the members of the church in jeopardy. In addition to being incorporated each church must review its property and liability insurance coverage with consideration for areas of liability not only between church staff and members or guests, and not only between the church as an entity and whomever might happen upon the premises, but also for the area of liability of employer versus employee.

REPORT NO. 8 NEWLY CHARTERED CHURCH CONNECTIONAL MISSION GIVING

Each newly chartered church shall be apportioned 25% of what would be its connectional mission giving, under Annual Conference Financial Procedures point C., for its first year after records are available, 50% its second year, 75% its third year and 100% its fourth year and thereafter.

REPORT NO. 9 CONFERENCE TREASURER

We recommend David Stinson for election as our Conference Treasurer.

REPORT NO. 10 AUDITOR FOR THE CONFERENCE TREASURY

We recommend Rylander, Clay & Opitz, LLP as the auditing firm for the Conference Treasury.

REPORT NO. 11 CONFERENCE PLEDGE TO LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE (LPI)

For 100 years LPI has responded to the need to provide a quality education for Hispanic students in the El Paso region. It is a bilingual, cross-cultural academic education for underprivileged students who might otherwise not attend high school or have an opportunity for higher education. The program, offering grades 9-12, is fully accredited. The academic standards are strictly enforced and students are challenged to pursue academic excellence.

- 99% of students meet the federal poverty guidelines.
- 98% of LPI students enroll in a higher education institution.
- Last year the 76 LPI graduates were awarded over $1.6 million in scholarships from UM Schools.

LPI is expanding the educational opportunities for students and will implement a fully accredited 7th and 8th grade Middle School with concentration on ESL and are asking for help from our conference. LPI is asking the CTC to sponsor a cluster of four (4) ESL classrooms within the new middle school wing with a donation of $300,000. This gift would allow LPI to further the mission of preparing young men and women with a rigorous college preparatory education while being nurtured in Christian values.

Conference Action Required: We recommended that the Central Texas Conference pledge $300,000 to the "Second 100 Year" Capital funds campaign to sponsor a cluster of four (4) ESL classrooms within the new Middle School wing at Lydia Patterson Institute in El Paso. Our initial offering is to be received in September 2015. Full details and publicity will be sent to each church.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION & CLERGY BENEFITS

SUSAN BARRETT, CHAIRPERSON
BARRETT.SUSAN@SBCGLOBAL.NET

REPORT NO. 1

The commission has met as needed and has carried out its responsibilities of overseeing the Minimum Compensation program for the Annual Conference with its primary purpose focused on assisting local churches in moving from part-time to full-time pastoral positions. The Equitable Compensation Funds are meant to be used as transitional funds and are not to be considered long-term subsidies. We intend to keep working with local churches, district superintendents, and the cabinet to set time frames and benchmarks to help a church move from part-time to full-time. This transition can usually be accomplished by a three year commitment. To continue to receive Equitable Compensation funds a transitional church shall pay 100% of their annual conference connectional mission giving shares. The commission is therefore willing to not only provide financial assistance, but also provide educational assistance to help all equitable compensation entities with the tools and help to rise above the minimum compensation levels for their clergy.

The Central Texas Conference also has a history of supporting missional churches where full-time pastors may need to be appointed for special purposes for which the congregation is unable to pay a full-time salary. In these missional cases, continued effective communication is essential with the pastor, congregation, District Superintendent, and Executive Center Directors of the CTC to ensure these congregations continue to be effective in reaching others, transforming lives, and sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ in the identified mission field.

The commission seeks to be responsible to the churches of the Annual Conference in not requesting more than is needed and at the same time to provide adequately for the program. We also realize the balancing act between the need to raise the minimum salary for our clergy while at the same time respecting the financial constraints among our churches that produce the need for equitable compensation in the first place. Therefore this past year we did research into the correlation between higher minimum salaries and more effective pastorates. What our research showed is that there seemed to be no correlation between higher salaries and more effective pastorates. In fact almost the opposite was true.....the more effective pastorates were those who were placed in missional settings at less than full-time who were fully invested in the community and in effect many times coming from the community themselves. And in an unexpected yet related finding, the higher the minimum salary the lower the average conference salary as more church tended to migrate toward the minimum.

We are recommending that Equitable Compensation levels for all categories of supplements be increased by 2.39% for the 2014 Conference financial year. Additionally, we recommend that the 2014 budget for Equitable Compensation be $50,000.00 in Salary Compensation, and $110,000 in the Moving Expense Fund.

The Equitable Compensation Commission of the Central Texas Conference will offer to participate with those churches receiving equitable compensation in obtaining workers' compensation insurance for lay and clergy employees through the Conference-wide insurance program, up to $250.00 per policy.

REPORT NO. 2 EQUITABLE COMPENSATION FUND

There shall be a program of equitable compensation support in the Central Texas Conference under the management of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits. This program shall be patterned after ¶625 of the 2012 Book of Discipline. Based on these guidelines, the following paragraphs shall compose the operating procedure for the Equitable Compensation Program for all the clergy members of the conference members in full connection, associate members and provisional members of the Central Texas Conference serving full time for 2013-2014 conference year.

1. A prerequisite for consideration of salary supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund shall be the filing with the Commission of a written application (Form EQ1/2015) by the District Superintendent each January 1 or anytime an appointment change occurs in an Equitable Compensation appointment. The District Superintendent shall certify classification of the clergy and the salary (using Pastoral Support & Compensation Worksheet figures) set by the charge.
2. Salary grants shall be made for a calendar year with payments made monthly. In cases of appointment changes at or between Annual Conference sessions, the District Superintendent shall file a written request with the Commission. Approved supplements shall then be paid on a pro-rata basis for the part of the - year actually served.

3. A church/charge is eligible to receive equitable compensation benefits for a maximum of three (3) years; a one year extension may be granted by the Cabinet if the charge exhibits progress and potential.
 4. The following conditions must be met by the pastoral charge before it can become eligible for consideration to receive supplements from the Equitable Compensation Fund:
 - a) The pastoral charge shall have conducted a stewardship campaign for the local budget of each of its churches during the previous calendar year. This shall be an every member campaign. The Commission will assist in such a campaign upon written request from the charge pastor or district superintendent.
 - b) All connectional mission giving (CMG) items shall have been paid in full by the local church for the previous calendar year.
 - c) The charge must have at least 100 members.

In unusual situations the Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits may waive any or all of these conditions.

5. The Commission on Equitable Compensation and Clergy Benefits will pay any amount up to 1/4 of the minimum salary set by the Annual Conference for each applicant according to his/her ministerial classification. If any exception under paragraph 3 or 4 is sought, the request must be endorsed by a 2/3 vote of the Cabinet before it can be considered by the Commission.
6. The following amounts be set for the minimum equitable compensation:

1 - 1 – 2015

a. Elder in Full Connection --	$40,341
b. Provisional member (1992 Disc.) or Provisional Elder (2000 Disc.)
1. Non-student --	35,195
2. Student --	32,195
c. Associate Member --	35,525
d. Full-time Local Pastor --`	32,525

7. Rates for adjustment will be considered annually by the commission, but no less than the same percentage increase as that computed for the District Superintendents. The increase for 2015 will be 2.73%.

The amounts reflected include the following 6 items found on the pastor's support and compensation form:

- a. Base salary,
- b. Utilities, which shall be provided with payments made by the local church or reimbursed when paid by the pastor.
- c. Vouchered travel reimbursement, which shall be reimbursed at the IRS rate with appropriate records and documentation provided to the church,
- d. Dependent premium payments made by the local church,
- e. Dependent premium supplemental payments paid by the conference at the discretion of the District Superintendent,

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- f. And other conference subsidies received, but excluding any reimbursement for Annual Conference expenses or continuing education events.
8. Housing shall be provided in a church-owned parsonage or provided for with a monthly allowance. Exclusive of parsonage considerations or a housing allowance. In calculating equitable compensation payments, no more than 25% may be deducted from total compensation as a housing allowance (even if the housing allowance actually constitutes more than 25% of the total compensation). Exception to this rule may be made for missional considerations.
9. Pastors who are appointed to less than full-time service as addressed in the 2012 Book of Discipline, (§ 338.2) shall be eligible to receive salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund. The amount of salary supplement for which the pastor is eligible will be determined by the Cabinet's interpretation of time actually spent in serving the charge. For example, if the pastor is deemed as serving 1/4 of full time, his/her minimum salary eligibility would be 1/4 of the minimum of his/her conference relationship classification. The categories of 1/4, 1/2, and 3/4 will be followed in determining less than full-time eligibility for salary supplements from the Equitable Salary Fund.
10. Ministers who are not eligible for salary supplements are:
 - a. Those whose appointment is other than pastor of a charge.
 - b. Those classified as part-time local pastor.
 - c. Retired ministers.
 - d. No pastor shall be eligible to receive salary, but who persistently prefers for personal reasons to remain in a present appointment.
 - e. Associate pastors.
11. The Commission is studying ways in which Equitable Salary funds may be used to supplement unusual situations beyond the Conference minimum scale to provide assistance for pastors who remain in churches for missional purposes at the request of the Cabinet. We continue in dialogue with the Cabinet about such a policy.

SUMMARY & ACTION PLAN

In the Central Texas Conference, Minimum Equitable Compensation Salary increases have been indexed annually with the % increase given to all pastors under appointment. For example, if the salary compensation rose 1.50 % in a given year then the request to increase the Minimum Equitable Compensation rose 1.50%. Given that pension and health insurance premiums continue to rise annually as a cost to the congregations there is a present need to study, examine and bring a recommendation to align mission, money and a sustainable plan for Equitable Compensation. The Commission will undertake this research and bring a comprehensive plan to the 2015 Session of the Central Texas Conference for action.

HOMES FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

MAVIS HOWELL, SUPERINTENDENT

It is a tremendous privilege to be a part of the Homes for Retired Ministers (HRM) program of the Central Texas Conference. REPORT NO. 2 2015 COMPREHENSIVE BENEFIT FUNDING PLAN SUMMARY

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all of its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to the General Board of Pension and Health benefits for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB). This summary document is only a portion of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan. As such, it might not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the benefit obligations of the conference. You may request the full contents of the 2015 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

Following is the summary of the Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (CBFP) that received a favorable written opinion from GBOPHB for the 2015 conference benefit obligations:

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP) DEFINED BENEFIT (DB) AND DEFINED BENEFIT CONTRIBUTION (DC)

Plan Overview: The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The plan is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement portfolio. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which replaced the Pre-82 for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982. CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to the Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by annual conferences. The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2013 is $923.7 million, while total plan assets are $978.5 million resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 106%. The Central Texas Conference portion of the liability is 1.31% and the 2015 contribution is $1,472,743. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by direct billing each church the costs of their clergy. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three-quarter and/or half-time clergy. The Central Texas Annual Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2015.

Effective January 1, 2014 CRSP-DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non-matching contribution. Clergy will have the opportunity to earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP, therefore if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3%, which is unchanged from 2013 and prior. The 2013 CRSP-DC contribution was $565,218 and was funded by directly billing each church the costs of their clergy. In the past several years the Conference average compensation (CAC) for Central Texas has averaged approximately a 2% average increase which we anticipate continuing for the foreseeable future.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

Plan Overview: The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provides clergy with a pension for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. Effective January 1, 2014, exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when it is to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or IRA, or paid in a lump sum.

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2013 is $2.7 billion, while total plan assets are $3.0 billion resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 109% and no required contribution for 2015. The Central Texas Conference's portion of the total liability is .97%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $4.4 billion and the Central Texas Conference's portion of that balance is $51.87 million or 1.18% of the total.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

PRE-1982 PLAN

Plan Overview: Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. When participants enter a Retired relationship with your Conference, and does not terminate, the minimum benefit payable to them is based on two factors: 1) years of Service with pension credit and 2) Conference pension rate. Years of Service with pension credit are approved by each Conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline. The pension rate, also called the past service rate PSR, is the dollar amount chosen by the Conference as the amount payable for each approved year of Service with pension credit. Typically, the pension rate changes from year to year. The number of years of Service with pension credit is multiplied by the PSR, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan, may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit. At that point the participants benefit is the greater of the PSR benefit or DBSM benefit. As the conference increases the PSR, the participants benefit is recalculated; however the DBSM based benefit does not change.

The 2015 Past Service Rate (PSR) recommended to the Central Texas Annual Conference will be $674.00 representing a 1.05% increase from the 2014 rate. In past years the conference has approved increases of approximately 3% annually that have moved the PSR well beyond any of the other index's (inflation, Consumer Price Index etc.) that are traditionally used for such measurement. This year we will undertake a study to determine the best source for a consistent formula for increases that will serve the needs of our retired clergy while at the same time make this a sustainable amount for our local churches who fund the PSR. The conference expects future increases to be approximately 1.00%, in order to more closely align our PSR with some of the indexes until we can determine the formula for future increases.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 75% level.

Based on the final actuarial valuations from the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits as of January 1, 2013 for 2015, the portion of the Pre-82 liability attributable to the Central Texas Conference and funded status is, as of 1/1/2013, as follows:

Funding Plan Liability	$ 27,129,823
Assets in the Plan	$ 27,800,231
Funded status	$ 670,408 represented by a 102% funded ratio
Funded Status as of 12/31/2014	$ 767,551

The funded ratio is recalculated each year based on economic and demographic changes. These changes create the possibility that Pre-82 contributions may be required at a future date (even after 2021).

In addition to the assets in the Plan it is anticipated that amount will be funded through the following funding sources:

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Non plan assets designated for retiring Pre-82 obligations	$1,730,453
Present value of incoming new money	$1,356,014

Defined benefit plan liabilities (Pre-82, MPP and CRSP-DB) continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the conference still has a liability (obligation) with the plan.

Note: Our goal is for our Pre-82 funding level to be at 120% by 2016. This percentage of funding would allow us to be adequately funded to ride the market swings. Our funding level has increased from 81% in 2009 to 94% in 2011 to 102% in 2013 so we are making progress on our goal. Your Conference Board of Pensions is in consultation with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as we assess the current and future financial needs to insure the stability of the Pre-82 Plan.

Therefore, we request that the Conference Claimant Apportionment be set at $750,000. The requested amount for 2015 represents no increase. We continue to evaluate the needs for this Conference Claimant amount and will adjust the request accordingly each year. Our intent is to phase this request out altogether once the funding has met the adequate amount.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Plan Overview: The Central Texas Conference offers a Health-Flex PPO B1000/RX P1 plus dental plan for 2015 to the active participants.

During the 2013 year, the total cost of the program was $3,258,563 and was funded by directly billing each church the costs of their clergy. The projected average increase for future years is expected to be 5%, based on above average claim costs in 2012-2013 and the unknown and fluid landscape in health care will keep rates changing with small increase at first but larger increase later.

POST-RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFIT PROGRAM (PRM)

Plan Overview: The Central Texas Conference post-retiree medical plan currently offered is a Stipend plan made available to Extend Health- HRA stipend. For those eligible clergypersons and their eligible spouses, the Conference will fund a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) up to a maximum of $75.00 per month per person for early and full retirees based on their years of ministerial service in the United Methodist Church. Surviving spouses of deceased retired clergy are eligible for the HRA as long as they are a covered participant at the time of death. A new spouse acquired by a retiree or surviving spouse after retirement is not eligible for retiree benefits through the Conference.

The following are the qualifications and eligible annual amounts:

0-9.....$ 0; 10-19.....$300; 20-29.....$600; 30 or above.....$900;

For those eligible clergypersons and their eligible spouses who retired before January 1, 2008, the Conference will fund the HRA at the maximum amount per person.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Years of Service

(full years) HRA Amount.....(per month per person)

0-9.....$ 0; 10-19.....$25; 20-29.....$50; 30 or above.....$75;

The current annual cost is anticipated to be $155,000 with the funding sources to be apportioned to the local churches of the conference on the decimal formula. On a longer term basis the Central Texas Conference intends to continue to apportion an amount to the local churches to cover these costs.

Assets designated for PRM $650,000

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

Plan Overview: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families and is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, you are eligible to participate in CPP if your conference or salary-paying unit sponsors the plan and you satisfy the eligibility requirements which include full-time episcopal appointment and plan compensation equal to or greater than 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation or the Conference Average Compensation whichever is less. The Central Texas Annual Conference has elected to make CPP-eligible clergy, who are appointed at least 100%, have mandatory participation, while 50% appointed clergy have optional participation under special arrangements.

Currently (for 2013) the Central Texas Conference has a required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $562,152, which is anticipated to be funded by Direct bill. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 3% per year due to the continued cost associated with this death and disability benefit and associated fees.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY

Plan Overview: The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, contributions your plan sponsor may make on the participants behalf and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Conference office lay employees working an average of 30 hours per week or more are eligible for a pension contribution of 3% of salary. In addition each employee may earn an additional 3% with a 3% personal contribution. Lay employees are encouraged to contribute personal funds toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The estimated contribution for the Central Texas Conference is anticipated to be $35,600 and funded through the apportionment to the local churches of the conference on the decimal formula.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

OTHER CONFERENCE DEFINED CONTRIBUTION TYPE OBLIGATIONS

Plan Overview: The Central Texas Conference currently offers a Moving Expense Fund - DC type plan made available to eligible moving clergy. The contribution for 2013 was $110,000 with the funding sources to be apportioned to the local churches of the conferences on the decimal formula. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 4.00% per year due to continued movement of clergy to new appointments.

CONCLUSION

The 2015 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and the above outlined Summary document incorporates to the best of our understanding, the Central Texas Conference's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the Clergy and Laity of the Central Texas Conference.

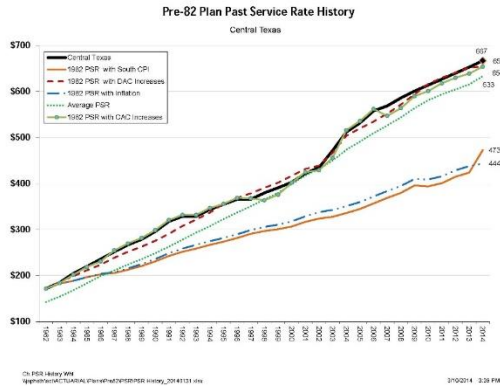

REPORT NO. 3

RETIREE PENSIONS – PAST SERVICE RATE

In accordance with the changes in the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶1506, which outlines the requirements for the Past Service Rate (PSR) for those clergy with pre-1982 service years who qualify for annuity, the Conference Board of Pensions recommends that the PSR for 2015 be $674, which represents a 1.01% increase. This past year, the board has researched the PSR since 1982 and found that the current PSR has exceeded the percentage increase of the Consumer Price Index, the Inflation Index and the Central Texas Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for clergy over this 30 year period (See chart below). We plan on continuing to research possible indexes in order to come up with a systematic rationale to PSR increases that both honor our retirees and make the liability demands of conference sustainable.

1. Based on our Funding Plan, we request that the Conference Claimants portion continue to be included in the CMG shares submitted to the local church and that CPP continue to be direct billed for 2015:

- | | |
|---|--------------|
| a. Conference Claimants requirement (Pre-82 funding) | $750,000.00 |
| b. CPP – to be Direct Billed | |
| c. Total 2014 Request | $750,000.00 |
| d. In the case of Family Leave or Leave of Absence appointed after January 1, 2004, the Board recommends that the Conference make CPP contributions of 3% of the Denominational Average for Full Members, Associate Members, and Probationary Members for the period of one (1) year. | |

REPORT NO. 4 CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP)

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), effective January 1, 2007, is the pension program for all eligible United Methodist Clergy.

CRSP offers a two component benefit design:

- a. Core Defined Contribution (DC) – promises a defined amount that is deposited into an active clergyperson's account with monthly deposits. This benefit distributed at retirement is the accumulated amount plus earnings (losses) in the individual's account.
- b. Core Defined Benefit (DB) – promises a specific dollar amount at retirement regardless of market conditions or investment performance. The amount is based on a formula that specifies a monthly retirement benefit to eligible clergy for the remainder of their lives.

Plan provisions effective January 1, 2014:

- Clergy who are appointed ¼ time are not eligible to earn CRSP benefits.
- Provides a monthly retirement benefit using 1.25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) at retirement multiplied by years of service from January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2013. The multiplier is reduced to 1% for years of service beginning January 1, 2014.
- The defined contribution (DC) component of CRSP is 2% of compensation with a match for participant contributions to the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)—up to 1% of compensation. Therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of compensation to UMPIP, his or her CRSP DC contributions will be 3%.
- The initial dollar amount of the benefit paid to a married participant is reduced to offset the value of spousal benefits. Please note: This change only applies for benefits based on service on or after January 1, 2014. Benefits earned under CRSP prior to January 1, 2014 are not affected. Participants may designate a disabled adult child as a secondary contingent annuitant. After the participant and his or her spouse die, the disabled adult child would continue to receive DB benefits for life. The initial participant benefit would be reduced to pay for this extra benefit.

2015 FUNDING PLAN

By action of the 2012 General Conference the percentage amount required for the plan was amended and the following information is the result of implementing the "new" CRSP.

The 2015 financial obligation of CRSP required of the Central Texas Conference is:

- a. Core Defined Contribution – 2% of participant plan compensation plus a matching 1%.
- b. Core Defined Benefit -- $1,472,743.

The cost of participation in CRSP will remain the same as in 2014 and will continue to be direct billed to the local church for the two core components: (Defined Benefit and Defined Contribution).

- a. Defined Contribution – 3% of each eligible clergy person's plan compensation.
- b. Defined Benefit
 - i. Full-time Clergy -- $6,100.00
 - ii. $\frac{3}{4}$ time Clergy -- \$4,575.00
 - iii. $\frac{1}{2}$ time Clergy -- \$3,050.00

The Conference Board of Pensions strongly recommends that churches with a clergy appointed $\frac{1}{4}$ time sponsor the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) with a 12% contribution level for their clergy.

REPORT NO. 5 FUNDING FOR THE ACTIVE HEALTH CARE PLAN

1. We will continue to direct bill the total active health insurance/dental premium to the local church/Conference sponsored agency for the entire year.
2. The entire single premium for full-time clergy appointed to local churches within the Conference is to be paid by the local church or the salary paying unit as a benefit (line item in the budget). This includes all Elders, Provisional Elders, Associate Members, and Full-time Local Pastors appointed to local churches in the Conference, as well as those for whom the Conference is the Plan sponsor for the Pension program such as District Superintendents, Conference staff appointees, and Campus Ministers. In addition, this will also apply to Elders appointed at least one-half time and Student Local Pastors.
3. The balance of the Family premium for the appointee's spouse and/or dependents is the responsibility of the appointee.
4. An optional agreement may be made between the church or salary paying unit and the appointee for the church or salary paying unit to pay the family premium or a portion of the premium.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

5. The Conference will pay the premium for lay employees of the Annual Conference. The premium for dependents is the responsibility of the employee.
6. Responsibility for the premium for eligible lay employees of local churches or institutions within the connectional structure will be determined by the employer and the employee.

REPORT NO. 6 PENSION AND BENEFIT ARREARAGE REPORT

The Conference Board of Pensions recommends that it continue to actively pursue the issue of pension arrearage utilizing a very fair but stringent examination of each situation to determine what steps need to be taken to assure the integrity of the affected minister's future pension benefits and as such recommends the following procedure for dealing with current and future pension contributions:

- a. Each January we will review a report of the accounts showing arrearage for the past year. Letters will be sent to the following lay leaders of the churches involved: Administrative Board/Council Chair; Pastor/Staff Relations Committee Chair; Finance Committee Chair; and Treasurer. The pastor and the District Superintendent will also receive the letter. The letter will emphasize the importance of this issue and urge them to bring their contributions current by sending their check or making other payment arrangements with the Service Center at Central Texas Conference, 464 Bailey Avenue, Fort Worth, TX 76107.
- b. Each Church which does not meet its obligation will report this fact to its Charge Conference and give an explanation. The District Superintendent will keep a record of this action.

The local churches are reminded that pension benefits are in reality deferred ministerial compensation which should carry the same urgency in terms of payment as the monthly salary itself. Failure to pay this pension could result in reduced pension benefits. The Board feels strongly that if a local church is not able to pay the pension dollars there is a serious question as to whether that church remains a financially viable congregation. In fact, we consider it irresponsible for a congregation to "use" a pastor but are unwilling to assure his or her retirement receipts. As of December 31, 2013, we had 18 churches/salary paying units in pension arrears and 13 churches/salary paying units in health premium arrears for a total arrearage of $212,053.33.

¶639.4 of the 2012 Book of Discipline requires the Conference Board to keep a permanent record of defaults of the churches in the Conference in paying their pension and benefit amounts in full. According to our Conference Treasurer and Benefits Administrator, the following churches were in default by more than 60 days at the end of 2013:

Church	Pension/ CPP	HealthFlex/ Café Plan	Total

We have been diligently working with churches who are chronically behind on their benefit payments to strategize how they might best move forward in ministry, up to and including a covenant plan to forgive their past arrearage if they will stay current with their benefit payments.

REPORT NO. 8 CONFERENCE ACTIVE GROUP HEALTH INSURANCE PROGRAM

We are now in our eleventh year of providing medical and pharmacy benefits through HealthFlex, sponsored by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church and administered by BlueCross BlueShield of Illinois and Catamaran, and we continue to be very satisfied with the program. In 2014, we offer the PPO B500 plan structure with the prescription plan P1 only. In compliance with the ACA Guidelines and to avoid the excise tax imposed on plans that exceed certain thresholds (rich benefit plans), the B500 and B750 plans are being phased out by HealthFlex. Due to the discontinuance of these plans, beginning January 1, 2015 we will offer the PPO B1000 plan structure with the prescription plan P1. This plan is comparable to a Gold Healthcare Exchange Plan but with our additional health and wellness programs included. In addition, as an added benefit, our 2015 health plan will also include an integrated Cigna Dental PPO plan. Additional information with regard to these plans will be available during Annual Enrollment for 2015.

ACTIVE HEALTH PLAN ELIGIBILITY

Our health insurance plan will continue to be a mandatory program administered according to the HealthFlex rules for mandatory conference programs.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Those clergy for whom the program is mandatory are:

- Elders, Provisional Elders and Associate Members (appointed at least ½ time)
- Full-time Local Pastors appointed to local churches in the Conference
- Student Local Pastors
- Those for whom the Conference is the Plan sponsor for the pension program such as District Superintendents, Conference staff appointees, and Campus Ministers.

Those clergy for whom the program is optional are:

Deacons serving at least ½ time are eligible for coverage at the Salary-Paying Unit (local church) level under a Sub-Adoption Agreement, but are not mandated.

Clergy not included in the plan (and thus not allowed insurance through the Conference):

- Elders, Provisional Elders and Associate Members appointed less than ½ time.
- Ministers of Other Denominations
- Those appointed to extension ministries other than those named above.
- Part-time Local Pastors

The Conference Board of Pensions reserves the right each year to choose the optional categories of appointments to be selected to best serve the needs of the Conference. Where a clergyperson in a mandatory category chooses to waive the program, the church/charge served by that clergyperson will be assessed a minimum contribution equal to the single PPO rate for the year to be paid monthly. This is to insure the stability of the program so it will be in place for other clergy who will serve that church/charge.

VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY LEAVE

Those clergy on Voluntary Leave are allowed to remain covered on the active health plan for a period of one year and then, upon termination, they can elect to stay on the continuation plan for one additional year. Those on Involuntary Leave lose eligibility for coverage immediately but may elect to stay on the continuation plan for one year. Both categories of leave will be direct billed at the full premium rate.

LAY EMPLOYEES

Who are normally scheduled to work 30 hours or more per week, may be eligible for coverage at the Salary-Paying Unit (local church) level under a Sub-Adoption Agreement if Risk Pool requirements are met. The Risk Pool Rules apply to lay employees on an employer-by-employer basis. Surviving spouses and dependents of covered lay employees deceased on or after January 1, 2009 are eligible for coverage as long as they are a covered participant at the time of death and will be responsible for the entire premium. A new spouse acquired by a surviving spouse, lay or clergy, is not eligible for benefits through the Conference.

ACTIVE HEALTH PLAN RATES

The Conference health plan ended the 2013 plan year with a claims loss ratio of 124%, which indicates more claims dollars were paid out than were taken in. As a result of this unfavorable claims history, our HealthFlex premium rates will experience increases over the next several years.

ACTIVE HEALTH PLAN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

HealthFlex uses incentives as part of their strategy to promote engagement in healthy behaviors and wellness programs. The 2014 strategy continues the focus on rewarding both for measuring risks (Blueprint for Wellness and HealthQuotient [HQ] and for taking action toward better health and well-being. Rewards emphasize participating in programs that have shown to have a positive impact on health risk and cost, including health coaching and Virgin Pulse (formerly known as Virgin HealthMiles).

RETIREE & MEDICARE ELIGIBLE HEALTH BENEFITS

The Conference shares the funding of the Retiree Health Benefit Program for eligible retired participants with the retired clergy and spouses. The Conference Retiree Health Benefit Program assumes participation in Medicare Parts A and B and is designed to extend certain benefits beyond what Medicare pays.

SERVICE REQUIREMENTS FOR CLERGY RETIREE HEALTH BENEFITS

The Conference will provide funding for the clergy retiree and his/her eligible spouse if the following service requirements have been met (these rules are in effect for any clergyperson who retires after Annual Conference June, 2002).

At the time of retirement, the clergyperson must:

- Have been working in at least a ¾ time appointment as a Full Member of the Central Texas Conference or as a Full Time Local Pastor eligible for retirement per the Discipline and the rules of the Annual Conference.
- Be a member of the Central Texas Conference, serving in a local church or one of its “Conference Responsible” agencies.
- Have at least five (5) years of ministerial service in the Central Texas Conference and ten (10) years of service in the United Methodist Church. A waiver of the five (5) year requirement for service in the Central Texas

Conference may be considered by the Central Texas Conference Board of Pensions upon recommendation of the Cabinet.

Surviving spouses of deceased, retired clergy are eligible as long as they are a covered participant at the time of death. A new spouse acquired by a retiree or surviving spouse after retirement is not eligible for retiree benefits through the Conference.

RETIREE/MEDICARE ELIGIBLE HEALTH PLAN 2014

Effective January 1, 2013, the Central Texas Annual Conference and the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits began partnering with Extend Health/One Exchange to provide plan advice and enrollment assistance in choosing Medicare supplemental health coverage and prescription drug plan in the open market. Through this new arrangement the participant is responsible for paying premiums, but are assisted with premium and out of pocket expenses by the Central Texas Annual Conference through a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) funded specifically for the participant.

RETIREE/MEDICARE ELIGIBLE HEALTH PLAN FUNDING 2014

For those eligible clergypersons and their eligible spouses, the Conference will fund a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) up to a maximum of $900 per year/per person for early and full retirees based on their years of ministerial service in the United Methodist Church. Surviving spouses of deceased clergy are eligible for the HRA as long as they are a covered participant at the time of death. A new spouse acquired by a retiree or surviving spouse after retirement is not eligible for retiree benefits through the Conference.

Years of Service (full years)	HRA Amount (per year per person)
0-9	$ 0
10-19	$300
30 or above	$900

For those eligible clergypersons and their eligible spouses who retired before January 1, 2008, the Conference will fund the HRA at the maximum amount per person.

PRE-65 RETIREE FUNDING

If, at the time of early or full retirement, the eligible clergyperson or spouse is less than 65 years of age and has been covered for five consecutive years under HealthFlex, they are eligible to remain on the active plan. Beginning with those retiring June 1, 2012, the Conference will partially fund participation in the Conference's plan for active clergy equal to the amount the person would qualify for through an HRA, if the same service requirements are met as those who are 65 years of age. Those retiring under the 20 Year Rule would pay the entire cost of the active plan premium until such time as they become Medicare eligible and then they would receive an HRA based upon their years of service at the time of retirement.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

For those eligible clergypersons and their eligible spouses who are Pre-65 retirees and who retired before June 1, 2012, the Conference will continue to discount the premium at the rate of $110.00 for single coverage and $220.00 for family coverage until such time as they become Medicare eligible, then they will receive an HRA equal to their years of service at the time of retirement.

A new spouse acquired by a retiree or surviving spouse after retirement is not eligible for retiree benefits through the Conference.

OPTING-OUT AT RETIREMENT

If, at the time of retirement, a retiree has Other Employer-sponsored Group Health Coverage (e.g. through a spouse's employer), he/she may decline retiree coverage and retain the ability to receive retiree health benefits at a future date. If the retiree loses his or her coverage, it is the retiree's responsibility to notify the Conference within 30 calendar days of loss of other coverage. If this 30-day requirement is not met, the retiree will forfeit the ability to receive retiree health benefits through the Conference at a future date. If an eligible retiree without Other Employer-sponsored Group Health Coverage declines coverage at the time of retirement, the retiree will forfeit the ability to receive retiree health benefits through the Conference at a future date.

MEDICARE SECONDARY PAYER – SMALL EMPLOYER EXCEPTION

Beginning January 1, 2009, the Central Texas Conference has elected the exception that allows a multiple employer plan to exempt certain individuals from the Medicare secondary payer rules for the working aged. This election helps reduce costs incurred by the Conference and the overall HealthFlex program. This exception applies to clergy, lay employees and spouses who are 65 years of age or older, entitled to Medicare due to their age, and have coverage under the HealthFlex program through an employer (local church or Conference sponsored entity) who employs fewer than 20 employees.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

For those individuals affected by the exception, Medicare will be the primary payer of their claims beginning the first day of the month they attain age 65 (or the first of the month following approval from Medicare), even if still an active employee, and the participant will no longer be eligible for coverage under the active plan. The eligible clergy person and/or spouse will also be transitioned to Extend Health/One Exchange with an HRA at the maximum amount per person which will be billed in monthly increments to the church/charge. Upon retirement, if eligible for retiree health benefits, the HRA from that point forward will be based upon years of service at the time of retirement as indicated in the charts above. Eligible lay employees, 65 years of age or older, will be moved from the active plan to the open market with access to Extend Health/One Exchange from 2014 forward, and will be responsible for the entire premium. Lay employees are not eligible for an HRA.

LAY RETIREE/MEDICARE ELIGIBLE COVERAGE

Beginning with a retirement date of January 1, 2009 or later, a lay employee whose active service has ended and who has completed a minimum of five years of continuous and uninterrupted coverage in HealthFlex immediately preceding the date of retirement and is less than 65 years of age at the time of retirement, the lay employee may continue on the active plan if so elected by their salary paying unit on the Sub-Adoption Agreement. This will also apply to any eligible family members covered at the time of retirement. The lay employee will be responsible for the entire premium. Surviving spouses of retired, deceased lay employees are eligible for coverage as long as they are a covered participant at the time of death and are responsible for the entire premium. A new spouse acquired by a retiree or surviving spouse after retirement is not eligible for benefits through the Conference. Effective January 1, 2013, the Conference will no longer offers a Medicare supplement plan through HealthFlex. Lay retirees/spouses who are 65 years of age or older, or those to whom the Medicare Secondary Payer Exception applies, will have access to Extend Health/One Exchange to assist in the move out into the open market but they will be responsible for their entire premium. Lay retirees are not eligible for an HRA.

OPTING OUT OF SOCIAL SECURITY

We continue to have a concern for clergy who may have opted out of the Social Security system. It is imperative that those persons be Medicare eligible when they turn 65, or they likely will not be able to obtain any medical insurance. Some who have opted out may have this eligibility through a spouse, or through enough previous employment. However it should also be noted that eligibility for Social Security disability payments differs from the requirements for retirement and Medicare benefits. If a pastor is considering this course, they should investigate these matters very carefully.

RETIREE AND MEDICARE ELIGIBLE HEALTH PLAN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

HealthFlex uses incentives as part of their strategy to promote engagement in healthy behaviors and wellness programs. The 2014 strategy continues the focus on rewarding both for measuring risk (Blueprint for Wellness and HealthQuotient [HQ] and for taking action toward better health and well-being. REPORT NO. 10 SECTION 125 CAFETERIA PLAN

2014 PLAN ELIGIBILITY

For the purpose of paying for health care without having to pay taxes on the money which one spends, the Central Texas Conference established a Cafeteria plan under Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code for all lay and clergy employees working 1040 hours per year (20 hours per week), who work in our churches, as Conference staff, in the CTC Foundation, at Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center, or who are appointed to Conference-responsible extension ministries within the bounds of the Conference.

2014 PLAN FEATURES

The Cafeteria Plan has an automatic feature and four optional features. The automatic feature, for which one does not need to fill out an enrollment form, is the exclusion from one's wages, on a pre-tax basis, one's medical insurance coverage premium. One needs only to indicate the yearly premium amount on one's Pastoral Support and Compensation Form and tell one's treasurer to exclude each month's premium and send it to the proper address. The four optional features require filling out an enrollment form and paying the proper administrative and posting charges which apply. These are also paid with pre-tax dollars. The optional features one may select to exclude from wages include:

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

1. Un-reimbursed Medical (URM) Flexible Spending Account up to $2,500 (on a use-it-or-lose-it basis) through Aflac's Wage Works.
2. Dependent Day Care (DDC) Flexible Spending Account up to $5,000 (for care of dependents under 13 years of age or dependents mentally or physically incapable of self-care, also on a use-it-or-lose-it basis) through Aflac's Wage Works.
3. Supplemental Medical Policies from Aflac.
4. Supplemental Dental Policies from Aflac.

2014 PLAN ENROLLMENT

Enrollment occurs within 30 days of employment or during annual enrollment for all eligible employees. It is important to note that re-enrollment in the Flexible Spending Accounts did not automatically occur or "roll over" from the previous year. Each participant had to re-enroll in the fall of the previous year for the next year's participation. The Supplemental Medical and Dental policies remained in place in subsequent years unless a cancellation form was submitted to the Conference Office during the annual enrollment period requesting the same.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN 2015

Beginning January 1, 2015, the Conference will no longer be offering supplemental policies or Flexible Spending Accounts through Aflac. Those who currently have supplemental policies will have the option of keeping them and will be direct billed from Aflac. Unreimbursed Medical and Dependent Daycare Flexible Spending Accounts will be offered as a benefit through HealthFlex. However, only those enrolled in the HealthFlex health plans may participate. It is important to note that individual churches can contact Aflac, or another FSA administrator, to set up FSA's in their church as long as they comply with the ACA guidelines in place for employer FSA plans. Enrollment for FSA's in 2015 will be done during the annual enrollment directly through HealthFlex. More information will be made available during the 2015 Annual Enrollment period.

REPORT NO. 11 SUSTENTATION FUND

By action of the 2007 Annual Conference a sustentation fund was established as part of the benefit program through the Annual Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. The fund represents a tangible expression of a collegial relationship among clergy under appointment in the Conference to provide transitional aid. The fund is to provide needed resources and temporary financial assistance to clergy and to assist local congregations in times of clergy transition.

In order to maintain confidentiality, resources from the Sustentation Fund may be used with the recommendation of the Cabinet for:

1. Vocational counseling for clergy exiting ordained ministry.
2. Temporary salary and/or benefit support for clergy under suspension or exiting ministry.
3. Special assessment and intervention strategies to restore clergy to effectiveness.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

4. Provision of interim ministry supply.
5. Support of a crisis response team for congregations/church staffs in times of crisis.
6. Other unique needs to support clergy effectiveness/clergy families.

In the case of clergy going on Leave of Absence, the Cabinet, Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry and/or the clergy session of members in full connection in accordance with ¶354.1 of the 2012 Book of Discipline may approve resources from the Sustentation Fund for use.

In the case of clergy taking Honorable Location or Administrative Location, resources from the Sustentation Fund may be used upon recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry in accordance with ¶359.1 and ¶363.3 (b)(4), of the 2012 Book of Discipline respectively. The Board of Ordained Ministry or its Executive Committee may also make a request to the Cabinet for the use of Sustentation Fund resources in other situations to provide resources or transitional support for clergy.

The Sustentation Fund is included in the 2015 budget presented to Annual Conference. As a point of information, the funds are underwritten with an amount of .25% of the total Annual Conference plan compensation collected from CTC churches through the connectional ministry budget of the Conference.

SEE SUSTENTATION FUND BALANCE IN REPORT 1 ABOVE.

GUIDELINES FOR THE 2014 CONFERENCE SUPPORT FUND GRANT APPLICATION

The following guidelines shall be used in reviewing and approving a Support Fund Grant application:

- An individual may receive one grant in a calendar year.
- A grant will only be approved for a one-time emergency ¹ situation due to catastrophic, unanticipated medical expenses.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- A grant will not be approved if a previous grant was made for the same emergency situation.
- Distressed clergy members of the Central Texas Conference, their spouses or surviving spouses are eligible to apply for a grant. The term “clergy member” is interpreted to mean both active and retired conference members.
- A grant should only be requested to supplement health care insurance if all other resources have already been utilized. This also applies to requests to cover insurance deductibles or copayments.
- An application must be completed by the participant or a person authorized² to act on the participant’s behalf.
- The Central Texas Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall review the application.
- The grant amount will be a maximum of $3,000 per individual request. Each request will be reviewed on an individual basis based on need.

² Authorized: Power of attorney or agreement between participant and conference officer, or a court appointed guardian.

Note: Support Fund Grants received from the Central Texas Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits may be considered taxable income due to the relationship between the clergyperson and the annual conference.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: that an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the period January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015, by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

REPORT No. 14 INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

In an attempt to better manage and evaluate the risk of our invested fund we have set up an Investment Committee. The committee will assist the Board of Pensions in clearly defining the purpose and financial requirements of our conference BOP and develop investment goals and strategies, funding policy and other operational guidelines in an effort to better maximize the investment potential of our funds. The committee is made up of persons with a wide variety of funding and investment experience.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

CONFERENCE RELATED STRUCTURES/ENTITIES INSURANCE

The Board of Trustees takes seriously its responsibility to verify that the Conference Insurance coverage is current. To that end, a review of all the Conference insurance policies has been completed, and we are satisfied that the Conference insurance coverage's are adequate. The Conference insurance broker of choice continues to be Bart Tucker of Roach, Howard, Smith, and Barton in Fort Worth at 1-800-295-6607. We encourage all conference churches to annually review their insurance coverage to make sure that it meets their current needs and periodically to examine their local church coverage and get a review and rate quote. Historically we have offered our churches the opportunity to participate in a group policy for Workers Compensation, Employee Liability, and Directors and Officers Insurance. This past year through changes in insurance regulations we could no longer offer this coverage and assisted those involved in finding new individual coverage.

CONFERENCE ELECTRIC AGGREGATE PLAN

Electric utilities in the state of Texas were deregulated effective January 1, 2002. Deregulation offered the opportunity for the churches of the Central Texas Conference to join together to purchase electricity. All of the churches of the conference have been invited to participate in this effort. To date approximately 300 CTC entities have enrolled and the program continues to be beneficial with the benefits of achieving scale, the ability to anticipate costs in budgeting, and protection against the volatility of natural gas prices and future cost increases. The current contract for 5.88 cents per kwh concludes June 30, 2015, and we have already negotiated a 1 year extension at a price of 5.66 cents per kwh resulting in further reduction of 3.88% in cost. In fact, this is the lowest price per kwh that we have ever paid for electricity.

Remember there are 2 factors that determine your monthly billing:

1. Energy Charges. This charge is the deregulated part of your bill and was negotiated through a competitive bid process conducted by the CTC service center. This charge is noted on your bill as "ENERGY" and is calculated by multiplying your kWh usage for a particular month times the Conference contract rate which is 0.0588.
2. Transmission, Distribution, Utility (TDU) charges. These charges are the regulated part of your bill. These are set by the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT) and are non-negotiable. These charges are referred to as "pass through" charges and are the same no matter the name of your Retail Electric Provider (REP). The conference REP is Hudson Energy. However, they have no control over these regulated charges. Hudson simply passes along the bill that is sent to them by ONCOR who is the TDU Company.

There are many components that make up this TDU part of your bill. However, the one that is by far the largest is the "DEMAND" charge. Demand is defined as the total number of watts that hit your meter at any point in time. So, for instance, on Sunday morning to turn all your lights and air or electric heat at the same time that will be for most the highest demand. This could affect your bill for the next 12 months. Each month you will be billed the higher of your current month Demand reading or 80% of your highest demand reading over the past 12 months. For example if you hit 150KW on the hottest Sunday in August and that was the highest Demand reading over the past 12 months then you will be billed \$5.00 times 150 = \$750.00. Now suppose that in Jan, Feb, Mar, and Apr you hit between 50 and 75 KW demand each month. For each of those months you will be billed 80% of the last twelve months peak which in our example would be $150 \times 80\% = 120$. $120 \times \$5.00 = \600.00 .

As you can see if you reduce your peak Demand permanently you can reduce your demand charges for all the remaining months. (For more detailed information please call the conference service center)

THOUGHTS ON OUR CONTRACT FUTURE

In consultation with several energy providers, they each independently, have shared with us that we are at historic lows in energy costs and anticipate the cost of electricity to dip a bit more then level off and head higher. In order to move more quickly when we feel the bottom we need to adjust our process of negotiation. Currently our process requires us to contact each participant and receive their agreement before we sign another contract. In order to take advantage of the downs of the market we need to be given prior approval and be ready to sign the contract so that we can move swiftly and for a potential longer term when the market dips again. We have begun contacting our partner churches to gauge their willingness in this change of negotiation strategy.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTIES

The Central Texas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to the real and personal properties as they relate to the uniting of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South:

WHEREAS, in 1939, The Methodist Episcopal Church (M.E. Church), and The Methodist Episcopal Church South (the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the M.E. South Church) united to form the Methodist church and the properties of the uniting churches, both real and personal became the properties of the Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, in 1968 the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church united to form the United Methodist Church and the properties of the uniting churches, both real and personal became the properties of the United Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the properties of the United Methodist Church that lay within the bounds of the Central Texas United Methodist Church are held in Trust by the Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church (Conference); and

WHEREAS, it has been the established policy of the Conference to use the proceeds from the sale of closed and/or abandoned properties for the funding of the new evangelical ventures under the direction of the Conference; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Conference hereby designates the Appointed Director of the Center for Evangelism and Church Growth as its Property Manager, Trustee and Agent for the sale of closed or abandoned church properties.

CONFERENCE SERVICE CENTER OFFICE

Steve McIver, Chairperson

The Committee met twice after attending the groundbreaking ceremonies at Texas Wesleyan University.

At the October 12, 2013 meeting we viewed the initial floor plan drawings provided by the architects. Discussion centered on the unique things needed for our purpose as compared to a typical office building. Such things as a prayer room/chapel, large multi-purpose room, the different kinds of and amount of technology equipment, and a patio/outside gathering space were the main topics. The committee voted to recommend that monies received from the sale of the present building above the amount of the lease payments on the new building be used for technological and office equipment, furnishings and the patio.

The committee voted to authorize Earl Wood and Randy Wild to negotiate the lease agreement for us.

During the March 1, 2014 meeting we looked at carpet, paint and tile samples and so forth. We also saw the second floor plan necessitated because the first one was over budget. The committee voted to recommend acceptance of the additional two years offered by TWU on the lease agreement at $100,000 a year.

Construction is scheduled to begin in late May, 2014 and be finished in late March, 2015.

See background information in the 2012 journal beginning on page 267.

*Conference Action Required: We recommend that we extend the lease at our new Service Center building on the TWU campus from 10 years to 12 years at an additional $200,000.

CHURCH INSURANCE COVERAGE

Conference policy requires that each church in the charge carry adequate property, liability and Workers' Compensation Insurance on pastors and other employees. If a pastor (or other worker) receives a work-related injury, health insurance will not pay on what should be a worker's compensation claim. In addition, regular liability insurance will not pay or protect a church against such a gap in coverage. Please, if you do not have workers' compensation coverage, check with our Conference agent, Roach, Howard, Smith and Barton (1-800-295-6607) in Fort Worth, or any agent of your choosing.

We encourage churches to survey the insurance coverage that they now have and compare it to the minimum coverage standards (listed below) we feel are imperative for your church to minimize risk. Certainly there may be good reasons for your church to carry a different amount than the minimum. As always consult with your local church insurance agent or call the Conference Service Center for more information. We also encourage you to routinely shop your insurance needs and compare it with new policies and new carriers. We remind churches that a required part of Charge Conference reporting is a report from the Trustees, which lists insurance coverage and deed recordings.

Central Texas Annual Conference

Local Church Minimum Insurance Recommendations

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶2533.2 requires local church trustees to annually review and report on the adequacy of local church property and liability insurance coverage "to ensure that the church, its properties, and its personnel are properly protected against risks." Since 1797, the Book of Discipline has provided that the property and assets of local churches are held in trust for the benefit of the denomination. Inadequate insurance puts local church property and assets at risk, including the denomination's trust interest therein. Therefore, Trustees of the Central Texas Conference, representing the denomination's trust interest, have adopted the following minimum insurance requirements for local churches:

COMMERCIAL PACKAGE POLICY, to include the following minimum limits:

❖ Buildings, Organs & Contents	Insured to Replacement Value, "Risk of Loss" aka "All Risk" Coverage
❖ Fine Arts	$25,000
❖ Comprehensive General Liability	Occurrence	$1,000,000	Aggregate	$2,000,000
❖ Pastoral Counseling Liability	Occurrence	$1,000,000	Aggregate	$2,000,000
❖ Hired and Non Owned Auto Liability	Occurrence	$1,000,000
❖ Employee Benefits Liability (EBL)	Occurrence	$1,000,000	Aggregate	$1,000,000

❖ Sexual Misconduct Liability	Occurrence	$1,000,000	Aggregate	$1,000,000
❖ Crime / Employee Dishonesty	Occurrence	$25,000

❖ Employment Practices Liability (EPL)	$1,000,000 (including Sexual Harassment)

WORKERS' COMPENSATION POLICY, including supply clergy

❖ Bodily Injury by Accident	Each accident $1,000,000
❖ Bodily Injury by Disease	Policy limit $1,000,000

UMBRELLA POLICY (Excess Liability) – An Umbrella policy is suggested but not required.

This excess policy must extend over Commercial General Liability, Pastoral Counseling, Employee Benefits Liability, Owned Auto, Hired & Non-Owned Auto and Workers Compensation. A higher per occurrence limit may be appropriate based on specific risk characteristics such as church size and/or scope of operations and ministries.

LANDMARK POLICY

Pursuant to the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶2512.7, the “Establishment of Annual Conference Policy with Regard to Government Landmark Efforts to Designate Church Owned Property as Landmarks”, policy was approved at the 2011 Annual Conference Session. MINISTRYSAFE CONGREGATIONAL SAFETY SYSTEM

BACKGROUND

The General Conference of The United Methodist Church, in April 1996, adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of child sexual abuse in the church. The General Conference of 2008 readopted the resolution. The resolution includes the following statement:

Jesus, said, “Whoever welcomes [a] child ...welcomes me” (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones...it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depths of the sea” (Matthew 18:6). Our Christian faith calls us to offer hospitality and protection to the children, youth and vulnerable persons. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state, “children must be protected from economic, physical, emotional and sexual exploitation and abuse” (¶ 162C).

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children, youth and vulnerable persons. Child sexual abuse, exploitation, and ritual abuse occur in churches, large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing.....God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children, youth and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children, youth and adults grow safe and strong. [From The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church-2012, p. 240, ¶ 3084. Copyright © 2012 by The United Methodist Publishing House.]

This environment of love and safety for our children, youth and vulnerable persons is nothing new for our conference. It is in our very fabric and DNA. We specifically addressed it at the 2005 session of Annual Conference in mandating our churches have a safe sanctuary policy. Now, 9 years later we have discovered that times have changed and a review is necessary.

What we have found in our research is that each of the churches in our annual conference has a deep burden to protect our children, youth and the vulnerable among us from abuse. The issue that most churches face in implementing a safe policy is certainly not for a lack of want to or of not caring.....but more of a lack of resources and knowledge.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

To that end we are recommending we develop a partnership with MinistrySafe. The MinistrySafe Safety System is a resource designed to equip churches in developing a foundational safety system for children and youth. Through MinistrySafe we will be able to provide official resources to guide our churches to implement a foundational safety system for children and youth which will include policies, procedures and on-line training for all persons in leadership who work with children and youth. An added benefit is that this will enable the conference to keep an up to date comprehensive conference-wide data base of trained individuals that can be accessed for use by local churches, Glen Lake Camp, CTCYM and others to cut down on overlapping training or worse non-existent training.

MINISTRYSAFE & ABUSE PREVENTION SYSTEMS

These systems were co-founded by attorneys Greg Love and his wife, Kimberlee Norris, who are dedicated to sexual abuse awareness and prevention. MinistrySafe and Abuse Prevention Systems provide sexual abuse awareness training, live and online, and assist child care organizations in the design and implementation of systems to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse. Love and Norris are frequent speakers before educational groups; youth and children's ministries; day care, adoption and foster care organizations; and youth camps.

The following is a summary from MinistrySafe:

Child Abuse Safety System – Central Texas Conference

Background

In April 1996, the General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of abuse of children, youth and vulnerable adults in the church. This resolution was renewed by the 2004 General Conference (Resolution 65, "Reducing the Risk of Child Sexual Abuse in Churches, pg. 201, 2004 Book of Resolutions).

An Effective Safety System

An Effective Safety System must include the following five elements:

- I. SEXUAL ABUSE AWARENESS TRAINING
 - ~ Foundation piece of an educational model
 - ~ Gives employees and volunteers "eyes to see/ears to hear" grooming behaviors
 - ~ Explains safety principles behind policies (provides the "why")
 - ~ Compliant with current and anticipated legislation (i.e., Texas Youth Camp Act) *available online

- II. SKILLFUL SCREENING TRAINING
 - ~ Forms/process created to elicit high-risk responses

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- ~ Dovetails with Awareness Training and sample policies
- ~ Screening forms available online
- III. APPROPRIATE CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK
 - ~ Necessary, though no stand-alone piece of safety system (not a “silver bullet”)
 - *soon to be integrated online (charged separately)
- IV. TAILORED POLICIES & PROCEDURES
 - ~ CTC-crafted version of policies provided to all CTC churches
 - *available to all CTC churches online
- V. MONITORING & OVERSIGHT
 - ~ Ensuring that you DO what you SAY you do
 - *use of online control panel

Implementation

The Conference office and all CTC Conference Centers will have their own, unique Control Panels with access to all online tools (background checks and Skillful Screening Training billed separately). Each church will also have a separate Control Panel set up based on GCFA Number. Existing CTC churches using MinistrySafe will be folded into the one-price package (i.e., FUMC Fort Worth).

Summary

In sum, our system was designed for exactly this use: organizations with regional oversight for various ministries (Young Life, Episcopal Dioceses, Multi-Campus Churches, etc.)

The transition to MinistrySafe initially will require some investment of time. For those churches who have kept abreast of the changes in regulations, licensing procedures, state and federal laws the time investment will be minimal. For those who have been lax these past years it could be significant. However, the long-term benefits of becoming more aware and helping to safeguard against potential incidents will create confidence about the safety for our children, youth and vulnerable adults.

Our children, youth and vulnerable adults are precious gifts from God, and while the explicit set of requirements demanded by MinistrySafe may seem extreme or outrageous, we have to be prepared to do these things, and more, if it means a safe, comfortable environment for our children and the vulnerable.

To that end, we the Board of Trustees of the Central Texas Conference, submit the following resolution as part of our report to the 2014 session of the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved, that the Central Texas Annual Conference establish the MinistrySafe Safety System as the official resource equipping churches to develop a foundational safety system for children, youth and vulnerable persons¹.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Be it further resolved, that in the Fall – 2014, each District will host a MinistrySafe Safety System training event on the processes and procedures for our conference local churches to become adequately informed and trained.

Be it further resolved, that between January 1 and June 30, 2015, every District and local church will enlist their volunteers in receiving the MinistrySafe on-line training offered and adopt their own MinistrySafe Policy.

Be it further resolved, that the MinistrySafe abuse prevention policy will be implemented for all Conference and District Events and enacted in all congregations within the geographical bounds of the Central Texas Conference, effective July 1, 2015 and further that in each local church charge conference in the fall of 2015 the church Board of Trustees will provide a copy of their church policy.

Be it further resolved, that a MinistrySafe Task Force be created for the purpose of:

1. Overseeing the implementation and establishment of procedures for MinistrySafe Awareness and Training for all staff and volunteer adult leaders of children, youth and vulnerable persons.
2. Bringing a Conference MinistrySafe policy back to the 2015 Annual Conference for adoption.

And, finally, be it further resolved that this policy is adopted in the Central Texas Annual Conference.

¹ One definition of “vulnerable persons” is one who because of physical or mental infirmity or emotional disability or other physical, mental or emotional dysfunction may be vulnerable to maltreatment. Vulnerable persons are those who serve and can be in a position where accusations of abuse could mistakenly arise; or who have been abused either as a child or an adult.

AFFILIATED INSTITUTIONAL REPORTS

SOCORRO BRITO DEANDA, PRESIDENT

Lydia Patterson Institute opened its doors for the first time to the school year 1913-14, making 2013-14, the 100th session. We celebrate the time passed, and with it we celebrate the thousands of young men and women that have walked our halls. We celebrate the hundreds of young men who began their journey in ministry here and have dedicated their lives to the church. We celebrate the teachers, nurses, engineers, doctors and lawyers and many other professionals whose seeds were planted here. Most importantly, we celebrate Mrs. Lydia Patterson. Unfortunately, Mrs. Patterson lived a rather short life. In that life, she accepted her calling to ministry with the children of South El Paso, and her legacy lives on. Her love and inspiration for the welfare of those in need has lived for 100 years. This is made evident today in the number of teachers, staff members, and administrators who have dedicated their lives to changing those of the students. The incredible dedication of the staff is manifested in their years of service; 12 over 10 years; 5 over 20 years; 6 over 30 years; and Miss Cristina Woo who has served for 42 years. Mrs. Patterson did not know at the time, but her calling made for the calling of thousands of others who followed. She placed the first stone and, in the last one hundred years, a temple was built. In this temple, thousands have worshiped, thousands have been educated, and thousands have made a better life.

Today, the Student Lay Ministry Program is placing interns throughout the country. Some are in seminary and others are already leading churches. Ninety-seven percent of graduates are going to college. The 2013 graduating class received $1.6 million in scholarships from United Methodist colleges and universities alone. Every student, past and present, begins to change his or her life the moment they step inside the walls of this temple.

The spiritual temple at Lydia Patterson remains intact, but the physical buildings have worn and tired. In preparation for the next 100 years, a capital campaign for renovation and a strategic plan for the latest state of the art technology in the classroom, labs, media and research and spiritual development centers is in place. The new chapel will provide the place where all the students, faculty and staff can worship together, and as a multi-purpose facility, will be shared with our community.

The cities of El Paso and Juarez have joined us in this venture, and have committed to a large portion of this capital campaign. The board of trustees, faculty, and staff has pledged 100%, and the students and alumni are equally dedicated to the success of this campaign.

Lastly, we celebrate those who have made and continue to make this ministry, our friends and supporters. They are the foundation of our work. They are our leaders, mentors and inspiration. We have seen their commitment once more as we prepare for the next 100 years. We wish to thank those who have already stepped up and joined us by giving or pledging to the capital campaign. With the love of God, the love and prayers of those in ministry with us, and in memory of Mrs. Lydia Patterson, we will reach our goal and be prepared to carry her legacy for another 100 years.

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

TIM BROWN, PRESIDENT/CEO

Greetings from Methodist Children's Home (MCH) and the children, youth and families we serve from the Central Texas Annual Conference. The historic partnership between MCH and United Methodist churches in Texas and New Mexico has offered hope to thousands of children, youth and families from the hard places in life.

I am honored to report to you that MCH continues to be in compliance with and, in many cases, to be exceeding the best practice standards established by two national accrediting organizations. MCH works hard to accomplish goals produced by our strategic plan. I invite each member of the annual conference to visit our website at www.methodistchildrenshome.org to view our strategic plan or call MCH at (800) 853-1272 to have a copy mailed for your review. The priorities and goals of our strategic plan enable our ministry to explore ways to increase our impact on children and families across Texas and New Mexico.

Guided by our core values of Christian Principles, Relationships, Responsibility, Growth, Service and Hope, MCH is committed to providing the services, programs and talented individuals needed to positively impact the lives of children and youth in our care. This is happening every day through residential programs on our historic Waco campus and Boys Ranch, as well as through 12 MCH Family Outreach offices, including Waco and North Richland Hills in the Central Texas Annual Conference.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

The reasons children and youth arrive in our care are unique to each individual. They range from extreme trauma or a sudden change in the family structure to school issues or poor choices in a difficult and ever-changing world. Our collaboration with Texas Christian University's Institute of Child Development to incorporate Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) in our work places MCH on the cutting edge of child care as we learn new ways to serve children who have experienced trauma. These proven and tested techniques and methods of interacting with children are impacting families in positive ways. Our vision is to take what we learn with TBRI and begin making it available to pastors, youth ministers and concerned family members in the local church. The lessons we are learning, coupled with spiritual development opportunities for all children in our care, makes MCH a unique ministry of the United Methodist Church.

In addition to the accomplishments listed above, your support also empowered MCH to:

- Graduate 25 high school seniors in 2013. Thanks to our many friends, we were able to allocate more than $500,000 for MCH alumni to pursue a college or advanced degree, certificate at a trade school or job-related training that will help them improve their families and communities. This year we had more than 40 seniors on track for graduation at the time this report was submitted to the Conference.
- Increase the impact in Waco and North Richland Hills through the work of our Family Outreach program. Staff in these outreach locations provide MCH foster care, in-home services – such as Partnership in Parenting – Grandparents as Parents Program, and a new program called Family Solutions. Our website has a full listing of our 12 outreach offices and how to contact them for assistance or answers to community and church needs.
- Receive a national award for innovative education through our on-campus University of Texas charter school and state recognition for the quality of activities offered to youth through our recreation program.
- Recognize the great work of 70 staff members with employee service awards. All honorees had at least three years of service, and 12 employees celebrated 15 or more years with our ministry, including two 30-year honorees.
- Participate in several mission trips, Christian camps and community service projects. These projects provided opportunities for MCH youth to show and grow in Christ's love. We remain grateful to CTCYM, Glen Lake Camp and others which help us make these activities a reality for our young people.

Our achievements in the past, and those yet to come, are directly related to the men and women who give their time, talents and resources to bless our children. We are grateful to Mr. James DuBois of Waco, who recently completed his service on the Board of Directors. Dr. Jeff Clark of Temple has been nominated to fill this position. Dr. Clark will join the following individuals from the Central Texas Annual Conference who currently serve on the MCH Board of Directors:

Bishop Mike Lowry, Fort Worth
Rev. Steve Ramsdell, Waco

These individuals, along with our other Board members, MCH Commissioners and benefactors, enable our ministry to achieve its mission. On behalf of Methodist

MOUNT SEQUOYAH CENTER, INC.

ABBY G. FOSTER, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
150 N Skyline Drive, Fayetteville, Arkansas 72701
479.443.4531 OFFICE | 800.760.8126 TOLL FREE
www.mountsequoyah.org

The Mountain ministry is alive and growing! The renewal of our beloved Mountain is well underway and the results are amazing! In 2013 we welcomed almost 20,000 guests from every walk of life to our United Methodist Mountain and provided the radical Christian Hospitality we are known for. We ministered to young and old, believers and non-believers alike, in an environment where the presence of the Holy Spirit is so real it is almost tangible.

Our outreach ministry grew in the summer of 2013 when we launched the only "Christian" swim team in Northwest Arkansas. We are the Mount Sequoyah Marlins and our T-shirts (donated by Rev. Pearce of Wichita Falls, TX) declare our mantra, "be strong and courageous" Joshua 1:9. Last year our Marlins learned about being good stewards of the resources God provides us as they swam their way to the regional championship under the coaching of Anita Parisi (former All-American swimmer for Rice University). As their season ended they planted a tree on the Mountain as a reminder that we steward all that God gives us with love and adoration for Him.

In addition to our swim team, Mount Sequoyah Center partnered with Central United Methodist Church to host the Mountain's first ever Kanakuk Day Kamp. Over 100 children attended the week-long Christian day camp and we were able to provide more than 25 scholarships for under-represented children to attend the camp as well. The camp was an amazing success and we are scheduled to host two weeks of day camp this year.

The Mountain has always ministered to United Methodists across the jurisdiction and in 2013 we launched our "At The Cross" program series with a Senior Adult Fall Retreat in October. Participants from seven different conferences came together for fun and fellowship with daily devotionals, music and entertainment, and a couple of excursions featuring a train ride through the beautiful Boston mountain range and a trip to the premier American Art Museum, Crystal Bridges.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

As the occupancy on the Mountain grows, so grows our ability to support United Methodist Missions and events with discounted lodging and meeting facilities. In 2013, Mount Sequoyah Center extended $30,000 in discounts to United Methodist groups who came to the Mountain for educational events, group retreats, and personal retreats. As we grow we will continue to support our missions with our goal being to one day operate in a way that allows us to provide grants to United Methodist Missions across the jurisdiction.

We want to thank all the United Methodists, Jurisdictional Conferences, and Foundations who are so generously supporting our efforts to remodel the Center. Your contributions have allowed us to remodel the New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Oaks cottages, as well as the Sunset house and the Bailey Center. In 2014 we will remodel the Louisiana, Fayetteville, and Missouri cottages and we hope to also prepare Galloway House to provide a contemplative setting for pastors who need to rest and relax. Thank you again for your prayers and support and we look forward to seeing you on the Mountain soon.

TEXAS HEALTH RESOURCES

DOUGLAS D. HAWTHORNE, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

BARCLAY E. BERDAN,

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER/SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Texas Health Resources is rooted in the healing ministries of the United Methodist Church and the Presbyterian Church (USA). The Central Texas Conference and Grace Presbytery saw the need for faith-based hospitals in Fort Worth and Dallas, respectively, and were committed to integrating faith and medicine. Texas Health continues that relationship today, caring for patients in body, mind and spirit with confidence in the gifts of medicine, science and the healing power of faith.

Texas Health continually strives to advance our community-based mission as we develop innovative ways to coordinate across the continuum of care, improve access to care for our communities and create a model for health care that enhances well-being and leads to healthier, happier people contributing more to their communities. This means delivering high-quality care both in and outside the hospital and doing it as faithful stewards of the resources entrusted to us.

We are very excited about an initiative you will be hearing about in your churches and communities. We are working with Healthways, the City of Fort Worth, the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and other community groups and organizations to support development of a Blue Zones Project across Fort Worth. This is a communitywide well-being improvement initiative designed to make healthy choices easier through permanent changes in environment, policy and social networks. When it is implemented, this will be the largest project of its kind, and faith communities will be a central component of the project (texas.bluezonesproject.com).

The Blue Zones Project is but one example of how we are working to transform the delivery of health care in North Texas. We cannot do this alone. We believe in collaboration with other organizations to leverage assets and bring the best of community and industry groups together to address the challenges of public health.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

To do this, we will continue to work closely with the Central Texas Conference, our valued collaborator in health, wellness and well-being.

Texas Health and the Central Texas Conference interact through:

- Clergy membership on our hospital and system boards of trustees.
- The Pastoral Care Committee (of the Harris Methodist System Board), which guides our Pastoral Care activity.
- Chaplains who serve in the Harris Methodist hospitals, appointed by the Bishop to this special ministry.
- Clinical Pastoral Education program, which is expanding in its capabilities to train.
- Attending Clergy Association, which helps clergy engage with the hospital and learn to better minister to hospitalized parishioners.
- Faith Community Nursing programs, with nurses and covenant churches within the Central Texas Conference.
- Texas Health employees of the United Methodist faith serving in all capacities of our organization. Our employees are attracted to an organization that is nationally recognized as an employer of choice.

Together we are helping to improve the health of the people in the communities we serve. To learn more, please visit Texashealth.org or <http://areyouawellbeing.com/>.

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION

TOM LOCKE, PRESIDENT

Once again, the Texas Methodist Foundation ended 2013, our 75th year of existence, as a stronger organization than we began the year. This trajectory has repeated itself annually for many years and is a pattern we intend to continue. The gains of 2013 are based, in part, on the following highlights:

FINANCIAL

- Our undesignated endowment grew during the year by approximately $3 million, ending the year with an endowment of $27.5 million. The relationship between our loan portfolio and our endowment has never been healthier and, in fact, exceeds guidelines established by our board. Additionally, this endowment growth diversifies and enhances our operating income stream by generating additional revenue for operations.
- Not included in the amount above, endowment dedicated to our Leadership Ministry now totals an additional $4.5 million.
- Our loan quality remains very high and liquidity is considered adequate.

STAFFING

- Both our depth and breadth of leadership and staff effectiveness expanded greatly during the year. Throughout 2013, Curtis Vick was deeply involved in leading the implementation of our strategic direction, with Candy Gross now supervising the operations area. Additionally, the 2013 hiring of Bob Dupuy as ~ 358 ~

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

General Counsel and head of our Charitable Services ministry, and the hiring of Justin Gould to lead our fundraising efforts for the Leadership Ministry were major steps for us.

- During 2013, the position of Area Representative continued to be developed as a major component of our strategic direction. This staff includes Don Psencik in the Texas Conference, John Thornburg in North Texas, Dick Young in Northwest Texas, Eric McKinney in Central Texas, and Melvin Amerson with statewide responsibilities. A search for new Southwest Texas representation is currently being conducted. These area representatives have three primary responsibilities: 1) to serve as a primary relationship for TMF with congregations in the assigned area; 2) to determine how TMF can help develop cultures of purpose and generosity within those congregations; and 3) to connect congregations with needed resources offered either by TMF or others.
- A significant 2013 development is our receipt of a $1 million grant from the Lilly Endowment to assist us in this work.

GRANTS MINISTRY

During 2013, our staff and board grants committee underwent an intentional process of reviewing and revising our grants program to reflect a new direction for that ministry consistent with our strategic direction.

ENVISIONING OUR FUTURE

In addition to continuing to refine and implement our strategic direction, we have begun analyzing our brand in the marketplace, developed a new tagline, and formalized an initiative for envisioning and accomplishing our goals for the next five years.

The significance of these highlights and our growth, both in financial gains and in growth in human and intellectual capital, however, lies, ultimately, in the lives changed in local congregations across the state where our services helped enable ministry. The measure of success for our services – investments, loans, stewardship ministry, leadership ministry, and charitable services, including gift planning, church endowments, and grants – is in how effective they are at helping individuals and congregations fulfill God's purposes, as together we work to make Christ's love visible in the world.

WESLEYAN HOMES, INC.

CHRIS SPENCE, PRESIDENT

The Central Texas Conference created Wesleyan Homes 59 years ago and Wesleyan Homes first opened its doors in 1962. The year 2013 marked our fifty first year of continuous operation. The Wesleyan at Scenic opened in 1978 and was expanded in 1986 and 2000 and now has 184 beds. 2008 marked a milestone when the original Wesleyan Retirement Home was sold and a new 124 apartment independent living retirement facility opened on a 40 acre campus called the Wesleyan at Estrella. In summer of 2011, a new 60 apartment assisted living facility opened on the Estrella Campus. In 2008, Wesleyan Hospice began serving home-based hospice clients as well as residents in our skilled nursing facility. This aspect of our ministry, dealing specifically with those nearing death, adds greatly to our ministry's commitment to provide compassionate care.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Wesleyan is currently planning an expansion that will double in size the independent living and add 20 apartments to the Assisted living and will likely offer cottages if market demand is present.

The Central Texas Conference elects Wesleyan's Board and our charitable support for resident care comes from the churches of the Central Texas Conference as well as from individual donors. The success of our expansion currently, as in the past, has been through the support of Capital campaigns by the people and churches of the Central Texas Conference. We give thanks to God for the faithfulness of the Church as it supports Wesleyan Homes through the Mother's Day Offering and through volunteers serving the Wesleyan residents in a myriad of caring ways.

The Ministry of Wesleyan Homes

In all our facilities and in all the ways we serve, Wesleyan Homes through its chaplains, its community volunteers and its partnership with local churches is a Christian ministry, extending the mercy, healing and love of Christ to those we serve. We work with older adults, their families and church and community volunteers to build Christian community. We believe the older adults we serve are the faith repository of the Church and our best guides for our daily walk.

The Vision of Wesleyan Homes

A faith-based ministry providing comfort and care for residents and their families in a place called home

The Mission of Wesleyan Homes

Wesleyan Homes strives to be the premier provider of supportive care and services in Central Texas, open to all senior adults.

We Value

Faith, Compassion,
Wellness,
Affordability, Excellence, Professionalism, and Choice.

We value older adults as spiritual resources and as independent individuals with dignity and worth, functioning within an interdependent community.

Wesleyan Homes is a Ministry of the United Methodist Churches in Central Texas.

We are very grateful that the Central Texas Conference has created and nurtured the ministry of Wesleyan Homes.

I

For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him

GUIDING PRINCIPLES & BEST PRACTICES

INTRODUCTION

In order to make our organization more nimble and adaptive, the 2011 Annual Conference session adopted the following 3 reports, “Guiding Principles and Best Practices”, Annual Conference Organization and a Policy and Procedures manual.

The “guiding principles and best practices” are foundational to the understanding of our mission and ministry. They represent our new understanding and way of doing ministry as flexible and adaptive. Our annual conference and the individual churches are in a time of transition, we must continually be on the move, initiating, facing, and adapting quickly to changing realities. They require a 2/3 vote of the annual conference to amend or suspend.

The Annual Conference Organization and the Policy and Procedure manual are administrative in nature and changes are to be handled at the appropriate organizational level.

The intent is that each document continues to be more organic and less institutional. They are living and breathing organism that adapt and change as necessary to do the work of God in the world.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- We embrace and celebrate the mission of the United Methodist Church of “making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.”
- We believe that the churches of our conference are “mission stations,” outposts for the work of God in the world.
- We believe that mission at all levels of the church should be well defined, laser focused, with measurable outcomes.
- We believe that the Conference and its local congregations are called to be good stewards of the resources God provides for our work.
- We believe that we are called to be faithful to the five core values of Evangelism, The Wesleyan Tradition, Spiritual Growth, Mission, and Inclusiveness.
- We embrace the four focus areas of the United Methodist Church of: 1) Developing principled Christian leaders for the church and the world, 2) Creating new places for new people by starting new congregations and renewing existing ones, 3) Engaging in ministry with the poor, and 4) Stamping out killer disease by improving health globally.
- We believe that each local church can become a “Fruitful Congregation” by practicing Radical Hospitality, Passionate Worship, Intentional Faith Development, Risk-Taking Mission, and Extravagant Generosity.
- We believe in the inevitability of change, that it’s God’s gift, and it is our task to manage change in efficient and creative ways.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE BEST PRACTICES

- The Central Texas Conference shall be organized according to the current Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. In accordance with the Discipline, it shall meet annually at a time appointed by the Bishop at the location chosen by the Annual Conference. Adjourned or special sessions shall be called in a manner set forth by the Discipline.
- The business of the Annual Conference shall be conducted by the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order.
- A Preliminary Report of matters for consideration by a session of the Annual Conference shall be made available to the members of the Annual Conference at least one month prior to the session of the Annual Conference.
- Lay members and alternate lay members of the Annual Conference shall be elected at their local church charge conference for a one-year term following their election, subject to the provisions of the Book of Discipline.
- There shall be an equal number of lay and clergy members on the Annual Conference. The procedure for the equalization of lay and clergy members in the next Annual Conference will be presented as part of the report of Center for Mission Support.
- The procedures for handling matters to be presented to Annual Conference that were not in the Preliminary Report can be found in the Policy and Procedure Manual of the Annual Conference.
- Any of the Best Practices and Guiding Principles of the Annual Conference may be amended or suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting at a session of the Annual Conference provided that any such motion to amend the Best Practices must be laid on the table at least one day before the Conference can vote to amend.
- Vacancies in membership on Annual Conference bodies that occur between sessions of the Annual Conference shall be filled by the appropriate bodies following the procedures outlined in the Policy and Procedures Manual of the Annual Conference.
- General Church and Annual Conference apportionments shall be apportioned to each local church on a conference wide basis. The details of the formula shall be part of the report of The Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration. (§615.1-6)

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POLICIES ON FINANCIAL PROCEDURES TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE

FINANCIAL PROCEDURES

1. Remittance Procedure

Apportionment payments, askings, special day offerings, advance specials, and any missional gifts from a pastoral charge to the Conference Treasurer should be submitted either online or by check with accompanying current year remittance form. The Conference Treasurer will in turn post, in a timely fashion, remittances received. The Conference Treasurer will also report monthly to the Bishop, Cabinet and Churches the status of funds remitted.

2. Conference Budget Preparation Procedure

After careful consideration of all financial responsibilities of the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration, and the Executive Center Directors shall recommend all funding levels for the major categories in the total Conference program. If for any reason the Conference benevolence budget needs to be changed, CFA shall adjust the allocation and refer it back to the three Conference Centers for adjustments of the itemized appropriations in the Conference benevolence budget. Should any Conference Center agency feel its cause has been neglected or excluded, it shall have the opportunity to represent its cause before the Council on Finance and Administration (the Book of Discipline ¶614).

3. Conference Budget based on Local Church Decimal

All Conference items allocated to the local churches of the Conference shall be based on the decimal arrived at by the following formula: Determine Conference total expenditure by adding the total of the following Table II statistical items:

- 46 Total amount paid by the local church for all direct-billed clergy non-health benefits (pension payment and CRSP)
- 48 Total amount paid in base compensation to pastor
- 49 Total amount paid in base compensation to all associate pastors assigned by the bishop
- 50 Total amount paid to/for pastor and associate(s) for housing and utilities and/or related allowances
- 52 Total amount paid to pastor and associate(s) for any other cash allowances (non-accountable)
- 53 Total amount paid in salary and benefits for Deacons
- 54 Total amount paid in salary and benefits for Diaconal Ministers
- 55 Total amount paid in salary and benefits for all other church staff
- 56 Total amount spent for local church program expenses
- 57 Total amount spent for other local church operating expenses

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Add the above ten (10) expenditures for each local church to get the “local church total expenditure.” Divide each “local church expenditure” by the “Conference total expenditure” to arrive at the local church decimal. (Each decimal is rounded to five decimal places.) Multiply the local church decimal by Conference Apportionment allocation to get the Local Church Apportionment. (Each apportionment is rounded to the nearest dollar, with each church being apportioned at least one dollar for each apportionment.)

4. Council on Finance and Administration Duty

It shall be the duty of the Council on Finance and Administration to compute the decimal annually using the latest statistics (corrected, if necessary), and furnish the table of apportionments to the Districts for distribution.

5. Items for Distribution

All items to be distributed under the formula are included in the Conference budget: all General Church Apportionments, all Jurisdictional Church Apportionments, and Annual Conference Administration and Ministries. Others can only be added by action of the Annual Conference.

6. Special Day Offering

Any Special Day Offering, except where set by the Book of Discipline, must first be annually presented and approved by the Council on Finance and Administration. No such day shall be recommended to the Annual Conference for any agency, cause, or institution, nor shall such a day be listed or printed on the Conference calendar, unless such agency, cause, or institution has presented a full financial statement and audit, including current annual income and expense, together with its report to the appropriate Conference Ministry Center.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POLICIES ON ETHICS

OUR LIFE TOGETHER: LIVING INTO GOD’S HIGHEST IDEALS THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Adopted by the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry
& Cabinet March 19, 2013

To be set apart for ministry and appointed or assigned to serve as clergy and church leaders in the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is to be given a sacred trust, which requires the highest standard of ethical behavior in all relationships.

I Timothy 4:8-16 CEB – Train yourself for a holy life! While physical training has some value, training in holy living is useful for everything. It has promise for this life now and the life to come. This saying is reliable and deserves complete acceptance. We work and struggle for this: “Our hope is set on the living God, who is the savior of all people, especially those who believe.” Command these things. Teach them. Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young. Instead, set an example for the believers through your speech, behavior, love, faith, and by being sexually pure. Until I arrive, pay attention to public reading, preaching, and teaching. Don’t neglect the spiritual gift in you that was given through prophecy when the elders laid hands on you. Practice these things, and live by them so that your progress will be visible to all. Focus on working on your own development and on what you teach. If you do this, you will save yourself and those who hear you.

Ordination and membership in an annual conference in The United Methodist Church is a sacred trust. Sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and/or sexual abuse are incompatible with biblical teachings, prohibited by the Book of Discipline and a violation of this sacred trust. The Conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct if it should occur and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons. When such conduct is alleged, the Conference is under obligation to investigate, to protect all parties, to discover the truth, and to respond in ways that are consistent with our “highest ideals.”

The following policy is offered to the conference with the prayer that it will contribute to the goal of bringing our practice and accountability into conformity with our “highest God given ideals.”

We give thanks to the West Ohio, Louisiana, Texas and Virginia Annual Conferences for their discussions and models, which have helped us to focus and develop our policy.

As clergy and church leaders within the Central Texas Conference we will be guided by the following:

- 1. In our personal and professional relationships, we will:
 - a. Be above reproach in all that we do.
 - b. Practice habits that encourage and promote the physical, emotional and spiritual health of our families and ourselves.
 - c. Serve the members and constituents in our current appointment and mission field. We do not provide ministerial services in other UM churches unless a consultation between the former pastor/retired pastor and pastor under appointment determine that it is for the health and in the best interest of the congregation.
 - d. Nurture a healthy relationship between active and retired ministers; retired ministers accepting responsibility for the performance of any ministerial function only upon direct invitation of the appointed pastor.
 - e. Keep appropriate confidences and privileged information.
 - f. Avoid communicating (verbal, written and electronic) negatively about a colleague, especially our predecessor or successor.
 - g. Avoid the appearance of impropriety in visitation and counseling sessions.
 - h. Maintain a healthy emotional and social balance and maintain boundaries between pastoral identity and self-identity, private and community life, self and others.
 - i. Take care that attire and grooming do not detract from ministry effectiveness.
 - j. Keep faith with loved ones, giving to them the time and attention needed for a healthy marriage and family.
 - k. Separate our ministerial role from our personal lives by not dating those directly served by our ministry.
 - l. Encourage the congregation in the care and upkeep of the parsonage, leave the church and parsonage clean and in good condition and accept financial responsibility for damage to the parsonage beyond normal wear and tear (see Conference Parsonage Policies).

- 2. In issues of integrity we will:
 - a. Be fiscally responsible;
 - b. Be honest;
 - c. Properly represent the polity, doctrine and history of the United Methodist Church;
 - d. Properly represent the mission, vision, values and core strategies of the Central Texas Annual Conference (can be found on conference website);

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- e. Diligently care for our souls and minds through Spiritual Formation in retreats, prayer, Biblical study, small groups and educational opportunities;
- f. Acknowledge sources for preaching and in written material; we will not plagiarize another's work;
- g. As clergy and church leaders we will complete/attend the BOM approved training, addressing clergy sexual ethics and other boundary issues each quadrennial period in the designated time. Failure to complete this mandatory training will result in (a) referral to Executive Committee BOM for possible Administrative Complaint and (b) may have consequences affecting future appointments;
- h. As full time clergy, we will not accept employment outside of the appointed charge. Any deviation from this must be brought to the District Superintendent, BOM and Cabinet approval prior to acceptance (§ 338.1).
- i. Maintain the highest ethical standards regarding the use of any modern technology, avoiding even the perception of inappropriate use of the internet and understanding that e-mail and text messaging are not a private domain and should not be treated as such;
- j. Provide pastoral services for weddings, baptisms and funerals to church members without charge; the receipt of honoraria is acceptable;
- k. Seek no gifts, bequests or material benefits for self or family members from any organization or individual;
- l. As an act of faith and concern, refrain from gambling and the use of pornography (the UMC is opposed to all forms of pornography) and strive to minister to those victimized by those practices (Social Principles page 155-163, ¶ page 516-517);
- m. We commit ourselves and our churches to engage in continued dialogue and reflection on the UMC Social Principles in order to shape our personal and community life.

3. In regard to power issues we will:

- a. Be aware of the power that is inherent in our various roles and use that power to maximize ministry opportunities that communicate worth, mutuality and collegiality;
- b. Provide ministerial services in order to build up the body of Christ;
- c. Welcome regular feedback and evaluation in order to enhance pastor's fruitfulness; being responsive to constructive feedback and humbly committed to improvements;
- d. Nurture loyalty and trust among paid staff and volunteers;
- e. Establish clear, appropriate boundaries with anyone with whom we have a ministerial, business, professional or social relationship;
- f. Not use our ministerial status, position, relationship, our authority to abuse, misguide, negatively influence, manipulate or take advantage of anyone.

4. In areas where there might be a conflict of interest we will:

- a. Advise and refer persons to other clergy or other professionals such as: lawyers, doctors, counselors, etc. when appropriate; being aware that our judgment can be impaired by prior dealings, by becoming personally involved, or by becoming an advocate for one party against another;
- b. Absent ourselves at an appropriate time from discussion and decision when there is an actual or potential conflict of interest in matters affecting ourselves, our family or our financial interests;

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- c. Never take advantage of anyone to whom we are providing services in order to further our personal, religious, political, financial or business interests or those of our family;
- d. Use discretion concerning the acceptance of or return of gifts for ourselves or our family;
- e. Avoid using the congregation as a captive audience for products or services created or provided in a non-clergy role;
- f. Make a commitment that the more important the conversation, or the more personal the matters, we will communicate with the person(s) directly;
- g. Not accept or confer an office, position, assignment or receive compensation, which may present the appearance of favoritism or a conflict of interest.

5. The Book of Discipline

- a. The Discipline is the instrument for setting forth the laws, plan, polity, and process by which United Methodists govern themselves. In all matters pertaining to church law it is the decisive word.

If more detailed interpretation is needed you may contact your District Superintendent, a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Ministry or a Cabinet member. Contact information can be found on the conference website.

SEXUAL ETHICS POLICY FOR PROFESSING MEMBERS OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

professing member of a local church*

*Adopted by Executive Committee Board of Ordained Ministry
March 19, 2013*

Statement of Policy

A Professing Member of the Central Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church shall not engage in harassment, including but not limited to sexual and/or gender harassment of clergy (¶¶ 605.9 and 2702.3 in the 2012 the Book of Discipline).

Theological Foundation

All persons are created by God. God intends all persons to have worth and dignity in their relationships. We are one connected body, and when one part of the body is injured physically, emotionally or spiritually, the entire body is rendered less than God intended. Misconduct of a sexual nature of any kind violates a person's wholeness and is an unjust use of status and power and a sinful behavior against God and one another. The Scripture witnesses to a God who brings about justice, mercy and grace. The Church is called to express God's love in concrete actions of compassion and healing for all people.

Definitions

1. Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in the Social Principles as "any unwanted sexual advance or demand, verbal or physical that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment destroys community. “Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue” (2012 the Book of Discipline, ¶ 161.1). Sexual harassment of clergy includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive environment, which undermines the ministry of the clergy person serving within the appointment (2012 the Book of Discipline, ¶ 2702.3). Behaviors considered sexual harassment can include “unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children or youth” (2012 Book of Resolutions, page 136). Sexually harassing behaviors may be in person, by phone, e-mail, texting and/or social networking sites.

2. Power: Clergy are generally considered to be in positions of power due to their professional role as spiritual leaders within a church. There are however, situations in which professing members of a church have the power to create a hostile or abusive environment which undermines the ministry of the clergy person serving within the appointment to the local church. Some of those situations are related to gender, race, age, wealth, education and status within the community.
3. Sexual Abuse: Sexual abuse means unwanted physical conduct of a sexual nature, sexual contact or sexualized behavior and may include, by example, touching, fondling, other physical contact and sexual relations.
4. Sexual Misconduct: The 2012 the Book of Discipline identifies sexual misconduct as a chargeable offense for clergy (¶2702.1) and for lay (¶ 2702.3).

Making a Complaint

Clergy and other persons who have knowledge of a possible violation of this policy by a Professing Member may report the same to the chairperson of Staff/Pastor Parish Relations Committee and the District Superintendent. Upon receipt of any complaint, the Staff/Pastor Parish Relations Committee with the guidance of the Conference Consultant and District Superintendent will investigate, consider any response and take action to seek a just resolution.

L

REPORTING, INVESTIGATING AND RESOLVING VIOLATIONS OF THE CTC SEXUAL ETHICS POLICY FOR PROFESSING MEMBERS

The clergy person who feels harassed by a lay person is encouraged to use the following procedures. If the offending behavior and complaint is sexual abuse or sexual misconduct then the immediate procedure is a formal complaint as outlined in the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 2703.3. Identifying sexual or gender harassment depends on a determination of what a reasonable person would perceive as unacceptable. It is important to resolve complaints confidentially and, if possible, informally.

Initial Resolution Process

1. Clergy are responsible for establishing and maintaining clear boundaries of professional conduct.
2. Therefore, a clergy person should respond immediately and clearly to the harasser that such behavior is unwelcome and uncomfortable
3. If the behavior continues:
 - a. Avoid being alone with the harasser.
 - b. Keep accurate records of the harassing behavior.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- c. May contact the Chair of the Staff Parish Relations Committee (if the Chair of SPRC is the harasser then contact the District Superintendent directly).
- d. Notify the District Superintendent.

Informal Resolution Process

1. In all cases, the pastor or District Superintendent should take pastoral steps to resolve any complaints.
 - a. The purpose is to determine if the complaint is valid or a miscommunication and a misunderstanding exist.
 - b. Ask the accused to make an appropriate written statement to the clergy person. The written response may include explanation of the behavior resulting in a misperception of intent, an apology and a promise not to repeat the behavior.
 - c. If the clergy person finds the response satisfactory then the complaint will be considered as resolved.
 - d. If the response of the accused is not satisfactory or the accused refuses to respond, then the complaint will move to the formal process.

Formal Resolution Process

1. If the District Superintendent determines that the process outlined above has been followed and the complaint is not resolved, then the district superintendent and district lay leader may appoint a committee on investigation according to ¶ 2703.3 in the 2012 the Book of Discipline.
2. The final decision of the committee will be communicated in writing to the clergy person and the accused. Should this not be resolved, it then moves to ¶ 2704.4 in the 2012 Book of Discipline.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POLICIES ON CONTINUING EDUCATION & SPIRITUAL FORMATION

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CONTINUING EDUCATION & SPIRITUAL FORMATION POLICY

*Adopted by Executive Committee Board of Ordained Ministry
& Cabinet March 19, 2013*

The Central Texas Conference is committed to being a learning community and so we believe the life of the clergyperson is a journey of renewal and excellence in Jesus Christ. The apostle Paul gives us the essence of this journey in Philippians when he invites us to focus on spiritual disciplines and to focus on the things of excellence as we journey. Through this focus we can live out our calling in the balance God desires for us called "shalom." This policy is designed for every clergyperson under Episcopal appointment.

Spiritual Formation is the intentional lifelong pursuit of the nourishment and renewal of the soul through the Holy Spirit in the use of the spiritual disciplines in order to center their lives in Christ.

Continuing Education is the intentional development of the professional identity of the clergyperson through education and instruction that enhances the effectiveness and excellence of the clergyperson's methods of work and self-awareness so that the clergyperson can better equip congregations to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Each year, effective clergypersons work collaboratively with S/PPR committees and District Superintendents to select and participate in 20 continuing education contact hours (2.0 units) and 10 spiritual formation contact hours (1.0 units), which help them stay centered in Jesus Christ and hone skills needed to continue equipping congregations. Clergypersons are expected to report continuing education and spiritual formation contact hours annually by Dec. 1. These are reported in three places; as part of the charge conference process, to their District Superintendent and to the Administrative Assistant of the CTC Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM). Their District Superintendent/Supervisor will use the information as part of their supervisory interview. The BOM will use as part of their faithfulness to the covenant of our life together and for consideration if a person is in process towards commissioning or ordination. Churches should ensure that every pastor has adequate time and financial support to participate. In addition to vacation time, a minimum of 10 days each year is considered essential for a full-time clergyperson's study, retreat and renewal.

Benefits of Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation

- ✓ Improvement of some specific ministry skill, such as preaching, administration, time management, conflict management
- ✓ Increased spiritual maturity and commitment to Christ
- ✓ Life increasingly centered in Christ
- ✓ Increased self-awareness
- ✓ Calmer spirit
- ✓ Increased understanding of the scriptures, Christian history, theology
- ✓ Development of new innovative programs, missions or other ministry forms

Types of continuing Education and Spiritual Formation

1. Professional skills/knowledge development.
2. Personal assessment and life planning.
3. Self-care and personal growth.
4. Increasing faith and commitment through spiritual formation.

Approved Events and "Contact Hours

There is no approved list of Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation events. Instead of naming an "approved list" of events, each clergyperson is responsible for choosing growth producing, transforming and formative events in collaboration with the S/PPRC and District Superintendent and for determining the appropriate number of "contact hours" to report for each event. A "contact hour" is the actual time of learning or transformation – usually the actual hours of lecture, instruction, group discussion or individual study. Hours for travel, meals, sleep, fellowship and group discussion of issues outside the study topic are not considered contact hours.

If the event does not offer a CEU, a letter identifying the number of contact hours will be sufficient.

For online continuing education, the sponsoring agency shall offer an official CEU.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

Forms of Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation

Actual contact hours (hours of lecture, instruction, group discussion or individual study) during the following activities are forms of Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation:

1. Supervised activities such as degree programs, credit courses, pastor's schools, clinical training, etc.
2. Short term events such as seminars and workshops
3. Peer study
4. Short study leaves
5. Sabbatical leaves
6. Carefully chosen travel and work experiences
7. Provisional and Board of Ordained Ministry work
8. Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation retreats or events

Some Examples of Continuing Educations and Spiritual Formation events

1. Minister's Week, SMU and Brite
2. UMW School of Christian Missions
3. District/Conference workshops, retreats, seminars
4. Spirit Streams (Three Day Academy of Spiritual Formation)
5. Five Day Academy of Spiritual Formation
6. Upper Room Two-Year Academy for Spiritual Formation
7. Clinical Pastoral Education
8. Elder's, Deacon's or Local Pastor's Retreat
9. Doctor of Ministry Programs or other degree programs that instruct ministry
10. Silent or Guided Retreat

What is not considered Continuing Education or Spiritual Formation?

1. List of books read for sermon preparation
2. Classes taught by the clergyperson
3. Study trips without contact hours
4. Mission trips

Self-Directed Continuing Education

Spiritual Formation may be self-directed each year, but the clergyperson must be willing to produce evidence of the work, such as:

- ✓ A selection from a journal of what is learned
- ✓ A schedule for the spiritual or silent retreat

Part-time Clergy

Clergypersons in less than full-time appointments should participate in Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation in accordance with the percentage of their status. (For example, a half-time pastor should complete half of the full-time requirements or 10 continuing education hours and 5 spiritual formation hours).

Accountability and Reporting (See the 2012 Book of Discipline, ¶ 351.2, ¶ 351.5, ¶ 258.2.g.8)

The clergyperson is responsible for devising a plan for Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation in collaboration with the S/P/PRC and District Superintendent, implementing the plan and reporting the plan's completion by Dec. 1 of each calendar year.

The plan will be used as part of your supervisory meeting with the District Superintendent, meeting charge conference requirements, and disciplinary requirements monitored by the CTC Board of Ordained Ministry, specifically through the Orders and Fellowship of Local Pastors. When necessary the Orders and Fellowship of Local Pastors chairs may bring a recommendation for action (regarding a clergy) to the Executive Committee of BOM.

A Continuing Education Unit certificate is not required. If an event is not fully attended, a portion of the event may be counted if the attendance is enough to receive the benefit of the event. For example, if a Clergy Gathering includes 10 Continuing Education contact hours and a clergyperson leaves after 5 hours of attendance, he/she should report 5 hours of CEU or .5 credits.

Clergy in extension ministries and beyond the local church report continuing education and spiritual formation on their annual report form.

Pastors who have completed the Course of Study or seminary are still required to undertake continuing education, which benefits the disciple-making ministry of the local congregation.

Funding

Each church should ensure their pastor(s) have adequate funds for all required Continuing Education and Spiritual Formation contact hours. We recommend a minimum of $1,000 be available for those in full-time appointments.

There are also Ministerial Education Funds available for those who are Full Members, Associate Members, or Permanent Local Pastors. Currently $800 per quadrennial period is available through an application process with BOM (found on the BOM website). Often the event itself will have some scholarship funds, which might be awarded. Each clergyperson is responsible for continuing education and spiritual formation funds.

Our appreciation goes out to the Texas Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference and others for their discussions and contributions to this document.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POLICY FOR DISCONTINUED OR ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY

PROCEDURES FOR DISCONTINUED OR ABANDONED CHURCH PROPERTY

Any property abandoned in the past or that shall be abandoned in the future and the property disposed of as directed by the 2012 Book of Discipline in accordance with ¶ 2549, the proceeds derived there from, if any, shall be first applied to the retirement of pension deficits, and the satisfaction of any claims against ministerial pension annuities which may have arisen out of failure of that church to make proportionate payment for support. The remaining proceeds are to be transferred to the Center for Evangelism and Church Growth.

In the event of a church closure or abandonment, the official and historical records of the closed or abandoned church will be transferred directly to the Archives Depository of the Central Texas Conference by the District Superintendent of the District in which the closed or abandoned church is located.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

WHEREAS, it has been the established policy of the Conference to use the proceeds from the sale of closed and/or abandoned properties for the funding of new churches and faith communities under the direction of the Center for Evangelism and Church Growth, Inc.; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Central Texas Conference hereby designates the Executive Director of the Center for Evangelism and Church Growth, Inc., as its Property Manager, Trustee and Agent for the sale of closed and/or abandoned church properties.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POLICIES FOR LOCAL CHURCHES REGARDING PASTORAL VACATIONS, HOUSING, UTILITIES & MOVES

Each congregation shall annually give attention to the vacation policy, using as the guideline for its discussion the policy found in this Manual.

Each congregation shall annually give attention to the housing policy, using as the guideline for its discussion the policy found in this Manual.

Parsonage utilities should be in the name of the church, i.e., the deposit paid by the church. If the parsonage utilities are not paid by the church, the departing pastor must have arranged in advance of his/her departure to have the meters read on moving day, or on the day of departing the parsonage.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

The departing pastor is responsible for the bills up to that time.

In the event of death of a clergy or diaconal minister residing in a church owned residence, the family of the deceased clergy or diaconal minister will be allowed ninety days to find other housing and vacate the church owned residence, or such other time as deemed appropriate by the Cabinet and by the local church pastor-parish relations committee.

The effective date for Annual Conference moves and clergy retirements will be July 1. The official move day will be the Wednesday after the last Sunday in June, with the first Sunday at the new appointment being the first Sunday in July.

Salaries of clergy moving at Annual Conference shall be paid through June 30 by the former charge and from July 1 by the receiving charge.

No pastor is allowed to claim reimbursement for more than 1/2 of the Pastor's accountable reimbursement Plan between January and June without recommendation of the PPR/SPR Committee and approval by the Administrative Board.

VACATION POLICY

United Methodist ministers are in a unique position in their role as pastors of a local church. Their membership and relationship is primarily to the Annual Conference as they serve under the appointment of the Bishop. At the same time their salary-paying unit is the local church. They are called to accountability for effective ministry both by the Bishop through the appointive system and by the local church through the Pastor-Parish Relations (PPR) Committee. In vacation policy and similar matters it should be remembered by all that a pastor is not the employee of the local church. On the other hand, the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶258.2 gives to the PPR Committee a consultative role in such matters. Ministers are also asked to serve in various conference responsibilities and camps, these duties should not be considered as vacation. However, pastors and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees should work out a satisfactory balance of time rendered between conference and district duties, local church needs, and personal outside activities by the pastor. In all matters there must be an on-going dialogue between the needs of the pastor and his/her family and the PPR committee and the needs of the church so there is no misunderstanding.

Conference Relationship	Years of Service 	Vacation Time
Provisional Members serving student appointments, OR Full Time Local pastors in process of four-week Course of Study	Minimum six months (after consultation with district superintendent and PPR Committee)	Two Weeks Paid
Full Time Local Pastors having completed Course of Study, OR Associate Members, OR Provisional Members serving full time appointments, OR Full Conference members	Less than five years	Two Weeks Paid
	5-9 years	Three Weeks Paid
	10 or more years	Four Weeks Paid

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

 Years of service refer to years served as a full-time United Methodist commissioned minister, probationary member, diaconal minister, local pastor, associate member, deacon in full connection, or elder in full connection under appointment in an Annual Conference, not to years of service in the local church to which a pastor is appointed. In computing a person's "years of service," time spent in all categories shall be cumulated and all shall count toward the person's total "years of service."

NOTE: In addition to the above guidelines, the PPR Committee should be sensitive to a pastor's need for time off from the pastoral duties, and should encourage the pastor to take regular days off each week.

NOTE: Our Book of Discipline states that, "a clergy member's continuing education and spiritual growth program should include such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the minister's vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and annual conference continuing education committee." ¶ 351.2 2012 Book of Discipline.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POLICIES REGARDING CLERGY HOUSING & PARSONAGE STANDARDS

The church today demands the clergy to be not only a preacher, as was the early circuit rider, but a resident pastor and responsible citizen in the community. In order to meet these felt needs, and to call men and women to a dedicated ministry, the church must provide living conditions that will establish an adequate base from which to operate. It is the privilege and responsibility of the members of each congregation to provide the physical setting which will give the parsonage family the maximum comfort and convenience in order that the energies of the pastor may be more concentrated on his/her task and willing service in the Church of God. Because the parsonage, like the church building, reflects upon the congregation and the pastor, it should be in such condition that all concerned can be justifiably proud of it. Likewise, pastors should exercise the same diligence in caring for the parsonage as they would if it were their own property; mindful that they are stewards for those who will live in the parsonage after them.

In this section on Housing Standards for Elders in Full Connection, including Housing Allowances and Parsonage standards, the word "clergy" means "elders in full connection." The standards on Housing Allowances and parsonages apply to those churches that have elders in full connection and that are not receiving an equitable salary support.

The size and make-up of clergy families, and the size, location, and type of housing provided for clergy families by local churches is a major factor in the well-being of clergy families. As such, it has an impact on the effectiveness of clergy.

Although it is clear that no one single provision for housing will completely satisfy all the needs of every clergy family and every local church, the goal is to best satisfy the needs of all.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

HOUSING ALLOWANCES

While parsonages have been the traditional means of providing housing for clergy families, there are those local church settings and situations where a housing allowance can be an effective and efficient means of providing housing for clergy families. However, it must be understood that if a house is purchased by a clergy family, there is the potential for financial hardship and difficulties related to the sale of a house when an appointment change is made.

It must also be understood that a housing allowance will have no effect on the tenure of a pastor, neither increasing nor decreasing the potential length of a pastorate.

1. If a housing allowance is provided by a local church, the amount shall be sufficient to allow for the rental\lease\purchase of housing that meets the parsonage standards of the annual conference. (The conference uses a figure of 20% of salary while the General Board of Pension uses 25% in its pension computation.)
2. A utility allowance may be paid in addition to the housing allowance.
3. The amount of the housing allowance and of the utility allowance shall be reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that the amount is adequate.
4. The District Superintendent, in consultation with the pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, shall be responsible for ensuring that these standards are met.

CLERGY COUPLES

General Conference Action provides housing is not compensation for pastors appointed to churches in The United Methodist Church. When two pastors who are married to each other are appointed to neighboring charges where it is reasonable for them to live in the same parsonage, neither pastor is entitled to a housing allowance or rent from the unused parsonage. However, this situation may be considered during the setting of compensation of the pastor, in a conversation between the District Superintendent and the appropriate Pastor-Parish Relations Committee(s).

PARSONAGE STANDARDS FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

The following Parsonage Standards were put in place and approved at the 1973 Central Texas Annual Conference and have appeared in our Journals since that time. Therefore, parsonages built or purchased prior to December 31, 1973 may not meet all of the recommendations in Sections I and II, but are subject to requirements in Sections III – V. Parsonages built/purchased after January 1, 1974 are subject to all recommendations and requirements listed below in Sections I – V.

SECTION I LOCATION

The location of a new parsonage is a matter of extreme importance. It should provide for the safety, convenience and privacy of the parsonage family. For this reason, we recommend that a new parsonage not be located adjacent to the church facilities.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

SECTION II SIZE OF BUILDING AND LIVING AREAS

The new or remodeled parsonage should be large enough to accommodate the pastor's family. It should provide adequate space for the entertainment of guests. It should be remembered in selecting a parsonage that the present parsonage family is not the only one who will live in that parsonage and that the house should be adaptable for a variety of family sizes and situations. Also, care should be given that facilities should be fully accessible for those with handicap conditions meeting standards of the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶2544.3.b.

Recommendations:

1. 1800 square feet minimum living space.
2. At least 3 bedrooms, preferably 4.
3. At least 2 bath, preferable 2 ½ with adequate linen closet.
4. Family and dining areas adequate for entertaining.
5. Preferably a separate area (living, sitting or office) that could be used for visiting or study.
6. Adequate closet and storage space. Closet space in each bedroom and other storage space well distributed throughout the house.
7. Laundry area (see Section III.2.g)
8. Adequate garage or carport space (preferably 2-car attached garage)
9. Adequate outside living area with fenced yard.

Section III REQUIRED EQUIPMENT

1. Health & Safety
 - a. Adequate supply of hot and cold water in bathrooms, kitchen and laundry.
 - b. Proper sewage disposal according to the standards of local and/or State Department of Health.
 - c. Fire extinguisher in kitchen with yearly inspection.
 - d. Automatic central heating and air conditioning.
 - e. Bathroom heating and hot water heaters should be protected and if not electric should be properly vented.
 - f. Provide smoke detectors for kitchen, living, laundry, and bedroom areas.
 - g. Provide carbon monoxide detectors, unless parsonage is completely electric.
 - h. Recommend that a Lead Paint Disclosure be provided for parsonages built before 1978.
2. Kitchen with Well-Planned Work Area
 - a. Cooking area complete with range or built-in cooking units, counter space, hood and exhaust fan.
 - b. Sink area complete with modern double bowl sink with disposal and drain space.
 - c. Large automatic refrigerator with freezer unit.
 - d. Required code electrical outlets for every room.

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

- e. A well-equipped kitchen with adequate storage for dishes, utensils and food pantry.
 - f. Built-in dishwasher.
 - g. Laundry room with properly vented washer/dryer.
3. Furnishings
- a. Effective January 1, 2011, all living, family, dining and bedroom furnishings become the responsibility of the resident parsonage family.
 - b. Window coverings, drapes, curtains, and blinds, adequate for privacy, is the responsibility of the church.
 - c. Internet/cable ready.
 - d. If the parsonage family is expected to maintain the lawn, the church will supply lawn tools, weed eater, mower (self-propelled or riding) as appropriate for size of yard. In addition the church will provided water hoses, ladder, and garbage receptacles.

SECTION IV MAINTENANCE

1. Decoration - Both the interior and exterior of the parsonage should be kept in such a state of decoration as to preserve not only its physical condition but its aesthetic value as well. Decorating and/or any remodeling should be done in consultation with the parsonage family.
2. Repair and replacement - An annual budget item will enable the Trustees and Parsonage Committee to have a consistent, rather than haphazard program of maintenance and improvement that will be less costly in the long run. There should be an annual budget item for repair and replacement of appliances and equipment.

SECTION V MISCELLANEOUS

1. Parsonage Book - It is recommended that the parsonage committee prepare and keep up-to-date a record in which are placed all guarantees, repair parts lists, and the instructions for use of equipment belonging in the parsonage. The record should also indicate when and from whom purchased and whom to call for service. Also this book may well contain a list of whom to call for various reasons, where to find various items, when and by whom various improvements were made, and other information helpful to an incoming minister.
2. Insurance - The trustees should be certain that the church-owned house and contents are insured for at least 80% of replacement cost against fire, wind, and other hazards. Public liability insurance should be carried on parsonage property. Tenant Homeowners insurance is available for all ministers who desire to cover personal possessions and liability. IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PASTOR TO INSURE PERSONAL PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE PASTOR AND FAMILY.
3. Utility Deposits - Should be made in the name of the church.
4. Gifts to Parsonage - Before a gift is received, care should be given to consult with the parsonage family, trustees and/or parsonage committee regarding the needs of the gift. If received, the gift should be designated specifically if it is to remain in the parsonage or is to be the personal gift for the parsonage family. In the event it is to remain in the parsonage, the trustees and/or parsonage committee must approve it. A Gift/Donation Policy by the Trustees and/or parsonage committee of the church should be in place to insure clearly understood policies of acceptance, receipt and acknowledgement of any gifts.

5. Pastor's Office/Study - The Office/Study should be located in the Church Building and adequately furnished and equipped. Some pastors may choose to also maintain an office in the parsonage and be responsible for its furnishings in addition to the official church Office/Study.
6. Parsonage Furnishings - Since we have transitioned to parsonage families being responsible to have their own furnishings, when furniture still exists in the parsonage, we encourage an open dialogue between the parsonage family, PPR committee, and Board of Trustees and/or Parsonage committee concerning the issue of whose furnishings are to be used. We highly recommend, when in the doubt, that the parsonage family furnishings be used to furnish the parsonage.

Adequate parsonage facilities, based on the above minimum standards insure that a pastoral appointment can be made based on the needs of the charge, rather than the ability of the parsonage to receive the family assigned. An annual review of the church-owned parsonage, to ensure proper maintenance, will be conducted by the chair of the board of trustees or the chair of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chair of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor (§2533.4, 2012 Book of Discipline).

DEATH OF OR UNEXPECTED CIRCUMSTANCES OF A CLERGY MEMBER WHILE LIVING IN A PARSONAGE

In the event of the death of a clergy person or a set of unexpected circumstances involving a clergy person which results in an immediate need of a change in pastoral appointment and which involves a clergy family occupying a parsonage, a grace-filled arrangement should be determined through a conversation with the local church Pastor Parish Relations committee, the District Superintendent, and the Cabinet. In each case the intent is to allow a period of time (recommended not to exceed sixty days) for a spouse and family to make new living arrangements.

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED, DISABLED, MINISTERS ON INCAPACITY LEAVE OR FORMER CLERGY PERSONS OF THE CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE

The Central Texas Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

Central Texas Conference Journal 2014

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation; and

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

All expenses that are within the Annual Conference Allowance will be billed directly to the Annual Conference by those moving companies. If a moving company is used that will not bill the Annual Conference directly or the clergy chooses a self-move, then the moving clergy/family is responsible for the bill and will be reimbursed by the Annual Conference for all documented expenses that are within the Annual Conference Allowance. MOVING PROCEDURES

- The Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee of each charge which is receiving a new pastor will appoint one of its members to serve as Moving Coordinator who will coordinate the move with the incoming pastor and work to facilitate the easiest and most pleasant move possible. At the introductory meeting between the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and the new pastor, the Moving Coordinator will be present in order to be introduced to the pastor.
- The Clergy.....if using a commercial mover, should get estimates from at least two moving companies of his/her choice and chooses the one he/she wishes to use. The clergy contracts with the company of choice to move them and send the bill to the Annual Conference Treasurer. If the estimate is over $2,500 the clergy will send a check to the Conference Treasurer for the amount over the $2,500 limit with a copy of the original estimate and the completed reimbursement form. If the company is one that will not send a bill to the Conference for payment, he/she can work out payment with the Annual Conference by having the mover call the Conference Treasurer at 817-877-5222 or pay the moving company and submit the completed reimbursement form and documentation of expenses for reimbursement.
- The Clergy.....if choosing a self-move, keeps all their receipts for the cost of van rental, gasoline, boxes, tape, packaging material and $2.00 per mile and turns in the completed reimbursement form and required documentation to the office of the Central Texas Annual Conference Treasurer within sixty (60) days of the effective date of the appointment for reimbursement.

AUDITS

The audits for the Central Texas Conference Service Center, Glen Lake Camp and Retreat Center, and the five district offices are posted on the Service Center's website, <http://www.ctcumc.org>. All audits received favorable opinions, and have been moved to the website solely as a cost-saving measure.

He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Among the great teachings of Jesus are the words from the Gospel of John, 15th chapter, verse 5: "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, then you will produce much fruit." This year's statistical tables are designed to help energize and equip local churches in producing fruitful and faithful ministry as we seek together to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. They reflect the five categories by which congregational vitality is assessed and correspond not only to the five vows of Methodism but also to the five practices of fruitful congregations. Should you desire the full statistical layout contained in the General Council of Finance and Administration year-end reports, those reports are available at <http://www.ctcumc.org/news/detail/270> by typing in the word "audit" into the search box.

Comments:

*The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*
