Memoirs of Rev. Riley Sodia. ✓

Our deceased Brother, Rev. Riley Sodia, was born in Lavaca County, in 1866. He was converted at an early age and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He answered the call to preach the Gospel shortly after his conversion and was received on trial in West Texas Conference at Cuero, Texas, in 1895. Bishop Ninde, presiding. He was ordained Deacon, December, 1897 at Denison, Texas, Bishop Fowler presiding. In December, 1899, he was ordained an elder by Bishop Goodsell at Austin, Texas. With great acceptibility and efficiency Rev. Sodia served some of our best charges, among them being, Gonzales Circuit, Belmont S. A. East End Columbus, Yoakum. At the last Annual Conference held at Cuero, he was appointed by Bishop Sheperd to our charge at Beeville, Texas, where he was called from labor to reward, November, 1918.

Brother Sodia had been in declining health for several years, but would not give up, but stayed on his job, and died at his post. He was one of our best preachers and was in great demand as a revivalist.

His life was rich in the faith and love of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We shall miss his sunny spirit and loving fellowship, but we would not have him return to us, for he has found his place among the blood washed millions, whose robes have been made white in the blood of the Lamb.

May Good keep in perfect peace the loved ones who are left behind.

H. SWANN.

Memoirs of Rev. A. T. Jackson. ✓

Brother Jackson was an earnest man, proud head up walked straight. He pastored many of the important charges in the West Texas Conference, traveled thirty-four years in the active service.

Superannuated and lived in Dallas, Texas, a good citizen and ardent church worker. Remained sick for several days, but bore his sickness with much patience. He had excellent qualities, a mountain man. He is gone to rest from labor.

God spoke to him and said come up here where I am.

“Servant of God, well done!

Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.”

Respectfully,

D. C. LACY.

Memoirs of Rev. P. B. Bennett. ✓

Twenty-five years ago I met in the City of Dallas, Texas, the Rev. Bennett, and I found in him a fine spirit which had ever existed. As a preacher leaves a splendid record because many have been convinced and convicted of sin and turned to Jesus and lived the Christian life. As pastor he was truly a sheperd, because he was careful of the smallest things in the charge.

He did not retire but worked up until God laid him down to sleep to wake in the sunrise kingdom. Gone but not forgotten.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT JOHNSON.

Memoirs of Rev. W. L. Huff. ✓

Rev. Huff joined on trial in the year 1917 and served very acceptably during his stay with us, but God had need for him. He died in full triumph of faith.

Respectfully,

J. W. DOWNS.

Committee: H. Swann, N. H. Townsend, A. Johnson, J. W. Downs, L. H. Richardson, A. L. Carper.

Memoirs of the Rev. Ephraim Jones. ✓

Rev. Jones joined the Conference twenty-seven years ago and was faithful to every duty. He was a prince among pearchers and his ever remain with us, his work will stand as a monument to his service. He was among the pioneer preachers of the West Texas Conference. He helped to pave the way for our great churches and schools for which we are very proud.

Many souls were saved by his great life and sermons.

Possessed much faith in God, and believed in the young minister.

Faith of our fathers' living still
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword;
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whenever we hear that glorious word.

Faith of our fathers' holy faith. We will be true to thee till death.

Yours in Christ.

L. H. RICHARDSON.

The women of our Conference have done and are yet doing so much work in the way of training and uplifting our girls to a more exalted level in life and they have striven so hard to raise funds to the indebtedness on the new building. Spriggs Ratliff. We therefore commend the work done by the home for our girls under the efficient management of Miss C. I. King and her helpers. S. H. C. Committee.

We rejoice in the continued growth and prosperity of our own Samuel Huston College under the presidency of Prof. M. S. Davage.

We are proud that one hundred of its sons were called to the colors and were found worthy to bear arms in defense of our country and its ideals.

We realize that the need of Christian education is greater now than ever before and that the destiny of the West Texas Conference is linked with the destiny of Samuel Huston College. Both will rise or fall together. We further realize that the continual raising of educational standard demands more buildings, greater equipment and a larger and more efficient teaching force, all of which involves a larger expenditure of money; therefore

Be It Resolved, That we pledge our united support to President Davage, the Local Board of Trustees, the Freedmen's Aid Society in their efforts to raise the standard of Samuel Huston College. That we pledge our hearty co-operation in securing students and in raising our full apportionment;
