MEMOIRS.

Rev. C. C. Scruggs joined the West Texas Conference in 1877 and served faithfully every appointment given him; and

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has called him from labor to reward; and

Whereas, we deplore his loss to the Conference, and since his place will be missed by us and friends and loved ones, be it

Resolved, that we hereby record our sympathy to the bereaved ones and express our faith in his fidelity as a member of this Conference; and we commended those who weep to Him who doeth all things well.

Signed: J. J. HARDEMON.
A. BROWN.

Rev. R. D. Dennis was called from labor to reward in the early part of the year of 1919. He was faithful even in the midst of many trials which were always perplexing, and seemingly insoluble. He worked patiently while others fretted and rested. But he felt that some day, it would be his to enter the pearly gates. He was always sweet, kind, loving and could be depended upon. If the road was rugged and the mountain high he traveled on. If clouds were dark, he went on. He was obedient to his superior officers. Where the Conference and Bishop said go, he went willingly.

His voice is hushed, but it rings in our ears today, because it was his ambition to make a joyful noise unto the God of his salvation. At last he was called to lay down his armor, and like Paul said: "I have fought a good fight and kept the faith," etc.

“His work is complete and is finished below,
His last tear is fallen, I trust;
He has preached his last sermon and met his last
foe;
Has conquered and is now at rest.”

Signed: R. A. APPLIN.

Rev. Austin Lockhart.

Rev. Austin Lockhart was born in Virginia some-time during the year of 1845 and was sold into Texas when a small boy. He was converted shortly after Emancipation and soon felt a call to the ministry, but knowing his limited knowledge, he hired himself to a man who taught him to read. He applied himself steadily and was soon able to offer himself as a messenger to Jesus Christ. He joined the Conference in 1879 and traveled from San Antonio to Denison. His was a pioneer ministry, encountering many hardships too numerous to mention. He retired in 1899, having served 20 years in the active ranks and on the 3rd day of November, 1919, he fell asleep. His last days were sad—having had not a single relative to care for him.

The members of St. James Church, Waco provided for him very liberally and when he became helpless, the pastor took him to the Provident Sanitarium, where he was cared for. The pastor visited him constantly. Two days before he died, the pastor, while visiting him, asked if he was conscious of the end. He said “I wish I was already at home. Tell Brothers Swann and Lacy to meet me beyond. I will soon be there.” He was conscious to the end and fell asleep as a valiant soldier of the Cross.
