Daily ProceedingsCONFERENCE MINUTES

First Session - Monday, May 8, 1967

Memorial Service

7:30 P.M.

The Organist used Hymn No. 177 in the New Methodist Hymnal as the Prelude. The conference stood and sang "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name" as the Choir marched in and took its place in the Choir stand.

The opening Hymn was "How Firm a Foundation". The Collect was said in unison, after which the "Act of Praise" was read responsively followed by the Affirmation of our Faith.

The Devotional Leader, The Reverend Ira B. Loud, read the following selected scriptures: Psalms 90:1-6; and St. John 14:1-6. The conference stood and sang "Come Ye Disconsolate". The Reverend John Boyd Richardson gave the statement of Memorium.

The Reverend Loud closed the tribute with the following poem by John Oxenham:

Fold up the tent!
The sun is in the west.
Tomorrow my untended soul will range
Among the blest.
And I am well content,
For what is sent, is sent
And God knows best.

Fold up the tent,
And speed the parting guest!
The night draws on, though night and day are one on this long quest.
This house was only lent
For my apprenticeship -
What is, is best.

Fold up the tent!
It's tenant would be gone,
To fairer skys than mortal eyes
May look upon.
All that I loved has passed,
And left me at the last
Alone! - alone!

Fold up the tent!
I hear a clear voice calling, calling
Clear, - "to rest! to rest!"
And I am glad to go,
For the sweet oil is low,
And rest is best!

8:10 P.M. - Holy Communion

The Communion devotions were conducted by the host-pastor, the Reverend L. L. Haynes, Sr. Hymn No. 435 was sung by the choir and congregation. The Communion Ritual was used, with the District Superintendents assisting the host pastor. The choir sang the Anthem.

Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr., resident bishop, made an appeal in behalf of our Special Advance commitment for the building of a church in Bintulu, Sarawak, Southeast Asia. Goal for the Southwestern Area is $11,000.00. The Reverend L. L. Haynes conducted the offering. $210.69 was received.

The choir rendered a selection, after which Bishop Moore brought the Communion message. His Text was St. Matthew 9:16-17 verses. His subject was "A NEW CHURCH FOR A NEW GENERATION". He impressed upon the conference that the church must cease its present policy of living for itself, and seek to live for others. That it must cease its policy of withdrawal from the Ghetto and slum, form the low and down-trodden, and striving to save its life by reaching out to help those who need no help. He stressed the need for a church that will join her master in the fulfilment of His already begun "poverty" program; His already begun "medicare" program. He described the three types of people in the world in Jesus' day. The Scribes: who were too buisy writing criticisms to do any good; the Pharisees: who talked so much that they could do no good, and the "Do-gooders": who spent so much time to appear as saints that they could no good. He declared that these same three people exist today.

Bishop Moore closed his message with an appeal for a church whose members will become mature enough to live and die, if necessary, for the principles for which Christ lived, died, and arose.

The choir and congregation stood and sang Hymn No. 415, after which the Communion was administered to 395 communicants. After the singing of Hymn No. 314, the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Moore.

Following the worship, a reception was held in the dining area for Bishop and Mrs. Moore.

Second Session - Tuesday, May 9, 1967

9:00 A.M.

The conference stood and sang, "Come We That Love The Lord". The prayer was given by the Reverend H. T. Franks. The Meditation was given by the devotional leader, the Reverend George Brewer, after which the devotional period was closed by the singing of Hymn No. 1.

ORGANIZATION: Bishop Moore called the Secretary to call the Roll. It was done. The Secretary was requested to name his assistants. Albert S. Pitts, J. S. C. Grattan, Samuel H. Callier, Martin J. Walker, and Taylor S. Stewart were named and confirmed.

The Conference Statistician was requested to name his staff. Mrs. O. L. Jackson, E. M. Cooper, W. L. Shaw, and Luther W. Henry were named and confirmed.

The Conference Treasurer was requested to name his staff. Mrs. J. G. Owens, S. M. Cleaver, and Zan W. Holmes, Jr. were named and confirmed.

REPORT NUMBER 1

THE COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

A few weeks ago, I borrowed a statement from Dr. Marvin T. Judy, of the Perkin School of Theology, which seems to me to set the stage for our Composite Report. "The two decades before us present one of the greatest opportunities ever had for the witness of the Gospel of the Church of Our Lord. At the same time these same decades will demand of the church leaders of the most creative and exploratory thinking in the history of the Church."

New forms of Ministry must be devised, untried methods of Evangelism be explored. New approaches to emerging cultural groups, racial groups, and ethnic groups need to be created to convert persons who are difficult to reach in conventional church patterns. Computers, atomic energy, space exploration, a new mathematic, and supersonic planes are now the order of the day.

No longer can we, the Church of Christ, be content to remain complacent to radical, social, and psychological change. Throught sound research, exploration, expermentation, creative thought, and the leadership of the Holy Spirit, the church can continue to be the witness to eternal truth in a world of need.

Methodist, like people on bicycles, seem to have their heads respectfully bowed while their feet relentlessly push. Perhaps we still deserve the quotation of Washington Irving when he said, "Methodist are all the while pulling up the roots of their souls to see if they are growing." Indeed, the Methodist Church is a church of action.

I will not attempt, in these brief moments, to delineate all the actions; but I do think a few are of sufficient importance to get our attention for a moments. Methodism is very colorful, yet despite its size and color, however, yow know that Methodism is most real at the level of the Annual and Quarterly Conferences. Here we are at the grass roots where Methodism live, move and have their being. It is at this level that we invite your attention for a few moments.

Serving as a member of Bishop Noah W. Moore's Cabinet is not only a very great honor, but it is a genuine pleasure. As superintendents in this expansive conference we consider ourselves most fortunate to be associated with such a fine group of ministers and laymen with whom we are privileged to labor in the Kingdom. So, consider now the stir of our minds, the beat of hearts, as we give some accounting of our stewardship.

Evangelism

I think it was Emil Brunner who said, "The church exists by mission as fire exists by burning." A fervent attempt has been made throughout the bounds of our conference, to rekindle a spirit of evangelism in all of our churches. Preaching services was held by the Down's Memorial under the leadership of the late Rev. L. H. Haywood, Sanford; Antone Dykes, St. Paul; Rev. T. M. Bruton. Many of the other churches have been involved in census taking, and visitation. Most of the churches in the districts under the leadership of the District Secretaries of Evangelism have held revivals and many people were brought to Christ in this manner. The four churches in Waco again are planning a united revival to be held at St. James.

The report of our pastors will depict growth of our congregations, however, this growth has not been gratifying as we had hoped for. We are now amid our attendance drive in churches across our various districts. The results, to this date, indicate that we are being handsomely rewarded for our efforts. Arrangements have been made with our conference evangelistic staff to hold a spring evangelistic campaign in our various districts. We expect this to be a success.

We are deeply concerned about the declining attendance in our Church School. We are looking forward to the New Day Curriculum Materials, and hope that it will begin with the pastors, and will be in every church. Meanwhile, may we continue our training in attempt to strengthen our Educational Program. Some of the districts are holding meetings for the interpretation of the New Curriculum under the direction of the Rev. John W. Elliott, our Conference Director of Christian Education.

The adventures of the Methodist Youth Fellowship in Temple, Texas, led the young people into a new awareness of what it means to be a church. Many local churches have had workshops studying the New Curriculum for adults. Although some of the churches made reasonable reports on Rally Day, these do not reflect what we believe to be adequate stewardship toward Christian Education.

The program of Christian Education on the Western District was designed to make various methods to disseminate guidance in christian education. Some of the methods were: inviting specialist for instructional periods, consultation periods, local church study groups, district study groups, joint sessions with our counterparts of other Methodist Conferences, and dispensing literature from the District Office. Our studies have covered: a study of the Design, The New Day in Christian Education, and the New Hymnal. Thus, in association with counterparts of the Southwest Texas Conference, we have jointly participated in: youth institutes, bible schools, Ministers' Wives Retreat, district conferences, and Local Church Schools of Missions.

Huston-Tillotson College

Methodism involved - to put it mildly - in situations of varying ministry. We take the bitter with the sweet, and in this area we have learned some costly lessons. We have emphasized the increased givings toward Higher Education Conference wise. And also, the completion of the goal toward the Karl E. Downs Memorial Fund. The Western District demonstrated an enthusiasm seldom paralleled by paying its full quota of the Karl E. Downs Memorial Fund. While many of our churches have made wonderful reports toward higher education, these reports do not reflect what we believe to be adequate stewardship toward Negro Colleges in General & Huston-Tillotson Colleges in particular. We have stressed the importance of youth, to prepare themselves for the New Day, and through the media of work shops, district conferences, cross the line of dialogueing, leadership materials; we have made some progress in the area of higher education. We are grateful for the loyalty and understanding of many of the fine laymen of our conference who have helped us through these periods of agony. On the brighter side — Huston-Tillotson College, under the leadership of our own Dr. John T. King, is open, and moving on toward a more solid financial footing.

Building - Improvement - Indebtness

This has been a fine year for liquidation and reduction of indebtedness on Church Poverty across the conference. Many church buildings and parsonages have been completely remodeled or extensively repaired; still others have been redecorated or have new equipment installed. The Simpson Church at Hondo, under the leadership of the Rev. L. D. Rogers, reopened its doors. They have renovated the church, painting it both inside and out and installing restrooms with running water and other facilities. The East St. Paul Church, Rev. J. D. Mooring, Pastor, put in central heating, air conditioning, new pews, new pulpit furniture, new carpet runners, and plywood all around the building and painting of the parsonage. The total cost was not in excess of $12,000.00. Rev. T. M. Bruton, pastor of the St. Paul Church, continues to meet every obligation toward the liquidation of the $80,000 loan with the General Board of Missions. All indebtedness on properties on the Western District are current. Without pastoral leadership, Mackey Chapel of Odessa has completed one phase of its renovation program on the sanctuary. Hollowell Methodist Church in Midland, under the leadership of Rev. Samuel H. Callier, has completely covered the parsonage and church with a new roof. The Dallas District has been able through strenuous efforts to clear up some of the outstanding debts that they faced at the beginning of the conference year. A new building has been erected in Sherman, Texas at a cost of $23,000.00. The most outstanding achievement of the year is our St. Luke Church under the leadership of Dr. Timothy B. Echols; they have acquired more than $30,000.00 worth of property made possible by The Inner City Mission. The membership of Haven Chapel, under the leadership of Rev. J. W. Tatum, has retired the bonded indebtedness of the church.

Social Concerns

We are grateful for men of courage, laymen and ministers, who have been submitted to hostility and insinuation by aroused people who suspect the church and its leadership of other than the best motives.

We are encouraged by the growing conversation. Especially those by Rev. R. S. Mosby, and J. D. Mooring of the San Antonio District. Conversations between ministers and laymen, as more serious, theological and biblical study helps us find a common theological language. We pledge to our ministers and our churches that we will stand by you, as we deal - as we must - with the controversial issues of the day.

The following churches in the Waco District: Wesley, Bracks, and Mt. Zion accepted invitations to a Fellowship Service with the Trinity Methodist Church, sponsored by the Commission on Social Concern, where Dr. John T. King was the speaker for the evening.. Also, the First Methodist Church of Georgetown, and the St. Paul Methodist Church entered into dialogue, for Fellowship and Urban Renewal purposes.

Missions

In line with this same spirit, the overall theme "One Witness in One World" at the local level, we must respond to the Christian need and work in the interest of a unified Witness to the Power of Jesus Christ.

The Missionary out-reach must never die out in the life of the church. We have discovered long since, that the church of the Lord Jesus Christ has always been concerned with others. The giving of one's self, the love of Missions, has brought wonderful success.

Stewardship and Finance

The church must be ever mindful of Christian Stewardship. Good stewards of the manifold gifts of God. We have attempted to both lead and train our people the basic principles of giving. First of all, by the giving of themselves. The giving of their means; then giving back to God what He has allowed us to use. The giving through tithing, and offerings, and through blessings that come to the church and its people when we do this from our hearts.

Woman's Society of Christian Service

We commend the Woman's Society of Christian Service, both conference and district wise. In many of our local churches from cross sections of our various districts, the local societies have been busily engaged in keeping its total program in the forefront to every woman in the local church. Thus, the Cabinet having been mindful of your efforts, we pledge our full support and cooperation to the many challenges that lie ahead.

Ministerial Leadership

Our pastors are to be commended for the leadership that they have given during this year. Because of their consideration, we have been able to devote more time to the churches of our districts that have been without the services of their appointed ministers.

Rev. T. Bruton and R. S. Mosby come to the close of a fruitful and faithful ministry. They have served the church well. These two ministers represent almost ninety years of active service in the Methodist Ministry. Our prayer shall go with them in what ever field of labor they are called to serve.

Our ministerial rank have also been invaded by many deaths this conference year. The passing of the late Rev. L. H. Haywood, J. B. Holden, J. A. Ross, J. H. Marshall, A. C. Holden and C. W. Franklin, have all moved to higher grounds.

Thus we commend to the families of these valiant soldiers our love, sympathy and understanding, to our God and Captain of our salvation.

Lay Leadership

We are indebted to the dedication of the laymen of our conference. Our Lay Speakers have served well and are to be commended for the leadership that they have given in the worship services, during the absence of the pastors. Without this sincere and devoted leadership we could not have succeeded.

Last of all, we stand as one man in our appreciation for our Episcopal Leader Bishop Moore guides his Cabinet with a loose rein. He gives latitude for creativity and freedom to think, and let think. He and his wife have ministered to us in a generous and compassionate way.

Bishop and Mrs. Moore are thoughtful people, and we have been the beneficiaries of their thoughtfulness in so many ways. Thus, we are grateful to both of them for their fine leadership and inspiration and we assure them of our esteem and our loyalty.

It has been said that "The Methodist Church suffers the sins of bigness." It is not without pride. Its outside is better than its inside, but we love the church.

The name Methodist is one of the cherished names by which we find identity. As your Superintendents, perhaps more than anyone, we have been blessed far beyond our merits. We thank God for all of you, and pledge our prayers and cooperation as we seek to serve the Lord Jesus Christ together in proclaiming the good news of redemption.

REPORT NUMBER 2

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Mishop Moore and Members of the Ninety-Third Session of the West Texas Conference of the Methodist Church meeting at Saint Andrews Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas. May 8-11, 1967:

We, your Commission on World Service and Finance have made a careful study of all Benevolence and Service causes claiming the attention of our Conference and have used every precaution to see that no cause, board, or commission be neglected. We are also mindful of the present economic status of our people and their willingness to share their material possession, that the Kingdom of God may be realized in the earth. We feel that our financial requests are responsible and we call upon our members to respond with their whole hearts.

The members who have heeded the call of our Lord to Tithing should see that their Tithe and offerings are apportioned so that every phase of the total financial program of the church will be adequately cared for.

Members who have not yet heeded the call of our Lord to Tithing should make a liberal pledge to the Benevolences and other Financial causes of the church. Some are blessed of God to give $1,000.00 or more, some $500.00, others $250.00. Even members of small incomes can give at least the minimum asking. All of us according to our financial abilities are called upon to give to the great financial program of the Church of Jesus Christ Our Lord.

If we will heed the call of Our Lord, His Kingdom will move forward in the earth. Let us therefore rededicate our lives to the advancement of the Kingdom of Our Lord in the earth. We pray God's blessings upon all of Our Lord's Servants as they strive to build God's Kingdom in the earth.

Respectfully submitted your commission on

FINANCIAL STATEMENT AND REPORT BY CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS
July 12, 1967

Reverend S. A. Keesee, Chairman
Conference Commission on World Service and Finance
The West Texas Conference of
The Methodist Church
2804 Prospect Street
Fort Worth, Texas
Dear Reverend Keesee:

We have audited the books and records of the West Texas Conference of The Methodist Church for the period July 15, 1966 through July 8, 1967. In connection therewith, we have examined recorded cash receipts, bank statements, cancelled checks and such other records to the extent we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion the accompanying statements present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the period July 15, 1966 through July 8, 1967 and the cash position of the Conference at July 8, 1967 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with the preceding year.

Accountants Comments

We found the records adequately maintained and easy to audit. Attention is directed to the growth in income and responsibility of the Treasurer over the past years as set forth below:

	Gross Receipts	Gross Disbursements
Period Ending July 12, 1962	97,563	102,324
Period Ending July 12, 1963	91,664	90,256
Period Ending July 1, 1964	90,563	81,245
Period Ending June 16, 1965	144,683	146,606
Period Ending July 15, 1966	157,926	146,671
Period Ending July 12, 1967	155,473	164,187

As a result of this growth, it is important that all churches in each district not only maintain adequate records but also furnish the Treasurer with complete reports on receipts.

REPORT NUMBER 4

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION

TO: Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr., and members of the 93rd Session of the West Texas Annual Conference, The Methodist Church.

What is education? Education has been defined as the process of "assisting seekers for more truth and a better life to appropriate themselves what is real, important, useful, and satisfying. It is offering to others, with discrimination, what we are, know, and believe, the more mature members sharing with less mature." If this is true, says Nels F. Frere, "such education consists of three interrelated processes: discriminating transmission of our cultural heritage; provisions for conditions which promote discovery; and inner development of persons, both as individuals and as a society. All these processes are, of course, ideal goals or directives and the more nearly they are attained the more nearly successful is education."

Education is a continuous process and is never "over." It begins at the mothers knee and continues through the whole of life. It is divided into various phases but endlessness is certain. It has its responsibility: the discovery, impartation, and maturation of truth. In higher education the meaning of its total task, and the power with which it can reach its goal, become ever more important. Education lives by the needs of actual people to know and practice the truth. That is why college is so important.

The college years are most significant in the lives of youth. They represent a decisive choice at one of the crossroads of life. They represent further, for a very large percentage of enrollees, a release from or loosening of the "apron strings." They constitute the period in which responsibilities for individual actions and reactions are shifted directly onto the shoulders of youth. In short, the college years are important years of adjustment, re-adjustment, development, and growth. Because these years are of such nature, the colleges and universities are faced with the problem of providing the best types of education designed to produce emotionally stable, intellectually rational, and spiritually directed adults whose approaches to life and its problems can be relied upon to bring about satisfying results in all avenues of existence.

This, indeed, is a large order, for valid as these aims are, they are predicated upon the assumption that students bring with them the necessary backgrounds - talents, ability, acceptable secondary achievement, a certain moral philosophy, as well as the desire to pursue courses in higher education. For what? Economic freedom, academic excellence, elevated social status, possession of a Bachelor's degree — are some of the answers to that question. Yet, the church-related college has other obligations to the youth who people its campuses for four years. If the college is to be conceived of as a "total experience," it must have an equal concern for character. This is of utmost importance in these days.

In the past seventy-five years there have been dramatic changes in the field of education. Among these, the startling have been in the number of people finishing secondary schools and going to college or universities.

In 1880, less than three out of every one hundred students of high school age were in public high school and only one of these was graduated. Today more than eighty out of every one hundred students of high school age are in high school and more than fifty-five of these graduate. This represents an increase of more than 400 per cent in the school attendance of high school age young people.

The situation in college enrollments has been just as dramatic. There was an increase of 200 per cent in college enrollments between the years 1916 and 1942, and since the end of World War II colleges have begun to bulge at the seams.

The problem which America faces is basically one of achieving and maintaining excellence in education under the sheer weight of numbers. The problem which the church faces is not only that of maintaining excellence but of insuring for our college age population the opportunity to receive an education which is based on a Christian view of man and the world.

Faith in nature, faith in man, faith in God or faith in Christ — these are the faiths which in our generation influence the selection and interpretation of the facts of all disciplines of knowledge. The problem which confronts the church is that of determining whether she will provide the opportunity for quality education which proceeds from the faith of evangelical Christianity.

Such an education is not easily realized, for it is apparent that we often mistake what it is that makes an education Christian. We provide an atmosphere of piety, a faculty composed of Christian professors, a daily chapel service, weeks of spiritual emphasis, and so on; and we believe that we have a Christian college. All of these things, important as they are to an education for Christian believers, are in reality only incidental to the decisive factor which makes a college a Christian college.

The one thing which should characterize a college as Christian on any adequate basis is the fact that in that institution all disciplines — the humanities, the social sciences, the natural sciences, and education — are interpreted from a Christian view of man and the world. For it is the naturalism and humanism of the secular college which destroy the faith of the unwary rather than his being exposed to various temptations. The temptations are present not only in the secular college but in the Christian college and even in the Christian home.

The intellectual impact of every day existence is devastating. Daily events challenge ideas at the crucial points. They deny the reality of the transcendent God and the fact that He guarantees His eternal law, and they deny that man is essentially a creature who is sinful. These denials reflect themselves in the interpretations of reality made in the various disciplines of college study.

The following example has been given many times. The historian may reflect an understanding of history in terms of inevitable progress; the sociologist may speak of whatever sin there is being the sin of the environment or of cultural lag; the philosopher may be a positivist and believe that the only knowledge possible is that of empirical science; the scientist may deny that there is purpose in the universe and that the world is a mortal order, and so on ad infinitum. It is these broad assumptions and assertions that destroy the faith and the value systems of unsuspecting young Christians who study under such aegis.

Professors in a college which is essentially Christian challenge these assumptions at every point. They interpret the findings in these same disciplines from Christian Weltanschauung or world view. Faculty members in a Christian college find in the humanities a philosophical system which makes room for the idea of revelation as a reliable source of knowledge. They seek in the study of the literature of the generation an understanding of man's deepest needs as they are reflected in contemporary writing. They seek to communicate to men, in terms they understand, the Christian answer to their dilemma.

In the social sciences the Christian professor is neither naively optimistic nor hopelessly pessimistic. On the contrary, he is realistic, for he knows that it is because men are proud and selfish and sinful that the institutions of society are riddled by sin and injustice and hatred. The eschatological dimension of his faith keeps him from any bland assumption that he will "bring in the kingdom," while his conviction of God's providential direction of history and his Christian love will keep him working for whatever justice in human relationships it is possible to obtain. In the natural sciences the Christian professor will teach the values of the scientific method without accepting the dogma that there can be no other source of knowledge than science, and he will not accept the idea that the laws of nature cannot be superseded by the God who made them. Although he rejoices in all of the advances that have come through science, he does not rule out the possibility of the miraculous. He, too, knows about natural law, and that is why he calls a miracle a miracle.

It is from this perspective of Christian faith, then, that a Christian college seeks to teach. Peter said, "Giving all diligence, add to your faith . . . knowledge." For the Christian there can be no other place to start, for in Christian faith we believe we find the only acceptable frame work for the whole of human experience.

We are living in a radically different world from that which the founders of our church knew. Great changes have occurred during the history of American Methodism. The question confronts us as it does the rest of the Churches of Christ: What kind of education shall we provide for our generation? There can be only one answer consistent with our faith. Let us provide the best that we can, making sure that it is truly Christian. That is what Huston-Tillotson College has sought to do through the years and will endeavor to do in the years to come. We, at the College, recognize our historic commitment. We will strive always to honor it. We rededicate ourselves to the great tasks which confront us, recognizing these as added opportunities to serve God in a distinctive way.

Always, we must resort to mundane things. Glorious will be the day when such is no longer necessary.

The Commission on World Service and Finance has been consistently concerned about the support of Huston-Tillotson College. The Commission has labored hard and long to prepare a budget which is realistic and which meets as many of the needs of the Conference as possible to do in these days. I would but remind you that the West Texas Conference has a direct responsibility to and for Huston-Tillotson College. It has a continuing responsibility to and for the College. It has helped the College to grow, not only in terms of budget and buildings but in terms of enrollment. The increase in student body creates additional financial requirements and necessitate an enlarged budget. This enlarged budget must be balanced.

The Church must provide increasing support for its colleges, universities, and Wesley Foundations. Our Conference has adopted the financial goal of $1.50 for the colleges and universities and $.50 for the Wesley Foundations, or $2.00 per member annually, which is not too much to expect. We find it convenient to support those things in which we are really concerned. Also, the Commission has placed a $5,000 item in the budget for the ensuing Conference Year, to be designated for the Huston-Tillotson College Chapel Fund. The Commission is endorsing the College's request to have a (Karl Downs Special) in the Conference, to assist in developing the KARL E. DOWNS PROFESSORSHIP FUND, which is being developed by the College. We are developing a "Chair" in Humanities dedicated to the sacred memory of the late Dr. Karl Everett Downs, son of the West Texas Conference, Alumnus and former President of the College, and a brother beloved. It is our sincere hope that the Conference will once again rally to this important cause and assist the College with this project.

The Commission and the College express gratitude to Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr., the five District Superintendents, and the other ministers, for the support of our work in Christian Higher Education. Through our combined efforts our College and Wesley Foundations will continue to grow and be a vital part of the higher education scene of our country. We solicit your continued prayers and best wishes.

FOR THE COMMISSION:

John T. King, President
Huston-Tillotson College

REPORT NO. 5

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

There is an urgent need in our conference to get more serious about our role in helping God build His Kingdom here on earth. Under the circumstances which determine the future it is imperative that we not jump to conclusions, but examine the facts. The fate of our conference, as it relates to what happens to us as Methodists, means that we must be good partners with God, effective and productive in all of our efforts. As a conference our future is not known but as good Methodists, no matter how our relationship is continued, the church welcomes us.

My plea is this: that where God is at work making His Kingdom known to men that this world should know; that where God seems to have difficulty revealing Himself and His Kingdom that someone ought to get concerned and get the church involved in the life of the world. The church belongs to God and its life must be spent in mission for God.

Too many of our churches opportunities for effective work have been abused and neglected on the part of ministers and laymen. In some places persons are trying to lead and promote who stand in their own way. These situations can be corrected with good will and trust. Sometimes a willingness to learn and be helped will mean the difference between success and failure. Man has to trust God and use his personal faith in total surrender to God's Will.

It is my contention and will be, until this conference goes out of business one way or the other, that time is running out. Our ways and methods are inadequate for significant and meaningful ministries. We do not have a consistent, carefully defined and planned program of Christian Education. Too few of our churches are sufficient unto themselves in this transition period. Together we are strong. This calls for sharing together and working together. There is no need for failure simply because we have not related to the resources which are available to us now.

Why wait until the pressure of time haunts us in our endeavor to become Methodists? Everyday offers us an opportunity to experiment with new ministries as we search for ways of making the life of the congregation relevant and vital. Pastors and laymen will resist change. Much of our hope and future are tied to change whether we like or not.

Change is inevitable. The tragic thing about change is that it comes when we think everything is working at a peak level of performance. Or it comes when we think that we are not ready. Or it comes as though it is unexpected and unwelcomed. Or it comes when tensions, frustrations and anxieties seem non-existent. Or it comes when financial resources are lacking and funds are too meager to lend support to existing programs.

Change comes in expected and unexpected ways. It is here to stay and we can accept or reject it. Change is an awareness that growth and learning are a part of each day's living with its hurts and pains. We know this change accentuates pain, hurt, tensions, frustrations, agony, and anxieties. Change and dishonesty cannot blend themselves. Change calls for honesty and revealing One's self.

Change is welcomed by energetic and creative persons. It offers us a variety of choices. It says that we must act now, not tomorrow. It offers an incentive to be positive and daring. It offers an opportunity to be appreciative of what is to come. It offers us the choice of putting pieces together, of working on the whole before all of the pieces are seen, of being soothing balm rather than an unpredicted poison.

We are never ready for change but when it comes. Change and decay are all around us and we have not become restless. The nature of the universe glorifies the concept of change. Technology has proven that we lend ourselves to change in a constructive way or technological advances will destroy us. Is there a need for restlessness or do we take it in stride?

Whatever our future holds for our conference we are not ready for it. What we have done in the past is not sufficient unto the day. What we hope will work tomorrow is antiquated before the day is over. Considering all of our limitations, I agree with Brother S. A. Keese as he spoke on these same ideas, "Hats off to yesterday, coats off to tomorrow." No matter how hard we have worked previously, there is still much hard work to do. Yesterday is history. Its accolades are forgotten. Tomorrow is hard work and our coats must be off and our sleeves rolled up. Our children, youth, and adults need more attention given to them in Christian Education tomorrow than they had in the past.

What am I hoping for? I am saying, that simply put, Christian Education is all that which happens between worship services from one Sunday to another Sunday. This may happen at home, or on the streets, on the job, traveling to and from destinations, and in the church. Christian Education, then, is providing opportunities for worship, study, work, fellowship, play, and recreation for one to develop his own private and personal faith. The faith is a process not learned in a lecture or a series of meetings. This faith is learned from living, changing, growing, hurting, doubting, and agonizing. In the love of Jesus Christ, our Saviour, and God, our Creator, this growth is possible. For God's Holy Spirit is still at work directing this process for acquiring a dynamic faith.

Dynamic faith is commitment to a restlessness. It is commitment to the highest goal and a restlessness to get with it. One must share with others as much of One's material wealth as he shares with One's self to make sure that others receive some of the blessings of life.

Christian Education deals with displaying and then helping One to appropriate the significant styles of living which show tendencies or characteristics of being Christian. This makes Christian Education as Christian and Sacred as a worship service.

The worship service, the "Word", is witness to forms or styles of Christian living. The preached Word does not help a style of Christian living emerge, it supports or proves the existence of an already existing style of living. The congregation (gathered church) is trained to appreciate the preached Word or worship service as a source of inspiration and strength.

Christian Education is the process of continually helping styles of living to emerge and change forms or become discarded when they are no longer significant. It is a way of doing. Christian Education is the way the scattered church reacts to the preached Word and provide the medium for altering, changing or modifying forms of behaviour in the world.

This year's work has kept this in mind as we tried to get the conference to participate in the New Day. Many meetings have been held in churches and on the districts.

Five of our pastors attended a Lab School for Membership Classes for Pastors. In the Lab School for Children's Work the participant was E. C. Purnell; Youth Work - G. J. Goff and J. W. Elliott, Sr.; Adult Work - Roy Stanley and J. D. Mooring.

Observation Lab Schools are planned for Austin and San Antonio this Conference Year. During the summer, Waco, Dallas, and Fort Worth will have these schools.

Our thanks to Rev. W. J. Washington, from the General Board of Education, who held workshops in Austin, San Antonio, and Waco. Nearly 200 persons attended these workshops on The New Day for Adults.

The next big idea or projection for our conference should be "The Church's Educational Ministry for the Next Ten Years". This offering is at Mt. Sequoyah, July 17-21, 1967. Qualified men will try to predict where the Church is going, and what it must do the next ten years to be relevant and vital. Three to five persons from each conference will be invited to work out its program. If this is done in earnest anticipation the conference will have valid goals for the next ten years no matter what our destiny is as a conference. Our being Methodist in the future may depend on what we do with this experience. We must get busy in The New Day for Adults and Youth.

I am sure that the persons selected on the ten year project will take full advantage of this opportunity to be of service to our conference.

WEST TEXAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

BOARD OF EDUCATION

REPORT NO. 6

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr.
And Members of this Ninety-third Session of the West Texas Annual Conference:

The 1966 General Conference of The Methodist Church amended its 1964 action which gave the West Texas Conference opportunity to increase its rate to $35 per cent of full time approved service. The Annual Conference is no longer bound by the contract which enabled it to increase its annuity rate.

A new plan was adopted by the 1966 General Conference giving eligible Conferences of the Methodist Church a schedule which will enable West Texas to again raise its annuity from $35 per cent to a $40 rate.

We believe that a more adequate pension level will increase the number and quality of pastors and facilitate transfer of churches and conferences thereby implimenting the movement toward the inclusive church. Believing that the initiation of this program is a responsibility to be shared by the whole church, we present the following recommendations after which a resolution by the Conference Board will follow:

Recommendations

1. The establishment of a minimum pension rate of $40 per year of full time approved service.
2. The maintenance by the General Conference of a Temporary General Fund for the purpose of giving assistance where necessary so that the minimum pension level may be achieved throughout the Church.
3. That the West Texas Conference show its appreciation to the General Church for this effort to give assistance in increasing our pension rate from $35 to $40 per year by providing its portion of the additional cost. This means that the district superintendents, pastors and loyal laymen must see that every charge raises its assessments in full for Conference Claimants.
4. That the Conference continue to enroll all of its ministers under appointment in the Death Benefit Plan with the General Board of Pensions.
5. That any pastor officiating at the funeral of a minister of the West Texas Conference, a minister's wife or widow shall send to the Chairman of the Conference Board of Pensions, and the Conference Secretary a copy of the program; being sure that the date of death and place of burial is on the program for pension and record purposes.

Resolution

WHEREAS:

The 1966 General Conference amended the rules and regulations governing the Pension Equalization Fund, which is a part of the Temporary General Aid Fund established by the 1964 General Conference to provide assistance to Annual Conferences in achieving a $40.00 annuity rate instead of a $35.00 rate.

AND WHEREAS:

During the 1967-'68 an annual conference will be eligible to receive, as assistance from the Pension Equalization Fund, 70% of the difference between the $40.00 recommended rate and the 1964 annuity rate paid to the annual conference. This assistance being provided in proportion as the annual conference pays the equivalent of the 1964 annuity rate with 30% of the difference between such rate and the $40.00 rate.

AND WHEREAS:

This assistance from the Pension Equalization Fund is scheduled to decrease annually by 5% of the difference described giving to the West Texas Conference the following schedule:

During	1967-'68	the fund would pay 70%	or $16.80,	and West Texas	$23.20
During	1968-'69	the fund would pay 65%	or $15.60,	and West Texas	$24.40
During	1969-'70	the fund would pay 60%	or $14.40,	and West Texas	$25.60
During	1970-'71	the fund would pay 55%	or $13.20,	and West Texas	$26.80
During	1971-'72	the fund would pay 50%	or $12.00,	and West Texas	$28.00

And will continue to decrease itself by 5% annually until its discontinuance at which time the annual conference should be paying the entire $40.00 rate from its resources.

REPORT NUMBER 7

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON EVANGELISMThe Dynamics of Evangelism

As the executive secretary of the West Texas Conference, I have in co-operation with the Board of Evangelism attempted to project not so much a program, but rather positive steps to challenge pastors and their congregations to the full realization of Evangelism.

Evangelism is sharing the redemptive concern of Jesus Christ as we have experienced His renewing power in our lives. By nature, Christians constitute a witnessing fellowship. Those who have known for themselves the saving grace of God must tell others what has happened - and is happening - to them; for they cannot restrain themselves.

I. A Personal Encounter

From the beginning, the followers of the Master have recognized Evangelism as a personal encounter with God available to all through Jesus Christ, and, acting upon this conviction, they have borne their witness to the divine love; not because they have formulated a precise philosophy of life, but because they have "been with Jesus" (Acts 4:13) and must share the experience with others who might come to know him also.

"We cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard," declared Peter and John to the amazed council at Jerusalem (Acts 4:20). "Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel," declared Paul to the growing congregation at Corinth (I Cor. 9:16). Indeed, so constant and so enthusiastic was the testimony which the first Christians bore to the redemptive power of their Lord that they "turned the world upside down" (Acts 17:6). No wonder the pagan peoples among whom they witnessed came to speak of them as "this new race of men". One has but to glance at the roster of the first century church to see how apt this designation was.

Matthew, totally changed by his friendship with Jesus, ceased collecting coins for the coffers of Rome to seek the commitment of souls to the kingdom of God (Matthew 9:9). Faltering, excitable, impetuous Peter (Matthew 16:22), transformed by his association with an understanding Savior, became such a steady and resolute champion of the Master's cause (Acts 5:17-32) that his boldness astonished the stern and self-sufficient authorities of his day (Acts 4:5-13). Saul the persecutor (Acts 8:1-3), overwhelmed by his dramatic experience on the Damascus Road (Acts 9:1-8), renounced his hatred of the Nazarenes to become Paul, the tireless and daring apostle who traveled the world to "speak a good word for Jesus" (Acts 9:26, 13:2).

We witness because, as Christians, we must. Our own experience of the lifting love of Christ impels us to communicate to others the good news of the Divine concern for all kinds and conditions of men.

We find ourselves moved to testify - by word, deed, and example - to the redeeming grace available to all who will receive it.

Christian Evangelism is thus, far more than a program for recruiting church members. It is the constant and creative outreach of persons who, experiencing their own revelation of God through Christ, seek to bring the uncommitted into a similar relationship with their God.

Paul would have described it as an unavoidable commitment to reconcile the world to God.

Precisely here is the distinguishing mark of Evangelism. Empowered by a conscious and vital experience, the true followers of Christ are concerned to present his claims in such a manner that those to whom they speak must make life-changing personal decisions. Whatever else it may involve, Evangelism is always an encounter for commitment.

II. A Basic Concern

History tells us that the early Christians were so noted for the intensity of their concern in a day marked by "Man's inhumanity to man", that the pagans among whom they lived exclaimed in amazement, "See how these Christians love one another." Such concern stems naturally from the origins of our faith. Christianity issues, not from an abstract philosophical ideal, but from a Person whose chief aim in life was to relate men to God and to one another in a redemptive fellowship transcending all human barriers.

Jesus cared for persons as persons, not simply because they were precious in the sight of God, but equally because of the fact that they needed each other.

This is attested in no uncertain terms by the manner in which He mingled freely and easily with outcasts and sinners, accepted the attentions of highly placed men like Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea, offered His healing ministry across racial and religious lines, and shattered the traditions of His day by treating men, women, children as equals.

The secret of Jesus' ministry at this point is the secret of effective Evangelism. We cannot evangelize, in the true sense of the term, until we understand and develop concern for the distinctiveness of personality.

Man is more than a thinking machine just as he is more than a comfort-craving creature. He is a complex of emotions and anxieties, of commitments and repudiations, of insights and prejudices. He is a bundle of memories and hopes. He is a combination of habits and impulses. In short, he is a "multiple self" whose salvation lies in finding a single, significant direction in life which he can follow without reservation or regret.

True Evangelism is thus not simply an announcement of God's good will toward men. It is the exercise of expanding insight into the factors which motivates persons and the experience which condition them.

III. A Servant Ministry

We come now to the heart of the matter. Evangelism is the full acceptance of the serving dimension marking Christ's ministry to the world.

The first disciples were called to serve, and so are we . . . "Whoever would be great among you must be your servant", said Jesus, "Even as the Son man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as ransom for many" (Matthew 20:26-28).

The people of God in all generations have been recognized as "servants of the Lord". One cannot think of the line of endless splendor typical of the Judeo-Christian tradition without applying this description to every individual in it. Thus, it is only as the church constitutes an obedient fellowship ready to serve the needs of men wherever those needs exist that it fulfills the purpose for which it was called into being.

There is a profound sense in which the followers of the Way have always been extensions of Christ's servant personality, and our Evangelism is lifeless unless it takes its form from his unique identification with a world at tension with itself.

Not withdrawal, but engagement is the hallmark of the Christian who is obedient to his calling. The whole ministry of Jesus cries out to us that God does not intend to save us from the world but in it.

It is not his purpose to redeem us from something to something. It is his intention to reform us to be something.

This is the reason that God calls upon Christians to take on their hearts the burden of the world's need in the mist of clashing interests, contradictory choices, and iron-ribbed traditions.

Redemption is not an escape hatch for frightened people. It is a way of life in keeping with a divine plan for personal and social fulfillment.

The evangelistic witness, therefore, must be as varied as the world is varied. There can be no stereotype in Evangelism, for the servant role must assume the many faces of human need. The outcast, the down trodden, the lonely. Henry Drummond was profoundly right when he told a college audience at the beginning of a preaching mission on the campus:

"We come not to save your souls but to save you, to persuade you to give your hearts and your lives to Christ, not because you may die tonight but because the chances are you are going to live tomorrow."

In the world we face here are always those who must live tomorrow.

Accordingly, the shape of our mission must involve the bench and the work-bench, the executive office and the suburban Rambler, the street and the sanctuary. To accept the call to Christ's servant ministry is thus to share the suffering of his sacrifice in order that God's encompassing love may be made plain to a people whose foundations are shaking.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr., officers, delegates, members, and friends of the West Texas Annual Conference:

The West Texas Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild realizes that we are at a crucial period in the history of Methodism, when old patterns of life must give way to new shapes for the future. Therefore, we are re-evaluating our program and working to create a climate that will prepare our women for total involvement as we move toward the "all inclusive church". Members are urged to seek knowledge through reading and by attending meetings (planned) and church services as steps toward recognition, and preparedness.

All conference officers and secretaries continued their leadership training by becoming a part of the second Regional School of Christian Mission, June of 1966. With renewed energy and determination these persons with representatives from the Woman's Division and overlapping conferences conducted our regular Conference School of Christian Mission on Huston-Tillotson College campus, July 25-29, 1966.

Following the Conference School of Christian Mission, the districts began their year's work with a leadership training "Fall Work-shop" involving the respective local society officers and members. Much improvement in program planning has been noticed as leaders set about to implement the training and information they had received. Members of local societies were made aware of their cooperation with the local church program and urged to serve in their respective areas.

To get a realistic perspective of current issues and to understand what it is we are trying to achieve, representatives from our conference attended the following meetings: The 27th Annual Meeting of the Woman's Division; the 27th Annual Meeting of the Board of Missions, Louisville, Kentucky. To witness the policy-making personnel of the Methodist Church in action was both educational and inspirational. We were also a part of small discussion groups sponsored by the Woman's and National Division of the Board of Missions. From these meetings we gained knowledge and understanding for guiding people in interpreting, coordinating, and implementing the program of the Methodist Church, especially that of the Woman's Division as a part of the total program.

In keeping with directives from the Woman's Division and the Board of Missions, the Society sponsored jointly with local churches the itinerary of a missionary, the Rev. Uriah B. Freeman, Liberia, in the West Texas Conference.

On the whole, emphasis on leadership development in all phases of our total program has made officers and members more aware of what each can do toward implementing latest trends in all lines of work.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The enhancement of the Lay programs along with the enrichment of Brotherhood found through fellowship was amazing. One could see the Laity with purpose. Laymen's Day observance had a large increase. More certified Lay Speakers were used including Conference Associate, and District Lay Leaders.

Dallas District received special mention again this year as "Doers of the Word" in offering labor for church repairs; specializing in Fellowship Breakfasts; and participation at meetings held by North Central Texas Conference.

Waco District held its Annual Men's Retreat at Lake Mexia, historically known as the "Comancha Indian Crossing". It is still a top spot for celebrations observed many years ago. Laymen are coming from across the country to be a part of the camp-out retreat. Fellowship and Methodist Men programs are conducted on the month basis.

Western District's local churches carry the work of Lay Activities on a decentridge basis, the return to active support of Lay Work by C. H. Johnson should aid the specialized program.

Austin-Victoria District expanded the use of their Certified Lay Speaker to other needs of the church. Presentation of program suggestions received at Region III Workshop were stressed at all district meetings. Local churches were able to get workshop information related to their several concerns.

San Antonio District projected change for an inclusive church through inter-district activities with Southwest Texas Conference: Minister & Laymen Workshop, and Laymen Banquet; Inter-church dialogue and family visitation along with Inter-District Conferences. Bishop Noah W. Moore, Jr. serving as Speaker and Laymen sharing in inter-church relations.

In the spirit of the above, your Conference Lay Leader extends thanks to the Conference Board of Lay Activities for their work which projected Quantity and Quality.

REPORT NUMBER 11

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

We, the members of the Board of Christian Social Concerns of the West Texas Conference submit the following report:

As a result of inter-district and inter-conference activities during the 1966-67 conference year, and the annual meeting held in Waco April 20, 1967 we report that the action has been helpful in implementing the plans for the All Inclusive Church and the proposed merger of the E U B Church with the Methodist Church.

The Board recommends that the open housing proposal be legalized and enforced.

Political Field

We affirm our confidence in the President of the United States and his ability to surround himself with men capable of giving sound advice in International Relations. We recognize the need for the United Nations.

We endorse the Board's stand on the acceptance of China into the United Nations.

The Economy

We strongly endorse the continued efforts to obtain equality in employment for all people. We favor state-wide minimum wage law adequate for present economic needs, recognizing the necessity for the exemption of young persons in part-time work, those physically unable to carry a normal work load due to handicap or age, and in these areas where work is geared necessarily to productivity.

Family Relations

We endorse the plan of family teaching and direction in our General Church and the cities where they have planned family life.

Alcohol and Related Wines

We would go on record as endorsing the statement of the Texas Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church in their statement on the selling of liquor by the drink.

We make the following recommendations:

(1) In keeping with paragraph 1813 of the 1964 Discipline of the Methodist Church, The Christian Social Concerns Board recommends that the Annual Conference create an executive committee to work with others in the field of inter-relationships.

(2) It recommended that the chairman of Social Christian Concerns attend the Seminar on Human Rights to be held in Washington, D.C., July 12 - 14, 1967, with expenses approved.

(3) We recommend that the following resource materials be used in panel discussions and related meetings on World Peace which may be ordered from the Service Department, 100 Maryland Avenue N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002:

- 1. Religion and Peace
- 2. Methodist Bishop's Resolution on Vietnam
- 3. An Appeal For Debate and Action
- 4. To Keep The Peace

(4) We recommend that the annual meeting of the Board of Christian Social Concerns meet in conjunction with the General Board in San Antonio February 19 - 23, 1968, and that a form of Greeting be sent to the General Board pledging our cooperation.

(5) We unequivocally endorse the letter of Bishop Moore in answer to the several conferences who wrote advising us against voting for the resolution.

(6) We finally recommend that each District Superintendent strongly urge every Pastor on his district to implement the program of the All Inclusive Church requesting quarterly progress reports.

The Inter-Jurisdictional Committee of the West Texas Conference recognizes the Resolutions from the 1966 General Conference regarding the merger of the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church, and, regarding the Report of the General Conference Commission on Inter-Jurisdictional Relations, adopted by the 1966 General Conference and requesting transfers of the several Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction to the Geographical Jurisdictions, are as perfect as possible.

The Committee also recognizes that the Methodist Church has spoken through the 1966 General Conference, therefore, this committee recommends that the Board of Christian Social Concerns of the West Texas Conference join the Committee in endorsing both resolutions and urge the West Texas Annual Conference to adopt them.

Respectfully submitted

J. S. C. Grattan, Chairman

REPORT NO. 12

PUBLISHING INTERESTS COMMITTEE REPORTS

For 178 years The Methodist Publishing House, created by the General Conference of 1789 as the publishing ministry of American Methodism, has continuously furnished the services of printing, publishing and distribution to The Methodist Church. That the church has used it is attested by its growth to the largest denominational publishing house in the world.

Noteworthy accomplishments of the past several years bear witness to the continued growth of Publishing House service — The Interpreter's Bible, The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, History of American Methodism, Young Readers Bible, Book of Worship, The Methodist Hymnal, and new curriculum materials for children. Each of these publishing achievements is making a significant contribution to the life and work of our church. Continued interest in and use of these publications is exemplified by the fact that 81,555 volumes of The Interpreter's Bible, published nearly fifteen years ago, were purchased by churches and individuals in 1966.

Cokesbury, distributor of materials produced by our Publishing House, reports a fine reception of the new Methodist Hymnal with orders received for more than 2,650,000 copies as of December 31, 1966. The two millionth copy of the Hymnal was shipped in February, 1967.

Total circulation of Together, our church's family magazine, now stands at 690,000. Every Methodist church should have a Together agent, appointed by the pastor or official board, to promote use of the magazine as an effective tool in the total work of the church. Together agents are now established in more than 15,000 Methodist Churches.

During the past year, a number of Together promotion campaigns were conducted on the episcopal area level. Results have been good. (Here may be reported results of promotional activity within your annual conference or Area, or plans for future efforts.)

The Together Area News Edition program, now in its sixteenth year, lists 32 supplements. The program is an important service of The Methodist Publishing House, designed to communicate news and information at the episcopal area, annual conference, districts, and local church levels of our church.

More than 11,000 church libraries are now registered with Cokesbury. Your committee encourages the establishment of a library in every church to promote reading and study among church members.

Other highlights of recent Publishing House activity, as reported in Focus On Service, 1966, the Publishing House's annual report to the church, include the following:

- Graded Press received an American Film Festival Blue Ribbon Award for "Dealing With Conflict," a prepared children's filmstrip.
- Total distribution of Abingdon Weekly Church Bulletins amounted to 84,245,100.

- More than 170,000 copies of the Young Reared's Bible have been purchased.
- Circulation of church school publications average 7,454,738 pieces per quarter in 1966.
- Abingdon published 105 new books during the year; thirteen were Book Club Guild selections.
- Net sales of products, used as a measure of service, reached $33,827,441.
- The Board of Publication appropriated $700,000 for the fourth consecutive year for the support of conference claimants. Of this amount, the West Texas Conference received $3,091.00; presented by Mr. Kenneth Tucker, representing the Publishing House, and Cokesbury Bookstore.

The filmstrip "The Methodist Publishing House, What It It? Where Is It?" continues to be a valuable tool for telling the Publishing House story. Copies have been distributed to conference chairmen and district secretaries of publishing interests and to numerous local church libraries. We encourage its use with church groups interested in knowing more about the general publishing work of Methodism.

REPORT NO. 13

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATION

There are several program boards and committees in the organizational framework of our conference concerned with the recruitment and enlistment of personnel for Church Related Vocations. For this reason, the Conference Commission is consulted with representatives from these several conference agencies. (Dis. No. 675.)

Historically - and this is still so, this concern has been encouched in the work done through our Conference Board of Education.

We hasten to emphasize the fundamental distinction between "Christian Vocations" and "Church Related Vocations". The sacredness of all work as central to the economy of God's creation . . .

Adults should be continuously challenged to re-evaluate their commitment to work in the light of God's call upon their personal lives. Each year at the Annual Meeting of the General Board of Missions - and the Commissionary Services of Deaconess - there are young couples leaving their professional careers for services under the banner of the Church.

Of course, there is the apparent need for providing opportunities for our young people to see greater dimension for their services in the life and work of our church.

Recommendations:

1. Each local church organize this committee to call attention to it on Ministry Sunday - or some other appropriate time.
2. A member of our Conference Commission to visit - personally or via mail - our students in our colleges and professional schools.
3. Conference Executive Secretary to conduct a week-end retreat at Huston-Tillotson College on "The Challenge and Opportunities in a Church Related Vocation".

Resolution No. 2Statement of Facts Concerning the Western District

Your Redistricting Committee is requesting you to give careful consideration to following facts, as you take final action upon your Redistricting Committee's recommendation.

The Western District was organized as the Extension District of the West Texas Conference. Its territory was the western part of the State of Texas, and the Negro work of the Methodist Church in the State of New Mexico.

We have not been able to organize any permanent Negro Methodist Congregations in the State of New Mexico in the past, and the West Texas Conference has no future plans for organizing Negro Methodist Congregations in the State of New Mexico. Therefore the Western District is only a small Missionary District composed of twelve charges some of which are small missions.

The Twelve Charges of the Western District can be adequately supervised by the Four District Superintendents of the four remaining Districts of the conference. There are only four charges on the Western Districts that will require the District Superintendent to be out of his office for two days in order to preach and hold business sessions of the quarterly conference. Amarillo to be placed on the Dallas District, El Paso to be placed on the San Antonio District, Midland and Odessa to be placed on the Waco District. The other eight charges located in the geographical section of the Western District can be reached by the District Superintendents in one day.

Therefore the Progress of the Kingdom of Christ will not be impeded in the Geographical Section of the Western District because of inadequate supervision.

Since the organization of the Western Extension District, the Annual Conference has subsidized the District Superintendents salary to a great extent. In the last three years the Annual Conference has paid approximately $11,500.00 on the salary and expense of the District Superintendents serving the Western District. This $11,500.00 is a larger amount than the charges on the Western Extension District paid into the Conference Budget for the same period. The approximate amount paid into the Conference Budget by the charges on the Western District for the above specified period is $10,00.00. Therefore the West Texas Conference is paying more on the salary, office and travel expense of the District Superintendents of the Western District than the entire District pays into the total Conference Benevolence and Administration Budget. If the Western District is continued during the Conference year of 1967-1968 the Annual Conference must contribute a minimum of $5,000.00 to the salary and expense of the District Superintendent of the Western District, or the percentage for the District Superintendents Fund must be increased to approximately 20% of the estimated salaries of the Pastors and Associate Pastors of the conference.

A Resolution To Redistrict the West Texas Annual Conference

WHEREAS, there are not enough charges to fully support and justify the services of a full time superintendent on the Western District;

WHEREAS, there is a shortage of qualified men to serve our churches and minister to the needs of our people;

WHEREAS, there is a great need for a better and more equitable distribution of the financial resources of the Conference;

WHEREAS, there is a strong desire to fully support all of the district superintendents of the Conference and add strength to their offices;

BE IT RESOLVED, that the West Texas Conference, now in session, approve the setting up of four (4) districts within its boundaries by dissolving the Western District and including all of its charges in the remaining districts, namely, Austin-Victoria, Dallas, San Antonio, and Waco. The number and location of charges for each district will be determined by the Bishop in consultation with the District Superintendents.

The Conference adopted the resolution.

Resolution No. 3Resolution for the transfer and ultimate merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction, of the Methodist Church, with the Virginia Annual Conference, the North Carolina Annual Conference, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church.

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the membership of the Annual Conferences referred to herein to eliminate all forms of discrimination based upon race in the Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the General Conference of the Methodist Church has urged that action be taken to bring about transfers and mergers of Annual Conferences from the Central Jurisdiction into the regional jurisdictions of the Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference has urged that invitations be extended to the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction lying within the boundaries of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to transfer into the Southeastern Jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, we believe that the time has come when the churches and membership of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference can be transferred into and ultimately merged with the other Annual Conferences referred to herein; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of all of the Conferences involved to adopt similar resolutions with reference to the transfer and merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, by the adoption of this resolution in accordance with the provisions of Amendment IX of the Constitution of the Methodist Church, shall be deemed to have voted to transfer from the Central Jurisdiction to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

2. The other Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, by adoption of this resolution, in accordance with the provisions of the said Amendment IX, shall be deemed to have voted to approve the transfer of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference from the Central Jurisdiction to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

3. The North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, by the adoption of this resolution agree that the Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, after it shall have been transferred to the Southeastern Jurisdiction, shall no longer continue to exist as a racially segregated Conference; and the said Conferences further agree to proceed with the merger of the North Carolina-Virginia, the North Carolina, the Virginia, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences pursuant to the aforementioned Amendment IX.

4. By the adoption of this resolution the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference shall be deemed to have agreed to accept onto their respective memberships, with all the rights, privileges, status and obligations as may be enjoyed by other members of the said conferences, the following persons:

(a) All ministerial members of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference (whether on trial or in full connection) appointed to charges located geographically with their respective boundaries.

(b) All ministerial members of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference (whether on trial or in full connection) under special appoint-

5. The ministerial and lay persons now serving on boards and agencies of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall serve during the current quadrennium on like or similar boards and agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Virginia Annual Conference, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, respectively. And said conferences further agree that it is their intent and purpose that henceforth all of the boards and agencies of said conferences shall be racially inclusive.

6. The North Carolina, the Virginia, and the Western North Carolina Annual Conferences, by the adoption of this resolution, shall be deemed to have agreed that within their respective boundaries, opportunities for spiritual and intellectual growth and Christian service shall be made available to all without regard to race or color. It is agreed that such equal opportunities shall be provided particularly in such aspects of conference programs as activities of the W. S. C. S., W. S. G., Youth Work, Leadership Training Enterprises, and Boards of Lay Activities.

7. It is hereby agreed that wherever necessary, existing congregations of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall be continued until such time as a more favorable climate has been created for the consideration of possible merger of congregations in close proximity.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a vote on this resolution for the transfer and merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction and the votes of any and all conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, shall revoke and render void any and all other votes taken heretofore, relating to the plans of merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference. This resolution shall remain in full force and effect until revoked by appropriate action on the part of one or more of the Annual Conferences referred to herein.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the secretary of this annual conference shall forward certified copies of this resolution together with a record of the voting thereon, to (A) The College of Bishops of the Central Jurisdiction, (B) to the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, (C) the secretaries of the other Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and (D) the Secretaries of the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Resolution No. 4

For the Elimination of Racial Structure and the Development of Greater Understanding and Brotherhood in
The Methodist Church
As amended and adopted by the General Conference of The Methodist Church in its special session November 10, 1966
Chicago, Illinois.

Presented to the West Texas Annual Conference of the Methodist Church for consideration and vote in its 1967 Annual Session.

1. By the adoption of this Resolution each Annual Conference, each Jurisdictional Conference, the General Conference, each College of Bishops and the Council of Bishops pledge their best efforts to eliminate as soon as possible all forms of racial structure from the organization of The Methodist Church, and further pledge to do everything possible to develop greater understanding and brotherhood in all aspects of church life and work.

2. Each Annual Conference and Jurisdictional Conference which has been part of a merger of churches or Conferences formerly separated by racial distinctions, pledges its best efforts to work out all remaining adjustments, to use the ability of both clergy and laymen wherever they can be most effective in the work of the Church, and to serve all people without regard to race.

Where such mergers have not yet been realized, each such Conference expresses its earnest determination to work toward such merger at the earliest possible date and hereby pledges to establish a Committee on Inter-Conference Relations composed of an equal number of ministers, laymen and youth to implement the recommendations and resolutions of this report and recommendation of the Plan of Action for the elimination of the Central Jurisdiction adopted by the 1964 General Conference and that each board and agency of the Church be alert for opportunities to assist each Committee in every possible way.

3. Whenever such mergers hereafter take place, the continuing Annual Conference will:

a. Accept into its membership, with all the same rights, privileges, status and obligations, all ministerial members (whether on trial or in full connection) appointed to charges located geographically within the continuing Conference, and all ministerial members under special appointment or retired ministerial members who hold Quarterly Conference membership in a local church located geographically within the boundaries of the continuing Conference.

b. Insofar as possible, the ministerial and lay persons now serving on boards and agencies of both of the merging Conferences shall serve during the current quadrennium on like or similar boards and agencies of the continuing Conference, and thereafter membership in all such Conference boards and agencies shall be open to all persons on the basis of their qualifications without regard to race. In the event any Disciplinary provision limiting the number of members of a board or agency should prevent the continuation of all members during the current quadrennium, the Cabinet shall determine which members shall continue, in the spirit of this Resolution, being careful to provide for a continuing representation of both of the former Conferences.

c. Within the boundaries of such continuing Conference opportunities for spiritual and intellectual growth in Christian service shall be made available to all without regard to race or color. Such equal opportunities shall be provided particularly in such aspects of Conference programs as activities of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Wesleyan Service Guild, youth work, leadership training enterprises and the Board of Lay Activities.

4. Upon the adoption of this Resolution by the requisite vote in the North Carolina-Virginia Conference, each of the Western North Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia Conferences, all of the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction and all of the Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference will be dissolved. Each church formerly part of the North Carolina Virginia Conference shall thereupon be merged with and become part of the other of said Annual Conferences within the geographic bounds of which is located.

5. Upon the adoption of this Resolution by the requisite vote in the Tennessee-Kentucky Conference, in each of the Holston, Tennessee, Memphis, Kentucky and Louisville Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, in all of the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction and in all of the Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, the Tennessee-Kentucky Annual Conference will be dissolved. Each church formerly part of the Tennessee-Kentucky Conference shall thereupon be merged with and become part of the other said Annual Conferences within the geographic bounds of which it is located.

6. Upon the adoption of this Resolution by $\frac{2}{3}$ rds vote of those present and voting in each of the Louisiana, Southwest, Texas and West Texas Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, in all of the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction, and in all the Annual Conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction, the bishop formerly serving the Southwestern Area of the Central Jurisdiction shall be transferred to the South Central Jurisdiction for residential and presidential service, and the Louisiana, Southwest, Texas and West Texas Conferences formerly part of the Central Jurisdiction will be Conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction.

7. Upon the adoption of this Resolution by a $\frac{2}{3}$ rds vote of those present and voting in each of the Central Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Upper Mississippi and South Carolina Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction and in all of the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction and all the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, the bishops who the serving the Atlantic Coast and Nashville-Carolina Areas of the Central Jurisdiction shall be transferred to the Southeastern Jurisdiction for residential and presidential service, and the Central Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Upper Mississippi and South Carolina Conferences formerly part of the Central Jurisdiction will be Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. The transfer and merger of Conferences under paragraphs 4 and 5, and the transfer of Conferences under paragraphs 6 and 7 will be effective upon the close of a special session of the Central Jurisdictional Conference of 1967, and the Central Jurisdiction will thereupon be dissolved.

8. By the adoption of this Resolution by the Southeastern and South Central Jurisdictional Conferences and by the Colleges of Bishops of Southeastern and South Central, it is determined that beginning in 1968 the episcopal residences and Areas will be so arranged that no Area will be composed solely of Annual Conferences formerly part of the Central Jurisdiction.

9. By the adoption of this Resolution the Council of Bishops evidences its readiness to transfer bishops across Jurisdictional lines in order to effectuate the purpose of this Resolution, and the bishops individually affirm their readiness to serve wherever they can be of greatest use.

10. By the adoption of this Resolution each Annual Conference, each Jurisdictional Conference, the General Conference, each College of Bishops and the Council of Bishops express their determination to do everything possible to bring about the elimination of any structural organization in The Methodist Church based on race at the earliest possible date and not later than the close of the Jurisdictional Conferences of 1972. They further express their earnest determination to do everything possible to develop greater understanding and brotherhood in Methodism as well as in the world.

CONFERENCE HISTORY

The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in annual Conference relations in New Orleans, La., December 25, 1865, by Bishop Edward Thompson. The Conference then organized included Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas, and was named the "Mississippi Mission Conference." Three annual sessions of this Conference was held and in January, 1867, the Texas Conference was organized out of the Mississippi Mission Conference, which included the entire State of Texas. There were eight annual sessions of the Texas Conference held, and it was during the eighth session of the Conference, held at Marshall, Texas, January 7, 1874, that the "West Texas Conference" was organized, with Bishop Thomas Bowman, President.

The ministers comprising the West Texas Conference were called to meet in Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church in Austin, Texas, January 22, 1874. Those present at the organization were: G. W. Honey, Jacob Miller, Mack Henson, Daniel Gregory, Samuel Allen, W. O. Sheety, Larkin Carper, Archie Johnson, J. T. Hill, T. T. Leach, T. G. Lacy, Alex Campbell, London Morris, Isaac Wright, Cyrus Hackett, Daniel Harper, and Charles Scruggs. All have finished their labors.

This Conference to date has five districts, 103 Pastoral Appointments, and a school that is a credit to the denomination, viz., Huston-Tillotson College, located at Austin, Texas.

Fold up the tent!
